The following Yearly Reports were presented at the Parish Meeting on Easter Monday.

Annual Report of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of the Epiphany.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of the Epiphany has held its business meetings each month during the past year (except June, July, August and September) with an average attendance of ten, and has met each Tuesday during the Winter to sew for various objects.

At the annual meeting held April 28th, 1908, the following officers were elected : President, Miss Bell ; Vice President, Mrs. Ambruster ; Treasurer, Mrs. Walter G. Sibley ; Secretary, Mrs. James M. Castle.

The Auxiliary has about eighteen contributing members.

On April 25th a sale was held, the proceeds of which were used for purchasing Choir Hymnals, Prayer Books and Hymnals for the Church, the Cotta Fund and the Choir boys' Summer outing.

A special meeting was held on June 2d, to appropriate a sum of money from the treasury to be used by the Vestry for the payment of a coal bill,

A Rummage Sale was held on the 19th, 20th and 21st of October, the proceeds of which were put toward the Mortgage Fund.

The five representatives to the Woman's Auxiliary Missionary Society were apportioned $5.00 each to be pledged at their discretion during the Winter at their meetings at the Church House.

A sum of money with the names of the donors was sent in to the Memorial Fund for the Scholarship at the Deaconess House in memory of the wife of Bishop Whittaker.

On the evening of February 19th an entertainment—A Reading from Cranford, with tableaux—was held for the benefit of the Mortgage Fund.

A box has been packed and sent to the Rev. Henry Gibbs, Tomahawk, Wis. The box, valued at $125., contained clothing for Mr. Gibbs and wife, bedding, etc., also a clergyman's suit, for which money had been collected from the men of the Parish.

It is with deep regret that we refer to the death of one of our most interested members—Mrs. Alfred Lee—to whose family we extend our most sincere sympathy.

It has been decided to hold another Rummage Sale during the last week of April. With the proceeds of this sale we hope to bring the present Mortgage Fund of $387.41 up to $500.00, when it will be handed over to the Vestry. If more money than enough for the above purpose is made, it will be kept in the General Fund of the Auxiliary, so that there may be something with which to start the Winter's work.

April 12th, 1909.

MARGARET M. CASTLE, Sec'y.

Annual Report of the Altar Guild.

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Epiphany, Germantown, reports for the year ending April 13th, 1909, that the usual meetings have been held, quarterly, in April, June, October and January, with an average attendance of six members. At the annual meeting, April 21st, 1908, the officers were re-elected, except the Secretary; Mrs. R. J. Morris, Directress; Mrs. James M. Castle, Treasurer; Miss Sartori was elected Secretary to succeed Mrs. Ambruster, who resigned the office. At the same meeting it was decided that a system of bills should be adopted in regard to delinquent dues, it being thought that a bill would prove more effective than a mere notification to the members of their indebtedness.

The robbery at the Church in September was a great loss, for all the articles taken were in charge of the Altar Guild. List of articles taken: Pair of brass vases, covers and towels, glass pitcher and knife, fair linen, silver, glass cruets, and lace Frontal. Among these the most missed will be the beautiful lace Frontal, which will be very difficult to replace. Nevertheless, the Guild has bought a smaller one which will be used Easter Sunday for the first time. Most of the other articles stolen have been replaced, some by the Altar Guild, others, gifts from kind friends. Further gifts have been, a Corporal and a Pulpit Lamp costing $50. and purchased with the Guild's money. Flowers have also been donated by a few members of the congregation, on certain Sundays, in memory of relatives and friends.

The members of the Altar Committee wish to express their deepest sympathy with the family of Mrs. Lee in their great sorrow. We all feel as if we had lost one of our most faithful and interested workers, whose place will not be easily filled.

There have been three resignations since last Easter and six new names have been added to the list of members, which now numbers twenty.

The Treasurer's Report shows :

Balance, Aril 20th, 1908		$ 38 90
Receipts during the year :
Dues, Fines, etc.	$39 95
Flower Fund	50 11	90 06
		$128 96

Expenditures :

General Fund,	$ 63 45
Flower Fund,	58 25	121 70

Balance, April 1st, 1909, $ 7 26

Money taken from General Fund for flowers, $ 8 14

Let us hope that the coming year will be even more successful, with no robberies, and an added interest in the work.

MATILDA J. SARTORI, Secretary.

Easter, 1909

Report of Junior Branch of Woman's Auxiliary.

The first meeting of the Junior Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held on January 8th, 1909, at 4 o'clock, in the Guild Room of the Church of the Epiphany. There were twelve members present and votes were cast for President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. The elections were as follows : President, Dorothea Wilde ; Vice President, Elizabeth Morris ; Secretary, Mildred Morris ; Treasurer, Myra Thwing. Meetings are held every Friday afternoon at four o'clock. The President opens the meetings, leading in prayers. After roll-call by the Secretary, the older girls, under Miss Murdock, sew warm clothing for the needy in Alaska, while the smaller girls make scrap-books and mount Perry pictures on card-board to be hung up in the Mission Rooms.

The meetings are well attended, the average being about fifteen. The offerings taken at each meeting, now over $2.00, will be sent to Alaska toward a scholarship.

S. ELIZABETH DILKES, Directress.

April 9th, 1909.

Report of the Sunday School.

There have been 8 classes in the Main School during the year, the enrolled membership being 82 scholars, with an average attendance of 46. The Beginner's Class has 36 names on roll, and averages 25 on each Sunday. The Cradle Roll shows 27 members. The greatest problem at present is an adequate building for our accommodation. It would be hard to crowd in another class in the Guild Room and the Beginners should not be compelled to meet in the Church ; besides which, there is literally no place for Bible Classes, so that the children leave just when they are ready to become active workers. On December 1st, 1908, the Cross and Crown System of Pins for reward was introduced in the Main School, and 12 scholars had a perfect record on Easter Day. The Lenten offering will probably reach $100, which is the largest the School has ever given.

Other Services as announced.

HOLY BAPTISM will be administered the 2d Sundays at 4 p. m.
 The Rector should be consulted beforehand in all arrangements for marriages and burials. He will be glad at all times to respond to parochial calls.

The seats in this Church are all free. Strangers are welcome, and should notify the Rector of their names and addresses.
 The Services are supported by voluntary contributions through the weekly envelopes; setts may be obtained from the Rector, who alone knows the individual amounts pledged.

The Canon provides that all communicants removing from one parish to another shall obtain Letters of Transfer.

Setts of envelopes for special offerings during the year are issued in the Fall.

The following pages of reports are printed and distributed with a twofold object in view: First, that the information contained therein may be spread to those who do not realize how much work we are doing for the welfare of the Christian Church in a quiet way; and secondly, that many who thus shall realize the opportunities offered will themselves become active, so that thus parish and community and individuals may be helped to still greater things.

A review of the work in the past year shows a continuation of the steady growth which has marked the history of the parish ever since its foundation. Perhaps there is no parish in the diocese where the possibilities are so great; at least this is the general opinion throughout the diocese, and it would seem to be borne out by conditions. Some others may be increasing more rapidly, but, situated as we are in a purely residential section, our stable future should be better assured than theirs. The immediate result depends, however, on the faithful work of all who live in the neighborhood. Few realize how great an encouragement is found in regular attendance at the services. If a stranger comes to the church and sees only a handful of worshippers present, he is not likely to come again, or, at least, to take the interest in the Church which he would otherwise feel. Even during the past year the rector has been asked more than once if Epiphany is a parish or a mission. And with over 600 Church families in the vicinity the Church should be filled. Nearly every one finds the building attractive and the rendition of the services helpful. Why, then, not use them? Some seventy-five new families have moved here during the year. Can we not ally these people with us by your invitation and interest?

And, then, with regard to financial support, it is only too true that we do not value what we do not pay for.
 This fact, in connection with the free pew system, renders it imperative that all should use the envelopes. Some there are who contribute conscientiously whether or no, but for most of us, we need the habit of regular giving which the envelope encourages, and which helps also to regular attendance and live interest. The offerings are increasing each year, but the whole current expense should be pledged. It is not the support of the parish which is at stake, however, but the effect on yourselves—whether your religion is to become the first thing in life and a necessity, as it should be, or only an incidental thing to be used when and as fancy moves you. For, let us remember that, while almsgiving is commanded in order that the Church may live, its real purpose from the standpoint of the individual is rather that Christians may thereby strengthen their self-sacrifice; that spirit of the Master Himself, without which faith and grace are powerless. Ask yourselves if both these matters are not vital, and how far you are fulfilling them.

Foreword

To the Members of

The Church of the Epiphany:

Through the courtesy of the advertisers, we are able to publish this our first Annual Year Book covering the work accomplished in the parish during the year 1924. In view of the fact that the parish had been without a rector during the greater part of that year and that I am not really cognizant of the entire work that has been accomplished, this Year Book will not be a full record of all the work possible or actually done. The vestry and the clergymen who have been in charge during the interrim between rectors deserve great credit for the continuance of the parish life under trying conditions. I am sure that the present year with your cooperation and interest will show a marked increase both materially and spiritually over the past year. This is of course no reflexion over the past, but rather our natural expectations for the parish under normal conditions.

The advantages of a Year Book are apparent to all. We should both know and be interested in the work the parish is doing. It is a report to you from the heads of the several departments, so far as I have been able to obtain them. Will you give them your careful attention and perusal.

As the material in this Year Book and especially the list of interested members, may be referred to during the year, I would suggest that you preserve this copy where you may at all times find it for ready reference.

Trusting and praying that God will bless us in our work even more abundantly during the current year, I remain

Faithfully yours,

J. Wesley Twelves, rector

VALUATION AND MORTGAGES ON PROPERTY

It is estimated that the total valuation of the entire Church property, which includes the Church Building, Parish House, the Rector's Residence on Sedgwick St, is approximately $115,000.00.

In this property we have equity of about $88,000.00 the balance being held by mortgage. The mortgages are held as follows:

The Parish House, original mortgage was $25,000. This has been reduced to $22,000 and is held by the Pelham Trust Co. Payments on the principal can be made at any interest period, which fall on the first of July and the first of January. There is a small fund accumulating which is intended to pay off part of the principal. During the past year we received $177.68 for the building fund through the church envelopes. This now brings the amount in hand up to $334.23. When a sufficient amount is in hand a payment will be made.

Mortgages held totaling $5000.00 as follows:

First mortgage of $3000.00 held by the Girard Trust Co. interest payable December and June. Second mortgage $2000.00 held by the West End Building and Loan Association. Monthly payments including interest are made and at present we have paid on this mortgage over $600.00.

In addition to the above there is a note for $1400, held by the Pelham Trust Co., representing money borrowed during the past year to carry the Current Expenses of the parish.

The Congregation

The list given below, includes so far as we have been able to ascertain all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have never been transferred here.

We also realize that this list is not perfectly correct. It is for that very reason that we publish the same. We are quite sure that there are many names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly as possible correct

A Foreword by the Rector

To the Members of The Church of the Epiphany;

Last year for the first time, we published a Year Book, similar to this present one. It was a wise plan and proved to be very helpful all through the course of the year. We therefore take great pleasure in sending out this second number. It is made possible through the courtesy of the advertisers, whom we ask you to patronize whenever possible.

This is the first complete year that I have been with you as rector, and this occasion provides an opportunity of "stock-taking", as our business friends might say. Already I have made a detailed report as published in "The Star", of the work accomplished during the course of the year. The Year Book contains the reports of committees and organizations and will bear your careful reading. Everyone in this parish and all those interested in its welfare should know of the work that we have been doing. It is a report to you of the receipts of money and of the work that has been accomplished by the same. The work of labor and love that has been done during the course of the year is a harder report to record on paper, but it will be none the less apparent as you read between the lines of material things.

May I suggest that you carefully preserve this Year Book. From experience we have learned its usefulness as a ready-reference, for names, addresses, committees, comparisons, statistics, etc.

Trusting that the fruit of our labors may spring forth even more abundantly during this current year, I am,

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector

VALUATION AND MORTGAGES ON PROPERTY

It is estimated that the total valuation of the entire Church property, which includes the Church Building, Parish House, the Rector's Residence on Sedgwick St., is approximately $115,000.00.

In this property we have equity of about $88,000.00 the balance being held by mortgage. The mortgages are held as follows:

The Parish House, original mortgage was $25,000. This has been reduced to $21,500 and is held by the Pelham Trust Co. Payments on the principal can be made at any interest period, which fall on the first of July and the first of January. There is a small fund accumulating which is intended to pay off part of the principal. During the past year we paid off $500.00 on the building fund through the church envelopes.

The Rectory, 635 W. Sedgwick St.; Original cost $6500.00 Mortgages held totaling $5000.00 as follows:

First mortgage of $3000.00 held by the Girard Trust Co., interest payable December and June. Second mortgage $2000.00 held by the West End Building and Loan Association. Monthly payments including interest are made and at present we have paid on this mortgage over $750.00.

The Woman's Guild

The Woman's Guild now has charge of all the work of the women in the Parish except the Altar work which is carried on by the Altar Guild.

Under the Parochial Department of the Guild, a number of suppers, luncheons and sales have been held during the course of the year, the proceeds of which have gone largely to the Church.

The Woman's Auxiliary has taken charge of the Missionary side of the work, sending delegates to the different Diocesan meetings and contributing to special requests. Under this department the work of the Church Periodical and the allotment of Missionary sewing is taken care of.

35 Magazines are being sent regularly to individuals.

90 Books have been sent to institutions.

1 Barrel of Magazines sent to Hospitals.

The value of the sewing done by the women during the year was estimated at $120 which went toward quota of parish.

The Thank-Offering for 1925 was $226.40 and for the last three years totals $797.69.

The Congregation

The list given below, includes so far as we have been able to ascertain all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have never been transferred here.

We also realize that this list is not perfectly correct. It is for that very reason that we publish the same. We are quite sure that there are many names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

A Foreword by the Rector

To the Members of the Church of the Epiphany:—

Through the courtesy of the advertisers, we are enabled again to present you with this Annual Year Book, containing reports, committees, organizations, names and addresses, all of which we are sure you will not only find interesting, but also of use for future reference. May we take the liberty of suggesting that you carefully preserve it for a ready reference compendium of the parish.

Our purpose in issuing the Year Book at this time, rather than at the beginning of the year, when the reports would be more current, is to focus your attention on the Anniversary of the Incorporation of the Parish, which comes in the last week in April. You will recall the observance of the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary last year, and we have decided to mark this event each year by having a special service on the last Sunday in April at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. This book then is more in the form of an Anniversary Memento.

We fully realize that the rendering of statistical and financial reports may not signify any particular spiritual endeavor or result. Yet, just as God has always worked through human agency to further His will and plan, so also in the rendering of material things, may we accomplish divine results. Money is only of value for what it will accomplish, and certainly a proportion of it should be devoted to holy purposes. We are sure that reading between the lines of financial reports, you will perceive the record of labor and love for our Divine Master.

That the seed so abundantly sown in this part of God's Kingdom in the years past may ever continue to spring forth and multiply through our efforts is the wish of

Your Rector,

J. Wesley Twelves.

THE LIST OF RECTORS

The Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady, Archdeacon 1898.

The Rev. James Alan Montgomery, D. D., June 18, 1899 to October 1, 1903.

The Rev. Richard J. Morris, February 1, 1904 to September 1, 1915.

The Rev. Irving A. McGrew, November 14, 1915 to March 1, 1924.

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, January 1, 1925—

An Interesting Rubric

There is an interesting Rubric in the Visitation of the Sick in the Prayer Book, which says, "But men should often be put in remembrance to take order for the settling of their temporal estates whilst they are in health." Or to put the same idea in more familiar language, as expressed in another part of the same rubric, "to make their wills." We sincerely wish all the members of our Church would follow that advice as given in our Book of Common Prayer and especially that they will consider their church, as one of their bequests. We have numerous needs; at present our large mortgage which we are trying to reduce, rebuilding or replacing our present organ, beautification of the church in the form of memorial windows, and of course our unexpressed though future hope of creating an Endowment Fund.

A Prayer for the Welfare of the Parish

Almighty and Everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in heaven and earth; Mercifully hear our prayers, and grant to our parish all things that are needful for its spiritual and material welfare; strengthen and confirm the faithful, visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked, arouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent; remove all hindrances to the advancement of Thy truth; make all to be of one mind and heart within Thy holy Church; and put it into the hearts of Thy people to offer generously of their gifts for the building up, and the support of Thy work in this place to the honor and glory of Thy great Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Thanksgiving for the Founding of the Parish

Almighty God, who fashionest the hearts of men and understandest all their works, we give thee humble thanks that thou hast moved the hearts of thy servants, who started this parish and built this House of Prayer. Blessed be thy name that it hath pleased thee to put it into their hearts. We praise thee for all thy servants, both then and now, who by example and encouragement, have helped us on our way. Bless all those who have contributed of their substance, and who have labored in the building and adornment of this place of worship. And grant that all who enjoy the benefits of their pious work, may show forth their thankfulness by making a right use of it, to the glory of thy Name and the honor of thy Church, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Report of the Woman's Guild

Under the head of the Woman's Guild work for the parish as well as for outside purposes is carried on.

The Parochial Department of the Guild has held several suppers, conducted a Rummage Sale as well as the Christmas Sale. The proceeds from these events has largely gone to the effort to raise funds for the mortgage, though they have also assisted in other parts of the Church's work.

Through the Woman's Auxiliary Department the allotment of sewing has been done, the United Thank-offering collected and delegates have attended the Diocesan Meetings and contributed through the same.

Report of the Altar Guild

There are about fifteen members of this organization, two women each month take care of the chancel, and the altar. The organization provides the linens and sees that they are laundered as well as providing flowers for the altar when memorial flowers are not given. There are at present ten open Sundays, when memorial flowers might be given. Mrs. H. C. Lawser, of 612 Carpenter Lane, is in charge of the Flower Calendar.

A yearly appeal is made in the early spring to the congregation to assist this organization in the work it is carrying on.

REPORT OF THE FABRIC COMMITTEE

The committee appointed at the last parish meeting to draw a suggestive and comprehensive scheme for the beautification of the interior and exterior of the church would like to make the following tentative report.

Some of our plans look forward to an immediate accomplishment, and seem to take the form of a necessity, a portion of our suggestions we feel ought to be part of our working program and might be accomplished by different groups in the parish, and the rest of our plans are simply suggestive and we hope will act as standard toward which we hope memorials and gifts will conform.

1. The condition of the woodwork and furnishings in the church is such, that something must be done in the very near future. The pews are extremely dirtied and no amount of washing seems to have any effect. The floors of the church after constant oiling have become so greasy, that they seem to be always dirty, often soiling the clothes of worshippers. This is also true of other parts of the woodwork, while much of the furniture is stained or marred.

After consulting with painters and church decorators, we have decided that our best plan is to slightly darken all the wood-work in the church to conform to what is generally considered a more ecclesiastic tone. This will relieve what we might term the "flat" or "sameness" appearance of the church, and help to cut down the reflection caused by the glare from the windows. The cost of this work we have ascertained will be somewhere in the neighborhood of $1500. It is our wish and expectation that this work might be done in the near future.

2. We suggest that Reredos in the back of the Altar be raised to meet the sill of the Altar Window, thus lengthening the panels and adding to their beauty. And also that wainscoting or panelling be carried across the back wall of the sanctuary. This would to a very large degree relieve the bareness of the chancel. The cost of this work would be approximately $500.00 and we might add that we have a fund which we could use for this purpose.

3. In making these improvements in the church, it will be necessary to renew the carpet in the center aisle, and we believe that one of our groups will be happy to take this work in hand.

4. It has been suggested that the small windows in the chancel be darkened by the addition of stained glass windows of rich colors. The approximate cost of these would be $200 each depending on the detail.

5. We are having landscape gardeners draw up a plan for the planting of trees and shrubbery, and hope that from time to time individuals will donate or give trees, etc. to beautify the exterior of the plant.

6. We have ascertained the approximate cost of stained glass windows for the body of the church, and find that they will cost around $1000 each depending of course on the detail in the window, some might be considerably less, some more. Anyone who is interested in this phase of the work should consult with the committee.

You will be interested to know that a legacy of $1000 has been left the church by Mary E. Sunderland through the instrumentality and friendship of one of our vestry and will come to the church at the death of her elderly sister.

The committee is still continuing with its study and submits the above in a tentative form, looking forward to your further suggestions.

Faithfully submitted

The Family List of the Congregation

The list given below, includes so far as we have been able to ascertain all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. That is one of the reasons we publish the same. We are quite sure that there are many names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

A Foreword by the Rector

To the Members of the Church of the Epiphany:—

Through the courtesy of the advertisers, we are enabled again to present you with this Annual Year Book, containing reports, committees, organizations, names and addresses, all of which we are sure you will not only find interesting, but also of use for future reference. May we take the liberty of suggesting that you carefully preserve it for a ready reference compendium of the parish.

We fully realize that the rendering of statistical and financial reports may not signify any particular spiritual endeavor or result. Yet, just as God has always worked through human agency to further His will and plan, so also in the rendering of material things, may we accomplish divine results. Money is only of value for what it will accomplish, and certainly a proportion of it should be devoted to holy purposes. We are sure that reading between the lines of financial reports, you will perceive the record of labor and love for our Divine Master.

That the seed so abundantly sown in this part of God's Kingdom in the years past may ever continue to spring forth and multiply through our efforts is the wish of

Your Rector,

J. Wesley Twelves.

THE REBMANN WINDOW

Dedicated October 7, 1928.

The Rebmann Window

The window is given by Mr. and Mrs. William Rebmann in memory of their parents. It is opposite the other window, on the west side of the Church.

The first lancet is entitled the Sermon on the Mount and shows our Lord seated upon a hillock on the mountain side, while around Him the people are gathered. There is a young mother with her baby, the thinker, leaning up his staff, below Christ and reaching to touch His robe is the sick man comforted, a boy in eager expectancy looks up, while the young woman kneels at His feet in the enthusiasm of youth. The shield in the lancet head above is the cross, emblem of agony and death awaiting him, to which He points as the only way by which our repentance and confession of sins can avail for our salvation.

The text below this reads; "Let your light so shine before men." The inscription:

In Loving Memory of

John Rebmann and Catherine

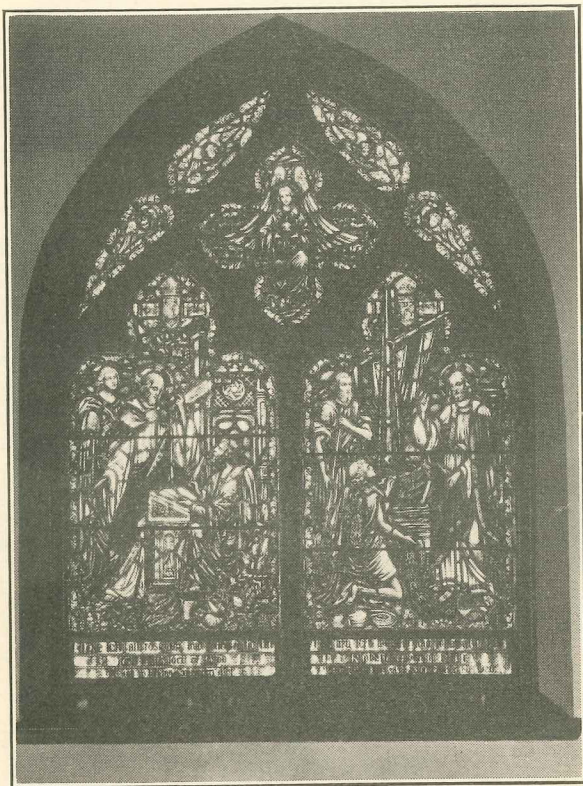

Rebmann

The other panel in this window, the Great Commission, shows Christ sending the disciples out to publish the Gospel, preached by Himself in the Sermon on the Mount. The older disciples kneel before Him. The youthful John and James stand with staff in hand, eager to carry His message to the distant villages in the back ground, while Christ stands in their midst, one hand outstretched in blessing, the other raised toward heaven. The shield in the Gothic top, I H S—Jesus Saviour of the World—is etched in pearls on sapphire blue. The text below this lancet reads: "He sent them Forth" and is

THE SHOEMAKER WINDOW

Dedicated October 7, 1928

The Shoemaker Window

This window is given by Mrs. Robert Shoemaker, Jr., in memory of her husband. It is the third window from the choir room door on the east side of the Church.

The first lancet is the Call of Matthew, showing our Lord speaking to Matthew, who is sitting at the receipt of customs. "Follow Thou Me" is the call, and Matthew is shown eagerly listening to the words of Christ. He is surrounded by the emblems of the Jewish religion and his office. The desk at which he writes is carved with a figure of David, playing his harp, while above in the double triangle is the symbol of Triune God and of Eternity. At his feet are baskets containing the scrolls with the accounts and the scales to weigh the shekels, while over the door in Hebrew characters is the sign of the tax collector. Behind Christ is St. John, keenly interested. In the Gothic top is the Roman coin bearing Caesar's head, recalling the latter words: "Render unto Caesar, the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's." The text on this lancet is "He left all and followed Him."

The second lancet in this window, "The Call of the Fishermen," shows Christ standing at the water's edge talking to the men at their work. John looks up eagerly from the nets he is mending, while Peter, leaning on his oar, listens intently. In the background is their boat and the Sea of Galilee. The seal above shows an anchor entwined with a dolphin, "Which we have as an anchor of the soul," the emblem of love and friendship. The text is: "They left their ship and followed Him." The label under the whole window is:

January 7, 1929.

I make this report of the fourth year, as rector of the Church of the Epiphany, recounting for purposes of information, the record of work accomplished during the past year and looking forward with aspirations to the year ahead.

So far as the actual growth and strength of the parish in a spiritual way are concerned, there have been no decided increases or particular enthusiasms. There have been the usual removals of parishioners and the addition of new-comers. The parish has an annual turnover of over fifty families, which means that we must ever be on the alert to maintain the parish life, church attendance and financial support. Of the 250 families on the parish list when I came four years ago, about two thirds of them have moved from the community. I simply mention these facts to convince you of the necessity of trying to reach and welcome the new-comers in our community. All parishes suffer greatly from loss by removal. We are in the fortunate and oft-times envied position of the suburban parish, that has a steady influx of new life, though for that reason it is doubly hard to solidify our parish life.

Report of Pastoral Work

During the year just closed I have conducted 135 Sunday services, and preached 95 Sermons. In addition I have officiated at 45 Holy Day or week-day Services.

Of Official Acts; 16 persons have been Baptised, 16 presented for Confirmation, 2 couples were married and I officiated at 8 funerals.

Pastorally; I have made about 200 regular parish visits, 75 sick calls, and about 150 calls upon strangers in the community—these latter in house to house visitation. Not everyone in the parish has been called upon, but so far as I have been able I have called where necessity and urgency seemed to demand such a call. As you may know, Ministers generally are not overfond of making routine parish calls. Too often they are purely social calls. On the other hand, every clergyman welcomes any opportunity to assist and help the members of his parish in their problems. The parson's visit affords an opportunity for a "heart to heart" talk.

Parish Statistics

There are about 260 families on the mailing list. Some of these are intensely interested in the parish, some partially interested, some very lukewarm, some sympathetic and others in the nature of "prospects".

The Communicant List of the parish is made up of those who have been Confirmed here, or or who have presented Letters of Transfer from other parishes. Our list like all other parishes, is most inaccurate. We report about 350 Communicants. It is largely a guess. This is due to the fact, that there are many persons in our parish who are confirmed and who take communion in our Church, but have never brought their "Letters" from their previous parish or are not yet ready to do so. Also we carry a similar number on our own parish rolls who have moved away and are probably attending another church under the same status. So we juggle the numbers around, and say that all those whom we do not have are equal to those whom we do have—and therefore if everybody would do what they ought to do (which they won't), we would have about 350 Communicants.

The Church Improvements

The most outstanding happening of the past year was the beautifying of the interior of the Church. We have "spread" ourselves at some length on this subject before and we will not, therefore go into details now. Sufficient is it to say at this time, that the entire interior of the church has been transformed in color, in reverent spirit and in beauty. The Fabric Committee should feel justly proud, especially when they know that there has been nothing but commendation for their work. The total amount expended in the improvements amounted to over $5000. And not only were we able to pay every bill, but we have over and above all expenses about $400 being held by the Accounting Warden for disposition. I am sure that you will agree with me that this is good work.

Parish Finances.

I wish that I might continue in the same vein about our regular parish income. A deficit, we always seem to have with us. At present it is about $3,000, or an increase over that of last year. On the surface it may look to some as if we were not able to carry the regular parish expenses. As a matter of fact, we have been sacrificing our parish income in order to do other most worthy things. Consider if you will these three things which we have been doing during the last two years, in addition to our regular parish contribution.

1. Diocesan Campaign for the Missions and Institutions of the Diocese; over 100 families of the parish are contributing to that $1300 each year, since 1927.

2. We are raising more than $1500 a year to reduce the mortgage on the parish house. We have reduced the mortgage to $18000. and will shortly pay off another $1000.

3. The raising of $5000 from the members of the parish for the recent Church improvements.

Add these amounts together and you will see that we have increased the income of the parish, for instance during this past year $8000, which is a very considerable showing—but undoubtedly it has been at the sacrifice of our Current Expense income.

A Month to month comparison of the financial condition of the parish for the last three years has shown an improvement in the parish financial condition, every month.

I believe that the time has come for us to pay more attention to our parish budget, and to concentrate our attention on the raising of funds to meet our Current Expenses, and that we be more liberal in our gifts to the great missionary work of the whole church. We have failed for many years to meet what was our fair share of the Apportionment of General Missions. After the above no one can say that we are too poor—to do either of these things—for what we have wanted to do we have done.

The Church School

It is with great regret that I announce the resignation of Mr. Guckes as Superintendent of the Church School. Shortly after my coming here, four years ago, it was my privilege to appoint Mr. Guckes as my co-worker in the Church School. He has given himself unsparingly and devotedly to the work. Unfortunately for us, (and for him too) a recent illness, has made it imperative that he give up all outside activities. I am sure that all in the parish, and especially those associated with him in the Church School, concur with me in these expressions of regret, yet with gratefulness for the splendid service which he has rendered.

The appointment of a Superintendent is the prerogative of the rector, who by canon and parish law is held responsible for the training of the young in the parish and the conduct of the Church School. For the present I have no one in mind, and any definite plans for the future have not been formulated. I do however, wish to emphasize the special need of assistance in the work of the Church School. We still need teachers. Necessity has compelled us to resort to the plan of "paid teachers"—at present we are paying three trained teachers—though we can ill afford it. While the system of "paid teachers" will add to the efficiency of the School, it is a reflection on the parish, that it cannot find within its bounds, enough capable or willing souls, to serve in the most important work that the church has to carry on.

Conclusion.

In closing I want to express my appreciation to all those, who during the past year, have by word or endeavor supported the objectives that were our common impulse. May God direct us in the way ahead.

VALUATION AND MORTGAGES ON PROPERTY

It is estimated that the total valuation of the entire Church property which includes the Church Building, Parish House and the Rector's Residence on Sedgwick Street, is approximately $125,000.00.

In this property we have equity of about $100,000.00 the balance being held by mortgage. The mortgages are held as follows:

The Parish House, original mortgage was $25,000. This has been reduced to $17,000 and is held by the Pelham Trust Co. Payments on the principal can be made at any interest period, which fall on the first of July and the first of January. There is a Sinking Fund accumulating which is used to pay off part of the principal at interest periods.

The Rectory, 635 W. Sedgwick St., Original cost $6,500.00. Mortgages held totaling $5000.00 as follows: First Mortgages of $3000.00 held by the Girard Trust Co., interest payable December and June. Second mortgage $2000.00 held by the West End Building and Loan Association. Monthly payments including interest are made and at present we have paid on this mortgage about $1200.

Receipts of 1928

The current receipts from all sources for the year 1928 were as follows:

The Church	$16,366.15
The Church School	1,078.07
The Woman's Guild	887.00
The Altar Guild	158.00
Gift direct, of supplies, toys, flowers etc.	500.00
Memorial Gifts	2,500.00

Total Currents Receipts$21,480.02

Of the above over $2500.00 was for outside causes.

In addition, about $1200.00 is being contributed yearly to the Diocesan Campaign.

Report of the Woman's Guild

Under the head of the Woman's Guild work for the parish as well as for outside purposes is carried on.

The Parochial Department of the Guild has held several suppers, conducted a Rummage Sale as well as the Christmas Sale. The proceeds from these events has largely gone to the effort to raise funds for the mortgage, though they have also assisted in other parts of the Church's work.

Through the Woman's Auxiliary Department the allotment of sewing has been done, the United Thank-offering collected and delegates have attended the Diocesan Meetings and contributed through the same.

Report of the Altar Guild

There are about eighteen members of this organization, two women each month take care of the chancel, and the altar. The organization provides the linens and sees that they are laundered as well as providing flowers for the altar when memorial flowers are not given. There are at present ten open Sundays, when memorial flowers might be given. Mrs. H. C. Lawser, of 612 Carpenter Lane, is in charge of the Flower Calendar.

A yearly appeal is made in the early spring to the congregation to assist this organization in the work it is carrying on.

REPORT OF THE FABRIC COMMITTEE

The Fabric Committee is pleased to report that the work of redecorating and beautifying the Church, which was entrusted to it by the Vestry, has been completed to the extent authorized by the Vestry, and that sufficient funds were raised by the free will offering of the congregation to pay for all work that was done.

The total amount received from all sources was $2433.73 and the total amount of bills paid to date was $1939.67, leaving a balance in the hands of the Accounting Warden to the credit of the Church Improvement Fund of $494.06

In addition to the cash contributions for the general work of redecoration, the following memorials and gifts were presented.

The raising of the reredos fourteen inches to meet the sill of the altar window, the addition of new panels on both sides of the altar extending to the side walls and refinishing of both the altar and reredos, together with the two sanctuary hanging lamps were paid for by appropriating the gift of Miss Nathalie Julien to this purpose.

The four sanctuary stained glass windows are the gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Ewing.

The painting of the Church window over the entrance door was made possible through a gift of Mrs. Charles Atherton.

The stained glass window in the nave of the Church, portraying the Call of Matthew, and the Call of the Fishermen, is the gift of Mrs. Robert Shoemaker, Jr., in memory of her husband, Robert Shoemaker, Jr.

The stained glass window in the nave of the Church, portraying the Sermon on the Mount, and Christ sending out the Disciples to publish the Gospel, is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. William Rebmann in memory of John Rebmann and Catherine Rebmann, and George Borrowes and Mary Borrowes.

The Altar Cross, Altar Rail and Baptismal Ewer were polished and relacquered through the gift of Mr. Robert M. Banks.

The Baptistry Cushions were recovered through the gift of Miss Edna C. Davis.

The organ screen is the gift of Judge Francis Shunk Brown, Jr.

The Oriental rug for the altar step is the gift of Mrs. J. Arthur Ewing.

The new carpet in the center aisle, and the cleaning and recutting and rebinding of the old carpet for use in the side aisles was paid for as a gift of the women's Guild.

The Committee feels that this work will be incomplete until the present lighting system in the body of the Church which is inadequate and offensive to those who are obliged to face the Church from the chancel, is replaced by hanging lamps of the same type and design as those now installed in the sanctuary, but of course, on a larger scale, and in one tone glass. Six to eight lamps would be needed to give proper illumination, and the cost of each of the lamps would be about $100, but of course it would not be practical to install less than the total number of the lamps. It is hoped that members of the congregation, or groups who are interested in this feature, may care to give one or more of these lamps as memorials.

The Committee had the William H. Moon Company of Morrisville submit a plan for planting the evergreens and shrubs in proper grouping around the base of the Church buildings. The plan contemplates about 191 plants of various kinds at a cost of $614.70 without the expense of planting. The plan has been so arranged in groups that individuals or church organizations interested in this feature may give one or more of these groups costing from $1.40 to $149.

The Committee feels that this grouping scheme would permit different persons in the congregation to have a part in the beautification of the Church as a whole, either as a free will offering, or as a memorial. The plan will be on exhibition on the bulletin board in the Parish House.

In this connection, we are pleased to state that $30 has already been subscribed for the tree fund, and that Mrs. Howard W. Middleton has offered to give some trees and shrubs towards this planting.

Respectfully submitted,
J. A. Ewing
R. M. Truitt
Walter Willard
W. B. Seeley
A. G. Mercer

Since the above report, the planting of shrubbery on the west side of the church has been completed, as well as the planting on the Carpenter Street side of the Parish House.

The Family List

of the Congregation

The list given below, includes so far as we have been able to ascertain all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are many names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

A Foreword by the Rector

To the Members of the Church of the Epiphany

We are again happy to present to the members of our parish a copy of our Year Book. Its publication is made possible through the kindness of the advertisers, whom we hope that you will patronize whenever possible. Considerable labor is entailed in the compilation of this book, and we hope that it will receive the careful attention of everyone. In it is recorded the reports for the year of the parish and the different organizations, as well as committees of the parish and the names and addresses of our people. May I take the liberty of suggesting that you preserve it as a ready reference compendium of the parish.

While the reading of statistics and reports may at times be rather dull, yet in this case I am sure that you realize that they represent the spiritual endeavor of our parish. A careful reading of these reports will signify that we have not by any means been inactive during the year just past, either within our own bounds or more afield.

It is our desire that during the present year more of our people will feel a larger responsibility in carrying forward God's work in this part of His Kingdom.

Faithfully yours,

J. Wesley Twelves, Rector.

for the Year 1929

In making this report of my fifth year as rector of this parish I wish to place on record the result of work accomplished, for which I am directly responsible, as well as to stress certain phases of our parish life with which we are all concerned or at least should be. We have been content during this past year to pursue the even tenor of our way. There have been no particularly outstanding events. The happenings of the different organizations are being reported in their several departments, all are running smoothly and well under competent leadership.

So far as the numerical growth of the parish is concerned, we have about the same number of families, approximately 250. Reference has been made before to the constant change in the parish life. While huge numbers of new people are constantly moving into our community and we get our fair share of them, yet they do not materially increase our numbers, because of the constant removals of older families. If we do not go materially ahead, we are fortunate to maintain our own. About fifty new families have shown their interest in the church during the past year, thirty six families have removed from the parish bounds, some entirely out of the city, and we have removed from our list about twenty families that have shown little or no interest in the church and whom we have been unable to reach in any way, though they are Episcopalians. If we are to advance we must endeavor to reach a larger number in our community.

Report of Pastoral Work

During the year just closed I have conducted 177 Church Services on Sundays, Holy Days or other week-day services. I have preached 91 sermons at our own church services.

Of Official Acts; 6 persons have been Baptised; 10 presented for Confirmation. I have officiated at 7 burials and 1 Marriage. Letters of Transfer have been issued by me to 6 persons, and I have received on transfer from other parishes five communicants.

I have made in the neighborhood of 300 parish calls, and quite a number of house to house calls upon new families. No minister makes as many calls as he would like to or as his people desire him to. But there is a limit to what a man can do, and parish calls suffer in favor of some more imperative, though perhaps not as helpful need.

The Communicant List

In making our report to the Bishop and the general church as well as the Census Bureau, we list 350 communicants. Communicants are what some people refer to as "church members". They included all those that have been confirmed in this parish or have been received here by transfer. We have at the present on our list a large number of people who have years ago moved away from this parish, but have never been transferred. On the other hand there are a large number of people in the parish who for some time have been accustomed to receive communion here but are members of other parishes, never having been formally transferred here.

I desire this year to make a revision of the actual communicants of the parish. We will purchase a new Parish Registry, and place in it only the names of those who are actually communicants now in the parish. A formal request will be made to all those who are not actually communicants of our church to obtain their Letters of Transfer. We believe that this is in the interest of the "good business" of the church to have a weeding process occasionally and to remove dead wood. I am sure that the many new people who have recently come to the parish will assist us by getting their Letters of Transfer from their former parishes.

Parish Finances

In making a report of the "State of the Parish", it would not be complete without reference to the financial status. The report of the Accounting Warden at the close of this year shows an increase in our deficit of $500.00 which means that we have had to increase our note at the bank, which now stands at $3500.00. But we are optimistic, for this year ahead of us. Our pledges have been increased about $800 for our Parish Expenses and about $300 for the Church's Mission. I can assure the parish that during this coming year our deficit will not be increased, and with your cooperation we shall endeavor to reduce it. I believe that I am correct in saying that the pledges for the coming year are more than they have ever been in any one year before.

Through the offerings given in the red envelopes on the first Sunday of the month, as well as other donations, we have been able this past year to reduce the mortgage on the property of the parish $1000.00, which now leaves the mortgage at $17000.00. We also have $500.00 on hand to pay at next interest period in middle of January. If and when we reduce the amount to $15,000, I believe that the bank will accept the parish house as sufficient security and thus free the church proper from indebtedness. We could then proceed to the formal consecration of our church. For twenty-eight years it has stood here, and it is high time that it should be set aside for Holy Purposes. Our sense of pride should arouse in us the desire to see that God's House is unencumbered. It is for this reason that I have laid special emphasis upon the raising of the mortgage fund. During the last five years we have reduced the mortgage $5000.00. I believe that we should not let any other interest or desire deflect our intention to wipe out this mortgage as soon as possible, and I call upon you all to continue your interest to the same degree as in the beginning.

The Church School

For the past year, I have acted as Superintendent of the Church School, which has of necessity added a great responsibility, as well as entailing an additional amount of work. For the first time in several years, we have teachers for all classes, and a reserve group upon whom we can call. Our teachers have been regular, (which has been of invaluable help to me) and they are all efficient. Several of our teachers are taking Training Courses at the Church House.

The School itself numbers exactly 150, slightly more than it was at the same time last year. There are fourteen classes, and a group of older boys who give fine assistance in the secretarial work.

The opening service of the School is held in the Church, which adds to the idea of worship and makes for better decorum. On the first Sunday of the month, the Holy Communion is celebrated, to which over half of the school remain, forming the practice of receiving the Communion monthly.

Besides the regular work of study, social contacts are formed among the pupils through the different parties and picnic. The Church School is a part of the Church. The people of the Church should be interested in it. Come to its sessions sometimes, join with them in their social functions, make friends with these young people who in a short while are going to take your places and those of others in the work of the church.

Conclusion

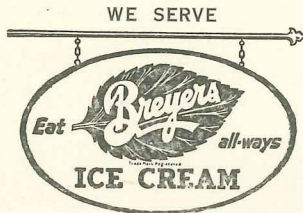

In closing I want to express my appreciation to all those, who during the past year have by word or deed supported the objectives which were for our common good. May God's blessing rest upon us continually.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVE, Rector

Valuation and Mortgages on Property

The estimated total valuation of the entire property of the parish is placed at $125,000.00. This includes the Church Building and grounds, the Parish House, and the Rector's residence on Sedgwick St. In this property the church holds equity of approximately $105,000.00, the balance being held by mortgage. An explanation of the mortgages follows:

There is a blanket mortgage on the Church proper and the Parish House amounting to $17,000.00 and is held by the Germantown Trust Co. Regular payments are being made to reduce this every year. At the next interest period in the middle of January $500.00 more will be paid off. This has been made possible through the offerings given on the first Sunday of the month in the red envelopes, and through contributions of several of the organizations of the church. We hope that when the amount is reduced to $15,000.00 the mortgage may be lifted from the church itself, the Parish House being sufficient security, and then the Church could be consecrated.

Regarding the Rectory, which is located at 635 W. Sedgwick St., the original cost was $6500.00. Mortgages were placed totaling $5000.00. The first mortgage is held by the Girard Trust Co., for $3000.00, the second mortgage of $2000.00 is handled through the West End Building and Loan Association. Monthly payments have been made including the interest, and we hope that within a year or two this will expire, thereby wiping out this obligation, leaving only the first mortgage of $3000.00.

A month to month comparison of our assests shows a steady increase over a number of years, and our property is in good condition. From the business end this speaks good.

There is a note held by the Germantown Trust Co., of $3500, which has accumulated over several years to cover our regular Current Expenses. This has been made necessary because of insufficient income in pledges, etc. We hope that in some way this note may be wiped out or at least considerably reduced during this present year.

THE MEN'S CLUB

The Men's Club has been revived and reorganized, and is under the leadership of E. Warner Willard. Several meetings have been held during the year, and numerous events have been planned for the coming months. Of special interest was the entertainment of the new Bishop Coadjutor in October. The Treasury has something over $12.00.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Guild has completed a most successful year in a devotional as well as active sense. The women have been active both in work for the parish and for the Diocese. Luncheons have been held for social purposes the Parish Fair was held under Guild auspices in November and part of the funds given to the church for the interest on the mortgage. During Lent the women met weekly to sew on garments for missionary purposes. Through the guild contacts are made with the missionary work that is done by the women of the Diocese and Epiphany Church was able to do its share.

The amount collected for the United Thank offering this year amounted to $235.00 and is used for the support of women missionaries of the Church. Mrs. W. B. Seeley is Treasurer in this parish and will be glad to see that any woman of the parish is supplied with a blue box for her thank offering.

THE ALTAR GUILD

There are now nineteen members in the Altar Guild, two of whom take care of the Altar and Chancel of the Church each month, and see that proper linens are provided and laundered, and that the silver vessels and brasses are polished. A new white silk veil and burse has recently been purchased for the Communion service, and was used for the first time at Christmas. The Altar Guild also provides flowers for the altar when none are donated and on the special occasions like Easter and Christmas. Mrs. H. C. Lawser of 612 Carpenter Lane has charge of the Flower Calendar. At present there are about ten vacant Sundays, when memorial flowers might be given. A yearly appeal is made in the early spring to the congregation to assist in the work which this organization is doing. Mrs. H. F. Dingle who has been directress for several years has resigned, and Miss Edna C. Davis has been appointed Directress. Mrs. R. B. Heyward has taken the latter's place as Secretary.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

This is a new organization started in the parish last October for the younger girls. There are about nineteen girls interested, with a weekly attendance of about twelve. The "Friendly" is a national organization of the church, devoted to the ideals of friendship, morality, & integrity. Sometime during the coming spring the members will be admitted in a church service, which will give the parish a better opportunity to know its purposes. They report $3.75 in the treasury.

The Family List

of the Congregation

The list given below, includes so far as we have been able to ascertain all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

A Foreword by the Rector

To the Members of the Church of the Epiphany:—

We are again happy to present to the members of our parish a copy of our Year Book. Its publication is made possible through the kindness of the advertisers, whom we hope that you will patronize whenever possible. Considerable labor is entailed in the compilation of this book, and we hope that it will receive the careful attention of everyone. In it is recorded the reports for the year of the parish and the different organizations, as well as committees of the parish and the names and addresses of our people. May I take the liberty of suggesting that you preserve it as a ready reference compendium of the parish.

While the reading of statistics and reports may at times be rather dull, yet in this case I am sure that you realize that they represent the spiritual endeavor of our parish. A careful reading of these reports will signify that we have not by any means been inactive during the year just past, either within our own bounds or more afield.

It is our desire that during the present year more of our people will feel a larger responsibility in carrying forward God's work in this part of His Kingdom.

Faithfully yours,

J. Wesley Twelves, Rector.

Letters of Transfer

During the course of the year, the rector is going to make a revision of the parish Communicant List. There are many people on our list that have not resided in the parish for some time and whose names should be removed. There are also many people who make their communions here who have never actually become Communicant Members through transfer. We ask that transfers be had as soon as possible and assist us in this adjustment. The rector will be glad to write to parishes for transfers if any desire it or to put upon our own list the names of those who may feel that they are not being counted elsewhere. The law of the Diocese regarding Communicants is given herewith.

Canon 15, Section II List of Communicants

1. The Minister of each Parish should keep a List of the Communicants within his care. He shall enter on the List the names of all persons confirmed in his Parish who have received the Holy Communion, or who have been received by Certificate of Transfer from other Parishes, or who, being regular Communicants of his Parish, he finds after diligent inquiry are not registered anywhere else. He shall from time to time, and at least annually before the meeting of the Diocesan Convention, remove from such List the names of all persons who have died, or received Holy Orders, or taken Certificates of Transfer to other Parishes, or been excommunicated or suspended, or who have formally renounced the Communion of the Church, or who in the judgment of the Minister have permanently ceased to be Communicants of the same; or who, having removed from his Parish without notice, after reasonable time and due effort, cannot be traced.

Canon 15. Section III Certificate of Transfer

Whenever in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention on The Regulations of the Laity, a Communicant of the Church in good and regular standing in any Parish removing to another, shall ask of the Rector of any Parish in this Diocese from which said Communicant removes or, in the absence of such Rector, of one of the Wardens, a Certificate of Transfer, it shall be the duty of such Rector or Warden, within one month of date of request, to furnish such Certificate, or assign the reasons for refusal, which shall be subject to the approval of the Bishop.

Report of the Rector of the Parish Meeting for the Year 1930

It hardly seems possible that I have been here as your rector for a period slightly over six years. To me they have been very busy and active years, not as productive of results as I hoped they might have been when I first came. Certainly we have not gone behind in any way, and we have unquestionably held our own, at a time when many churches are complaining of "falling away" and loss of interest. But with our splendid opportunity in this community, we ought to have done more. Your rector has done a great many things to create interest, which in the ordinary course of parish work, should be more generally shared by the members of the parish, its vestry and other parish organizations. There is a limit to one's strength and time, and unless I receive a more generous assistance, some of these things will have to pass by. For the first time since I have been in the ministry, I have felt its physical and mental strain. Besides that I have not done justice to the really spiritual side of the parish or my own mental equipment.

Now as to a more definite report of our parish work for which I am directly responsible.

Report of Pastoral Work

During the year just closed I have conducted 187 services on Sundays, Holy Days and Week Days, at which I have preached 92 times.

Of official acts:—16 persons have been baptised, 17 presented for Confirmation, 10 burials and 8 couples married. I have transferred to other parishes 5 persons and have received by transfer 25. I have removed from our parish register of communicants 50 persons who are no longer resident in this parish. In the above enumerations there have been considerable increases in each case over that of last year—ten more baptisms, seven more confirmed, three more burials, seven more marriages and twenty more transfers to this parish, which shows that we are enlarging our field of service.

The Communicant List

In making our report to the Bishop of the Diocese as well as to the Census Bureau of the United States, we are asked to give the number of bona-fide church members connected with this parish. These members are those who have been confirmed here or been received by letters of transfer from other Episcopal Churches. Our list has not been revised for a number of years, and there are over a hundred people on the list who are no longer resident in this parish. But on the other hand there are some sixty confirmed persons who use this parish as their church, but have not become communicants by bringing their Letters of Transfer from their previous parish. No doubt their names have been stricken off their former parish and they may not therefore be considered members anywhere. You will note that we received last year twenty-five transfers, and also that I have taken from our list fifty names, which now makes our Communicant List 333. I hesitate to strike off the other fifty, until more of our people bring their Letters here. An effort will be made during this present year to bring these memberships up to date.

The Church School

The rector is still acting as Superintendent of the Church School, which adds to his other duties, more responsibilities and extra work. We are assisted in the work of the School by a group of loyal teachers and workers, who have been most faithful in attendance and work. Several of the teachers are further qualifying themselves to teach by taking courses at the Normal School.

The School numbers 157 teachers, officers and pupils, a slight increase over last year. There are fifteen classes and a group of older boys who act as secretaries.

The opening service of the Church School is held in the Church, the classes adjourning to the parish house for their instruction. On the first Sunday of the month a service of the Holy Communion is celebrated for the older members of the School, at which about thirty receive.

The receipts and expenditures of the School reveal an interesting field of labor. Besides paying their own expenses they have raised during the past year about $350.00 for missionary work of the church which applies on the parish quota, have given to the Diocesan Campaign $100.00 for the building of new missions and institutions in the Diocese, made a donation of $25.00 to the parish Mortgage Fund, and have furnished gifts for seventy-five children at Christmas time. Twice during the year at Easter and Christmas they have given a religious pageant. More of the people of the parish should be interested in the work of our Church School. Come and see us at work, come to some of our parties, and when we need you, volunteer to help in this most important project of the parish's life.

Church Attendance

The attendance at the services of the church has increased during the past year, especially in the number of communions. The total attendance at all services during 1929 was 7458 and that during the year just closed was 8061, an increase of over 600. The communicants increased 300 during the past year. Of course these figures do not mean much when one considers the number of people on our rolls and others in the community and the long season from Easter to October when people seem to take their church vacation. Our average Sunday attendance is only a little over 50% of our communicant list.

Parish Finances

In making a report of the "State of the Parish" it would not be complete without some reference to its financial status. The report of the Accounting Warden at the close of the year showed that our expenses were $172.42 more than our income for the year. This increases our indebtedness in our Current Expenses to $3672.42. We had expected because of additional pledges that perhaps we might be able to pay off some of this indebtedness, but the total pledges were not paid. Unless we have a larger number of contributions this coming year, the indebtedness will be increased again.

Regarding the Mortgage Fund, our indebtedness now stands at $16,500.00 and we have over $700 in hand to pay off at the next interest period. If and when this mortgage is reduced to $15,000.00, the bank will be willing to accept the parish house as sufficient security and the church building would then be free of debt and it could be consecrated. I believe that this object is so nearly attained that we should make every effort to reach our goal during the year ahead. A considerable portion of the money from this fund is given through the little red envelopes on the first Sunday of the month, and we hope that more of our people will use them.

In spite of the financial depression of the past year, our offerings have been better all around than they were during the preceeding year, for which we are thankful.

In Conclusion

Let me express my appreciation to all those who during the past year have labored and worked for the upbuilding of our parish life and the extension of Christ's Kingdom in this community. May God's blessing rest upon us this coming year.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector

Valuation and Mortgages on Property

The estimated total valuation of the entire property of the parish is placed at $125,000.00. This includes the Church Building and grounds, the Parish House, and the Rector's residence on Sedgwick, St. In this property the church holds equity of approximately $105,000.00, the balance being held by mortgage. An explanation of the mortgages follows:

There is a blanket mortgage on the Church proper and the Parish House amounting to $16,500.00 and is held by the Germantown Trust Co. Regular payments are being made to reduce this every year. At the next interest period in the middle of January $500.00 more will be paid off. This has been made possible through the offerings given on the first Sunday of the month in the red envelopes, and through contributions of several of the organizations of the church. We hope that when the amount is reduced to $15,000.00 the mortgage may be lifted from the church itself, the Parish House being sufficient security, and then the Church could be consecrated.

Regarding the Rectory, which is located at 635 W. Sedgwick St., the original cost was $6500.00. Mortgages were placed totaling $5000.00. The first mortgage is held by the Girard Trust Co., for $3000.00, the second mortgage of $2000.00 is handled through the West End Building and Loan Association. Monthly payments have been made including the interest, and we hope that within a year or two this will expire, thereby wiping out this obligation, leaving only the first mortgage of $3000.00.

A month to month comparison of our assets shows a steady increase over a number of years, and our property is in good condition. From the business end this speaks good.

There is a note held by the Germantown Trust Co., of $3200, which has accumulated over several years to cover our regular Current Expenses. This has been made necessary because of insufficient income in pledges, etc. We hope that in some way this note may be wiped out or at least considerably reduced during this present year.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

During the year 1930 the Woman's Guild held a very successful play as well as several luncheons the proceeds of which were used in the many activities of the Guild. The Annual Fair held in November was well attended and the proceeds contributed to the Mortgage Fund of the Church. On the Tuesdays in Lent the women of the church meet in the parish house to sew for Missions under the leadership of Mrs. Betts. Mrs. Seeley, the treasurer of the United Thankoffering, reported $222.49 collected during the year from the blue boxes, which is used to support women workers in the mission fields. The different delegates and committees of the Guild are as follows:

Diocesan Delegates—Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson

Domestic Committee—Mrs. John B. Jones and Mrs. Clemens.

Indian Hope Committee—Mrs. Dingle

MEN'S CLUB

While the Men's Club has not been active for the last few months, they did some very active work during the past year. Of special interest was the series of meetings held during Lent with some very outstanding speakers, from our civic and religious life. There is a program committee and we hope they will get busy in the near future. The Treasurer reports $15.74 on hand, collected during the past year.

THE ALTAR GUILD

There are at present twenty members in the Altar Guild, two of whom go on duty each month and take care of the Altar and Chancel. They see that the proper linens are provided and laundered, and that the silver vessels and brasses are kept bright and shining.

During the absence in Europe of the Directress, Miss E. C. Davis, Mrs. H. F. Dingle is in charge. Mrs. Middleton is still the Treasurer, and Mrs. Heyward, Secretary.

A yearly special appeal is made in the early spring for Contributions for help in the work that this organization is doing. This last year yellow bags were sent out, asking for contributions to be used for new vestments for the choir. There was a very gratifying response.

The Altar Guild also bought linen for two new surplices for Mr. Twelves and had one of them made and his cassock repaired.

Flowers for the Altar are also provided by the Altar Guild, on such times when none are donated, and on special occasions, as Easter and Christmas. Mrs. Lawser, of 612 Carpenter Lane, has charge of the Flower Calendar. At present there are nineteen vacant Sundays when memorial flowers might be given. Ten of these are in the summer when we can use garden flowers, (a special opportunity here for any who have gardens) but the other nine fall on Sundays at the time of year when flowers are scarce. We would appreciate very much if some of the members of the congregation would give memorials of flowers on these dates.

May I say in closing that we are very anxious to have more members in the Altar Guild. We need, at the very least, five more. As there are twelve months in the year and two members serve each month it will easily be seen, that, unless we have twenty-four members, (active members) some must serve more than once during the year. Will not some of the other women in the congregation join us in this most important, interesting, and inspiring work.

MATILDA J. HYWARD, Secretary

The Family Listof the Congregation

The list given below, includes so far as we have been able to ascertain all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by work or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

The Church Year

Such a complete life is pictured in the Church's year. It has its Advent, Nativity, Epiphany, Lent, Easter, Whitsunday, Trinity Sunday. It fills the year with its increasing, slowly maturing beauty. This is the true meaning of the year, with all its sacred seasons. Let us be true Churchmen and give it all its richness.—Phillips Brooks.

A Foreword by the Rector

To the Members of the Church of the Epiphany:—

We are happy to present to the members of our parish a copy of the Year Book. Its publication is made possible through the kindness of the advertisers, whom we hope you will patronize whenever possible.

The compilation of such a book as this entails considerable labor, and we hope it will receive the careful attention of everyone. We have endeavored to give a summary of reports from the officials of the parish, and the organizations, and to present other matters of importance, with which the people of the church should be familiar. We hope that you will preserve this copy of the Year Book throughout the year, since it contains many references which you may find useful.

As you read through the different items and reports you will discover that in spite of difficult times, we have had one of the most successful years in our parish life. But we had to work hard to attain it.

We hope that everyone in the parish will be encouraged by what we have done, and that there will be a new awakening to greater service, in which more people will share. I am very grateful for the fine co-operation, which has been manifest in meeting extraordinary conditions.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector

Some Standing Notices

Visitation of the Sick

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308 states "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

Marriages

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services.

Burial of the Dead

Always confer with the Minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

Letters of Transfer

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the Church.

Wills and Bequests

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

Report of the Rector to the Parish Meeting for the Year 1931

I want to begin my report for the year by first expressing to the people of the parish my sincere appreciation for the way in which they have "stood by" during what might have been a very critical year for us. Towards the middle of the year we faced a very perplexing condition in the upkeep of the parish. But due to a very strenuous effort a willingness to co-operate and the assistance of the Vestry, we have been able to close the year in the best financial condition we have been in for a long time.

This final payment of $1500 was made on one of the Church mortgages and we have received the $10,000 cancelled mortgage. This leaves a mortgage on the church of $15,000. Payment of the Building and Loan mortgage on the rectory for $2,000 has been completed and the mortgage cancelled. This leaves only the first mortgage of $3,000. We were also able to pay off at the bank the sum of $1,900 raised during the last two months, reducing the note to $2,300. We have closed the year with a small balance of cash on hand. In making our comparison with last year at this same time we find that we are $4,000 better off than then. Of course this includes the $2,000 Building and Loan, payments on which have been made over a course of years, but which we could not count until the series was liquidated.

The facing of our difficulties during the year has also warned us of the evil policy of borrowing money to pay our way. During this present year we have agreed that we must "pay as we go." If our receipts are not sufficient, we must curtail some of our work. But we are trusting that the same splendid spirit of co-operation will manifest itself throughout the year.

There is but one regret, which I personally feel quite keenly. It has been hard for me to talk so much about money. In many respects it means a loss of ministerial prestige. When I go into a home to make a parish call, the family imagine that I am coming after money, and begin to make apologies. Also when dealing with the matter of money there is so much difference of opinion, that delicate situations arise. I hope that during the year ahead, you will let me do the work which is really mine. In the words of the late Frank Crane, I need to "polish up the halo."

Report of Pastoral Work

During the year just closed I have conducted 172 services on Sundays, Holy Days and Week Days, at which I have preached 90 times.

Of official acts:—10 persons have been baptized, 10 presented for Confirmation, 8 burials, and 1 marriage. I have transferred from this parish 7 persons and have received from other parishes by transfer 13 persons. I have removed from the list of Communicants 18 persons, which leaves our Communicant List at 330. There are still a great many persons, numbering over 50 who attend the Church and receive communion here, but who have not formally brought their Letters of Transfer, and so their names cannot be added to our actual membership. I have been promised by some of them that they will get their letters during the next few months and we hope that many others will do likewise.

The Church School

Since the rector, by the Canons of the general church, and by the By-Laws of our own parish, is held responsible for the Church School, I add to this report a summary of the work which we have done during the last year. We have been assisted in the work of the School by a fine group of teachers and workers who have been most faithful in attendance and able in their activity.

The School numbers 165 Teachers, Officers and Pupils, and the attendance during the past fall has been remarkably good, on some Sundays having almost 150 present.

The Receipts and expenditures during the year show the large field of endeavor in which the children are interested. The children raised over $400 for the Lenten Offering and studied the field of the Philippines. They sent $25 to Trinity Mission, Solebury, Buck County, for their new building, as part of the Advent Offering. The School sent a lovely Christmas Box to St. Elizabeth Church, in El Paso, Texas, to answer a real need in a poverty-stricken section. At Christmas they sent 150 Gifts of toys, etc., to the Episcopal Hospital, which were given through the manager. At Easter a Pageant was presented by the children, under direction of Mrs. Elliott, and at Christmas several most interesting and worthwhile plays were presented by several of the classes. Although $365 of the funds of the School have been tied-up in the Franklin Trust Co.'s failure, the School closed with all bills paid and $150 in the Treasury. We invite the people of the parish to come see our School, and when we need help, to volunteer their services in one of the most valued phases of our parish life.

In Conclusion

I cannot close this report without making a strong appeal to all the people of the parish, to make a greater use of the church and its ministry. The church has so much to offer everyone of us, if only we would make more use of it. It is a sad reflection on us all that we should be considering the necessity of having to abandon any of our services for the lack of attendance. When all the world is thinking of the more serious things of life, we cannot leave God out. We who are loyal to the church must set the example by devotion to the sacraments and worship of the church. It is for this purpose that we are here in the community. May God not only bless us in our labors, but above all open our eyes to the great opportunities to serve Him.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

VALUATION AND MORTGAGE ON PROPERTY

The estimated valuation of the entire property of the parish is placed at $125,000. This includes the Church building and grounds, the Parish House, and the Rector's Residence on Sedgwick St.

The Mortgages on the properties are as follows:—The Mortgage on the church is $15,000 and is held by the Germantown Trust Co. We just cleared a mortgage of $10,000 on the Parish House. We have been asked by the Trust Co. to begin payments on the principle of the remaining mortgage. Offerings from the Red envelopes in the cartons are used for this purpose.

The Mortgage on the Rectory, at 635 W. Sedgwick St. now stands at $3,000. We have just finished paying the second mortgage of $2,000, which was held by the West End Building and Loan Association.

A note of $2,300 is held by the Germantown Trust Co., against the parish as a floating debt. Last year at this time the note was $3,200. This note represents accumulated deficits over a period of years, due to an insufficient income. We have made good resolutions not to increase this note during the coming year. Our prospects indicate that our income will be $500 short of necessary expenses. Either we must raise our income or cut down some of our expense.

During the year just closed several luncheons and suppers were given, the proceeds of which were either donated to the church or used in the support of the work which the women have done. The proceeds of the supper in November were given toward the reduction of the church indebtedness. In the early part of the year the Guild provided the luncheon for the Convocation of Germantown. During Lent the women met in the parish house to do sewing for Missions under the leadership of Mrs. Betts. A play was sponsored by the Guild and given by the Epiphany Players, which was a fine success. The Sunshine Club under the leadership of Mrs. Flack, provided gifts to the shut-ins and the sick. The Guild is co-operating with other agencies in collecting cast-off clothing to distribute to the poor. Mrs. Seeley, the treasurer of the United Thank-offering, reports that $202.18 was collected from the Blue Boxes during the year and that our Triennium offering was $599.94. This money is used to support women workers in the missionary fields.

The different delegates and committees of the Guild are as follows:—

Diocesan Delegates—Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson.
Domestic Committee—Mrs. John B. Jones and Miss Lippincott.

Indian Hope Committee—Mrs. Dingle.

Foreign Committee—Mrs. Haines.

Convocation Delegates — Mrs. Lawser and Mrs. Twelves.

Sewing—In charge of Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson.

Sunshine Club—Mrs. Flack.

Church Periodical—Mrs. Middleton.

United Thank-offering Treasurer—Mrs. Seeley.

Freeman Delegates—Mrs. Comstock and Mrs. Buckley.
Mrs. S. W. Huber, Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,
T. Ellen Jones, Treasurer.The Altar Guild

The are at present twenty-three members in the Altar Guild, two of whom go on duty each month and take care of the Altar and Chancel. They see that the proper linens are provided and laundered and that the silver vessels and brasses are kept bright and shining.

Last year I said that we were very anxious to have more members in the Guild, that we needed at least five more. I am happy to say that during the past year we have added three names to our list. However of the present twenty-three members only twenty-one are active so we still need three. Will not some of the other women in the congregation join us in this devotional work?

Our directress, Miss Davis, returned from Europe last fall, resuming in October, her office that Mrs. Dingle had so ably managed for her during her absence. Mrs. Middleton is still treasurer, and Mrs. Heyward, secretary.

The Altar Guild last year had the choir's cassocks dry cleaned.

A yearly special appeal is made in the early spring to the congregation for contributions for help in the work this organization is doing and this fall a luncheon was given at Furhman Inn, which was a great success.

The Altar Guild also provides flowers for the Altar, when none are donated, and for special occasions as at Easter and Christmas. On these two special occasions the money is raised through special envelopes. Mrs. Lawser, who for the last thirteen years has been in charge of the Flower Calendar, resigned this fall. Her resignation was accepted with much regret. Mrs. Verona Haines has been appointed to take her place. At present there are 20 vacant Sundays, when memorial flowers might be given. 10 of these are in the summer time when we can use garden flowers. A special opportunity here for any who have gardens, but the other 10 fall on Sundays at the time of the year when flowers are scarce. We would appreciate very much if more of the church members would give memorials of flowers on these dates.

Matilda J. Heyward, Secretary

TWO INTERESTING POEMS

(From members of our Church School)

The following poems were written by two of the members of our Church School and we pass them on for a larger reading. Curiously enough both of the young girls who wrote them happen to be direct descendents of Clement C. Moore, author of "The Night Before Christmas."

Christmas Feeling

It's just the Christmas Feeling
That makes life so exciting.
It's not just words or thoughts
That can be put in writing.
It's not the things you get;
Nor even what you give.
It's just the Christmas Spirit
That makes you want to live.

This feeling first was started,
Full of wonder and of awe,
When three wise men knelt down
To worship a star they saw.
This feeling gained in power,
When shepherds made their way
To the lowly little manger,
Where baby Jesus lay.

And now, through all the ages,
This love has gained in strength,
To spread the Christmas Feeling
Through all the world's vast length.
—Nancy Crenshaw (11 years old)

1931

When I came to live upon this earth
The world was filled with strife.
All nations joined a great world war—
The cheapest thing was life.

All other values mounted high,
The wages followed suit,
The people rode who once had walked,
Extravagance took root.

Silk shirts replaced the cotton ones,
On men of working class.
The people went amusement mad,
The time to quickly pass.
And hectic music now was born,
Jass came upon the scene,
And speeded up life's tempo then
At home, on stage and screen.

War ended and a decade passed,
But people were the same,
And luxuries meant more to them
Than anyone could name.

Men speculated, bought and sold,
Land booms grew over night,
Big money came so easy then
They spent it left and right.

The women trailed their furs abroad,
Their homes forgotten quite,
Unguided youth could not discern
Just what was wrong or right.

Then suddenly this all was changed,
The crash came over night,
Vast fortunes dwindled into dust,
The end was now in sight.

Uncounted thousands out of work,
The war debts still unpaid,
Depression is the topic now
On lips of youth and maid.

The time has come to work again,
Get back to normal ways,
Forget the times through which we've passed
And look to brighter days.

We've still our faith in friends and home,
Our courage standing by,
All things will work for good again
For God is still on high.

—Elizabeth S. Fort (age 15)

The Family List

of the Congregation

The list given below, includes so far as we have been able to ascertain all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Some Standing Notices

Visitation of the Sick

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308 states "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

Marriages

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services.

Burial of the Dead

Always confer with the Minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

Letters of Transfer

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

Wills and Bequests

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

Report of the Rector to the Parish Meeting for the Year 1932

In making this report of my eighth year as rector of this parish I wish to place on record the result of work accomplished, for which I am directly responsible, as well as to stress certain phases of our parish life with which we are all concerned or at least should be.

Report of Pastoral Work

During the year just closed I have conducted 156 Church Services on Sundays, Holy Days or other Week days. At these services I have preached 75 sermons.

Of official acts: 13 persons have been Baptised, 10 presented for Confirmation, 3 couples were married and I officiated at 7 burials. Letters of transfers have been issued to 9 persons and received from 4. I have made the usual number of parish calls, upon the well, the sick and the bereaved.

The Parish Constituency

There has been little change in the numerical growth of the parish. We minister to about 230 families in the parish, numbering about 600 individuals, of which we report 330 Communicants, meaning those who have been confirmed here or have brought Letters of Transfer from other parishes. There have been fewer numbers of new people coming into the parish this year, though there have been a considerable number of removals. The explanation of this is to be seen in the large number of "For Sale" and "For Rent" signs scattered throughout the community.

The Church School

The Rector, according to Canons of the General Church and the By-Laws of our own parish is held responsible for the education of the young in the parish, I hereby give a summary of the work of the Church School, the most active department of the church's work. We have been assisted in the work of the Church School by a fine group of teachers and officers who have been both faithful in attendance and able in their activity.

The School has on active enrollment of 157 Pupils, Teachers and Officers, and the actual attendance each Sunday shows a very high average, which is indicative of a strong interest.

The activity of the School is varied. Besides the training in Religious Education, the pupils of the School have been learning the foremost Christian virtue—"The greatest of these is charity". They are interested in helping others. Out of their Treasury they gave $200 to help in the expenses of the parish, they bought new Hymnals for the entire church. They raised $400 as a Lenten Offering and studied the field of Honolulu. They contributed to the Bishop's Brick Fund the sum of $25 to help build a new church in the Diocese. They brought money and bought gifts which were sent in two Christmas boxes to some forty colored Children in the Diocese of Springfield, Illinois. From the Manger Service, they supplied the Christmas gifts for the Polish Church of the Redeemer in Richmond. They have contributed $100 to the Parish Missionary Quota. At different times during the year a number of classes have given plays, which have been largely attended. We are happy to say that we have not felt any depression in the Church School, the offerings if anything have been better this past year than in former years. We invite the people of our parish to visit our Church School, and to give their services, when called upon in this most valued phase of the parish life.

The General Work of the Church

Perhaps no part of the great work of the Church has been feeling the stress of the times, as much as the Missionary Work. At no time has the need for such work been more acute. The title Missionary Work is in some respects a misnomer, for much of the work that is done under that head is really institutional, educational and charitable. In our own Diocese to which half of all our Missionary funds go, we have some twenty-five Homes and Orphanages. There are also Settlement Houses, Hospitals, Relief Agencies and Rescue Missions. We minister to people of other races and color, for we have a large number of Missions for the Polish, the Italian and the Negro. In addition to that we have new Missions started in growing communities.

We are happy to state that the contributions to all this work have not fallen off this year. We have paid that which we promised and have responded to extra appeals to meet deficiencies both in the Diocese and in the General Work of the Church. I call upon the people of the parish to keep up their offerings on the red side of the envelope, by which we make the Gospel known, as well as help all the unfortunate of the church.

Our Own Finances

The finances of the Parish during this past year have been handled entirely by the Vestry, and a report elsewhere by the Accounting Warden indicates the receipts and expenditures and the present indebtedness.

Strengthening the Parish Life

For a long time I have desired to speak of the lack of cohesiveness in our parochial life, which does not help us in building up a real fellowship and divides our interest into groups rather than in the life of the whole parish. For instance, there is the Church School in which everyone in the parish should be interested, yet as a matter of fact only the parents of the children and the teachers show any interest in this work. The people of the parish do not take any interest in this work, never attend any of its sessions or come to any of its social affairs. On the other hand, the parents of children in the Church School to a large degree are not interested in the Church, they seldom attend the services, and many of them refuse absolutely to give to the support of the Church. There are people who belong to some of the organizations of the Church, who attend meetings regularly, but seldom if ever are seen at the Church's services. If a certain organization or group gives a supper or entertainment it is patronized almost entirely by that group and its friends. Can it be true that our only interest in the church is for that which we can get out of it? How can any parent of a child in our School say that he or she is not interested in the Church? Does not the Church make possible the School? Or how can any adult in the Church say that he is not interested in the School, for without children there would be no church tomorrow. May I suggest that in so far as we solve this problem, we shall strengthen our parish life, and perform the real purpose for which we exist as a parish.

The Cure of Souls

As a minister I am here not only to conduct services and teach the young, but to minister to souls as need may arise. It must not be forgotten that a minister's chief duty is to help people. I want the people of the parish to know that I stand ready to help in any way that I can, when problems and difficulties arise. It is my sincere hope that in these days of stress that more and more people will make use of the Church and its ministry. In building a better social fabric for the years ahead we need the moral stamina and high idealism that flows from the Church of Christ.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

VALUATION AND MORTGAGE ON PROPERTY

The estimated valuation of the entire property of the parish is placed at $125,000. This includes the Church building and grounds, the Parish House, and the Rector's Residence on Sedgwick St.

The Mortgages on the properties are as follows:—The Mortgage on the church is $15,000 and is held by the Germantown Trust Co. A year ago we cleared a mortgage of $10,000 on the Parish House. We have been asked by the Trust Co. to begin payments on the principle of the remaining mortgage. Offerings from the Red envelopes in the cartons are used for this purpose.

The Mortgage on the Rectory, at 635 W. Sedgwick St., now stands at $3,000. We have finished paying the second mortgage of $2,000, which was held by the West End Building and Loan Association.

A note of $2600 is held by the Germantown Trust Co., against the parish as a floating debt, $300 of which was added during the past year.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild of Epiphany Church met regularly at stated monthly meetings during the year 1932.

In April and December, Parish suppers were held, the proceeds of which were given to help defray church expenses.

The Rector's study was fitted out with a new rug, furniture, and new curtains, through the generosity of the members of the Guild.

On Tuesdays during Lent the members met in the Parish House to sew for Missionary purposes.

During the year Mrs. Buckley took several automobile loads of discarded clothing to City Mission.

Several times during the year the Sunshine Guild headed by Mrs. Flack sent donations and gifts to the House of Rest in Germantown. This Guild has also sent flowers to the sick, and sunshine boxes to the sick and shut-ins in the Parish.

The women of the Parish contributed over two hundred dollars to the United Thank Offering. This money is used to support women workers in the Missionary Fields.

Faithfully submitted,

Irma S. Huber, Secretary

The different delegates and committees of the Guild are as follows:-

Diocesan Delegates—Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson.

Domestic Committee—Mrs. John B. Jones and Miss Lippincott.

Indian Hope Committee—Mrs. Dingle.

Foreign Committee—Mrs. Haines.

Convocation Delegates—Miss Davis and Mrs. Twelves.

Sewing—In charge of Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson.

Sunshine Club—Mrs. Flack.

United Thank-Offering Treasurer—Mrs. Seeley.

Freeman Delegates—Mrs. Comstock and Mrs. Buckley.

"THE SUNSHINE GUILD"

had its inception April 8, 1929 at the suggestion of Mrs. O. B. Lippincott, who made the initial donation of $5.00.

Since then we have raised in all $156.05.

Have sent out 28 Sunshine Boxes to those in our Parish who have been ill; flowers to 12.

Have each year sent individual valentines to the Guests at the House of Rest and two donations of $5.00 each to the House of Rest.

This year we delivered baskets to two worthy poor families.

The balance remaining in the Treasury is $19.26.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. G. F. Flack.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Another Parish year has rolled around and I am pleased to report that the Altar Guild has been strengthened by the addition of five new members, all active. We have now 26 members, two of whom go on duty each month and take care of the Altar and Chancel. They see that the proper linens are provided and laundered and that the silver vessels and brasses are kept bright and shining.

Mrs. Middleton, who has served the Altar Guild most efficiently as Treasurer for so many years resigned last October and Miss Wolff was appointed Treasurer in her place. Miss Davis is still the Directress and Mrs. Heyward, Secretary.

During the last year Mrs. Kent very kindly made and donated 16 new collars for the choir. Four of the brass flower vases and the alms basin have had the wornout lacquer removed and have been polished and put in first class condition and the rug on the Altar steps has been thoroughly cleaned. A new Fair Linen has been provided for the Altar and a glass top and red felt for the desk in the vestry room.

A yearly special appeal is made in the early spring to the Congregation for contributions for help in the work that this organization is doing.

The Altar Guild also provides flowers for the Altar, when none are donated, and for special occasions, as at Easter and Christmas. On these two occasions the money is raised through special envelopes. Mrs. Haines is still in charge of the Flower Calendar. She tells me that at present there are 24 vacant Sundays, that is four more than last year. Of course ten of these are in the summer time when we can use garden flowers and I hope our people will remember the Guild during the coming hot months. The other 14 Sundays are in the time of year when flowers are SCARCE. Flowers for the Altar seem to me a very beautiful way of expressing to Almighty God our appreciation of His many blessings and we would be very grateful if more of the church members would give memorials of flowers on these dates.

M. J. Heyward, Secretary.

A Foreword by the Rector

To the Members of the Church of the Epiphany:-

We are happy again to present to the members of our parish a copy of the Year Book. Its publication is made possible through the kindness of the advertisers, whom we hope you will patronize whenever possible.

The compilation of such a book as this entails considerable labor, and we hope it will receive the careful attention of everyone. We have endeavored to give a summary of reports from the officials of the parish, and the organizations, and to present other matters of importance, with which the people of the church should be familiar. We hope that you will preserve this copy of the Year Book throughout the year, since it contains many references which you may find useful.

As you read through the different items and reports you will discover that in spite of difficult times, we have had a successful year in our parish life.

We hope that everyone in the parish will be encouraged by what we have done, and that there will be a new awakening to greater service, in which more people will share. I am very grateful for the fine co-operation, which has been manifest in meeting extraordinary conditions.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector

Some Standing Notices

Visitation of the Sick

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308 states "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

Marriages

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services.

Burial of the Dead

Always confer with the Minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

Letters of Transfer

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

Wills and Bequests

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

Report of the Rector to the Parish Meeting for the Year 1933

In order that the work of the year 1933 may be summarized and placed on record, I wish to make this report of certain phases and activities of the parish life, especially that part with which I am particularly concerned.

REPORT OF PASTORAL WORK

During the year just closed, I conducted 162 Church Services on Sundays, Holy Days and other special Week-Days. At these services, I preached 80 sermons. The total attendance was 7000.

Of official acts: 7 persons have been Baptised, 13 presented for Confirmation, 5 couples have been married and 9 persons buried. Letters of Transfer have been issued to 6 persons and 11 persons have been received from other parishes. In the course of the year I have made pastoral calls upon the well, the sick and the bereaved totalling well over three hundred.

OUR PAROCHIAL FAMILY

We minister to about 235 Families, numbering in all about 600 Baptised persons, of which we report 340 Communicants, i. e. those who have either been Confirmed in this parish, or those who have made their connection with us by Letter of Transfer from another parish. There are still about 125 Confirmed persons in the parish who do not appear on our Parish Register, since they have not formally connected with us by Letter of Transfer.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

We have on active enrollment 140 Pupils, Teachers and Officers, of which we have an unusually high percentage of attendance. Every class in the Church School has a qualified teacher, a man for the boys and a woman for the girls, with the exception of a couple of the younger classes.

During the year, the School has contributed $200 to the parish expenses, and about $400 to Missionary work. They have sent gifts to some twenty-five children in Alaska, to about forty Indian children in Nevada and 125 gifts to sick children in the Episcopal Hospital.

CHURCH INTEREST

Church attendance is often considered a barometer of the vitality of church life. I believe that there has been a slight increase in the attendance at our church services. It has been particularly marked during the special seasons of the Church Year, in Lent and at Easter and during Advent and at Christmas. At the Christmas Communions 190 received, and of course there were many more than that number who were present. This was better than last year. Of course comparisons mean little, since one must consider the weather, the day on which Christmas falls and many other details. In comparing our attendance with other surrounding parishes, I find that our attendance is very favorable in proportion to our communicant strength. We are in the center of four other much older and considerably stronger parishes, none of which is more than a mile from our church door, and many of whose communicants live in our immediate neighborhood. A survey some years ago showed that there were six hundred Episcopalians living within a radius of four squares of the church who attended these other Episcopal Churches.

But we ought to try to strengthen this vital part of our church life. I call upon our regular communicants to be more faithful in their attendance and to invite to our services their neighbors and friends. That is the only way in which we can grow. With the return of better times, which I believe are not far off, there will be many new families moving into vacant houses and we must try to reach them. It is impossible for the rector to know when a new family moves in a block, but you their neighbor can approach them in behalf of the church.

THE PARISH FINANCES

We have worked hard during the past year to raise our funds to carry on our work. Through a splendid cooperation in the parish, we are happy to say that we closed the year without having to borrow any money from the bank. In fact we balanced the Budget, having received $241.26 more than our expenses for the year.

The amount paid on our Missionary quota was $1490.14 about $200 less than last year, though we gave some extra amounts that would bring our amount up if they could be included on the quota. We are very grateful for this splendid sign of cooperation during a trying time.

IN CONCLUSION

I want the people of the parish and community to know that I stand ready to help them in time of difficulty and distress. More and more Christian people should make use of the Church as a sustaining power and uplifting influence toward a larger life.

Faithfully yours,
J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

VALUATION AND MORTGAGE ON PROPERTY

The estimated valuation of the entire property of the parish is placed at $125,000. This includes the Church building and grounds, the Parish House, and the Rector's Residence on Sedgwick St.

The Mortgages on the properties are as follows:—The Mortgage on the church is $15,000 and is held by the Germantown Trust Co. We have cleared the mortgage of $10,000 on the Parish House. We have been asked by the Trust Co. to begin payments on the principle of the remaining mortgage on the church.

The Mortgage on the Rectory, at 635 W. Sedgwick St., now stands at $3,000. We have finished paying the second mortgage of $2,000, which was held by the West End Building and Loan Association.

A note of $2600 is held by the Germantown Trust Co., against the parish as a floating debt.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

During the year 1933, the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Epiphany met regularly at stated monthly meetings.

Three parish Suppers were held, one in February, one in May and one in November. The proceeds of these suppers were given to help defray church expenses and the interest on the mortgage.

During January and February about 40 garments were made and sent to the Red Cross Headquarters.

On the Tuesdays in Lent the members met at the ten o'clock Communion service and spent the remainder of the day sewing for missionary purposes. Fifty garments were finished.

A Mission Study class on China was held on Tuesday afternoons, while the members were sewing, conducted by Mrs. James F. Bullitt, and the offering was given to St. Elizabeth's Mission, China.

Mrs. Heyward donated and made curtains for the Guild Room.

Donations of money were sent to Bishop White of Springfield, Ill., to the Fund for Unemployed Women and to Deaconess Young.

Faithfully submitted,

Irma S. Huber, Secretary.

The different delegates and committees of the Guild are as follows:

Diocesan Delegates—Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson.
Domestic Committee—Mrs. Jones and Miss Lippincott.
Indian Hope Committee—Mrs. Dingle.
Foreign Committee—Mrs. Haines.
Freeman Delegates—Mrs. Comstock and Mrs. Buckley.
Convocation Delegates—Miss Davis and Mrs. Twelves.

House of Rest Representatives—Mrs. Downs, Mrs.
Brown and Mrs. Middleton.
Sunshine Committee—Mrs. Flack.
United Thankoffering Treasurer—Mrs. Seeley.
Sewing—in charge of Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson.

Sunshine Club

During the year flowers have been sent to six ill people of the parish, one sunshine box, one box of fruit and individual valentines to each guest at the House of Rest. A donation of $5.00 was also sent to the House of Rest.

Funds were raised by donations and a cash return resulting from a visit to Abbott's Dairies.

The Sunshine Club desires to thank everyone who assisted in making the work a success.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. G. F. Flack.

Report of the United Thankoffering for 1933. This offering is collected twice a year from the Blue Mite Boxes and is used to support the Women Workers in the Missionary Fields. The response during this past year was less than the year before. The April ingathering was $57.01 and the October collection was $76.86, making a total of $133.87.

Respectfully submitted,

Jessie A. Seeley, Treasurer.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Now at the end of our Parish Year and on the threshold of another I am pleased to report that the Altar Guild has been functioning smoothly and in spite of the continuance of unsettled times has more than held its own. We have now 27 members, two of whom go on duty each month and take care of the Altar and Chancel. They see that the proper linens are provided and laundered and that the silver vessels and brasses are kept bright and shining.

Miss Edna Davis is still the Directress, Miss Ruth Wolff the Treasurer, and Mrs. R. B. Heyward, Secretary.

During the last year the Altar Guild bought 6 new cottas for the choir, helped in the purchase of new cassock for Mr. Twelves and the footstools in the Chancel were recovered with red rep provided by Mrs. Twelves.

A yearly special appeal is made in the early spring to the Congregation for contributions for help in the work that this organization is doing.

The Altar Guild also provides flowers for the Altar, when none are donated, and for special occasions as at Easter and Christmas. On these two occasions the money is raised through special envelopes. Mrs. Verona Haines is still in charge of the Flower Calendar. She tells me that at present there are 22 vacant Sundays. As you already know 10 of these come during the summer and I hope our people will remember the Guild and send us some of their Garden flowers. The other 12 Sundays come at the time when there are no flowers in our gardens. May I ask again that some more of the Church Members give memorials of flowers on these dates. Could there be any more beautiful way of expressing to Almighty God our appreciation of His many blessings and at the same time remembering our dear ones than to beautify His Holy Altar with fragrant flowers?

M. J. Heyward, Secretary.

The Family List

of the Congregation

The list given below, includes so far as we have been able to ascertain all those families who are interested in the church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list for there are many names on the list of persons, who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

A Foreword About This Year Book

To All Who Receive It:-

Please keep this Year Book handy throughout the year. It has many names, references, records etc., that anyone interested in the parish will want to refer to.

The compilation of the Book involves a great amount of time. We hope therefore that you will give it your careful reading and attention. While the reading of reports and accounts may not seem very interesting, they do represent the work which we have been doing during the past year.

The Year just closed has been one of the most successful, materially and spiritual in the life of our parish.

The publication of this Year Book is made possible through the kindness of the advertisers. You will be interested to know how many of your neighborhood stores are represented in this book. Patronize these advertisers whenever possible.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

Some Standing Notices

Visitation of the Sick

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308 states "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

Marriages

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services.

Burial of the Dead

Always confer with the Minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

Letters of Transfer

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

Wills and Bequests

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

Report of the Rector For the Year 1934

Since I read no actual report at the Parish Meeting this year, I am simply placing on record here, things which seem to me to be important in our parish life.

Report of Pastoral Work

Elsewhere you will find listed in this book the number of services held and the other pastoral duties which I performed during the year. I should like just to stress the fact that there has been an increase in those to whom we minister which shows itself in more baptisms, confirmations, attendance at church services, and the actual number of Communicants on our Parish List.

The Gift of $5000

Most of our Parish Family knows of the marvelous gift that came to us towards the end of the year. The donor wished to remain anonymous. The rector has expressed the gratefulness of the congregation to the party in question.

Through this gift, we were enabled to pay off the mortgage on the Rectory of $3000, reduce the note at the bank from $2500 to $1000, and the remaining $500 enabled us to close the year without a deficit. This does not mean, however, that we can hold back in our giving. The present year requires the effort of everyone to see that we do not go into any additional debt. I shall expect the people of the parish to back me up in this endeavor.

The Rector's Tenth Anniversary

With the support and encouragement of the people of the parish, we have been able to accomplish a real piece of constructive parish work during these last ten years. We have reduced our indebtedness about $16,000.00, we have added a number of important improvements costing approximately $7000 and paid for them. We have added two hundred and fifty persons to our Communicant List and increased the Church School enrollment. And I believe that we have grown spiritually and in understanding of our Christian obligation and devotion. All of these things should encourage us to forge ahead. It is like a new era that has begun for us. We have been throwing off some of the obstacles and we must now reach out and extend the boundaries of our influence.

The Boys' Choir

One of our new endeavors is the adding of boys to our Church Choir. We hope that in time this will add volume and a new tone to our music. But most of all we are thinking of the boys who will be brought under the influence of the church's service. I especially ask that you be very sympathetic with this effort and that you show your interest by attending the services. There is of course some extra expense involved and we trust that there will be enough interested persons who will come forward to see that it is not a strain on the parish treasury.

The Church Organizations

The new organization that has been formed is the Vestment Chapter. This is composed of the mothers of the boys in the choir and other interested persons. The purpose of this organization is to take care of the vestments of the entire choir. I trust that you will support any efforts they make.

I am glad to report that the other two organizations in the parish have taken on new leases of life. The Woman's Guild has added a number of new women and their last meeting was one of the largest attended for many years. The Altar Guild has also increased its membership. Elsewhere you will find reports of the fine work these two groups are doing.

Our main effort during the coming year should be to reach new people, especially those who are not attending church elsewhere, to make everyone feel welcome and to promote our own spiritual lives by devotion to and practice of, our Christian duties.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

VALUATION AND MORTGAGE ON PROPERTY

The estimated valuation of the entire property of the parish is placed at $125,000. This includes the Church building and grounds, the Parish House, and the Rector's Residence on Sedgwick St.

The Mortgages on the properties are as follows:—The Mortgage on the church is $15,000 and is held by the Germantown Trust Co. We paid the mortgage of $10,000 on the Parish House in 1931. We have been asked by the Trust Co. to begin payments on the principle of the remaining mortgage on the church.

The Mortgage on the Rectory, at 635 W. Sedgwick St., of $3,000, was paid off in November last.

A note of $1,000 is held by the Germantown Trust Co., against the parish as a floating debt. During the year $1,600 was paid off.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild of Epiphany church has met regularly at stated monthly meetings during the year 1934, with the President, Mrs. Lippincott, presiding at all meetings. Every woman in the Parish is eligible as a member of this Guild, but the work is carried forward with about twenty active members.

Two Parish suppers were held, one in January and one in November. The proceeds of these 2 suppers, $75 and $57 were given to help defray church expenses, together with the Guild's Easter Offering of $100 making a total of $232. On Tuesdays during Lent the women met to sew for Missionary purposes, first attending the 10 o'clock Communion service. Instead of the usual Mission study class during Lent, there were speakers on current Topics related to religion. Ten dollars was contributed from this group to the Sagada Maternity Hospital in the Philippines.

The Woman's Guild was represented at the Annual Convention Day on May 24th.

For the Women's United Thank Offering, Mrs. Seeley collected $250.46 for the year from the women of the Parish. Donations of money were sent to House of Rest (Gtn.), Dr. Neve for his work among the Virginia mountaineers, Convocation Day, Educational week for Blind, and to several Diocesan committees which had a deficit.

The sunshine club under the capable chairmanship of Mrs. Flack is part of the Woman's Guild and is supported by members of the Guild. This club sends flowers, gifts and sunshine boxes to the sick and shut-ins of the Parish.

The Guild sends representatives to the monthly meetings of the following committees of the Diocese—Foreign, Domestic, Diocesan, Colored and Indian—Hope. Also a yearly contribution to each of these committees.

The work of the Woman's Guild is carried on by annual dues, luncheons, teas, musicals, etc., and the faithfulness of its members.

There is a pressing need for new members to help carry on this wonderful work and a cordial welcome awaits any prospective member.

It has been my special privilege to be secretary of the Woman's Guild for four years, and I assure you, it has been a pleasure and inspiration to serve you.

Faithfully submitted

Irma S. Huber (Mrs. S. W. Huber).

The different delegates and committees of the Guild are as follows:

Diocesan Delegates—Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson
Domestic Committee—Miss Lippincott, Mrs. Seiffert, and Mrs. Cass

Indian Hope Committee—Mrs. Dingle and Mrs. Simplair
Foreign Committee—Mrs. Haines

Freeman Delegates—Mrs. Comstock and Mrs. Buckley
Convocation Delegates—Miss Davis, Mrs. Twelves and Mrs. Simplair

House of Rest Representatives—Mrs. Downs, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Middleton

Sunshine Committee—Mrs. Flack

United Thankoffering Treasurer—Mrs. Seeley

Sewing—in charge of Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson

Educational Secretary—Mrs. Twelves

SUNSHINE CLUB

The Sunshine Club this past year has sent to the sick of the Parish

One basket of fruit

Three sunshine boxes

Flowers to four.

Valentines to all the Guests of the House of Rest, also a donation of $5.00 to the House of Rest.

We now have in our treasury $13.83.

Mrs. G. F. Flack

The United Thankoffering

This offering is collected twice a year from the Blue Mite Boxes and is used to support Women Workers in the Missionary Fields. The Spring offering was $87.60, and the Fall Ingathering $162.86, making a total for the year of $250.46, one of the largest offerings this parish has given. The Triennial offering from the parish presented at General Convention last October was $637.29. The Offering from the women of the whole Church was $788,997.74.

Respectfully submitted,

Jessie A. Seeley, Treasurer.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Another Parish Year has rolled around and I am more than pleased to report that all continues to go well with the Altar Guild. We now have 30 members, two of who go on duty each month and take care of the Altar and Chancel. They see that the proper linens are provided and laundered and that the silver vessels and brasses are kept bright and shining.

Miss Edna Davis is still the Directress, Miss Ruth Wolff the Treasurer, and Mrs. R. B. Heyward, Secretary.

During the past year the Altar Guild bought Mr. Twelves a new surplice and some new turnover collars, the last being very kindly made by Mrs. Ronzone, also a new linen cover for the Communion Set was made by Mrs. Buckley.

Mrs. Harry Rebmann, who has been with the Guild for a good many years, resigned last February. We were very sorry to lose her.

Every year the Guild sees that the fruit and vegetables, etc., put in the Chancel on Thanksgiving Day, are taken to the House of Rest. This year Mrs. John D. McCown, assisted by Mrs. Heyward and her son Ben, took them down in her car.

A yearly special appeal is made in the early spring to the congregation for contributions for help in the work this organization is doing.

The Altar Guild also provides flowers for the Altar, when none are donated, and for special occasions, as at Easter and Christmas. On these two occasions part of the money is raised through special envelopes. Mrs. Verona Haines, who has been in charge of the Flower Calendar since 1931, resigned in December. Her resignation was accepted with much regret. Mrs. Dingle has taken her place. There are still 16 vacant Sundays. About 7 of these come during the summer months when I hope our people will remember the Guild and send us some of their garden flowers. The remaining Sundays come during cold weather when we have to depend on greenhouses for our flowers. What a splendid opportunity this is for our church members to help us out and at the same time their appreciation of God's many blessings by beautifying His Altar with fragrant flowers. May I ask again, as I have each year, that more of our Church members give memorials of flowers on these dates.

Mrs. M. J. Heyward, Secretary.

Some Interesting Facts About the Prayer Book

The Title: The Book of Common Prayer, that is prayer that is common or known to all and for all common needs. This is formal prayer, in contrast to extempore prayer, made up as you go along and only known to the minister.

Formal or "set prayers" have always been in use at religious services, both in the Jewish Church and in the early Christian Church. John Baptist gave his disciples a set prayer, Jesus gave His disciples the great model prayer "The Lord's Prayer." Several places are mentioned in the New Testament referring to "the Prayers."

The Book of Common Prayer is not a product of an age or nation, but is an accumulation of prayers and services from the time of the Apostles to our own. Its phraseology is that of the Bible.

Originally our Prayer Book was in Latin. But previous to that it was in Greek.

Some of the great Liturgies from which parts of our Prayer Book come, go back many centuries. The Sacramentary of Leo, the Great, 450 A. D. The Sacramentary of Gelasius, 492 A. D. The Sacramentary of Gregory, the Great, 590 A. D. Even before that there were Liturgies dating to the Third and Fourth Century, like the Clementine Liturgy, the Liturgies of St. Basil and St. Chrysostom. It is interesting to know that in our services, we are using prayers and collects that have been said by the church for sixteen centuries.

At the time of the Reformation, the Daily Offices known as the "seven Canonical Hours" matins, prime, tierce, sext, none, vespers and compline, were combined into our Morning and Evening Prayer. The first part of the Prayer Book to be translated into English was the Litany in 1544. The Holy Communion was translated and arranged in English in 1548. The First Prayer Book to be translated in English was in the reign of Edward VI, 1549.

In the United States, the Churches used the English Book until the time of the Revolution. In 1789 a revision was made and the Prayer Book of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A. was authorized. There have been many other revisions since.

In the front part of the Prayer Book you will find many interesting things. How to find the places, about the services of the Church, the Proper Psalms and the Calendar of Lessons for the Year.

The Collects, Epistles and Gospels for the Year are divided into two sections

Advent to Trinity (26 Sundays) which tell us about the life of Christ

The Trinity Season (26 Sundays) which tell us about the Church and exhort us to practice the Christian virtues.

A Collect is a kind of prayer—it is short and concise. Originally it was the summing up of the private prayers of the congregation by the minister. These collects are made up with greatest care and many of them go back to the third and fourth centuries.

The Printing and Punctuation of the Prayer Book. Those parts printed in Italics, are called Rubrics and were originally in red. They tell how the service is to be conducted, when we are to stand and when to sit down, etc. These appear throughout the services.

The use of Capital Letters to divide Phrases, which are to be said together, or that constitute separate thoughts, eg. Lord's Prayer. General Confession. the Creeds. The twelve articles in the Creeds are divided by colons and the eighteen clauses by capitals.

Note the difference in the printing of the word Amen, in the places where the minister and congregation speak together and where the minister prays and the congregation responds Amen, eg. Absolution and Lord's Prayer, page 7.

The Prayer Book is charged with remembered harmonies of music, that lift our hearts to heavenly places.

The Family List

of the Congregation

This list given below, includes so far as we have been able to ascertain all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list for there are many names on the list of persons, who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

A FOREWARD ABOUT THIS YEAR BOOK

To All Who Receive It:

The publication of this Year Book each year performs a very definite service in our parish life. It puts within the handy reach of everyone interested in the parish the records, references, names and addresses of families, and other general information. Many of us could not get along very well without the information contained in this book. Therefore, the book is not only interesting as reading matter, but will be preserved by most of you who read it, for constant reference.

The Year Book this year also contains a great fund of educational and inspirational matter regarding the church. This extra material, as well as the publication of the Year Book, is made possible through the kindness of the advertisers. It is only right that our readers should patronize, whenever possible, those who make this useful book available.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

REPORT OF THE RECTOR FOR THE YEAR 1935

This is a written report of what I reported in a more or less general way at the Annual Parish Meeting. It is an attempt to give a summary of the condition of the parish and to call attention to some notable occurrences.

You will find a detailed report of the so-called Pastoral Work elsewhere. I particularly wish to call attention to the unusually large number who have been received into our Parochial Family during the past year. We added to our Parish Register as Communicants forty-five persons, some by Confirmation, some by Transfer. For a small parish, this is a good number.

REPORT OF THE RECTOR FOR THE YEAR 1935

CHURCH ATTENDANCE

A remarkable increase in church attendance took place during the past year. Comparing the attendance with 1934, there were 2,338 more in attendance in 1935. Looking over the parish list of families, it is remarkable to discover that almost every family attended services during this year just closed. Which indicates that our list is very active; that there is little dead wood.

FAMILY SUNDAY

One reason for this increased attendance was the institution of the idea of Family Sunday, which we have held several times during this past year. This brought out not only the children, but a great many parents, some of whom had never been in the church before. We feel that this plan has become an established event, though for the sake of our Church School studies, we have decided to hold this special service every other month, instead of the second Sunday in each month.

A MARVELOUS GIFT

Near the end of the year, the rector received from one of the members of the parish a check for $5,000, with the request that the names of the donors remain anonymous. This was a very great surprise to all of us. I have been asked both by the Parish Meeting and by the Vestry to express the gratefulness of the whole parish for this very generous and thoughtful gift.

Through the gift, we have been able to pay off $3,000 on the church mortgage, reducing it to $12,000.00, to completely wipe out the note at the bank, which was $1,000. With the remainder, $500 was put into the Current Fund at the close of the year to meet certain obligations which had remained standing for several months. This enabled us to close the year without a deficit. A Reserve Fund of $500 has been set aside to make some very necessary repairs at the rectory and the church.

This gift and the cancelling of old debts should stimulate the whole parish to do its utmost. In fact, the donor specifically says, "we feel very strongly, and I think you do too, that other contributors must not feel that they are relieved of obligations to support the church."

CONCLUSION

May I once again bespeak the co-operation of a larger number in carrying on the activities of our parish life. There are many things to be done, but so very few who feel any inclination to do them. We all like to enjoy the results of another's labor. It is only fair that we should all do our share and make the doing of the work a more happy task.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild of Epiphany Church has met regularly at stated monthly meetings during the year 1935, with the President, Mrs. Lippincott, presiding at all but two meetings.

Every woman in the Parish is eligible as a member of this Guild, but the work is carried forward with about 24 active members. A Parish Supper was held on January 7, 1935, in connection with the annual Parish Meeting.

Two other parish suppers were held, one in May and one in November. The proceeds of these suppers were given to help defray church expenses, together with the Guild's Easter Offering of $140.

On Tuesdays during Lent, the women met to sew for Missionary purposes, first attending the 10 o'clock Communion Service. There was a Mission Study Class on "Japan," which met on these Tuesdays. This class contributed $6.50 toward the Missionary work in Japan. For the Women's United Thank-Offering, Mrs. Seeley collected $180.95 for the year 1935.

Donations of money were sent to the House of Rest (Germantown), Japan, Convocation Day, Educational Week for the Blind, the Unemployed Women in the Diocese and to several Diocesan committees which had a deficit.

A Card Party and Tea on February 7th, and a Desert Bridge on May 24th were held. The proceeds of these two affairs were sent to the Unemployed Women in the Diocese.

The Sunshine Guild, under the capable chairmanship of Mrs. Flack, is part of the Woman's Guild and is supported by members of the Guild.

The different delegates and committees of the Guild are as follows:

Diocesan Delegates—Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson
 Domestic Committee—Mrs. Seiffert and Mrs. Morse
 Indian Hope Committee—Mrs. Heyward and Miss Davis
 Foreign Committee—Mrs. Willard and Mrs. Middleton
 Freeman Delegates—Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. Buckley and Mrs. Wilkinson
 Convocation Delegates—Miss Davis, Mrs. Twelves and Mrs. Simplair
 House of Rest Representatives—Mrs. Downs, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Middleton and Mrs. Morse
 Sunshine Committee—Mrs. Flack
 United Thankoffering Treasurer—Mrs. Seeley
 Sewing—in charge of Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

Educational Secretary—Mrs. Twelves

Several new members have been added during 1935, and the Guild extends to them a hearty welcome.

Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs. S. W.) Irma S. Huber, Secretary.

Mrs. O. C. Lippincott resigned as President during the year, and Mrs. Walter Willard was elected President in her place.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Now, at the end of the Parish Year and on the threshold of another, I wish to report that the Altar Guild continues to function smoothly, having still thirty members. Two of these go on duty each month and take care of the Altar and Chancel. They see that the proper linens are provided and laundered and that the silver vessels and brasses are kept bright and shining.

Miss Edna Davis is still the Directress, Miss Ruth Wolff the Treasurer, and Mrs. R. B. Heyward, Secretary.

During the past year we have had three resignations from the Guild and have added three new members. Of these thirty members, however, only a little over half are active. We are hoping that in the near future we will be able to add to this number. We need at least 24 active members to take care of the twelve months in the year.

Every year the Guild sees that the fruit and vegetables, etc., put in the Chancel on Thanksgiving Day, are taken to the "House of Rest." This year Mrs. Heyward and her son, Ben, took them down in his car.

A yearly special appeal is made every spring to the congregation for help in the work this organization is doing.

Four new hand towels have been donated by Mrs. Elton Buckley, who also very kindly made a new linen cover for the Communion Set. The Guild supplied the material for a new Fair Linen for the Altar. Mrs. Philip Ronzone made the same, and the crosses were very kindly embroidered by Mrs. Harry Rennison.

On Tuesday, November 12th, the Altar Guild had as its guest Mrs. Cross, who is the President of the Diocesan Altar Guild. She gave us a most interesting and inspiring talk, which resulted in our Guild becoming a member of the larger organization. Later, a most inspiring meeting of the Diocesan Altar Guild was attended by four of our members. It was regretted that more were not able to be present.

We regret to say that owing to ill health, Mrs. Dingle, who has been in charge of the Flower Calendar, resigned in November. Her place has been very ably filled by Miss Ruth Wolff.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild supplies flowers for the Altar when none are donated and for special occasions, as at Christmas and Easter. On these two occasions, part of the money is raised through special envelopes. There are 13 vacant Sundays. Some of these occur during the summer months, when I hope our people will remember the Guild and send us some of their garden flowers. The remaining Sundays come during the winter, when we must go to a florist for our flowers. This makes a splendid opportunity for our church members to remember their dear ones, and at the same time show their appreciation to Almighty God for His many blessings by beautifying His Altar with fragrant flowers. May I ask again, as I have so often asked before, that more of our church members help us and give memorials of flowers on these dates.

M. J. Heyward, Secretary.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The Vestment Chapter is one year old this month. During the year we have made enough money to completely outfit eighteen boys, the vestments costing $120.

The purpose of the Vestment Chapter is to launder, repair, and renew vestments for the whole choir; the adults, as well as the junior boys and girls; the total number being sixty-six.

The money to carry on this work was derived from suppers, cake sales and a trip through Abbots, and the regular 25c dues which each member pays at the regular meeting, which is held the third Wednesday of each month, here in the Parish House.

The organization appoints two members to serve for each month to help get the boys ready and see that every one is presentable before going into the church proper.

We are endeavoring to raise some money with which to buy new vestments for our junior girls' choir.

Now, I feel that this Chapter needs the moral and financial support of the parish. I know no greater return for the 25c dues each month, than we are getting, for our young boys are forming the habit of regular church attendance. Sunday School is part of every child's growth, but to get boys of nine to fourteen years of age to attend regular church services is quite an achievement. We look to you for support.

Faithfully submitted,

Mrs. C. C. Smith, Secretary.

OUR CHURCH AND ITS STORY

Our Church is a daughter Church of the Church of England. That Church is that branch of the Catholic Church which, first preached by the Apostles and the early Christian missionaries, spread throughout the Roman Empire while it was still under heathen and persecuting emperors. With all other representatives and descendents of that Catholic Church it shares in the fundamentals of the faith as expressed in the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds and the interpretations of that faith made by the undisputed General Councils, preserves the same episcopal succession, traceable to the Apostles, and maintaining the great sacraments as ordained by Christ worships according to the ancient forms modified to meet changed conditions. The Church of England, to which we owe so much, is a national Church, and the principle according to which it threw off the yoke of the papal supremacy was the right of each national Church to govern itself. Therefore the Church in the United States is entirely independent, but is also in communion with independent Churches throughout the English-speaking world, as in Ireland, Scotland, Canada and elsewhere.

The Church is thus a part of the Anglican Communion in many parts of the world. The mother church, the Church of England, consists of two provinces, Canterbury with 68 bishops administering 30 dioceses, and York with 25 bishops and 13 dioceses. There is also the Church of Wales with 6 dioceses; the Church of Ireland with 13 dioceses; the Episcopal Church of Scotland with 7 dioceses; the Church of England in Canada with 27 dioceses; in the West Indies and South America with 10 dioceses; in India, Burma and Ceylon with 14 dioceses; in Japan with 10 dioceses; in China with 11 dioceses; four other dioceses in Asia are dependent upon Canterbury; in Africa there are organized in South Africa 14 dioceses and 15 other dioceses dependent upon Canterbury; in Australia and Tasmania there are 25 dioceses; in New Zealand and Melanasia, 9 dioceses; and in addition, 4 other sees not parts of larger organizations, but dependent upon Canterbury, e. g., Bermuda and Newfoundland. In our Church we have 74 dioceses, 20 domestic and 12 foreign missionary districts.

The Anglican Communion is in fellowship with the great Churches of the East which have existed from Apostolic times, including Greece, Russia and other churches.

THE APOSTOLIC CHURCH

The history of the first age of the Church is recorded in the Acts of the Apostles and the other New Testament Books. In apostolic days the Gospel was preached in every civilized land, and in most nations the Church was planted firmly; but from the deaths of the last of the apostles (St. John died in Ephesus about the year 100) few details are preserved until the end of the second century. During this period the Church was persecuted and proscribed; thousands of Christians were martyred for their faith; but the blood of martyrs is the seed of the Church. At last, in the early part of the fourth century, the Emperor Constantine was converted, and from this time the Christian Religion was the official religion of the Roman Empire. In 325 a great council of bishops gathered at Nicea to defend and define the faith. They issued the Nicene Creed, which the whole Church accepted together with the Apostles' Creed, which had come down from Apostolic days. These two Creeds are the short statement of what every Christian is bound to believe.

THE BRITISH CHURCH (C. 200-C. 450)

Christianity spread to Britain before 200 A.D. By whom it was carried or exactly when, is unknown. The same is true of its spread to the western half of the Roman Empire, including Rome itself. The Britons were Celts allied to the Gauls, and the country had been a Roman province since the first century. It was therefore easy for Christianity to spread to it. Little is known of this early Church. St. Alban is supposed to have been martyred under Diocletian, either in 286 or 304. At the Council of Arles in 314, British bishops were present and subscribed the acts. They were also present at later councils. St. Martin's Church, Canterbury, in part dates from this period and there are remains of a church at Silchester. The British Church furnished at least one important character in the history of the Church elsewhere, namely Pelagius. On the Anglo-Saxon invasion the British Christians, so far as not exterminated, were driven into the extreme West of England and into Wales. But already Christianity had spread from Britain to Ireland and parts of Scotland.

THE ANGLO-SAXON CHURCH (597-1066)

The Anglo-Saxon Church owes little or nothing directly to the British Church. The Anglo-Saxons were heathen, and there is no trace of any work among them by British missionaries. Their Church therefore was a new foundation, and they owe their first Christianity to the noble heart of St. Gregory the Great, bishop of Rome (590-604). Having long before become interested in some young slaves brought from England, he was able as bishop to send St. Augustine as a missionary to England. Augustine arrived in Canterbury in 597 and converted the king of Kent, whose wife Bertha, a Frankish princess, was already a Christian. The mission made rapid progress; Augustine was soon consecrated bishop by Virgilius of Arles and made archbishop by Gregory. He was, however, unable to come into union with the remnants of the British Church. Gradually the whole country, in spite of setbacks, was Christianized and bishoprics erected in London, York, Rochester and elsewhere. In this work missionaries from the Scottish monastery of Iona and from elsewhere rendered notable assistance. The Irish-Scottish Church, however, had been isolated for some time from the other parts of the Church and had developed customs not observed elsewhere, and retained some which had been improved. The Church in northern England, where the Iona influence was greatest, was soon torn by internal disputes because many had learned Roman and general western customs which were different, and they advocated their adoption. At a great synod at Whitby, 664, under the King of Northumbria, it was decided to conform to the Roman usages, and so with those generally observed. The Scottish missionaries retired in disgust, though they subsequently also conformed. The decision at Whitby was greatly for the good of the English Church, as it was thereby brought into closer touch with the life and thought of the whole Church. Shortly after Whitby Theodore (d. 690), a learned monk originally from Tarsus, was sent by the pope to be Archbishop of Canterbury. He was able to organize the Church, and regulate the diocesan system. He also established learned studies, so that in a short time the monasteries of England became for a time the leading intellectual centers of the West. Among their great scholars was Bede (d. 735), whose grave is still at Durham. From the schools of England, Charles the Great obtained the leaders for educational work in his empire, because the Church in the West constituted one united body.

The Anglo-Saxon Church, itself the first great mission church, soon became a missionary church. To the Low Countries English missionaries went late in the seventh century. Later St. Boniface (d. 754), a native of Wessex, undertook missions in the same district, and afterwards worked in Western Germany, becoming the "Apostle of Germany." He organized the Church in these parts and in Gaul, and became archbishop of Mainz. He died gloriously as a martyr in Frisia. This mission of St. Boniface is the greatest mission work of the English until modern times, and it profoundly affected the ecclesiastical organization of all the West.

After its first glorious period of a century and a half, the Anglo-Saxon Church suffered a decline for a century or more, rendered all the worse by the political situation. The heathen Danish and Norse pirates raided the coast and, making conquests, established their rule. The revival of both kingdom and Church was largely the work of Alfred, king of Wessex (871-901), one of the noblest of rulers and best of Christians. He began the reconquest of the country and established the unity of the entire people under his dynasty, from which the present royal family of England is descended. He introduced schools of learning, in turn drawing from Frankish schools; he encouraged the education of the clergy, and founded monasteries and churches. The Church was thus once more able to do its work among the people. A great reform of monasticism was carried out in the next century under St. Dunstan, archbishop of Canterbury (d. 988), in line with the Cluny reform which was sweeping through the Church. But the Anglo-Saxon Church was isolated by its situation at a distance from the rest of the Church. Although visited from time to time by papal legates, it labored under great disadvantages.

THE NORMAN CHURCH (1066-C. 1300)

With the Norman Conquest in 1066 the Church of England came into the great life of the Church of the West. William the Conqueror immediately set about the reorganization of the Church in England. From Normandy, where the Church was probably in better condition than anywhere else, he introduced tried and experienced men to hold the sees he made vacant by the expulsion of the incompetent bishops. Lanfranc (1070-1089), Archbishop of Canterbury, with the assistance of a papal legate, carried through a reform of the Church. Some of the new bishops were very secular in their ideals, but others were men of real learning and piety. It was a time, however, when the papacy was rapidly increasing in moral and legal authority. There was between the claims of royal authority and papal notions of Church efficiency a conflict. This had come in to Germany to actual war in the Investiture Contest under Gregory VII, Hildebrand (1073-85). Before it was settled on the Continent, a settlement had been effected in England between St. Anselm, Archbishop of Canterbury (1093-1109) and Henry I (1100-35), which was followed in the final settlement in Germany. St. Anselm was the most celebrated theologian and philosopher of the times. A similar controversy broke out in 1164 under Henry II (1154-11), but chiefly over the rights of the clergy and the right of carrying appeals from ecclesiastical courts to the pope, for in the meanwhile the papacy had immensely developed its legal system. Henry, after the murder of Archbishop Becket (1170) was forced to renounce some of his claims and ecclesiastical appeals continued until 1533. In spite of the anti-national aims of the papal policy, the Church of England under Stephen Langton, Archbishop of Canterbury (1207-28) was able to combine with the nobility against the tyranny of King John (1199-1216), for it was Langton who led the barons to obtain Magna Carta (1215).

In the thirteenth century the papacy was at the height of its power under popes of extraordinary ability, and as John had surrendered the England and Ireland to the papacy (1213) and held it as a tributary state, papal interference with English affairs was constant. The country was heavily taxed by the popes to support their political schemes, and the benefices were filled by Italians who paid no attention to their duties. Brave ecclesiastics, such as Grosseteste, Bishop of Lincoln (1235-53), protested in vain. St. Edmund Rich, Archbishop of Canterbury (1233-1240), resigned in despair. England and its Church were governed largely by papal legates, and tax collectors plundered the land. But under Edward I (1272-1307) a new order of things was to be observed. Wise statutes were enacted by the kings, the Convocation of the clergy was organized (1283) to serve with Parliament, which itself dates from 1295. The thirteenth century was a great period of intellectual activity. Oxford and Cambridge Universities were established. Among the learned men of the first rank in Europe, theologians, philosophers and scholars, were the Englishmen, Alexander of Hales, Roger Bacon and Duns Scotus. Second only to them were Adam Marsh and Robert Grosseteste.

THE LATER MEDIEVAL CHURCH OF ENGLAND (C. 1300-1533)

With the death of Boniface VIII (1294-1303), the Hildebrandine papacy collapsed and the popes came under the influence of France, settling eventually at Avignon, where they remained until 1378. The loyalty of the clergy and people to the pope was sorely tried by the position of the papacy, for France had become the traditional enemy of England, and there was actual war between the two countries for nearly a hundred years. It was in this century that great statutes were passed against papal aggressions. By the statute of Provisors (1351) the pope might not appoint to English ecclesiastical positions, and by the statute of Praemunire (1353) appeals might not be taken from the king's courts to those of the pope. These important statutes, passed in fuller form later, were the first of the kind in the Western Church, and are the first clear indications of the new spirit of nationality which brought about the English Reformation. It was but one step further in the same direction when in 1366 the fealty to the pope as suzerain was repudiated, the tribute which was then demanded had long since fallen into arrears.

The condition of the whole Church called for reform, and in various countries complaints were to be heard. In England this found clearest expression in the teaching and work of John Wyclif (d. 1384). He had worked at Oxford, being a famous scholar, and was for a time in sympathy with the Franciscans. He also had been much influenced by Occam and Bradwardine, English theologians of widest reputation. He felt that the Church was in need of general reform, and that it had erred seriously in its teaching. The hierarchy opposed him, but he received protection from powerful political friends. In spite of papal condemnation he died peacefully in his parish of Lutterworth. His work was carried on by his "poor priests," who used the translation of the Bible he made for his followers, known as Lollards. The hierarchy obtained (in 1401) an act which made heresy a capital offense, and there were in England not a few martyrs for religious opinion; the last burning was as late as James I. The Lollards were obliged to cherish their opinions in secret. The Church of England in the fifteenth century took part in the great reforming councils. At Constance Wyclif's teaching and that of Huss, based almost entirely upon Wyclif's, were condemned, but English representatives of Wyclif's teaching persisted through the fifteenth century. It is impossible to say how far Wyclifism prepared the way for the English Reformation. Its direct influence was probably extremely slight. Likewise it is hard to see that the Renaissance, or revival of letters, which spread to England in the fifteenth century, did more than prepare to some slight extent the ground for the Reformation, as is clear from the nature of the English Reformation.

THE ENGLISH REFORMATION (1533-1689)

The Reformation in England, though in course of time much influenced by the Reformation on the Continent, pursued a very different course from the Lutheran and Calvinistic reformations. It accordingly reached results markedly different from that of the other non-Roman Communions. The Lutheran Reformation broke out in 1517, when Luther began his great work. By 1530 it had produced its most important doctrinal statement, the Confession of Augsburg. It was established in many parts of Germany and in the Scandinavian countries by 1555, when it was established in Germany by the Peace of Augsburg. Meanwhile a reformation had been going on under Zwingli in Switzerland and parts adjacent. The Calvinistic Reformation, beginning a little later under John Calvin (1509-1564), spread into Germany, Holland, France and Scotland.

The English Reformation began later than these movements and, although its main positions were attained in the latter half of the century, it really did not end until 1689, when the final position of the Church of England was established.

The English Reformation did not begin with a theological doctrine or even protest against abuses, but with the rejection of papal supremacy in 1533, due to the King's private affairs. The Church became at once an independent church, but with the same bishops and clergy, the same courts and law, the same worship and faith. No important changes were made except so far as the Church's regained freedom required them. During the reign of Henry VIII (1509-1547) there was the dissolution of the monasteries and much plunder, but the general effects of his policy was the introduction of a sound body of instruction, according to the old faith, and the free use of the English Bible. Under his son Edward VI (1547-1553), the worship was rendered into English and the first Book of Common Prayer was published (1549), which has remained very much the same in revised editions. Foreign reformatory influences, however, began to be seriously felt and some changes were made in the Prayer Book, and the Articles of Religion were put forth in their first form. But the accession of Mary Tudor (1553-1558) swept all these away. Mary replaced the bishops by those who would support the Roman Church and reconciled the kingdom to Rome. Her short reign ended in a fierce persecution in which reformers such as Cranmer, Ridley and Latimer were martyred. On the accession of Elizabeth (1558-1603) the Romanist bishops refused to acknowledge her as the supreme governor of the Church, clergy as well as laity, and they were deprived. Matthew Parker was thereupon consecrated Archbishop of Canterbury by bishops who had been deprived by Mary, some of whom had been consecrated under Henry VIII according to the older form of consecration. Thus the old line of bishops was continued without break in the succession. The reformed Book of Common Prayer was restored and the Church returned to its free and reformed condition.

Elizabeth was placed in a difficult position. Many who had fled under Mary returned fired with zeal for the Calvinism imbibed in Geneva. They were bent on destroying Episcopacy and introducing Presbyterianism. On the other hand, Roman Catholics were constantly plotting against the Queen, especially after Pope Pius V in 1570 published a bull deposing Elizabeth and releasing her subjects from their obedience. By greatest vigilance the Queen with her able advisers was able to steer a middle course between these two dangers. And after the defeat of the Spanish Armada (1588) her position was assured and the Church saved. In the latter part of Elizabeth's reign great theologians such as Jewel (1522-71), Richard Hooker (1553-1600), Bancroft, (1544-1610) and Andrews (1555-1626) expounded the doctrine and polity of the Church as it had been gradually taking permanent shape.

Under James I (1603-1625) the Calvinists, known as Puritans, opposed incessantly the Church's teaching and polity. One result, however, of this was the King James Translation of the Bible. But the policy of the Stuarts was unfortunate and tactless. Under Charles I (1625-1649) the condition of the Church became serious and finally desperate. Laud, the chief ecclesiastical adviser of Charles, was a severe and tactless governor of the Church. In spite of his good intentions, ecclesiastical questions became mixed up with political, and a revolution which threatened to destroy the Church broke out. The bishops were deprived of their authority (1642), the use of the Book of Common Prayer was forbidden (1645). The King, who would not desert the Church, was executed in 1649, four years after Archbishop Laud. England was now a Puritan Commonwealth under Cromwell, whose firm tyranny held things together for a while. But in 1660 England, disgusted with the rigors of Puritanism, recalled the Stuarts.

Under Charles II (1660-1685) the Church was restored. The Book of Common Prayer, revised for the last time, was introduced in 1662, and the bishops who had survived the Commonwealth were restored and others consecrated. The Presbyterians were forced to vacate their positions. The Church with the Prayer Book and Episcopacy had established forever its position as to doctrine, discipline and worship. Unfortunately, repressive and retaliatory measures were taken against dissenters, following the spirit of the laws enacted against the Church by the Puritans. Some of these were only repealed in the early nineteenth century. But after the expulsion of James II (1685-1688), a Roman Catholic who had tried to Romanize the Church, a Toleration Act was passed (1689), allowing dissenters to worship under easily accepted conditions.

CHURCH IN THE AMERICAN COLONIES (1607-1785)

With the settlement of the American Colonies the English Church took its first step in that expansion whereby it has become little less than world-wide. In Virginia the Church came with the first settlers at Jamestown in 1607 and grew with the growth of the colony. In 1676 it was to be found in Maryland, and in both of these colonies it became the Established Church. In the other southern colonies there were many Churchmen, but the Church was weak. In New England the settlers were largely Puritans emigrating chiefly between 1630 and 1640 to escape Laud's rigorous measures against non-conformity. With the coming of the royal governors toward the end of the century, Church worship was established and churches built. In New York the Dutch were the first settlers, but the Church came with the English, and it was only from 1693 that it really dates. In other colonies the Church came later, but north of Maryland few churches were to be found except in the larger towns.

The churches in the American Colonies had practically no organization except as parishes, which were regarded as under the jurisdiction of the Bishop of London. At times his commissary acted for him in some parts. Among these was the excellent Dr. Bray (1656-1730), whose best work, however, was done in England in the foundation of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, which did much to spread the Church and maintain parishes. This support ended only with the outbreak of the Revolution.

The presence of the Church was fiercely resented in the Puritan colonies, and all the more when the Faculty of Yale College turned Churchmen in 1722, and became faithful missionaries in building up the Church in Connecticut. But the Church could not really flourish here or in any colony without the presence of bishops actively engaged in work. Constant requests were made for such, but indifference, local opposition, and supposed political expediency prevented action on the matter in England.

Without proper organization the Church was forced to face the trials of the American Revolution. The loyalists were very largely Churchmen and went into exile or were persecuted for disloyalty to the American cause. In spite of the fact that the leading patriots in the South, a majority of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, and Washington himself, were Churchmen, the Church was treated shamefully in many places, the buildings destroyed or plundered, and their clergy imprisoned, robbed and driven into exile. In Virginia and Maryland, where churches were most numerous, this was especially the case.

THE ENGLISH CHURCH SINCE 1689

The Church in America is so closely connected with the Church of England that before proceeding to the story of the former after the American Revolution it is necessary to recall great movements in life and thought of the Church arising in England and spreading to its daughter church. After the accession of William and Mary in 1689, many of the best men in the Church, including the Archbishop of Canterbury, felt in conscience unable to swear allegiance to the new rulers. Their positions were forfeited, and with relatively few laymen they constituted the Non-Jurors. By their defection the Church lost the representatives of the more churchly party, and their theological views were long regarded as savoring of disloyalty. In spite of some measures taken by Queen Anne, the policy of the Government was steadily toward the repression of the Church's activity. After the accession of King George I this went so far in 1717 as the suppression until 1850 of the Convocations which had served as the synods of the Church. The higher positions in the Church were used as political rewards, every form of clerical abuse flourished, and the neglect of clerical duty probably never was worse.

Nevertheless, God, as so often in the history of the Church, raised up witnesses to the truth and power of religion. In the eighteenth century such were John Wesley (1703-91) and his associates, clergymen of the Church of England. This Evangelical Revival was at first distinctly within the Church, and Wesley to his dying day protested against separation from the Church. It is now seen that this separation was inevitable in the case of many of his followers. There was, however, a large group loyal to the Church. They constituted the Evangelical party, men of deep personal religion, bent especially on evangelizing the neglected classes, but in time touching all classes. Among the leaders were John Newton (1725-1807), Wm. Wilberforce (1759-1833) and Charles Simeon (1759-1836). These men were Calvinists in their theology and regarded religion chiefly from the point of view of individual conversion. Some of them are still known by their excellent hymns used by all. The Evangelicals threw themselves into the great philanthropical work of the times. Foreign missions, the abolition of the slave trade, popular education, and Sunday Schools are largely the fruits of the Evangelical Revival. The Evangelicals long held no prominent offices in the Church, not, in fact, until they had almost ceased to be a great power in the Church. But for a hundred years they were the saving salt of English Christianity.

About 1825 a strong movement set in for political reform, including the abolition of repressive laws against Dissenters and Roman Catholics, and the correction of abuses in State and Church. When ten Irish bishoprics were "suppressed" in 1833 the Church appeared in danger of serious attack. What would happen next none could foresee. There was therefore much serious reflection upon the whole question of the Church's authority and the nature of the ministerial commission. The result was an ecclesiastical and theological movement in 1833, known as the Oxford movement from the place of its origin. The results of the movement later became evident in the great advance in the quality of the work of the clergy, the zeal and faithfulness of all Churchmen, the general deepening of spiritual life, and the employment of new methods of strengthening the religious life. In all there was emphasis upon the sacraments, the Church and the ministry. The development of "Ritualism" belongs to a second generation of the movement, and is incidental to it. The influence of the Oxford movement in a more recent form has steadily advanced, for it seems to be more in harmony with the experience of the Church as a whole as incorporated in the Book of Common Prayer.

A later movement appeared in the nineteenth century, known as the Broad Church movement. It is chiefly connected with the teaching of F. D. Maurice (1805-72), in which the social implications of the Gospel were stressed, as well as a liberalism in interpretation of doctrine, especially as to the Atonement, Inspiration, and Future Punishment. This movement about 1860 became combined with the new critical attitude toward the Bible, its composition, interpretation and the relative authority of its parts. Since 1889 many representatives of the Oxford movement, under the leadership of Bishop Charles Gore (1853-1932), have adopted many of the conceptions of the Liberals and Broad Churchmen without in any way abandoning their older views as to sacraments, Church and ministry. All these movements have profoundly affected the Church in America almost as soon as they appeared in England.

THE CHURCH IN AMERICA SINCE THE REVOLUTION (1785-)

The deplorable condition at the end of the Revolution only stimulated some brave Churchmen to reorganize it for its work. Foremost among them was William White (1748-1836), the statesman of the American Church. The scattered parishes in the several states needed to be combined into dioceses, the Church in the states brought into a national unity, and the episcopate obtained for the continuation of a valid ministry. In Connecticut, however, the clergy proceeded, as the first step, to obtain a bishop. Samuel Seabury (1729-96), chosen by them, was sent to England for consecration. But this the English bishops could not then bestow on account of the law as it then stood. Seabury was consecrated at Aberdeen in 1784 by bishops of Scottish Episcopal Church. In the meanwhile a tentative organization of the Church had been effected under the lead of White, culminating in a General Convention at Philadelphia in 1785. Characteristic of the Constitution as established in the presence of the laity in both Diocesan and General Conventions. This feature, due to White, has been of late introduced into other parts of the Anglican Communion. White was elected Bishop of Pennsylvania, and Samuel Procoost (1742-1815) Bishop of New York. They were consecrated by the two English archbishops and others in 1787. Bishop Seabury now joined the Convention, and the Constitution of the Church was completed in 1789. And at the same time the Book of Common Prayer in a form revised to meet American conditions was issued.

The Church long remained greatly depressed, but after 1811 everywhere a marked revival began. In New York, Bishop Hobart, and in Virginia, Bishop Moore, men of utterly different types of churchmanship, built up their churches with equal success. Theological seminaries were founded, as well as colleges. Missionary work began at home and abroad (1820). In the fifties the Church had reached California and was spread through the West. There was a period of sharp controversy following the introduction of the new Oxford movement teaching, and the same was going on in England. But the growth was little if any retarded. A larger spirit of toleration and adaptability was introduced by W. A. Muhlenberg (1796-1877) and his associates in the fifties, and to them is due the beginning of a movement for Church Unity which has since spread through the Anglican Communion. The Church, it was felt, should adapt itself to new forms of work and the liturgy made more flexible. All these ideas in time found expression in definite action.

By 1860 the Church was so strong that, although during the Civil War the Southern bishops had organized a separate Church, regarding themselves as an independent nation, after the war the parts of the Church immediately reunited without formal action. Since then it has gone steadily forward. In all the larger states the church has been divided into several dioceses. Prayer Book revision has been carried through, better organization has been effected, missionary jurisdictions have multiplied. In 1933 there were dioceses and missionary jurisdictions in 8 provinces, and 13 foreign missionary jurisdictions. Each of these means at least one bishop and staff of clergy, the total number of whom was 6,388. Proposals for Church Unity adopted in Chicago in 1886 have been adopted by the entire Anglican Communion at the Lambeth Conference of all the bishops in communion with the see of Canterbury, the see of St. Augustine. Certainly God's blessing has been abundantly bestowed upon the Church in America and throughout the world.

OUR CHURCH'S ORGANIZATION

The Christian Church was first organized as dioceses under the pastoral oversight of bishops. Parishes came later as divisions of dioceses. In this country the Church was first in the form of local congregations, or parishes, while the country was being settled. In time, however, the diocesan organization was established throughout the country, at first dioceses being coterminous with states. The parochial beginnings influence in many cases the diocesan organization.

The diocese is always under the oversight of a bishop elected by the diocese. The election must be confirmed by other bishops and dioceses. He is consecrated by bishops. This line of consecration extends back to the beginnings of the Christian Church.

The bishop in his diocese is assisted and advised by the Standing Committee which represents the Diocesan Convention when not in session. Without the consent of the Standing Committee the bishop may not perform certain important functions of his office, e. g., ordain any one. Each Diocese is a self-governing body in matters pertaining to its internal affairs. It acts through the Diocesan Convention in which are represented the clergy and the laity of the diocese and all important matters must be passed by both orders acting apart.

The diocese as a part of the Church throughout the nation acts with other dioceses through the General Convention. In this body, which meets every three years, there are delegates, three lay and three clerical, from each diocese. The bishops, sitting by themselves, constitute the House of Bishops. The delegates sit in the House of Delegates acting as one body in all discussion, but on all important matters voting as two orders, i. e., the clerical delegates voting by themselves and the lay delegates by themselves and a concurrence of both orders is necessary for the passage of any measure. It is also necessary that the House of Bishops and House of Delegates must concur in all important matters, and no act is the act of the General Convention without concurrence. In this way all changes are well considered before being made.

The organization of parishes and their relation to the diocese in which they are situated vary much from state to state and diocese to diocese.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CHURCH

Why do you go to Church?

We go to Church to worship God, to make a public confession to our Faith, to hear God's Holy Word, to pray, to receive the Holy Communion, and to be instructed in Christian living.

How does the Church show that she cares for her worship?

The Church shows that she cares for her worship by her ceremonies, which are beautiful, dignified, reverent, and deeply devout, and have come down to us from the early ages.

May every one share in the Service?

Always. Everybody ought to worship our Heavenly Father; and every one who joins heartily and steadily in the Service will find it never monotonous, but, instead, a great help and refreshment.

Why do you pray to God out of a book?

We pray from the heart, using the words of a book, just as we sing from the heart, using the words of a book. We would not like to hear the clergyman sing extemporaneous hymns; we wish to join in the hymns; so we wish to join in the prayers.

Do you use extempore prayer?

Certainly. In homes, in the sickroom, in family worship and in private prayer.

How can a stranger take part in your service?

Before you take your seat, kneel down and ask the Holy Spirit to help you. Then open the Prayer Book, and with hearty earnestness follow the service reverently as it proceeds in the Book.

But I cannot find the places. What then?

They are very easy to learn. Read in the Prayer Book, between the parts of the service, the directions printed in italics. Everything is here clearly shown. A careful reading of these will enable any person to follow and join in the service easily.

How can one tell when to stand, and kneel, and sit?

One general rule will help you. Kneel in the prayers, stand in the singing and while saying the Creed, and sit while being instructed. Kneeling is the proper attitude of humility in making requests of God; standing, the natural attitude of praise.

If I join the Episcopal Church shall I have to be baptized again?

No. Not if you have been baptized with water in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.

How will you receive me into your Church?

If you have not been baptized you will be instructed and prepared for Baptism, which is the solemn Sacrament by which a person has always been admitted into the Holy Catholic Church. When you have been baptized, further instructions will prepare you for Confirmation, and you will be then entitled to receive the Holy Communion.

What do you mean by "The Holy Catholic Church"?

Not the Roman Catholic Church, which is a part only, but the whole "Body of Christ," militant here on earth, expectant in Paradise, and to be triumphant hereafter in Heaven.

What is the Church Militant?

The Church of God throughout the world, fighting against the world, the flesh and the devil; consisting of many branches, but united by holding to one Lord, one Faith, and one Baptism.

You claim, then, that your Church is a branch of the Holy Catholic Church?

Yes, for it traces its ancestry back in an unbroken line through the Church of England, to the days of the Apostles. It is organically a part of the original Church, which our Lord founded and with which He promised to be present "unto the end of the world." This differentiates it in a very important way from modern denominational bodies and gives it a special claim.

Do you mean to say that the Church is as old as the New Testament?

Yes, older. The Church was in existence, taught the Faith, and baptized thousands before a line of the New Testament was written.

But did not the Church of England begin with Henry VIII?

No, indeed. Three hundred years before Henry VIII was born Magna Charta saw it in full vigor. The Church of England has a continuous and unbroken history, as shown by the records, from the Ancient Church of Britain, down to the present time. The British Church was of Apostolic Origin. It sent delegates to Great Councils as early as 314 A. D.

The continuous spiritual life of the Church of England for a thousand years was not broken by what is called the Reformation. After the rejection of papal supremacy in 1534, the same forms of worship were used as before, likewise the same faith was professed, the same ministry served the same altars. There was nothing new for a long time except the freedom from a usurped authority which had long existed.

Is not the Episcopal Church narrow and exclusive?

No; for it recognizes all baptized persons as members of Christ's Body. It welcomes all on the simple scriptural conditions of repentance, faith (as contained in the Apostles' Creed), and the spirit of obedience to God's law. It permits freedom of opinion in non-essentials. Its generous recognition of differences of thought and practice is the cause of astonishment and admiration to all who know it.

Will an Episcopal clergyman minister to others outside his own flock?

A clergyman of the Episcopal Church is at the service of all the world for any service that a minister of God may perform. He will esteem it a privilege to be called wherever his services are needed or desired.

Does the Episcopal Church care for the poor?

It has always been the Church of the common people, as its Book of Common Prayer is for the use of all. In the great cities it leads in work among the poor. Its clergy never refuse a call to minister to the poorest and humblest. In our large cities we have more "Down-Town Churches"—churches which are maintained for the use of the poor—than any other non-Roman body of Christians.

Do you believe in revivals?

The Church has kept for 1500 years two revival seasons; a month before Christmas, called the Advent Season, and six weeks in the spring, called Lent. These and other seasons of special services, called Parochial Missions, are kept expressly to revive and strengthen holy living and to spread the Kingdom of our Lord. We do not approve of sensational or emotional methods.

Do you believe in conversion?

Conversion is necessary for all who have turned away from God since childhood's innocence and is therefore constantly urged. Conversion may be sudden or gradual. Commonly it is a continuous process for years or until a man is morally transformed and knows God as his Father revealed in His Son Jesus Christ. It is constantly presented in the Church's teaching.

What chiefly distinguishes the Church from all other Christian bodies?

The continued identity of its Faith, Ministry and Sacraments with what Christ originally revealed and established.

Does your Church change with changing times and places?

The fundamental principles of religion do not change, neither do the essential elements of human nature. The Faith and Order which Christ established are suited to all sorts and conditions of men, in all places and at all times. The forms of worship may be and have been changed, as well as minor matters of government, because changes are constantly taking place in human circumstances and needs. If the fundamentals were changing we would not be teaching the one and the same Christian religion. Nevertheless with time we understand those fundamentals more perfectly and their application. If it were not so it would not be a living Church.

What claim, then, do you make for the Episcopal Church?

We claim that the Episcopal Church has come down from the Apostles with the same spiritual life and authority; that in its doctrines, government and usages it holds more closely to the Church of the early centuries than does any other religious body; that it maintains the Apostolic Doctrine in its simplicity and fullness, without on the one hand the additions and corruptions of the Roman Catholic Church and on the other without the subtractions of sundry Protestant communions.

We claim further that because of this historical position it is possible for our Church to be most comprehensive, i. e., to include men of widely different types of thought and feeling; to be progressive without abandoning the "faith once delivered to the saints"; and conservative without losing power of adaptation to the needs of the age. Its formularies are those of historical Christianity, and therefore in harmony with what has always been held as the Christian faith.

Is not your Church specially for the wealthy and aristocratic?

The Episcopal Church welcomes every one to her fold and treats every soul alike. King and beggar are baptized by the same service, confirmed in the same way, bow at the same Holy Communion rail, are married by the same service, and at burial the same sacred words are said over their remains. Every cultured person is naturally attracted by the charm and beauty of her services, from which other communions are increasingly borrowing.

Why do you not exchange pulpits with other ministers?

To insure correct teaching the Church has ordered that only such shall minister in our parishes as are amenable to the authority of the Church. But on special occasions the Bishop may authorize any Christian man, although not a minister of our Church, to address congregations.

Does not this oppose and retard Christian unity?

Exchange of pulpits has long existed among modern Protestants with no apparent effect in uniting them. There are many ways in which there may be harmonious Christian work without the sacrifice of principle. This Church stands in the very forefront in seeking Christian unity, and was the first to suggest a basis. It has officially set forth four simple points which it regards as essential to unity.

What are these four points?

1, The Holy Scripture. 2, The Apostles' and Nicene Creeds. 3, The Two Sacraments. 4, The Historic Episcopate.

What would be the effect of agreement here?

Instead of many conflicting sects of Christians, there would be one great Church throughout the world, such as existed before divisions began. Think of the marvelous power such a United Church would exercise now in the world!

Why do you baptize infants?

The old Covenant expressly included infants. The New Covenant can not be less generous, for the Saviour received and blessed little children and said theirs was the kingdom of heaven. Children, however young, have a share in Christ's love and his redemption; they therefore should be brought into his family, the Church, where they grow up as heirs of eternal life. This the Church recognizes and therefore practised infant baptism nearly 1500 years before the custom was ever questioned. Today more than 97 per cent. of the Christians of the world believe in and practice Infant Baptism. This demands from the 3 per cent. who object to it, if their position is to be accepted, a direct Scriptural prohibition, which, of course, cannot be found.

What is the relation of a baptized child to the Church?

Every baptized child is a member of the Church. He is, therefore, to be trained in the Church and taught all such things as a Christian ought to know for his soul's health. At the proper age—commonly about 12 or 14 years—he should be confirmed and thereupon admitted to the Holy Communion which is the highest expression of worship and the immediate and continuous channel of divine grace.

Is Confirmation "Joining the Church"?

Confirmation is not joining the Church nor making a profession of religion except so far as the solemn renewal of vows is such a profession. We join a society or club; we are born or adopted into a family. Therefore we are grafted or born into the Church, the family of God, the Body of Christ.

What, then, is Confirmation?

Confirmation is the "Laying on of Hands" by the Bishop as the representative of the Apostles and according to Apostolic practice. Through this act is bestowed the sevenfold gifts of the Holy Spirit, which are Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Knowledge, Ghostly Strength, Holy Fear and True Godliness.

What is the difference between Baptism and Confirmation?

Baptism makes one a member of the Church. In Baptism man is enlisted into the service; in Confirmation he is equipped for battle; in Baptism he is regenerated unto life; in Confirmation he is prepared for the combat; in Baptism he is cleansed; in Confirmation he is strengthened.

What are the qualifications for coming to the Holy Communion?

Be baptized and confirmed, repent of your sins, have Faith in Christ, amend your life and be in charity with all.

Why are your buildings arranged differently from those of Protestant communions in general?

The arrangement of our church buildings is adapted to the administration of the Sacraments as the supreme acts of worship. They are, therefore, not planned primarily as places to listen to sermons, although the sermon is commonly a part of the Sunday worship. The Font is placed in a position of prominence as Baptism is the door of entrance into the Church. The Altar is most prominent as suggesting our Lord's especially appointed means of grace, and the Cross stands upon the Altar to remind the worshippers constantly of the one great sacrifice for the sins of the whole world. The Church is the proper place for baptisms, weddings and funerals. It also is by far the most convenient place for such.

Do you hold festivals in your Church buildings?

The great Festivals of the Church are observed with special services of praise and other worship. Social gatherings and such festivals are not held in a place consecrated to the reverent worship of God. The solemnity of a Church is not appropriate for such gatherings, nor is merriment of such gatherings appropriate to a Church.

Why do the clergy wear vestments?

The clergy wear vestments as a sign and reminder of the reverence due to God, as a badge of office, and to conceal the ever-changing fashions of men.

Why is a cross sometimes carried before the choir in procession?

For the same reason that a regiment of soldiers carries a flag of the country as it goes to battle. That flag is a symbol of all the ideals for which they are fighting. So the Cross is the symbol of the Christian religion; it is Christ's banner, under which we are to fight manfully against sin, the world, and the devil, and to continue Christ's faithful soldiers and servants.

Why do you kneel in prayer on entering the Church?

Guests at a social gathering go at once to the host and hostess and greet them. It is a special and fitting mark of respect. How proper, then, that we should show our reverent regard for the Almighty at once when we come into His house. Then, without talk or looking about, we put away secular matters and with calm and open mind give ourselves to holy things.

You don't seem very social after the service.

We have come from God's immediate presence; we have heard His message from the lips of His servant; we have bowed in prayer and received His blessing; it is no time for chat or gossip, but for reverent thoughtfulness.

Why is there an offering at the services?

Giving for the support of divine worship, for the extension of Christ's kingdom, and for the relief of the poor, is an essential part of divine worship. It has always been regarded as such from the time of the Apostles.

Is it not an objection to your services that you repeat them over and over again, year after year?

The regular use of services in their essential outlines is of great value. The mind more easily adapts itself to the familiar words and acts. But the constant changes, by which the same services are adapted to various seasons of the Church Year and the different great truths of the Christian faith which are thus emphasized, prevent them from becoming monotonous. Every day in the year has its appointed lessons, psalms. Every Sunday and festival, every week has some appointed prayers and Scripture selection. Into this harmonious whole the worshipper enters as into a familiar sanctuary.

This repetition of our services is no objection. If we did not have the Church Year it would be different. What is called a "free form of worship" easily becomes a set form and with little real variety and the worship will be according to the personal feelings and mind of the leader of the service. The Prayer Book service protects the right of the worshippers to have the whole Gospel presented because, although in outline the same, it presents all Christian teaching and religious experience.

Do all Episcopal Churches use the same Book of Common Prayer?

We regard the use of the Book of Common Prayer as the great bond of union in the life and worship of the Church. The Book of Common Prayer as set forth by the authority of the Church is alone in use throughout the American branch of the Church. In all the English-speaking countries throughout the world substantially the same service book is used. We owe our Book of Common Prayer to the Church of England, but as an independent Church we have revised it to suit our conditions. The variations from parish to parish in the details of the service are the effect of that wise liberty enjoyed in the Episcopal Church and its remarkable adaptability to needs of different people.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be always acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer.—Ps. 19:14-15.

Questions and Answers

From The
OFFICES of INSTRUCTION

What is your Christian name?

My Christian Name is _____.

Who gave you this Name?

My Sponsors gave me this Name in Baptism; wherein I was made a member of Christ, the child of God, and an inheritor of the kingdom of heaven.

What did your Sponsors then promise you?

My Sponsors did promise and vow three things in my name: First, that I should renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanity of this wicked world, and all the sinful lusts of the flesh; Secondly, that I should believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith; And Thirdly, that I should keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of my life.

Do you not think that you are bound so to do?

Yes, verily; and by God's help so I will. And I heartily thank our heavenly Father, that He hath called me to this state of salvation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. And I pray unto God to give me His grace, that I may continue in the same unto my life's end.

You said that your sponsors promised and vowed that you should believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith. Recite the Articles of the Christian Faith as contained in the Apostles' Creed.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary: Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried: He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost: The holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints: The Forgiveness of sins: The Resurrection of the body: And the Life everlasting. Amen.

What do you chiefly learn in these Articles of your Belief?

First, I learn to believe in God the Father, who hath made me, and all the world.

Secondly, in God the Son, who hath redeemed me, and all mankind.

Thirdly, in God the Holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the people of God.

And this Holy Trinity, One God, I praise and magnify, saying,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

You said that your sponsors promised and vowed that you should keep God's holy will and commandments. Tell me how many Commandments there are.

There are Ten Commandments, given in old time by God to the people of Israel.

I. Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

II. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day.

V. Honour thy father and thy mother.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet.

What does our Lord Jesus Christ teach us about these Commandments?

Our Lord Jesus Christ teaches us that they are summed up in these two Commandments.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy mind, with all thy soul, and with all thy strength; this is the first and great Commandment.

And the second is: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

What then do you chiefly learn from the Ten Commandments?

I learn two things from these Commandments; my duty towards God, and my duty towards my Neighbour.

What is your duty towards God?

My duty towards God is to believe in him, to fear him, and to love him with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soul, and with all my strength.

I, II. To worship him, to give him thanks: To put my whole trust in him, to call upon him:

III. To honour his holy Name and his Word:

IV. And to serve him truly all the days of my life.

What is your duty towards your neighbour?

My duty towards my Neighbour is To love him as myself, and to do to all men as I would they should do unto me:

V. To love, honour, and help my father and mother: To honour and obey the civil authority: To submit myself to all my governors, teachers, spiritual pastors and masters: And to order myself in that lowliness and reverence which becometh a servant of God:

VI. To hurt nobody by word or deed: To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart:

VII. To keep my body in temperance, soberness, and chastity:

VIII. To keep my hands from picking and stealing: To be true and just in all my dealings:

IX. To keep my tongue from evil speaking, lying, and slandering:

X. Not to covet nor desire other men's goods; But to learn and labour truly to earn mine own living, And to do my duty in that state of life unto which it shall please God to call me.

Know this; that you are not able to do these things of yourself, nor to walk in the Commandments of God, and to serve him, without his special grace; which you must learn at all times to call for by diligent prayer.

What is the prayer that our Lord taught us to pray?

The Lord's Prayer.

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

When were you made a member of the Church?

I was made a member of the Church when I was baptized.

What is the Church?

The Church is the Body of which Jesus Christ is the Head, and all baptized people are the members.

How is the Church described in the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds?

The Church is described in the Creeds as One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic.

What do we mean by these words?

We mean that the Church is

One; because it is one Body under one Head;

Holy; because the Holy Spirit dwells in it, and sanctifies its members;

Catholic; because it is universal, holding earnestly the Faith for all time, in all countries, and for all people; and is sent to preach the Gospel to the whole world;

Apostolic; because it continues stedfastly in the Apostles' teaching and fellowship.

What is your bounden duty as a member of the Church?

My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church: and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom.

What special means does the Church provide to help you to do all these things?

The Church provides the Laying on of Hands, or Confirmation, wherein, after renewing the promises and vows of my Baptism, and declaring my loyalty and devotion to Christ as my Master, I receive the strengthening gifts of the Holy Spirit.

After you have been confirmed, what great privilege doth our Lord provide for you?

Our Lord provides the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, or Holy Communion, for the continual strengthening and refreshing of my soul.

How many sacraments hath Christ ordained in his Church?

Christ hath ordained two Sacraments only, as generally necessary to salvation; that is to say, Baptism, and the Supper of the Lord.

What do you mean by this word Sacrament?

I mean by this word Sacrament an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace given unto us;

ordained by Christ himself, as a means whereby we receive this grace, and a pledge to assure us thereof.

How many parts are there in a Sacrament?

There are two parts in a Sacrament; the outward and visible sign, and the inward and spiritual grace.

What is the outward and visible sign or form in Baptism?

The outward and visible sign or form in Baptism is Water; wherein the person is baptized, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

What is the inward and spiritual grace in Baptism?

The inward and spiritual grace in Baptism is a death unto sin, and a new birth unto righteousness; whereby we are made the children of grace.

What is required of persons to be baptized?

Repentance, whereby they forsake sin; and Faith, whereby they stedfastly believe the promises of God to them in that Sacrament.

Why then are infants baptized, when by reason of their tender age they cannot perform them?

Because, by the faith of their Sponsors, infants are received into Christ's Church, become the recipients of his grace, and are trained in the household of faith.

Why was the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper ordained?

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was ordained for the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of the death of Christ, and of the benefits which we receive thereby.

What is the outward part or sign of the Lord's Supper?

The outward part or sign of the Lord's Supper is, Bread and Wine, which the Lord hath commanded to be received.

What is the inward part, or thing signified?

The inward part, or thing signified, is the Body and Blood of Christ, which are spiritually taken and received by the faithful in the Lord's Supper.

What are the benefits whereof we are partakers in the Lord's Supper?

The benefits whereof we are partakers in the Lord's Supper are the strengthening and refreshing of our souls by the Body and Blood of Christ, as our bodies are strengthened and refreshed by the Bread and Wine.

What is required of those who come to the Lord's Supper?

It is required of those who come to the Lord's Supper to examine themselves, whether they repent them truly of their former sins, with stedfast purpose to lead a new life; to have a lively faith in God's mercy through Christ, with a thankful remembrance of his death; and to be in charity with all men.

What orders of Ministers are there in the Church?

Bishops, Priests, and Deacons; which orders have been in the Church from the earliest times.

What is the office of a Bishop?

The office of a Bishop is, to be a chief pastor in the Church; to confer Holy Orders; and to administer Confirmation.

What is the office of a Priest?

The office of a Priest is, to minister to the people committed to his care; to preach the Word of God; to baptize; to celebrate the Holy Communion; and to pronounce Absolution and Blessing in God's Name.

What is the office of a Deacon?

The office of a Deacon is, to assist the Priest in Divine Service, and in his other ministrations, under the direction of the Bishop.

PRIVATE BAPTISM

When, in consideration of extreme sickness, necessity may require, then the following form shall suffice:

The Child (or Person) being named by some one who is present, the Minister shall pour Water upon him, saying these words:

N. I baptize thee In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

After which shall be said the Lord's Prayer, and the Thanksgiving from this Office, beginning, We yield thee hearty thanks, etc.

But NOTE, That in the case of an Adult, the Minister shall first ask the questions provided in this Office for the Baptism of Adults.

In cases of extreme sickness, or any imminent peril, if a Minister cannot be procured, then any baptized person present may administer holy Baptism, using the foregoing form. Such Baptism shall be promptly reported to the Parish authorities.

THE RECEIVING OF ONE PRIVATELY BAPTIZED

It is expedient that a Child or Person so baptized be afterward brought to the Church, at which time these parts of the foregoing service shall be used:

The Gospel, the Questions (omitting the question Wilt thou be baptized in this Faith? and the answer thereto), the Declaration, We receive this Child (or Person), etc., and the remainder of the Office.

THE FAMILY LIST of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

STANDING NOTICES

Visitation of the Sick

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

Marriages

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services.

Burial of the Dead

Always confer with the Minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

Letters of Transfer

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

Wills and Bequests

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

A FOREWORD ABOUT THE YEAR BOOK

For many years it has been our pleasure to publish an Annual Year Book, which the people of our Parish have found of great value as a reference for records, names and addresses as well as a fund of information as to the state of the Parish and other educational matter. We hope that you will preserve this book and keep it in a handy place, for you will undoubtedly have some use for it.

The publication of the book is made possible through the kindness of the advertisers, and it is suggested that you patronize them whenever possible.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

STANDING NOTICES

Visitation of the Sick

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

Marriages

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services.

Burial of the Dead

Always confer with the Minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

Letters of Transfer

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

Wills and Bequests

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

REPORT OF THE RECTOR TO THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, JANUARY 6, 1937

The outstanding event in our parish life during the year just closed was the building of the new Rectory on the Church property. This was the culmination of a plan anticipated many years ago, when the ground was purchased. The actual erection of a Rectory at that time was deferred because of the high cost of building, and which condition held true for the years that followed. A temporary house on Sedgwick Street was purchased, awaiting the opportunity of more favorable conditions. Such a time arrived during the past year, and although we were delayed somewhat and had to witness the increase in estimates, we were able to carry our project through at a minimum cost.

Most of you have had the opportunity to see the new Rectory, both inside and out, and will confirm the opinion of those who have been closely associated with its erection that we have a fine, substantial and attractive building, of which the parish can feel justly proud. You will find elsewhere a preliminary report of the financing of the project, since at this writing all our plans are not completed. You will be happy to know that we have just signed the contract for the sale of the house on Sedgwick Street, and while we were not able to realize the full amount we had anticipated, yet we feel that it is better to close the matter now than to have it prolonged unduly.

It has been my pleasure to see the work on the new Rectory progress and to have had some small part in its consummation. It is a much greater pleasure to be privileged to live in it and enjoy its comforts and conveniences. For which I am grateful and happy.

Due recognition should be given to the members of the Vestry who have been behind the project, and especially the committee in charge, who have had the constant oversight and direction of the building. I am sure that I express the gratitude of the parish to the donors, who wish to remain anonymous, for the generous contribution of $5,000 toward the project, without which the feasibility of the plan would not have seemed possible at this time. And were it not for the wholehearted support and interest of the many families in the parish we could not have accomplished our goal without a burden too heavy to carry.

REPORT OF THE RECTOR TO THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, JANUARY 6, 1937

A word of commendation should be voiced in behalf of the builders, The William J. Gruhler Company, of Germantown, who were also the builders of the Parish House, for the satisfactory completion of the building. We are indebted to the Architects, Coates and Davis, of Yeadon, Penna., for good planning, and especially the artistic conceptions that have been incorporated.

It is with a sense of satisfaction that we have completed our group of church buildings, all of which we may be extremely proud. The rector wishes you to feel as free to come and go in the Rectory as he hopes you feel in the use of the other buildings. Mrs. Twelves and I hope that everyone in the parish will inspect the Rectory.

Pastoral Work

Elsewhere you will find a report of the Pastoral work done by the Rector as far as it can be reported in numbers. Having been actively interested in the above building project, the other work of the Rector has suffered to some degree. One might suppose that the usual routine of the parish would carry itself along without any special attention. It is a fact, however, that people do not bring their children to be Baptized unless they are urged to do so by the Rector. And it is a well known fact that Confirmation classes have to be worked up by many calls upon prospective candidates. The same thing is true of Church attendance. When the Rector does not call, the interest of many people lags; there are some who feel slighted because they have not been missed, and there are some even offended if the rector has failed to make a call when they believe that he should. Now that this other work is over I hope to gather up some of these loose ends that seemed to have been dangling over my head for several months.

Church School

I want to say just a few words about the improved condition of the Church School. A number of new and capable teachers were added this fall. The number of pupils has steadily increased, and the interest and attendance is better than it has been for a couple of years. We are sure that there are many children in our community who do not go to any Church School. Here is an opportunity for our people to do some missionary work in their own neighborhood.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S GUILD OF EPIPHANY CHURCH

Once again we have closed a year of the Woman's Guild of Epiphany Church. The Guild has met every second Tuesday of each month during the year of 1936, with the President, Mrs. Willard, presiding at all meetings. We have at present thirty-eight members, with an average of about twenty attending each meeting. We are wishing that all the women of the Parish would feel as we do—that the Woman's Guild is the best of all clubs, and the membership is a great trust and partnership with God.

Because we have a united group and a common cause we have accomplished much.

During the year 1936 four Parish suppers, one luncheon and a Church fair were held. Three hundred dollars from the proceeds of the fair was given to help pay the mortgage interest. One outside benefit luncheon was given, in order to double the quota of the Domestic Committee, and also each member of the Guild pledged herself to give a luncheon at some time during the year for the purpose of raising money to purchase a new stove for the Parish kitchen. Sixty-three dollars has been raised toward this fund.

One hundred and forty-five dollars was sent to the House of Rest as admission fee for one of our Parish members. Valentines and candy were sent to the House of Rest on Easter, and donations of groceries, canned goods, fruits, etc., at Thanksgiving time.

For the Woman's United Thank Offering Mrs. Seeley collected one hundred and forty-one dollars and sixty-two cents for the Spring Offering, and one hundred and twenty-one dollars and sixty cents for the Fall Offering, making a total of two hundred and sixty-three dollars and twenty-two cents.

Donations of money were sent to the House of Rest, Educational Week for the Blind, the Church Farm School, the Church House, and to several other Diocesan committees with a deficit.

The Guild is represented in the monthly meetings by the following committees of the Dioceses: Foreign, Domestic, Diocesan, Colored, Indian Hope, Convocational, Educational, and House of Rest. We send a yearly contribution to each of these committees.

The work of the Sunshine Guild was taken over by our Treasurer, Mrs. Jones, and a Visiting Committee formed to visit the sick and the shut-ins.

The Lenten Sewing Class was held each Tuesday during Lent, preceded by the 10.00 o'clock Holy Communion.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S GUILD OF EPIPHANY CHURCH

The clothing made at these meetings was sent to the Supply Bureau of the Church House. Thirty-five dollars was paid to this Bureau for ready-made clothing, and eleven dollars for the materials used in the articles the Guild made.

A sweater was made by Mrs. Seiffert for the prize athlete of St. Andrew's School, Tennessee, and in October articles of clothing were sent to the Elizabeth Price Martin League.

Our Mission Study Class during Lent was conducted by Mrs. Percy Crawford. Subject: Latin America.

The Woman's Guild was represented by six volunteer workers on the Episcopal Church Day for the Educational Week of the Blind.

We have also been represented at numerous outside meetings, lunches, etc., during the year.

Our Guild continued its work throughout the Summer, meeting every second Tuesday to sew for the November Church Fair. At these meetings twenty dollars was collected to increase the Mile of Pennies for Missions. The money taken in was sent to Dr. Gaston Burke, of Fort Yukon, Alaska.

In October a Bible Class was formed, the Rector presiding.

We are very much beholden to Miss Edna Davis for four new dining tables, given to the Parish House.

It has been my honor and pleasure to be Secretary of the Woman's Guild for the past year, and I consider it a rare privilege to have worked with its members.

Respectfully submitted,

Madelon Morse, Secretary.

THE CHURCH YEAR

When does the Church Year begin?

AT ADVENT.

The first Sunday in Advent is the Sunday nearest S. Andrew's Day.

S. ANDREW THE APOSTLE

When is S. Andrew's day?

November 30.

St. Andrew was one of the first disciples of our Lord. He called his brother Simon to follow Jesus. S. John 1:41. He afterwards became one of the Apostles and was put to death on a cross shaped like an X. This is known as S. Andrew's cross and is the badge of the Brotherhood of S. Andrew.

What does Advent mean?

A Coming. The coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

He first came in great Humility in Bethlehem—S. Luke 2:7.

He will come again at the last day in glorious majesty—S. Matthew 25:31; 1 Thess. 4:16—Nicene Creed.

Jesus came first to save us, and he shall come again to judge us. Collect page 90 New Prayer Book.

The Holy Gospel appointed for the First Sunday of the Christian year (Advent) has been read in the service of the church for fully thirteen hundred years.

S. THOMAS' DAY

Holy day in Advent—S. Thomas' Day—S. Thomas was one of the twelve Apostles, this Holy day comes on December 21st. It is the shortest day in the year, when the night is longer than the day. This is most appropriate for S. Thomas was in darkness and doubt but the truth brought him light. S. John 20:24-30. We are taught in the collect perfectly and without doubt to believe in our Saviour Jesus Christ.

ADVENT EMBER DAYS

Other special days in Advent are the Advent Ember days. There are four Ember weeks in the year which occur: In Advent—Lent—Whitsuntide and Trinitytide. The Advent Ember days are Wednesday, Friday, Saturday, after the third Sunday in Advent.

We should keep these days by Prayer for the Clergy and those to be ordained. The four great days for ordination are the Sundays which follow the four Ember Weeks.

And God was made Flesh
And dwelt among us

CHRISTMAS DAY

The great Festival which follows Advent is Christmas Day—it commemorates the birth of the incarnate Son of God. Incarnation means the act of assuming human nature. The Only Begotten Son of God whose name and Title in Heaven was "The Word of God—S. John 1:1 assumed human nature at this time and was given on earth the name of Jesus, S. Luke 1:31. "The word was made flesh and dwelt among us." S. John 1:14.

Christmas is pre-eminently a Church Festival, although it is observed on a week day, if that day is December 25th. On this day the Church celebrates with joy, gladness and exultation the Nativity of her Lord. As the angels at His Birth, so mankind ever since has hailed the Day of His Nativity with exceeding great joy. The Puritans strove with all their ardor to destroy it; but happily they did not succeed. The argument used against it, that the Birthday of the Child Jesus is not known, and that therefore it cannot be preserved, does not prevail against the universal longing to celebrate in some way this great event. We are not surprised, therefore, to find that from the very earliest period Christmas was observed. St. Chrysostom, in the Fourth century, speaks of it as being even then of great antiquity. In one of his Epistles he mentions that Julius I, about A. D. 350, had caused strict inquiry to be made and had confirmed the observance of Christmas on December 25th. The day has long been observed with one or more celebrations of the Holy Communion, three even sometimes taking place; one at midnight, another at early dawn and the third at midday. It is customary to decorate churches on Christmas with evergreen as symbolical of the eternal nature of our Lord and to deck the Altar with white as a symbol of joy and purity. The color for Altar hangings, etc., also is white.

S. STEPHEN, DEACON AND MARTYR

The Three Holy Days following Christmas are S. Stephen's Day, S. John's Day and The Holy Innocents' Day.

S. Stephen's Day is December 26, he was the first Christian Martyr for Christ. A martyr is one who bears witness for Christ even unto death. S. Stephen was stoned to death. Stoning among the Hebrews was the ordinary mode of execution.

S. JOHN, APOSTLE AND EVANGELIST

S. John's Day follows S. Stephen's Day and falls on December 27. He is known as S. John the Evangelist and wrote one of the Gospels. The other evangelists were S. Matthew, S. Mark and S. Luke. S. John was also an Apostle—He wrote the Gospel bearing his name, Three Epistles, I John, II John, III John, and the Revelation of S. John. He was a brother of S. James and a son of Zebedee. He followed the work of a fisherman on the sea of Galilee with his brother and father. He is known as the Disciple whom Jesus loved. The special symbol of S. John is the Eagle. We often use the Eagle for our Lecterns because the Eagle is the symbol of inspiration. Tradition relates that in the persecution under Domitian he is taken to Rome, thrown into boiling oil, which has no power to hurt him. He is then sent to labor in the mines and Patmos is the place of his exile. The accession of Nerva frees him from danger and he returns to Ephesus.

HOLY INNOCENTS

Holy Innocents Day follows S. John's Day and falls on December 28. The innocents were the children slain by order of king Herod when Jesus was a babe. S. Matthew 2:16-18.

CIRCUMCISION DAY

Circumcision Day comes eight days after Christmas. January 1 also known as New Year's Day. Jesus was eight days old when he was circumcised. Genesis 17:2-14.

Holy Baptism takes the place of this covenant in the Christian Church. Article 27 page 596, New prayer book.

THE EPIPHANY

The next Church Festival is Epiphany, which occurs on January 6. Epiphany means a shining forth, a manifestation. It commemorates the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles.

The Epiphany Gospel introduces us to some wise men of one of the eastern nations, who came to pay homage to our Lord in His manger throne at Bethlehem. In tradition they came to be called kings, as though their visit was a fulfillment of the old prophecy—"Nations shall come to Thy light, and kings to the brightness of Thy rising;" and, indeed, their gifts were kingly. Gold and frankincense and myrrh, the best and richest gifts they had to offer. (S. Matt. 2:11.)

"THEY FELL DOWN AND WORSHIPPED HIM."

CONVERSION OF S. PAUL

What is the last Holy Day in January?

The Conversion of S. Paul, January 25.

It is the Conversion of S. Paul that the Church holds in honor before her. All other saints are commemorated for the glory of their general life, or of their death.

The Conversion of S. Paul seems to have been assigned to the Epiphany season by reason of His being the 'Apostle to the Gentiles.'

Who was S. Paul before his Conversion?

Saul of Tarsus—Read the story of his conversion (Acts 22:1-22). Paul was born in Tarsus, a city of Cilicia. Though a Hebrew of the Hebrews he was born in a Gentile city. At Tarsus he must have learned to use the Greek language with freedom and mastery in both speaking and writing. At Tarsus also he learned the trade of "tent making," Acts 18:3, at which he afterwards occasionally wrought with his own hands.

Of his Epistles or letters we have thirteen.

He made three missionary journeys in the interest of the Church.

He suffered martyrdom, being beheaded at Rome under the Emperor Nero, about A. D. 67. Read Collect and Scripture appointed for the Epistle—page 229 New Prayer Book.

PRESENTATION OF CHRIST IN THE TEMPLE

What is the next Holy day in the Church Year?

The presentation of Christ in the Temple, February 2nd.

What other name has it?

The Purification of Saint Mary the Virgin. Mary the Virgin, the mother of our Lord. There is no person perhaps in sacred or profane history around whom so many legends have been grouped as the Virgin Mary; and there are few whose authentic history is more concise. She was like Joseph, of the tribe of Judah and of the lineage of David. Ps. 132:11; S. Luke 1:32; Rom. 1:3.

She had a sister named like herself, Mary (S. John 19:25) and she was connected by marriage, S. Luke 1:36; with Elizabeth who was of the tribe of Levi and of the lineage of Aaron.

Prayer Book, p. 231.

S. MATTHIAS THE APOSTLE

What other Holy day falls in February?

S. Matthias' Day, February 24th.

S. Matthias was chosen to be an Apostle in the place of Judas the Traitor. (Acts 1:26.)

S. Matthias' Festival is one with many warnings for those who have been called to the Pastoral office, and warnings for those for whose souls the ambassadors of Christ watch as those who have to give an account; but it also affords encouragement. It teaches us that the work of God will not fail, though individuals entrusted with carrying it out fail. The place of Judas is filled by S. Matthias. He catches up the message of consolation, and becomes a dispenser of Divine gifts.

Of Matthias we are told but little; whilst of Judas we are told much. The portrait of Judas stands out from the canvas of the Gospels lifelike, vivid, terrible. He is no creation of fancy, but a real man, who betrayed his Master, and then hung himself. Two sins mark the stages of his downward course—avarice and despair.

How was S. Matthias chosen as the successor of Judas?

By casting lots, after prayer to God. (Acts 1:23-26.)

He suffered martyrdom in Ethiopia. It is also said that he was stoned and afterwards beheaded.

See Prayer Book, p. 233.

SEPTUAGESIMA

How many Sundays after the Epiphany may there be?
Six—Prayer Book, p. 117.

How few may there be?

One. (See page xxxiv, Prayer Book tables for finding Holy Days.)

What Sundays follow Epiphanytide?

Septuagesima, Sexagesima and Quinquagesima.

Septuagesima Sunday is the beginning of the Pre-Lenten season.

What do these names mean?

They are the Latin words for the 70th—60th—and 50th days before Easter.

At Septuagesima, we pass from the thought of the manifestation of Christ to that of the proper effect of this manifestation upon us.

Fitly, then, does Lent succeed Epiphany, and for these of the Church's children who were physically too weak for an unbroken fast, it was permitted to spread their forty days intermittently over seventy, and to enter their season of humiliation seventeen days before others.

By this consideration the general character of the services of these Sundays is explained. In the several calls of the three Epistles to self-restraint, self-buffeting, and devotion to others, and in those of the three Gospels to self-sinking labor, spiritual growth, and spiritual fellowship in the passion of the Lord, there is little to distinguish this preparatory season from that which succeeds. Prayer Book p. 118.

ASH WEDNESDAY

What is Lent?

The Spring Fast (from an Old Anglo Saxon word meaning Spring).

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and ends on Easter Even.

Why do we keep a fast?

Because our Lord fasted, and the Bible and the church bid us follow His example.

Why is the first day of Lent called Ash Wednesday?

Because ashes were used in olden times as a symbol of sorrow (Esther 4:1-4); (Job 2:8); (Jonah 3:5-10); (S. Luke 10:13).

The Holy seasons appointed by the Church will generally be found to date their rise from some circumstance in the life of our Lord, some event in Scripture history, or a desire to keep in remembrance the virtues and piety of the Saints who adorned the early church. But the origin of the season of Lent is not so obvious, though it is usually supposed that Lent is observed in commemoration of our Saviour's temptation and fasting of forty days in the wilderness.

It is most probable that the Christian Lent originated from a regard to those words of the Redeemer, "the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days." We learn from the history of the church that the primitive Christians considered that in this passage Christ has alluded to the institution of a particular season of fasting and prayer in the future church. Accordingly they, in the first instance, began this solemn period on the afternoon of the day on which they commemorated the crucifixion, and continued it until the morning of the resurrection. The whole interval would thus be only about forty hours. But by degrees this institution suffered a considerable change, different, however, at different times and places.

It is not, however, to be supposed that the Church remained long in uncertainty on this point, for it appears that the Lent of forty days can be traced to a period very near that of the Apostles.

Fasting is frequently alluded to in the scriptures as a Christian duty, yet the set times for it are to be referred solely to the authority of the Church.

The Lenten fast does not embrace all the days included between Ash Wednesday and Easter, for the Sundays are so many days above the number of forty. They are excluded, because the Lord's day is always held as a festival and never as a fast. These six Sundays are therefore called Sundays in Lent, not Sundays of Lent. On them we continue, without interruption, to celebrate our Saviour's resurrection.

THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

What Holy day usually comes in Lent?

The annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary—March 25. We commemorate on this day the announcement to the Virgin Mary that Jesus should be born, and are taught of that great truth the incarnation of the son of God.

What does the incarnation mean?

The act of assuming human nature.

Who assumed human nature?

The only Begotten Son of God.

Read: Collect—Scripture appointed for the Epistle and Gospel for the day. Prayer Book, p. 235.

PASSIONTIDE

The fourth Sunday in Lent is sometimes called Mid-Lent Sunday.

What is the fifth Sunday in Lent called?

Passion Sunday, because we begin to read about our Lord's sufferings. The Second Sunday before Good Friday has been called Passion Sunday from time immemorial, because on that day the Lord began to make open predictions of His coming sufferings. The Epistle refers to our Lord's passion; the Gospel narrates the beginning of it in fearful rejection of Him by the Jews. It is right and proper to speak of the last two weeks as "Passiontide."

HOLY WEEK

Sunday next before Easter-Palm is the beginning of Holy Week. The Primitive Christians called it Hebdomas Magna, or the great week. No one can better describe it to us than St. Chrysostom, who says: "It was called the Great Week, not because it consisted of longer days, or more in number, than other weeks, but because at this time great things were wrought for us by our Lord. For in this week the ancient tyranny of the devil was dissolved, death was extinct, the strong man was bound, his goods were spoiled, sin was abolished, the curse was destroyed, paradise was opened, heaven became accessible, men and angels were joined together, the middle wall of partition was broken down, the barriers were taken out of the way, the God of Peace made peace between things in heaven and things in earth; therefore it is called the Great Week."

MAUNDY THURSDAY

The Thursday in Holy Week before Easter, being the day on which our Lord instituted the Holy Sacrament of His body and blood. The name of Maunday or Man-date (Dies Man-dati) is said to have allusion to the mandate or new commandment which, on this day, Christ gave to His disciples, that they should love one another, as He had loved them. It has also been supposed by others that the name arose from the mands, or baskets of gifts, which, at this time, it was an ancient custom for Christians to present to one another, in token of that mutual affection which our Lord so tenderly urged, at this period of His sufferings, and as a remembrance of that "inestimable gift" of Christ, to be our spiritual food in the sacrament of His body and blood. Says a writer of the age of Wiclif, "Christ made His Maundy and said, take, eat," &c.

S. John 13:34. A new commandment I give unto you. That ye love one another; as I have loved you. That ye also love one another. 15:12. This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. 17:1. These words spake Jesus, and lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said Father, the hour is come; Glorify the Son, that the Son also may glorify thee. (And 1 Cor. 11:23-26.)

GOOD FRIDAY

What is the Friday of Holy Week called?

Good Friday, because it brought to us all spiritual good.

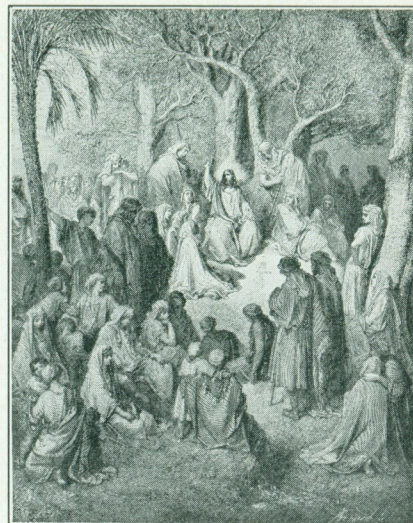

The Friday in Passion Week received this name from the blessed effects of our Saviour's sufferings, which are the ground of all our joy, and from those unspeakable good things He hath purchased for us by His death, whereby the blessed Jesus made expiation for the sins of the whole world, and by the shedding of His own blood, obtained eternal redemption for us. Among the Saxons it was called the Long Friday.

The Gospel for this day is properly taken from S. John rather than any other Evangelist because we know that he was present at the Passion, and stood by the Cross.

How suitable the proper Psalms for this day! Composed by David in times of the greatest calamity and distress, and most of them belong mystically to the crucifixion of our Saviour; especially the twenty-second, which is the first for the morning, which was in several passages literally fulfilled by his sufferings, and a part of it recited by him on the cross. And for that reason (as St. Austin tells us) was always used upon that day by the African Church.

The first lesson for the morning is Genesis xxii, containing an account of Abraham's willingness to offer up his son; thereby typifying that perfect oblation which was this day made by the son of God.

On this day the Son of God and the Son of Man was crucified about the third hour, 9 A. M., the time of the morning sacrifice and died about the ninth hour, 3 P. M., the hour of the evening sacrifice. There was darkness over the land from the sixth hour until the ninth hour. It was a supernatural darkness, the world sympathizing with the woe of its Creator.

"Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted."

EASTER DAY

What does Easter Day commemorate?

The Rising of our Lord from the dead.
S. Matt. 28:1-7; S. John 20:1-10

Why is it called the Queen of Feasts?

Because it governs almost all the Church Year. Easter being determined by the Paschal Moon it is (in relation to the solar year) the centre of the Movable, as Christmas of the Immovable Feast.

What determines the date of Easter?

The full moon which follows the twenty-first of March. See table and rules for Movable and Immovable Feast, Prayer Book, p. xxix. In rules at top of page you will notice how Easter is the Queen of Feasts upon which the rest depends.

Why has the full moon anything to do with it?

Because of the institution of the Passover near the time of the full moon (Exodus 12:6-14), Exodus 12:17-51, story of Passover.

What does the word Easter mean?

It comes from Ostara, a Saxon goddess of light or spring.

It is stated by venerable Bede, that this name was given to this festival at the time when Christianity was first introduced among our Saxon ancestors. Those people, say

Bede, worshipped an imaginary deity, called Eostre, whose feast they celebrated every year at this season; the name remained when the worship was altered. Others conceived the name to be derived from an old Saxon word importing rising. The original name of the festival was Pascha, derived from the Hebrew word for Passover. Church Dictionary, by Walter Farquhar Hook, D.D., Vicar of Leeds. "Easter Sunday is not strictly the anniversary day of our Saviour's resurrection, but is the day appointed by the church to be kept in remembrance of that event. After great difference of opinions, it was decided in the Council of Nice that Easter-day should be kept on the Sunday following the Jewish feast of the passover, which passover is kept on the 14th day, or full moon, of the Jewish month Nisan. At the same time to prevent all uncertainty in future it was made a further rule of the Church, that the full moon next to the vernal (or spring) equinox should be taken for the full moon in the month Nisan, and the 21st of March be accounted the vernal equinox. Easter Sunday, therefore, is always the Sunday following the full moon which falls on, or next after the 21st of March." In the early Church, Christians were wont to greet one another on this day with the joyous salutation, "Christ is Risen," to which the response was made, "Christ is Risen, indeed."

On this day, as on Christmas Day, we have two Collects, two Epistles and two readings from the Gospel.

White hangings for the Altar and white vestments have always been used at Easter in reference to the Angel who brought the tidings of the resurrection, who appeared in garments white as snow.

EASTER TIDE

After the resurrection of our Lord He remained upon the earth for forty days—Acts 1:3, teaching His disciples and instructing them concerning the ministry, the sacraments and the doctrines of the Creed. This we would affirm because the Apostles soon ordained ministers, celebrated sacraments and taught doctrines.

Ministers ordained.

Deacons, Act. 6:5-6; 1 Timothy 3:8.

Priest or Elders, Acts 20:17-28; 1 Timothy 5:17.

Sacraments administered: Acts 2:38-41; Acts 8:36-38; Acts 10:48; Acts 20:7; Acts 2:42.

Doctrines taught: Acts 2:42; 1 Cor. 15:1-4; 1 Tim. 3:16; Judge, 3.

ASCENSION DAY

Ascension is the Feast observed with great solemnity forty days after Easter in commemoration of our Lord's Ascension into Heaven. St. Augustine, A. D. 395, calls this one of the Festivals which are supposed to have been instituted by the Apostles themselves so that it must have been generally observed in his time. In the system of the Church, Ascension Day is regarded as one of the very highest Festivals set apart in honor of our Lord. Proper Psalms, Proper Lessons and Proper Preface in Communion service place it on the same footing as Christmas Day, Easter and Whitsun Day. The Altar is decked with flowers and white hangings are used as symbolical of the joy which characterizes the celebration. Ascension Day is preceded by the Rogation Days as days of preparation for its due observance.

WHITSUN DAY

Whitsun Day is a high Festival observed in the Church on the fiftieth day after Easter, in commemoration of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles on the day of Pentecost as "they were all with one accord in one place" in Jerusalem. Whitsun Day is the Birthday of the Christian Church, and as such it has been commemorated for nearly two thousand years by Christian people and observed by them with holy joy and deep thanksgiving for the fulfillment of our Lord's promise to send the Comforter to His comfortless people. By the devotions of Whitsun Day we have brought to our remembrance, in the most beautiful and striking manner, the operations of God by the Spirit's power. By Proper Psalms, Proper Lessons and Eucharistic Scriptures, and by Proper Preface in the Communion Service, we learn how that in the Holy Ghost and His Presence in the Church we have the great power and renewing grace of God made availing to us. The ecclesiastical color is red as symbolical of the "cloven tongues like as of fire." Whitsuntide is a name for the week beginning with Whitsun Day. During this week the Whitsun Ember Days are observed (Wednesday, Friday and Saturday), as a preparation for Trinity Sunday, one of the stated times of Ordination.

S. MARK THE EVANGELIST

April 25th.

S. Mark, one of the Evangelists, and probably author of Gospel bearing his name. "John, whose surname was Mark," in Acts 12:12, 25 "John" alone in Acts 13:5, 13, "Mark" in Acts 15:39 and thence forward there is no change. The Evangelist was a son of a certain Mary, a Jewish matron of some position who dwelt at Jerusalem. Acts 12:12. We know that he was a cousin of Barnabas of Cyprus, the great friend of St. Paul. Acts 15:24 we hear of him for the first time. He was with S. Paul and Barnabas on missionary journey at Cyprus, Acts 13:5. We find him at Paul's side during that Apostle's first imprisonment at Rome, A. D. 61.

We next have traces of him in 1 Peter 5:13: "The Church that is in Babylon saluteth you, and so does Marcus, my son." From this we infer that he joined his spiritual father, the great friend of his mother at Babylon. From Babylon he would have seemed to have returned to Asia Minor, for S. Paul in writing to S. Timothy charges him to bring Mark with him to Rome. This during S. Paul's second imprisonment, A. D. 68.

It is most probable that he joined the Apostle at Rome whither also S. Peter would seem to have proceeded, and suffered martyrdom along with St. Paul. After the death of these two great pillars of the church, ecclesiastical tradition affirms that S. Mark visited Egypt, founded the Church of Alexandria, and died by martyrdom.

S. PHILIP AND S. JAMES, APOSTLES

May 1

S. Philip the Apostle was of Bethsaida, the city of S. Andrew and S. Peter, S. John 1:44, and apparently was among the Galilean peasants of that district who flocked to hear the preaching of S. John the Baptist. The statement that Jesus found him, S. John 1:43, implies a previous seeking. S. Matt. 10:3; S. Mark 3:18; S. Luke 6:14. Philip was apparently among the first company of disciples who were with the Lord at the commencement of His ministry, at the marriage at Cana, on his first appearance as a prophet in Jerusalem, S. John 2.

He is among the company of Disciples at Jerusalem after the Ascension, Acts 1:13, and on the Day of Pentecost. According to tradition, he preached in Phrygia, and died at Hierapolis.

S. James, the son of Alphaeus—called James the Less because younger or smaller in stature than S. James, the son of Zebedee. He was called to the apostolate, together with his younger brother Jude, in the spring of the year A. D. 28. His pre-eminence is evident throughout the after history of the apostles. Acts 12:17; 15:13,19; 21:18; Gal. 2:9. He is probably the writer of the Epistle of St. James. According to tradition he was thrown down from the temple by the Scribes and Pharisees; he was then stoned, and his brains dashed out with a fuller's club.

TRINITY SUNDAY

Trinity Sunday is a Festival of late institution, as the day on which it is observed was originally kept as the Octave of Whitsun Day. It was not until A. D. 1260 that it was first directed by the Synod of Arles to be observed by the whole Church as Trinity Sunday, although Thomas a Becket is said to have instituted this Festival in England in A. D. 1162, and reference is made to it as early as A. D. 834. The observance of this day is very significant and rounds out or completes the former commemorations of the year, marks a turning point and begins the second half. The Church's services culminate today; they mount up to the Throne of the Godhead; for knowing the Son and the Holy Ghost, we now know the Father also, and that these Three are not three Gods, but one God. The Church today celebrates the glory and majesty of God in His essence and in His works. In the word Trinity, she simply sums up what is revealed concerning Him—that in Substance He is One, but in Persons, Three.

The Collect enables us to worship the Unity which exists in the power of the Divine Majesty, even while we acknowledge the glory of the Eternal Trinity. Proper Lessons, Proper Psalms and Proper Preface in the Communion Office emphasize the importance of the Festival and mark it as one of the great days of the Church. The ecclesiastical color is white; but for all the Sundays thence to follow, round once more to Advent, the color is green.

S. BARNABAS THE APOSTLE

June 11

Barnabas (son of consolation), a name given by the apostles, Acts 4:36, to Joseph (or Jose), a Levite of the island of Cyprus, who was early a disciple of Christ. In Acts 9:27 we find him introducing the newly-converted Saul to the Apostles at Jerusalem. Barnabas was sent to Jerusalem, Acts 11:19-26, and went to Tarsus to seek Saul, as one specially raised up to preach to the Gentiles. Acts 26:17. He brought him to Antioch where the name of Christian was first assumed by the followers of Jesus.

On their return they were ordained by the church for the missionary work, Acts 13:2, and sent forth A. D. 45. From this time Barnabas and Paul enjoy the title and dignity of Apostles. Their first missionary journey is related in Acts 13:14. Returning to Antioch (A. D. 47 or 48) they were sent (A. D. 50), with some others, to Jerusalem. Acts 15:1, 36. Afterwards they parted and Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus, his native island. There are no accounts of S. Barnabas after he left S. Paul nor are any of his writings preserved except an Epistle, never received into the canon of Scripture.

On this date, because S. John the Baptist was born six months before our Lord, therefore, this day is just half way between the last Christmas and next Christmas. This day celebrates not his death but his nativity.

S. John Baptist was of the priestly race by both parents, for his father, Zacharias, was himself a priest of the course of Abia or Abijah, 1 Chronicles 24:10, and Elizabeth was of the daughters of Aaron. S. Luke 1:5. His birth was foretold by an angel sent from God, and is related at length in S. Luke 1. The birth of S. John preceded by six months that of our Lord. S. John was ordained to be a Nazarite from his birth. S. Luke 1:15. Dwelling by himself in the wild and thinly-peopled region westward of the Dead Sea, he prepared himself for the wonderful office to which he had been divinely called. His dress was that of the old prophets—a garment woven of camel's hair, 2 Kings 1:8, attached to the body by a leathern girdle. His food that which the desert afforded—locust, Lev. 11:22, and wild honey. Ps. 81:16. And now the long-secluded hermit came forth to the discharge of his office. His supernatural birth, his life, and the general expectation that some great one was to appear, were sufficient to attract to him a great multitude from "every quarter." S. Matt. 3:5. Many of every class pressed forward to confess their sins and to be Baptised. Jesus Himself came from Galilee to be Baptised, at which Baptism we see present the Blessed Trinity. We gather also that S. John instructed his disciples in certain moral and religious duties, as fasting, S. Matt. 9:14; S. Luke 5:33, and prayer, S. Luke 11:1. S. John was imprisoned by command of King Herod Antipas because he reproved him of his sins. He was confined in the castle of Machaerus, a fortress on the eastern shore of the Dead Sea. During a court festival Salome prompted by her abandoned mother Herodias, asked for the head of S. John Baptist. S. John was executed in prison and his head brought to Salome as she requested. His death is supposed to have occurred just before the third passover, in the course of our Lord's ministry. March, A. D. 29.

S. PETER THE APOSTLE

June 29

Peter (a rock or stone). The original name of this disciple was Simon "hearer." He was the son of Jonas (S. John 21:16) and was brought up in his father's occupation, that of fisherman. He and his brother Andrew, also an Apostle, were partners of John and James, the sons of Zebedee, who had hired servants. Peter did not live, as a common fisherman in a hut by the seaside, but first at Bethsaida, and afterwards in a house at Capernaum belonging to himself or mother-in-law.

Peter was probably between thirty and forty years of age at the time of his call.

Peter and his brother Andrew, together with James and John, were disciples of John the Baptist when he was first called by our Lord. S. John 1:35-42. The first call led to no change in Peter's external position. But he and his fellow disciples henceforth looked upon Jesus as their teacher, but were not commanded to follow him as regular disciples. The second called is recorded by the other three evangelists and took place upon the shores of Galilee, where the four disciples were fishing. Some time was afterwards passed in attendance upon our Lord's public ministration in Galilee, Decapolis, Perea and Judea. The special designation of St. Peter and his eleven fellow disciples took place some time afterward, when they were set apart as our Lord's immediate attendance. See S. Matt. 10:2-4. S. Mark 3:13-19. S. Luke 6:13. They appear then to have received formally the name of Apostles.

The first part of the Acts of the Holy Apostles is occupied by the record of transactions in nearly all of which St. Peter stands forth as the recognized leader of the Apostles. He is the most prominent person in the greatest event after the resurrection, when on the day of Pentecost the church was invested with the plenitude of gifts and power. The most signal transaction after the day of Pentecost was the Baptism of Cornelius. That was the crown and consummation of S. Peter's ministry. The establishment of a church in great part of Gentile origin at Antioch, and the mission of Barnabas set the seal upon the work thus inaugurated by Peter.

S. Peter was probably employed for the most part in building up and completing the organization of Christian communities in Palestine and the adjoining districts. The name of S. Peter is not (as founder or joint founder) associated with any local church save the churches of Corinth, Antioch, or Rome, by early ecclesiastical tradition. He visited Rome probably the last year of his life: there is satisfactory evidence that he and S. Paul were the founders of the Church at Rome, and suffered death in that city. According to early writers, he suffered in or about the same time with S. Paul, and in the Neronian persecution, A. D. 67-68. All agree that he was crucified. Origen says that S. Peter felt himself to be unworthy to be put to death as his Lord was and at his own request was crucified with head downward. The written documents left by S. Peter are the first and second Epistles bearing his name.

S. JAMES THE APOSTLE

S. James day (July 25) the day on which the church celebrates the memory of the Apostle James the Great, or the elder. He was one of the sons of Zebedee, and brother of S. John. He was the first of the Apostles who won the crown of martyrdom. James (is the Greek form of Jacob. the supplanter.) His mother's name was Salome, he was elder brother of S. James the Evangelist—we first hear of him A. D. 27, S. Mark 1:20, when at the call of the Master he left all, and became once and forever, his disciple in the spring of A. D. 28, S. Matt. 10:2; S. Mark 3:14; S. Luke 6:13; Acts of Holy Apostle 1:13. It would seem to have at the time of the appointment of the twelve Apostles that the name of Boanerges was given to the sons of Zebedee. The "sons of thunder" had a burning and impetuous spirit, which twice exhibits itself. S. Mark 10:37; S. Luke 9:54. On the night before the crucifixion S. James was present at the Agony in the garden. On the day of Ascension he is mentioned as persevering with the rest of the Apostles and disciples in prayer. Acts 1:13. Shortly before the day of the Passover, in the year 44, he was put to death by Herod Agrippa I. Acts 12:1-2.

THE TRANSFIGURATION

The event in the earthly life of Christ which marks the culminating point in His public ministry, and stands midway between the temptation in the wilderness and the agony in Gethsemane. S. Matt. 17:1-13; S. Mark 9:2-13; S. Luke 9:28-36. Place—Though tradition locates the transfiguration on Mount Tabor, there is little to confirm this view, and modern critics favor Mt. Hermon, the highest mountain-top in Gaulanitis, or one of the spurs of the Anti-Lebanus. Time—The Transfiguration probably took place at night, because it could then be seen to better advantage than in the daylight, and Jesus usually went to the top of the mountains to spend there the night in prayer. S. Matt. 14:23, 24; S. Luke 6:12; 21:37. The apostles were asleep, and are described as having kept themselves awake through the act of Transfiguration. S. Luke 9:32.

Characters and witnesses.—Christ was the central figure, the subject of the transfiguration. Moses and Elijah appeared from the heavenly world, as the representatives of the Old Testament, the one of the Law, the other of prophecy, to do homage to Him who was the fulfillment of both. No man knew of the sepulchre of Moses, Deut. 34:6; and Elijah had passed away in a chariot and horses of fire. 2 Kings 2:11. Both were associated in men's minds with the glory of the kingdom of Christ. The Jerusalem Targum on Ex. 12 connects the coming of Moses with that of the Messiah. Another Jewish tradition predicts his appearance with that of Elijah. Moses the lawgiver and Elijah the chief of the prophets both appear talking with Christ the source of the Gospel, to show that they are all one and agree in one. S. Luke 9:31 adds the subject of their communing: Among the three favorite disciples S. Peter, S. James and S. John are the sole witnesses of the scene.

It furnishes to us a striking proof of the unity of the Old and New Testaments, for personal immortality and the mysterious intercommunication of the visible and invisible worlds Both meet in Jesus Christ.

S. BARTHOLOMEW THE APOSTLE

August 24

The day appointed for the commemoration of this apostle. In the catalogue of the apostles, which is given by the first three of the evangelists, S. Bartholomew makes one of their number. S. John, however, does not mention him but records several things of another disciple whom he calls Nathanael, and who is not named by the other evangelists. This has occasioned many to be of the opinion that S. Bartholomew and S. Nathanael are one and the same person. S. Bartholomew is said to have preached the gospel in the greater Armenia, and to have converted the Lycaonians to Christianity. It is also certain that he carried the gospel to India: and as there is no record of his return, it is not improbable that he suffered martyrdom in that country. Read S. Matt. 10:3; S. Mark 3:18; S. Luke 6:14; Acts 1:13; S. John 1:45.

Parisian Massacre. It occurred in 1572, in the reign of Charles IX. It is asserted on this dreadful occasion more than thirty thousand persons were put to death. The butcheries committed at Valence, Romaine, Rouen, Meaux, Angers, Troyes, Bouzages, La Charite and especially at Lyons should stand out among all groups as a warning to the dangers of fanaticism and bigotry.

S. MATTHEW THE APOSTLE

September 21

S. Matthew's original name was Levi, and his name Matthew was probably adopted as his new Apostolic name. His father's name was Alphaeus. His home was at Capernaum. His business was the collection of dues and customs from persons and goods crossing the sea of Galilee, or passing along the great Damascus road which ran along the shore between Bethsaida Julius and Capernaum. Christ called him from his work to be his disciple. He appears to have been a man of wealth, for he made a great feast in his own house, perhaps in order to introduce his former companions and friends to Jesus. His business would tend to give him a knowledge of human nature, and accurate business habits, and of how to make a way to the hearts of the many publicans and sinners not otherwise easily reached. He is mentioned by name after the resurrection of Christ, only in Acts 1:13; but he must have lived many years as an apostle, since he was the author of the Gospel bearing his name which was written at least twenty years later. There is reason to believe that he remained for fifteen years at Jerusalem, after which he went as a missionary to the Persians, Parthians, and Medes. There is a legend that he died a martyr in Ethiopia.

S. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS

September 29

St. Michael and the Archangel Gabriel are the only angels or archangels who are made known to us by name in the Canonical Scriptures, though Raphael and Uriel are mentioned in Tobit and Esdras (Apocrypha Books.) Michael (Who is like God). Another name for this festival is Michaelmas. S. Michael was an Archangel and "patron saint" of the Jews (Daniel 10:13, 21; 12:1; S. Jude 9; Rev. 12:7). We learn from the scripture that the Angels are innumerable (Dan. 7:10; Ps. 68:17; Heb. 12:22; Rev. 5:11). We also learn that they fulfill the errands of God (Ps. 34:7; 91:11, 12; 103:20, 21; Heb. 1:13, 14. Instances where the angels helped God's people. (Gen. 19:15, 16; 32:1-2; Judges 6:11-24; Dan. 3:28; 6:22; Acts 12:6-10; S. Matthew 18:10.

Shall we become angels? No, because we are of a different order of beings (Heb. 2:5-7, 16; Rev. 7:9-12).

There is a reference to the unseen world and to spiritual beings in the collect for the feast of S. Michael and all Angels. A further reference to the angelic beings is found in the Te Deum. They are regarded as carrying out a twofold ministry, as taught in Holy Scripture. They do God service in Heaven.

That the worship of the Heavenly Host is a pattern for earthly worship, and that we join with them in the pleading of the one all-sufficient sacrifice, is emphasized in the Eucharist. Immediately before the consecration itself, the priest shall turn to the Lord's Table:—"Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of Heaven, we laud and magnify Thy glorious name."

We learn from this festival the benefits afforded by the ministry of angels, and our duty of thankfulness to God for the same.

S. LUKE THE EVANGELIST

October 18

Luke or Lucas (light-giving) S. Luke is spoken of as the beloved physician (Colossians 4:14). The name Luke occurs three times in the N. T. (Col. 4:14; 2 Timothy 4:11; Phil. 24.)

Combining the traditional element with the scriptural, we are able to trace the following dim outline of the Evangelist's life: he was born at Antioch in Syria, and was taught the science of medicine. He was not born a Jew for he was not reckoned among those "of the circumcision" by St. Paul. The date of his conversion is uncertain. He joined S. Paul at Troas, and shared his journey to Macedonia. St. Luke was not an Apostle, but he was the friend and companion of St. Paul. The O. T. Lesson appointed for the morning service is from one of the books of the Apocrypha also entitled "The wisdom of Jesus, the son of Sirach." This lesson was chosen for this day because it gives a notable description of a physician.

As to his age and death, there is the utmost uncertainty. He probably died a martyr, between A. D. 75 and A. D. 100. He wrote the gospel and the Acts of the Holy Apostles.

S. SIMON AND S. JUDE, APOSTLES

October 28

A holy day appointed by the Church for the commemoration of these saints, observed on the above date.

The first is St. Simon, surnamed the Canaanite and Zelotes, which two names are, in fact, the same; for the Hebrew term Canaan signifies Zealot.

There was a sect of men called Zealots, about the time of Christ, in Judea, who, out of a pretended zeal for God's honor, would commit the most grievous outrages: they would choose and ordain high priest out of the basest of the people, and murder men of the highest and most illustrious extraction. Whether St. Simon belonged to this group before his conversion or to that faction of the Zealots who were conspicuous for their fierce advocacy of the Mosaic ritual is not known. At least, there was some fire or fierceness conspicuous in his temper that occasioned his being distinguished by that warm name.

S. Simon was one of the twelve Apostles (S. Matt. 10:4; S. Mark 3:18).

S. Jude, whose name we also commemorate in this double feast, was one of the twelve Apostles (S. Matt. 10:3; S. Mark 3:18; S. Luke 6:16; Acts 1:13). The same as Lebbaeus and Thaddaeus. Tradition connects him with the founding of the church at Edessa. The tradition concerning their martyrdom is that S. Simon was sawn asunder, and S. Jude either by a club, or arrows, or crucifixion.

The lesson enforced by this festival is Church Unity.

ALL SAINTS' DAY

November 1

The bright Holy day that begins November is All Saints' Day, in which we commemorate all the Faithful Departed.

The festival of All Saints is not of very high antiquity. About the year 610, the Bishop of Rome ordered that the heathen Pantheon, a temple dedicated to all the gods, should be converted into a Christian Church. This was done, and it was appropriately dedicated to the honor of all Martyrs; hence came the origin of All Saints, which was then celebrated on the first of May. In the year 834 it was changed to November the first, on which day it is still observed. Our church, having in the course of the year celebrated the memories of the holy Apostles, and the other most eminent saints and martyrs of the first days of the gospel, deems it unnecessary to extend her Calendar by any other particular festivals, but closes her course with this general one. It should be the Christian's delight on this day to reflect, as he is moved by the appointed scriptures, on the Christian graces and virtues which have exhibited by that goodly fellowship of saints who, in all ages, have honored God in their lives, and glorified him in their deaths; he should pray for grace to follow them "in all virtuous and godly living"; he should meditate on the glorious rest that remains for the people of God, on which they have entered; he should gratefully contemplate that communion of saints which unites him to their holy fellowship, even while he is here militant, if he be a faithful disciple of the Saviour in whom they trusted; he should earnestly seek that grace whereby, after a short further time of trial, he may be united with them in the everlasting service of the Church triumphant.

This festival has become very dear to the hearts of Christians, and is made, both by the character of the service for the day, and by the meaning of it, one of the most touching of all Holy Days; a day on which are gathered up the fragments of the "one bread" of Christ mystical body, that nothing be lost of the memory and example of His Saints.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Subject to Civil Appointment

See page 264, Prayer Book, for Service.

A public celebration in recognition of Divine favor.

The Collect

"O most merciful Father, Who hast blessed the labours of the husbandman in the returns of the fruits of the earth; we give Thee humble and hearty thanks for this Thy bounty; beseeching Thee to continue Thy loving kindness to us, that our land may still yield her increase, to Thy glory and our comfort; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

We so often pray for things: it is meet and right that we should also remember to be thankful, and in the general thanksgiving and the thanksgiving prayers, on page 50 of the Prayer Book, let us often, as grateful children, show our gratitude to God by asking our Clergy to use these prayers for us.

MY LONGING TO HELP

"And when He cometh home, He calleth together His friends and neighbors saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost."

ALTAR LINENS AND SYMBOLS

What is a Chalice Veil?

A Chalice Veil is a square of colored silk, used to cover the Chalice upon the Altar.

What is a Burse?

A Burse is a kind of square pocket used to hold Communion linen.

What is a Credence?

The Credence is a shelf or small table near the Altar, upon which bread, wine and water are placed in preparation for the service of Holy Communion.

What is the meaning of I. H. S.?

The I. H. S. are the first three Greek letters of the name Jesus.

Of Alpha Omega?

The first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. A symbol of Christ.

Why do we use candles on the Altar?

Altar candles remind us that Christ is the light of the world. Two tall candles, called Eucharistic Lights (Thanksgiving) signify that Christ is the light of the world, in both His Human and Divine Nature.

What is an Altar Cross?

An Altar Cross is the Cross that stands above the center of the Altar. (The Cross stands on the Altar to remind us that Christ died on the Cross for our redemption.)

What are the Communion linens?

Fair linen cloth, Corporal, Pall and Purificators.

What is a Flagon?

A Flagon is a covered vessel of silver or gold, used to hold wine at the service of Holy Communion.

Cruet?

A Cruet is a glass vessel used to hold wine or water.

A Processional Cross?

The Cross used in the Procession, and he who carries it is called the Crucifier.

And they brought young children to Him, that He should touch them: and His Disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it He was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. S. Mark 10:13-14.

BAPTISM

How many Sacraments hath Christ ordained in His Church?

Answer. Two only, as generally necessary to salvation; that is to say, Baptism, and the Supper of the Lord.

What meanest thou by this word Sacrament?

I mean an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace given unto us: ordained by Christ himself, as a means whereby we receive the same, and a pledge to assure us thereof.

God is ready to pledge three things in return for three things pledged to Him.

1. For all past sin Man pledges Repentance, and God pledges Pardon.

2. For the present Man pledges Faith, and God pledges Sanctification.

3. For the future Man pledges Obedience, and God pledges Eternal Life.

This is the Covenant spoken of in the Church Catechism in answer to the following question:

What did your sponsors then do for you?

They did promise and vow three things in my name: First, that I should renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanity of this wicked world, and all the sinful lust of the flesh: Secondly, That I should believe all the articles of the Christian Faith; and thirdly, that I should keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of my life

Question: Why are there so many baptised and not confirmed?

Answer: Because Godfathers and Godmothers (Sponsors) have ignored their promises to God and failed in their duty.

They are responsible to God for the instruction of the child, they are to provide that he may learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and all things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health. They are to take care that the child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed.

So many God parents do not function as such, they neither teach the child nor support the house of God that the child may be instructed. They give more attentions to their homes, their automobiles, and their lawns while the child whom they have sponsored is permitted to grow as a weed in the field in place of a flower in the Garden of God.

When shall a child be presented for Confirmation?

Ye are to take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments, and is sufficiently instructed in the other parts of the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose.

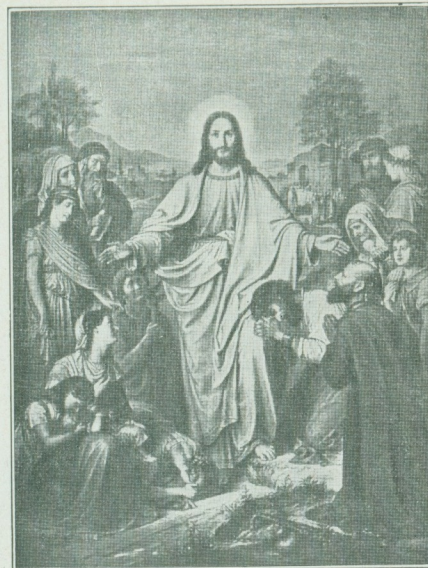

Confirmation: This is a Latin word which signifies strengthening. It is used to express the rite in which the indwelling grace of the Holy Ghost is sought for those who have been made children of God in Baptism, to which Sacrament it is, strictly speaking, a supplemental rite.

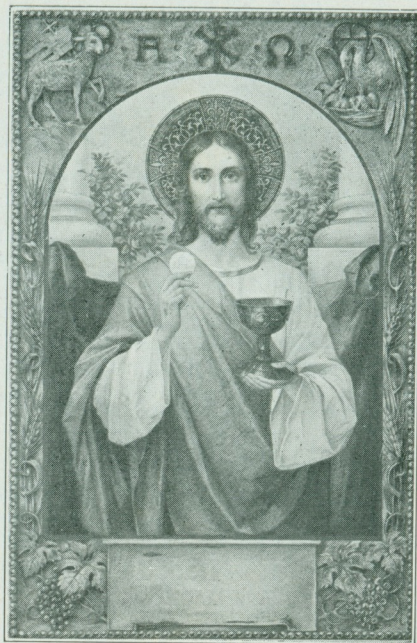

"Then laid they their hands on them and they received the Holy Ghost." Acts 8:17.

In the Epistle to the Hebrews, confirmation, there spoken of under the term "laying on of Hands," is ranked among the chief fundamentals of Christian doctrine (Hebrews 6:2) and therefore must be of perpetual obligation.

It is the duty of Parents and Godfathers and Godmothers to encourage the children to come to it and to labor to fit them for it, that it may be done to God's Glory and their comfort.

By the charge of the Church it does not say that one's right to confirmation depends upon his age or how much he knows. For a thousand years the Church all over the world administered Confirmation to infants and children as well as to adults, immediately after Baptism; and the Eastern branch of the Church still continues this practice.

THE LORD'S SUPPER

Instituted by our Lord on the night in which He was betrayed. St. Luke 22:17-19.

What is the purpose of the Lord's Supper?

It is to show forth His sacrifice and death until He comes again. It is to give us spiritual life and to sustain us. It is a perpetual bond of union between us and our Master in Heaven.

For as often as ye eat this bread and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till He come. I Cor. 11:26.

What is the value of this Sacrament?

Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life. He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. St. John 6:54-56.

What names are commonly given to this Sacrament?

The Lord's Supper, the Holy Communion and the Holy Eucharist, which means Thanksgiving.

ANNUAL REPORT OF ALTAR GUILD

It is with a spirit of thankfulness that I am presenting to you this report of the Altar Guild. I feel that our organization has made a definite step forward during the past year. A little over a year ago we joined that larger organization, the Diocesan Altar Guild, and it has done a great deal to deepen the spiritual side of our work.

At present we have twenty-six members, but not all of these are active. We really need a minimum of twenty-four to take care of the twelve months in the year, as two are appointed for each month. Their duty is to take care of the Altar and the holy vessels, etc. They must see that the brasses and silver are kept clean and shining, the linens freshly laundered, and all in their appointed places. Besides this the sanctuary must be kept dusted and the flowers arranged on the Altar.

Miss Ruth Wolff is in charge of the Flower Calendar, and has very ably conducted that branch of our work. The Calendar itself hangs in the Church vestibule and was very kindly printed and colored by Miss Janet Middleton. While speaking of the flowers I want at this time to thank all those who have this past year so generously supplied us with this means of beautifying our Altar. We had very few vacant Sundays, and perhaps this year even those may be filled. In the summer months we use garden flowers, but in the winter we must go to a florist. Both of these means open a splendid opportunity to the members of the Church to show their thankfulness to Almighty God for his many blessings. The Altar Guild supplies the flowers when none are donated and for special occasions, such as Christmas and Easter.

The donations of fruit and vegetables sent to the Church on Thanksgiving Day were taken by Mrs. Heyward and her son Ben to the House of Rest, at 5919 Wayne Avenue.

Each March a yearly appeal is made to the congregation to help in the work that this organization is doing.

The white hangings for the pulpit and lectern were cleaned and repaired by Miss Davis, and the white markers by Mrs. Jones. The large Bible used on the lectern was also in need of repairs. This was taken care of by the Guild.

Our officers are the same: Miss Edna Davis, Directress; Miss Ruth Wolff, Treasurer, and Mrs. R. B. Heyward, Secretary.

Respectfully submitted by
M. J. Heyward, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

With the exception of the summer months the Vestment Chapter has held regular monthly meetings during the year. The meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month at 10.30 A. M. Its purpose is to have laundered and repaired vestments of the entire choir, and to renew them from time to time.

Early in the year vestments, including cassocks, cottas and caps were purchased for twelve of the older girls of the junior choir. Funds for these were derived from donations, a tea held at the home of Mrs. Foster, the President, a trip through the Airlite Laundry and an interesting tour of the National Biscuit Company.

In the Spring twenty-one cassocks of the adult choir were sent to the cleaners.

In November the Vestment Chapter co-operated with the Woman's Guild in the holding of their Parish Fair by taking charge of the cake and candy table, which netted $37.20.

It is the hope of the Chapter in the near future to be able to renew a number of vestments for the adult choir and the children's choir.

THE FAMILY LIST of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

YEAR BOOK 1938

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, Rector

Rectory, 320 Carpenter Lane

Germantown, Philadelphia

A FOREWORD ABOUT THE YEAR BOOK

For many years it has been our pleasure to publish an Annual Year Book, which the people of our Parish have found of great value as a reference for records, names and addresses as well as a fund of information as to the state of the Parish and other educational matter. We hope that you will preserve this book and keep it in a handy place, for you will undoubtedly have some use for it.

The publication of the book is made possible through the kindness of the advertisers, and it is suggested that you patronize them whenever possible.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES,
RECTOR.

STANDING NOTICES

Visitation of the Sick

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

Marriages

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services.

Burial of the Dead

Always confer with the Minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

Letters of Transfer

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

Wills and Bequests

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

REPORT OF THE RECTOR TO THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, JANUARY 6, 1938

I am exceedingly conscious of the fact that a large proportion of my time has been spent this past year in financial matters. It has been harder than usual to get in funds for the support of our parish work. The final result, however, shows that our actual receipts were about $700 more than the previous year. This was due to an extraordinary effort made at the end of the year, so that we might meet several obligations that had been standing for many months. There was really a splendid response from the whole parish, so that the deficit was only about $60. It does, however, seem a shame that you should make your rector resort to such strenuous means in order to carry on our work.

During this present year our expenses will be about $750 more than last year, due to interest charges and taxes on the Rectory. These items in 1936 and 1937 were included in the settlement of the new Rectory. They are standard items and have heretofore appeared in our regular budget. For this reason we hope that our people will be regular in their offerings, so that we will not have to keep asking you to send them in. The pledges for this present year are about $700 more than last year.

Anonymous Gift

You will all be glad to know that we received at the end of the year a gift of $1000, to be used for the reduction of the mortgage on the new Rectory, bringing the amount down to $5000. This gift was unexpected and we are therefore doubly grateful to the donors who wish to remain anonymous.

The Church Mortgage

A short while ago, the Rector was requested to advise the Vestry and members of the parish that the holder of the church mortgage of $12,000 desired its liquidation, or payment in full. Through conferences with the German-town Trust Company, the agent for this trust fund, we have agreed to enter upon a liquidation plan to pay $1000 a year. In a short while we shall present a plan to the parish by which this may be done. While the amount seems large, especially when we are having difficulty in getting in our regular offerings, we believe that there are many people in the parish who would like to see this old mortgage reduced and will help us, provided the cost is not too great. When the time comes, may I count upon your hearty response and co-operation?

REPORT OF THE RECTOR TO THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, JANUARY 6, 1938

I am exceedingly conscious of the fact that a large proportion of my time has been spent this past year in financial matters. It has been harder than usual to get in funds for the support of our parish work. The final result, however, shows that our actual receipts were about $700 more than the previous year. This was due to an extraordinary effort made at the end of the year, so that we might meet several obligations that had been standing for many months. There was really a splendid response from the whole parish, so that the deficit was only about $60. It does, however, seem a shame that you should make your rector resort to such strenuous means in order to carry on our work.

During this present year our expenses will be about $750 more than last year, due to interest charges and taxes on the Rectory. These items in 1936 and 1937 were included in the settlement of the new Rectory. They are standard items and have heretofore appeared in our regular budget. For this reason we hope that our people will be regular in their offerings, so that we will not have to keep asking you to send them in. The pledges for this present year are about $700 more than last year.

REPORT OF THE RECTOR TO THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, JANUARY 6, 1938

Pastoral Work

In another part of this Year Book you will find a report of the pastoral work which has been done by the Rector. There have been the usual number of services, baptisms, confirmations, etc. Our parish activities keep up their normal functioning. Your Rector has been endeavoring to widen the knowledge of our parishioners regarding the church and religion. Adult Education has not been developed very much in the church. We have been making some small beginnings.

Bible Classes

A group of women have been meeting at the Rectory on the first and third Tuesdays for over a year for a literary and devotional study of the Bible. The continued interest leads me to believe that this is an endeavor that is worthwhile. It was my hope, that this special group would spread out as leaders in the whole parish, forming groups in their own localities for the study of the Bible. While that hope has not been realized, it is an objective.

The Rector has also met with a group of men during Lent covering a similar study, and is arranging occasional Men's Meetings for the discussion of serious subjects.

Parish Conferences

Along this line of Adult Education, conferences of the whole parish are being held from time to time. A very representative group met in November to study our parish problems and our relation to the world work of the church. A conference of a more religious nature is being planned as we write, which will have as its theme the world-wide Oxford and Edinburgh Conference of last summer. Episcopalians should know more about their own church and what Christianity in general stands for and is doing. A group of sixty or seventy people meeting together for four or five hours studying and discussing a religious or social subject cannot fail to have a spiritual effect upon our parish life. It is my wish that everyone in the parish might participate.

Our Parish Missionary

Miss Hester Seeley, a young woman of our parish, has been representing us among the Kentucky mountaineers. Prepared as a medical missionary, she found that the Board of Missions in New York could not place her at once. It has been the privilege of our parish to help in her maintenance, and thus be able to do a fine piece of work among people who need such ministrations very badly. We are proud to have one of our young ladies with such a spirit, and to do our first independent missionary project.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

FINAL REPORT OF THE RECTORY ACCOUNT

The accounting of the new Rectory (finished in November, 1936) was not finally completed until after the sale of the old Rectory on Sedgwick Street. The property was sold for $4500, less the agent's commission. Also at the close of this past year we received a gift of $1000 to pay off part of the Rectory mortgage. The mortgage on the Rectory now is $5000. The cost of the Rectory was $15,400.00. Other expenses included in the settlement amounted to $1500 covering taxes, insurance, bonds, architect's fee, surveys and interest for the first year. Out of a total of about $17,000, we have paid all but $5000, the present mortgage, held by the Germantown Savings Fund at 5% interest, or $250 a year.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S GUILD OF THE CHURCH OF THE EPIPHANY FOR 1937

Just nineteen years ago in response to the need expressed by the Church, the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Epiphany came into being. Today the Guild observing its nineteenth birthday, looks back over a period of busy years with a great deal of satisfaction, because we feel that we have measured up to the standards set for us by the women who organized and held the first meeting in 1919. True, there is a genuine need for an increase in our numbers, as the responsibility in carrying on the work of the Church is assumed by a very few women in comparison with the size of the congregation. As the church grows we must have an adequate Guild membership. Will you, the women of the church, do your part and bring a new member into the Guild this year.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild has met regularly at stated monthly meetings during the year 1937, with Mrs. Willard presiding at all meetings. We have at present thirty-seven members. Of this number, twenty-seven are active. The passing of one of our most valued and beloved members, Mrs. Elton J. Buckley, is recorded with deep sorrow.

During the year three Parish suppers were held. From the proceeds of the "Major Bones" entertainment and the November supper and fair, $360 was given to help defray church expenses. The Easter offering was $68, and $25 in September, a total of $453 given by the Woman's Guild to the church for the year 1937.

Two luncheons were given during the year.

On Tuesdays during Lent the women met to sew for Missionary purposes, first attending the ten o'clock Communion Service. These were all day meetings with the usual Mission Study Class conducted by Mrs. Percy Crawford, Bible teacher at Miss Irwin's School. Topic, "Africa and the American Negro."

During the year five sweaters were made by the women of the Guild, articles of clothing were sent to the Episcopal Hospital, the Mission at Fort Yukon, Alaska, the Needlework Guild and to the Roseborough Mission, at Roseborough, North Carolina. Forty-six tea towels were made for our Parish use. A collection of Christmas gifts was sent to the Elizabeth Price Martin League.

The Woman's Guild was represented at the International Peace Day of Prayer, the Episcopal Day for the Blind, House of Rest benefit party, Convocation Garden party, Woman's Auxiliary Annual Meeting and the Educational Conference. Our members attended many other outside meetings and lectures.

For the United Thank Offering Mrs. Seeley collected $249.07 from the women of our Parish.

Donations of money were sent to the House of Rest; to Hester Seeley for her Missionary work among the Kentucky Mountaineers; to the Rosebud Mission in South Dakota, as a memorial to Mrs. Markoe; Educational Week for the Blind, and to several other Diocesan committees having a deficit. Mrs. Heyward sent $17.50 to Dr. Burke, of Fort Yukon, Alaska, for a ton of coal. This was sent in the name of the Church of the Epiphany.

A Bond Bread demonstration was given for the purpose of raising money to increase the Domestic quota and a trip to Breyers Ice Cream plant was arranged in order to increase our Lenten offering. Valentines and candy were sent to the House of Rest at Easter, and donations of fruit, vegetables, etc., at Thanksgiving time.

During the year a birthday collection from the members of the Parish was taken by Mrs. Hobson. The amount so far collected is $27.33. This is to be used by the Guild as an emergency fund.

Miss Dorothea Thullen was appointed as a representative from our Parish on the Red Cross Relief Committee. She is to act as the contact person in case of emergency.

The work of the Sunshine Guild is taken care of by our Treasurer, Mrs. Jones. It is supported by the members of the Guild, and flowers are sent to the sick of the Parish out this fund.

The Guild sends representatives to the monthly meetings of the following committees: Diocesan, Domestic, Indian Hope, Foreign and Colored; also a yearly contribution of money to each of these.

We are very much beholden to Miss Edna Davis for a generous gift of china and silver for Parish use and to Mrs. Harry Rennison for repair work done on the church cushions. Our thanks and appreciation is also extended to all our other members who have helped to build up the Guild financially and spiritually. So let us all work this coming year toward making it a celebration of gratefulness for the privileges we enjoy as members, and let us say to each other: "I have faith in you—faith in myself, which gives me a sense of joy for service in the future."

Respectfully submitted,

MADELON MORSE, Secretary.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild, which was organized to take care of the Sanctuary and Chancel, meets the second Tuesday in each month. Miss Davis is still the Directress, Miss Wolff the Treasurer, and Mrs. Heyward the Secretary.

We have at present twenty-five members, nearly half of which are associates. We should have more active members, at least twenty-four active members, so that the work may be adequately taken care of during the twelve months in the year without the members each serving more than one month. I wonder if many of the women in our parish realize how taking an active part in the work of the Altar Guild deepens the reality of one's spiritual life and what a blessed privilege it is to care for the Sanctuary, keep the linens freshly laundered, the brass and silver bright and shining and the Altar dusted and decorated with fragrant flowers.

The Flower Calendar which hangs in the vestibule of the church has been beautifully printed and colored by Miss Janet Middleton. It is in charge of our very efficient Treasurer, Miss Wolff. She reports that there are seven vacant Sundays for this coming year. We hope that some of you will take this opportunity of remembering your loved ones and of showing your gratitude to Almighty God for His many blessings. The Altar Guild supplies the flowers when none are donated and on special occasions such as Christmas and Easter.

The offerings of fruit, canned goods and vegetables sent to the church on Thanksgiving Day were very kindly taken by Mrs. Middleton to the House of Rest at 5919 Wayne Avenue.

ALTAR GUILD

During the past year, due to the kindness of several members, the Guild was supplied with nine new purificators, one heavy fair linen, and four stole protectors. A small heavy fair linen was also made for the Chapel Altar. Mr. Banks had the lacquer removed from the Communion Rail and the Rail beautifully polished. This greatly improved its appearance.

Our work is entirely supported by voluntary contributions. When our special appeal goes out in March may we ask that more of the members of our parish remember the Altar Guild.

Respectfully submitted,

M. J. HEYWARD.

REPORT OF THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

With the exception of the summer months the Vestment Chapter has held regular monthly meetings during the year. The meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month at 10.30 A. M. Its purpose is to have laundered and repaired vestments of the entire choir, and to renew them from time to time.

In November the Vestment Chapter co-operated with the Woman's Guild in the holding of their Parish Fair by taking charge of the cake and candy table.

It is the hope of the Chapter in the near future to be able to renew a number of vestments for the adult choir and the children's choir.

THE FAMILY LIST

of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

THE MEANING OF THE APOSTLES' CREED

CHRIST AND THE RICH YOUNG RULER

A statement of our belief in the Apostles' Creed is required at Baptism and renewed in Confirmation. The word "Creed" comes from the Latin "Credo" meaning "I believe." There are two creeds used in the Prayer Book, the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed. There are 109 words in the Apostles' Creed, being divided into twelve articles or thoughts. The three main divisions tell of:

1. God, the Father who hath made us and all the world.
2. God, the Son who hath redeemed us and all mankind.
3. God, the Holy Ghost who sanctifieth us and all the people of God.

The Creed is sometimes called the Doctrine of the Church. It is truth in teachable form.

Introduction to the Apostles' Creed:

Why called the Apostles' Creed? Not because it was written by the Apostles, but because it grew up around a formula used by the Apostles as a watchword. These were the things which the Apostles accepted and believed.

Origin and authority:

1. Baptismal formula and watchword. (In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost.)

THE MEANING OF THE APOSTLES' CREED

2. Reference is made to a form of teaching or belief in the New Testament as the "Apostles Teaching," "Words of Truth," "Good Doctrine," "Good Confession." 1 Tim. 6:12 and 4:6, Acts 2:42, Romans 6:17, Romans 16:17.
3. Present Creed is an enlargement of the words or phrase used as a pass-word when the early Christians had to meet secretly. As time went on, they had to explain what they meant by Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
4. The Creed was necessary as an orthodox statement of belief, when after time of persecutions, heretical ideas arose. The Creed states certain facts—it does not endeavor to interpret them.

The twelve articles in the Creed are separated by Colons (:) and are as follows:

Article 1

"I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:"

I believe—expresses the individual's faith, in which he asserts his belief and trust in a personal God. Notice the word "I"—it is the only place in the service of the Church where the plural is not used. We may pray with others for them, but we must express our belief alone.

God, the Father, etc.—Father of Christ, Father of all mankind, Father of all creation—heaven and earth—therefore almighty. The 1st and 2nd chapters of Genesis tell story of creation.

Article 2

"And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord:"

This article expresses our belief in Christ as God. Word Jesus, means Saviour.

Christ—the title of His office—the anointed one—Messiah.

Son—expresses divinity, therefore our God. Passages in the Bible that refer to Christ as God, John 17, John 20:28, Acts 20:28.

Article 3

"Who was conceived of the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary:" Doctrine of the Incarnation.

a. Conceived of the Holy Ghost. The Divinity of Christ.

1. Idea of the Incarnation and its preparation.
2. Why the Super-natural birth of Christ? Perfect Birth and life.
3. Objections to super-natural birth. Certain Apostles do not mention it, but they do not mention many things.

THE MEANING OF THE APOSTLES' CREED

4. Reference to super-natural birth in Matthew 1, and Luke 1. The fact of the super-natural birth of Christ is not absolutely necessary for our belief in his Divinity, but it seems a natural conclusion.

The fact of the Sinlessness of Christ is evident and many scriptural passages attest it—Luke 1:35, 2 Cor. 5:21, Hebrews 4:15.

- b. Born of the Virgin Mary. The Humanity of Christ.
 1. He was the Son of Man as well as the Son of God.
 2. He had a body, soul, bones and flesh.
 3. He grew in a most natural way. Luke 1:80 and 2:52.
 4. He had human emotions—hunger, thirst, sleep weariness, compassion, surprise and dread.
 5. The reason for this stress on the human nature of Christ is to show that it was possible for Him to sin, and that he understands our weakness, thus becoming a perfect example for us. Four points good to know regarding the person of Christ: (1) truly God, (2) truly Man, (3) One Person, (4) two distinct and perfect natures, human and divine.

Article 4

“Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried.”

- a. Suffered under Pontius Pilate—fixes Historical period.
- b. Crucified—its object was ignomy and lingering pain.
- c. Dead—implies a real death, not a swooning.
- d. Buried—a fact. Agrees with I Cor. 15:4.
- e. The point of this article is the doctrine of the Atonement.
 1. At-one-ment, the bringing together of Man and God.
 2. It is the redeeming and reconciling of Man to God.
 3. It is the revelation of God's love toward us. God's attitude toward us was not changed, but our attitude toward Him.

Article 5

“He descended into Hell, the third day He rose again from the dead:”

- a. Hell—different views and ideas of place referred to as Hell.

THE MEANING OF THE APOSTLES' CREED

1. Sheol, Hebrew word for place of departed spirits, called the covered place.
2. Hades, the place of punishment and blessing.
3. Gehenna, the burning dump outside the city of Jerusalem.
4. Paradise, a park, a resting place of blessedness. Some hold that we go either to a place of punishment, or heaven. Some that we go to an intermediate state, variously called; Intermediate State, Purgatory and Paradise.
- b. Third Day—became our Sabbath or Day of the Sun. Replaces Saturday.

Article 6

“He ascended into Heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty:”

- a. Ascended into Heaven—Ascension references, Luke 24:51, Acts 1:2, Mark 16:19, I Peter 3:22, etc.
- b. Period of time between the Resurrection and the Ascension was 40 days, when Jesus appeared and taught the disciples concerning the things of the Kingdom. Read first two chapters of Acts.
- c. Sitteth on the right hand of God. Hand denotes power and right hand superior power. He makes intercession for and with us.

Article 7

“From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead:”

- a. From thence he shall come. Second coming or advent of Christ. Referred to as “that day,” Matthew 7:22, 24:36, Mark 13:32.
- b. Time of his coming is uncertain. Christ is continually coming into the hearts of men and when the world is ready He shall come and dwell with men.
- c. The signs of His coming,
 1. The gospel must be carried to every nation, Matt. 22:8.
 2. False Christs and prophets will arise, Mark 13:22.
 3. The Jews must first be won, Romans 11:15-27.
 4. Man of sin must be revealed, I Thess. 2:3-8.
- d. The Judgment. All that we know of the judgment is that Christ is the judge and that his judgment will harmonize with His loving character of mercy. Men will undoubtedly reap what they have sown, as one of the laws of nature.

THE MEANING OF THE APOSTLES' CREED

Article 8

"I believe in the Holy Ghost:" (Third person of the Trinity.)

- a. Holy Ghost is referred to as God and He, John 15:26, 16:13, Acts 5:3, 4, etc. He can suffer, He can be grieved, He can be sinned against, He can be tempted, He can be blasphemed, He can make intercession for us.
He is the living indwelling spirit of our lives. (Whitsun-day) time of gift of Holy Ghost.

Article 9

"The Holy Catholic Church; the Communion of Saints:"

- a. Holy Catholic Church. The word Church means those "Called out" or those belonging to the Lord. Christ instituted a church as an organ for the sole purpose of propagating the gospel, and appointed certain apostles over it, Matthew 16:18, 18:17.
- b. The four notes of the Church expressed in the Apostles and Nicene creeds are:
Holy-in idea, but tares amongst the wheat, Matt. 13:24-30.
Catholic—originally meant Universal. At the time of the Reformation, the English church held to the points of catholicity, and Rome referred to as Roman Catholic.
Unity—It was our Lord's hope that the Jewish and Christian churches should be one and of course, now we pray that the Christian bodies be one. John 10:16, 15:1-8.
Apostolicity—An unbroken union with the times of the Apostles, referred to as the Apostolic succession.
- c. Communion of Saints—the Saints are variously referred to, but probably means the members of Christ in the other world and those in this.
Theologians have little to say as to what is meant by the "Communion" of Saints. It probably meant some kind of relation between the church militant and the expectant.
Saints are those who have given themselves to the way of Christ, they may not be perfect—but they are consecrated.

THE MEANING OF THE APOSTLES' CREED

Article 10

"Forgiveness of Sins:"

- a. Sin. Scriptural definition is "missing the mark" or a violation of God's laws and Commandments, due the Agency of Man who has a free will to choose. Sin is foreign to man and can be overcome by him. The devil is not biblical, but traditional, and is only a personification of evil.
- b. Forgiveness. Since sin alienates man from God, forgiveness removes that barrier. Christ's death and sacrifice is the revelation of the forgiveness of God.

Article 11

"The Resurrection of the Body:"

- a. The reality of the resurrection is attested by the fact of Christ's resurrection. Read I Cor. 15.
- b. As to the nature of the resurrected body, we believe that we shall rise with a glorified body, called a spiritual body by St. Paul in I Cor. 15:44. Christ was not recognized in His new body.
It is conceded by most writers today that the one thing that remains is the personality.
An example sometimes used of the resurrection is the transition of cocoon into a beautiful butterfly.

Article 12

"And the Life Everlasting."

- a. Life everlasting was not new with Christianity, but was proven by the fact of Christ's life.
Some proofs are advanced:
 1. Universal consent. It is inherent in man that he lives on after this life. This is felt by everyone, therefore it must be so.
 2. Practical proof. What a disastrous influence a denial of life everlasting would have upon the moral influence of Man.
 3. Sense of justice demands that the inequities of this life be squarred up in the next life.
 4. A belief in the power of God, dispels the idea that God does not finish his handiwork.
- b. Life signifies more than mere existence, it is a continuance of this life until we rise to endless and boundless heights of glory or character. It is simply beyond our imagination. Nothing is said of a death eternal, so all will live. The "Universal theory" of life after death is that all men be they good or bad, shall rise eventually into higher lives. Christ said little about the life to come.

From The
OFFICES of INSTRUCTION

What is your Christian name?

My Christian Name is _____.

Who gave you this Name?

My Sponsors gave me this Name in Baptism; wherein I was made a member of Christ, the child of God, and an inheritor of the kingdom of heaven.

What did your Sponsors then promise you?

My Sponsors did promise and vow three things in my name: First, that I should renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanity of this wicked world, and all the sinful lusts of the flesh; Secondly, that I should believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith; And Thirdly, that I should keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of my life.

Do you not think that you are bound so to do?

Yes, verily; and by God's help so I will. And I heartily thank our heavenly Father, that He hath called me to this state of salvation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. And I pray unto God to give me His grace, that I may continue in the same unto my life's end.

You said that your sponsors promised and vowed that you should believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith. Recite the Articles of the Christian Faith as contained in the Apostles' Creed.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary: Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried: He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost: The holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints: The Forgiveness of sins: The Resurrection of the body: And the Life everlasting. Amen.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What do you chiefly learn in these Articles of your Belief?

First, I learn to believe in God the Father, who hath made me, and all the world.

Secondly, in God the Son, who hath redeemed me, and all mankind.

Thirdly, in God the Holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the people of God.

And this Holy Trinity, One God, I praise and magnify, saying,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

You said that your sponsors promised and vowed that you should keep God's holy will and commandments. Tell me how many Commandments there are.

There are Ten Commandments, given in old time by God to the people of Israel.

I. Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

II. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day.

V. Honour thy father and thy mother.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet.

What does our Lord Jesus Christ teach us about these Commandments?

Our Lord Jesus Christ teaches us that they are summed up in these two Commandments.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy mind, with all thy soul, and with all thy strength; this is the first and great Commandment.

And the second is: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

What then do you chiefly learn from the Ten Commandments?

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

I learn two things from these Commandments; my duty towards God, and my duty towards my Neighbour.

What is your duty towards God?

My duty towards God is to believe in him, to fear him, and to love him with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soul, and with all my strength.

I., II. To worship him, to give him thanks: To put my whole trust in him, to call upon him:

III. To honour his holy Name and his Word:

IV. And to serve him truly all the days of my life.

What is your duty towards your neighbour?

My duty towards my Neighbour is To love him as myself, and to do to all men as I would they should do unto me:

V. To love, honour, and help my father and mother: To honour and obey the civil authority: To submit myself to all my governors, teachers, spiritual pastors and masters: And to order myself in that lowliness and reverence which becometh a servant of God:

VI. To hurt nobody by word or deed: To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart:

VII. To keep my body in temperance, soberness, and chastity:

VIII. To keep my hands from picking and stealing: To be true and just in all my dealings:

IX. To keep my tongue from evil speaking, lying, and slandering:

X. Not to covet nor desire other men's goods; But to learn and labour truly to earn mine own living, And to do my duty in that state of life unto which it shall please God to call me.

Know this; that you are not able to do these things of yourself, nor to walk in the Commandments of God, and to serve him, without his special grace; which you must learn at all times to call for by diligent prayer.

What is the prayer that our Lord taught us to pray?

The Lord's Prayer.

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

When were you made a member of the Church?

I was made a member of the Church when I was baptized.

What is the Church?

The Church is the Body of which Jesus Christ is the Head, and all baptized people are the members.

How is the Church described in the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds?

The Church is described in the Creeds as One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic.

What do we mean by these words?

We mean that the Church is

One; because it is one Body under one Head;

Holy; because the Holy Spirit dwells in it, and sanctifies its members;

Catholic; because it is universal, holding earnestly the Faith for all time, in all countries, and for all people; and is sent to preach the Gospel to the whole world;

Apostolic; because it continues stedfastly in the Apostles' teaching and fellowship.

What is your bounden duty as a member of the Church?

My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church: and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom.

What special means does the Church provide to help you to do all these things?

The Church provides the Laying on of Hands, or Confirmation, wherein, after renewing the promises and vows of my Baptism, and declaring my loyalty and devotion to Christ as my Master, I receive the strengthening gifts of the Holy Spirit.

After you have been confirmed, what great privilege doth our Lord provide for you?

Our Lord provides the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, or Holy Communion, for the continual strengthening and refreshing of my soul.

How many sacraments hath Christ ordained in his Church?

Christ hath ordained two Sacraments only, as generally necessary to salvation; that is to say, Baptism and the Supper of the Lord.

What do you mean by this word Sacrament?

I mean by this word Sacrament an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace given unto us;

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

ordained by Christ himself, as a means whereby we receive this grace, and a pledge to assure us thereof.

How many parts are there in a Sacrament?

There are two parts in a Sacrament; the outward and visible sign, and the inward and spiritual grace.

What is the outward and visible sign or form in Baptism?

The outward and visible sign or form in Baptism is Water; wherein the person is baptized, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

What is the inward and spiritual grace in Baptism?

The inward and spiritual grace in Baptism is a death unto sin, and a new birth unto righteousness; whereby we are made the children of grace.

What is required of persons to be baptized?

Repentance, whereby they forsake sin; and Faith, whereby they stedfastly believe the promises of God to them in that Sacrament.

Why then are infants baptized, when by reason of their tender age they cannot perform them?

Because, by the faith of their Sponsors, infants are received into Christ's Church, become the recipients of his grace, and are trained in the household of faith.

Why was the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper ordained?

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was ordained for the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of the death of Christ, and of the benefits which we receive thereby.

What is the outward part or sign of the Lord's Supper?

The outward part or sign of the Lord's Supper is, Bread and Wine, which the Lord hath commanded to be received.

What is the inward part, or thing signified?

The inward part, or thing signified, is the Body and Blood of Christ, which are spiritually taken and received by the faithful in the Lord's Supper.

What are the benefits whereof we are partakers in the Lord's Supper?

The benefits whereof we are partakers in the Lord's Supper are the strengthening and refreshing of our souls by the Body and Blood of Christ, as our bodies are strengthened and refreshed by the Bread and Wine.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What is required of those who come to the Lord's Supper?

It is required of those who come to the Lord's Supper to examine themselves, whether they repent them truly of their former sins, with stedfast purpose to lead a new life; to have a lively faith in God's mercy through Christ, with a thankful remembrance of his death; and to be in charity with all men.

What orders of Ministers are there in the Church?

Bishops, Priests, and Deacons; which orders have been in the Church from the earliest times.

What is the office of a Bishop?

The office of a Bishop is, to be a chief pastor in the Church; to confer Holy Orders; and to administer Confirmation.

What is the office of a Priest?

The office of a Priest is, to minister to the people committed to his care; to preach the Word of God; to baptize; to celebrate the Holy Communion; and to pronounce Absolution and Blessing in God's Name.

What is the office of a Deacon?

The office of a Deacon is, to assist the Priest in Divine Service, and in his other ministrations, under the direction of the Bishop.

PRIVATE BAPTISM

When, in consideration of extreme sickness, necessity may require, then the following form shall suffice:

The Child (or Person) being named by some one who is present, the Minister shall pour Water upon him, saying these words:

N. I baptize thee In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

After which shall be said the Lord's Prayer, and the Thanksgiving from this Office, beginning, We yield thee hearty thanks, etc.

But Note, That in the case of an Adult, the Minister shall first ask the questions provided in this Office for the Baptism of Adults.

In cases of extreme sickness, or any imminent peril, if a Minister cannot be procured, then any baptized person present may administer holy Baptism, using the foregoing form. Such Baptism shall be promptly reported to the Parish authorities.

THE RECEIVING OF ONE PRIVATELY BAPTIZED

It is expedient that a Child or Person so baptized be afterward brought to the Church, at which time these parts of the foregoing service shall be used:

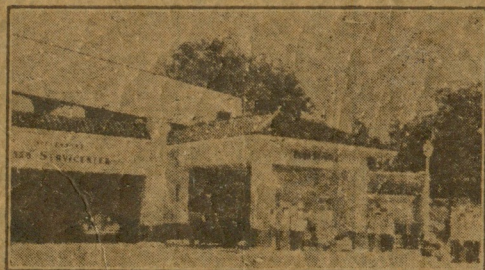

The Gospel, the Questions (omitting the question Wilt thou be baptized in this Faith? and the answer thereto), the Declaration, We receive this Child (or Person), etc., and the remainder of the Office.

A FOREWORD ABOUT THE YEAR BOOK

For many years it has been our pleasure to publish an Annual Year Book, which the people of our Parish have found of great value as a reference for records, names and addresses as well as a fund of information, as to the state of the Parish and other educational matter. We hope that you will preserve this book and keep it in a handy place, for you will undoubtedly have some use for it.

The publication of the book is made possible through the kindness of the advertisers, and it is suggested that you patronize them whenever possible.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES,
RECTOR.

REV. J. WESLEY TWELVES

RECTOR SINCE 1925

STANDING NOTICES

Visitation of the Sick

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

Marriages

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services.

Burial of the Dead

Always confer with the Minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

Letters of Transfer

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

Wills and Bequests

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

REPORT OF THE RECTOR TO THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING, JANUARY 6, 1939

In making this report of the state of the parish for the year 1938 I want especially to call attention to the other reports printed in the Year Book. When you read them with their financial accounts you will be impressed by the very varied work which is being done. For a comparatively small parish, I believe that we are doing considerable work. We are active, and everything is kept functioning at a high degree of order, the Church School with its fine group of teachers, the Choir, well prepared and keeping up the tone of the service, the Vestment Chapter, seeing that the vestments of the numerous choirs are laundered and renewed when necessary, the Altar Guild, keeping the Chancel of the Church in order, the altar replenished with flowers, and the Woman's Guild carrying on a fine piece of work both for the parish and the general Church. When you come to Church or to other parish functions you should not forget that there are many in the parish who have worked faithfully to make everything attractive and successful.

Pastoral Work

Elsewhere in this book you will find a report of the pastoral work done by the Rector, the usual number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, Burials, etc. This by no means covers the varied work of a minister. People used to think that all a minister did was to preach sermons on Sunday, do a little visiting during the week, and perform such occasional services as he was called upon to do. Every minister is expected to spend a goodly proportion of his time in study. Not many of us find opportunity to do our full share in reading, because our time in recent years has been largely taken up in doing all kinds of office work, and chiefly in raising the money for the support of the Church. You would be surprised to know of the number of letters, personal and otherwise, that the average minister has to write in order to keep people's interest in the Church alive and to help support it.

Financial Condition of the Parish

If you will compare the receipts for the support of the Church found in this book with those of the previous year you will find that we did considerably better than last year. This has been, as all of you must know, quite a struggle. Even as it was, we were not able to pay our taxes amounting to about $465. We are hoping that those members who did not complete their envelope payments for 1938, will send in their amounts to apply against the 1938 taxes, so that this extra amount will not be added to this year's expenses. Many of you will be happy to know that we have been able to pay off $800 on the principle of the Mortgage on the Church. This was the result of a quiet campaign started last spring, in which a number of our members agreed to give various amounts either outright or month by month. The Trust Company holding the mortgage has required that we make a yearly reduction of $1000. This was an added burden which was unexpected at the time, and we would have been glad to use this money for the taxes, if we could. We hope that the rest of the pledges on this mortgage will come in by the end of February, so that we can keep our promise. At Christmas we were made the recipient of $500 by members of the parish who wish to remain anonymous. This amount was equally divided between the Mortgage Fund and the Current Expenses.

Fortieth Anniversary

On the first Sunday in October we celebrated the Fortieth Anniversary of the beginning of our work here in what was then known as Pelham. The Rev. Dr. J. Alan Montgomery, the first Rector, who still is in our parish, participated in the service and told us something of the early struggles of the parish and the consummation of the hopes of those at that time, as seen in our fine plant and work today.

Trends in Religion

There are indications that certain groups, representing certain ages in our society, have been growing indifferent to the claims of religion. We find many of the parents of children in our Church School have little or no interest in the Church or religion. Perhaps this is some sort of a reaction against a type of religious belief of the previous generation. I really believe that they have not thought the matter through. Recent political addresses, newspaper articles and magazines indicate that our political form of democracy will perish if we lose our religious ideals. All that religion stands for, justice, freedom, rights of individuals and the personality of every human being, is the foundation of our democratic system. This is a time in our world history when it behooves every thinking person to realize what religion means to the welfare of our common good.

May I bespeak the co-operation and interest of all the people in any way connected with the parish in assisting us with their labor and means to carry on the work which God has given us to do in this community.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S GUILD OF THE CHURCH OF THE EPIPHANY FOR 1938

During the year 1938 the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Epiphany has held its regular meetings on the second Tuesday of each month.

We have at present 38 active members, and an average attendance of 25. We are happy to have enrolled 8 new members during the year, but regret the loss of some by death and by resignation. It is our sincere wish that those who have felt it necessary to resign, may again join us.

The faithful interest and work of the members has been constant during the past year, but if this group is to adequately shoulder its responsibility toward the Church, missions and institutions, we must have more women workers, and we earnestly ask you, the women of our congregation who are not members of the Guild, to come with us. To those who have served and given their time, your Secretary makes acknowledgment in the following report.

During the year five Church suppers, a bazaar, one luncheon and two teas have been given for the purpose of increasing the Church and Guild funds. Out of this money $350 was used to reduce the Church mortgage. The Easter Offering was raised as follows: Lenten luncheons, $10.40; a book tea, $41.20; donations from members, $28.50, making the total Easter Offering, $80.10.

Donations of money were sent to the House of Rest, the Supply Bureau, Church Farm School, the Mission at Fort Yukon, Alaska, Educational Week for the Blind, and to several other Diocesan Committees that had deficits.

Mrs. Heyward, of the Indian Hope Committee, collected $17.70 for the Special Offering, $15.70 for the Mile of Pennies, $5.00 toward the Doctor Burke Memorial, which added to our pledge of $5.00 made a total of $42.47 sent to the Indian Hope Committee.

Through a silver offering at a tea given by Mrs. Jones, the Domestic Committee pledge of $10.00 was raised to $21.50.

All other pledges for the different Diocesan Committees were met.

The Guild members were busy sewing each Tuesday during Lent, making 37 garments for the Supply Bureau, 55 towels, 4 gowns and 67 other articles for the Episcopal Hospital, layettes for the Philadelphia Hospital, and extra towels for parish use.

Mission Study Classes were held during Lent, preceded by a Holy Communion service.

Several of our members volunteered their services for the Episcopal Day for the Blind, and participated in the Convocation Garden Party. The Guild was represented at the International Peace Day of Prayer, Woman's Auxiliary Annual Meeting, Educational Conference, and many other outside meetings.

Our United Thank Offering in the spring amounted to $110.89, and in the fall to $100.00, making a total of $210.89 collected from the women of the parish.

At Easter and Thanksgiving, gifts and donations of canned goods, fruits, vegetables, etc., were sent to the House of Rest, and at Christmas a collection of gifts to the Elizabeth Price Martin League.

In April at a meeting of the Executive Board of the Pennsylvania Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, it was voted to ask the parishes to set aside ember days of June 8th, 10th and 11th for the special prayer and sacrifice for the Save the Cuts offering. The women of our parish gave $23.42 for this offering.

During the year a Birthday Collection from the members of the parish was taken by Mrs. Hobson. The amount raised in this way was $85.27. Fifty dollars of this was used to re-cover 50 of the Church kneeling cushions.

The work of the Sunshine Guild is taken care of by Mrs. Black and Mrs. Middleton. It is supported by the members of the Guild. Flowers and gifts are sent to the sick of the parish out of this fund.

For dining room equipment $21.14 was expended.

The Guild sends delegates to the monthly meetings of the following committees: Diocesan, Domestic, Indian Hope, Foreign, Colored, Social Service, Educational and Convocational.

Members of the Guild also attended the Bible Class conducted by Mr. Twelves, and held on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month.

In closing the year's work I know I am expressing the attitude of our Guild when I pledge their whole-hearted support to the work for the year 1939, and I want to thank the members for their help and encouragement to the officers, which has made our task a joy.

Respectfully submitted,

Madelon Morse, Secretary.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild during the year just past has functioned with its usual smoothness under the able guidance of our Directress, Miss Edna C. Davis, who has just completed ten years of devoted service to the Guild. Miss Ruth Wolff has served with efficiency in the role of Treasurer and Custodian of the Flower Calendar, and Mrs. Heyward is still the Secretary. We have met the second Tuesday in each month from October to May, inclusive.

There are at present twenty-four members, but unfortunately all of them are not active. To adequately take care of the work without imposing too great a burden on any one person or group we should have at the minimum twenty-four active members, thus insuring that two different women be in charge of the work each month.

Our duties, and I add privileges for I am sure that all of the members feel that it is a privilege to serve God's Holy Altar, are to keep the Sanctuary and all it contains clean and dusted, the Fair Linens, etc., freshly laundered, the silver and brasses bright and shining, and the Altar decorated each Sunday with fresh flowers. These flowers are supplied by members of the congregation as Memorials or Thanksgivings. We keep a Flower Calendar in the vestibule of the Church. It was very kindly donated and colored by Mrs. Middleton. On it a record is kept of each Sunday and the name of the member donating the flowers on that day. If all the Sundays are not taken care of the Altar Guild supplies the flowers out of its own funds and also helps with the flowers at Easter and the greens at Christmas. At present there are only seven Sundays vacant. Would it not be splendid if we could fill these also? Everyone, I am sure, has something for which to be thankful, some one to lovingly remember. And putting fragrant flowers on God's Altar is such a lovely way in which to show our appreciation of His love and goodness towards us.

This organization is a member of a larger organization, "The Diocesan Altar Guild," and those of us who have attended its meetings and "Quiet Days" have received very great inspiration. I would like to urge more of our members to take advantage of this great spiritual opportunity.

The offerings of fruit, canned goods and vegetables, sent to the church on Thanksgiving Day were taken to "The House of Rest," 5919 Wayne Avenue, by a member of the Guild and her son.

During the year a new surplice and purple stole were bought for Mr. Twelves. Mrs. Middleton very kindly donated some stole protectors, and some new corporals have been ordered. As you see, the Altar Guild is responsible for the Rector's vestments, and keeping the linens and Altar appointments in good order as well as for the Altar Flowers.

The rules of our Guild forbid the raising of money by entertainments, etc., and we are dependent on the yearly dues, the special appeal that is sent out to the congregation every March and the envelopes for Easter flowers and Christmas greens. I feel that if more of our people understood this and realized the work that this organization is doing there would be more of a response to our needs. May I ask that you all think this over and then remember the Altar Guild, especially when you receive those little envelopes next March.

Respectfully submitted,

Matilda J. Heyward, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The regular monthly meetings of the Vestment Chapter have been held on the third Wednesday of each month at ten-thirty in the morning—with the exception of the summer months. During the summer months, instead of paying dues, the members save a penny a day and turn it in at the first fall meeting. This will account for the item "pennies" appearing under Receipts.

Upon the return of Mr. Banks after his illness in April, the Vestment Chapter tendered a dinner to the adult choir in recognition of their loyal services.

As usual the Vestment Chapter assisted the Women's Guild with their Parish Fair in November by taking charge of the Cake and Candy Table. The Vestment Chapter was happy to contribute $43.63 toward the mortgage fund.

In November the Chapter purchased a new vestment, and in May ten new cottas.

We are very anxious to have more boys in the choir. Originally 18 vestments were purchased, and now, at the most, only 8 are used. May we ask the parishioners who know of any boys who are eligible to suggest their names to the Chapter so that we may build up our boys' choir.

THE FAMILY LIST of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not therefore inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

BAPTISM AND WHAT IT IS

In Confirmation we are asked to ratify and confirm the Baptismal Vows taken by our Sponsors for us. It is fitting then that we should know more about Baptism.

What Is Baptism? It is one of the two Sacraments instituted by Christ, the other being the Supper of the Lord or Holy Communion.

Jesus commanded his disciples to go and baptize all people in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.

Baptism is an agreement or covenant made between God and an individual, in which God for His part assures the Baptised person of His Love and Fatherhood, and the person agrees through his sponsors that he will endeavor to be faithful to God unto his life's end.

The Baptismal Covenant Explained

The outward and visible form of the service:

Water—sprinkled on head (or immersed)—symbol of cleansing from sin.

Words used—Baptised in (really means into) Name, means person—comes from persona. So we are Baptised into the persons or family of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, becoming members of God's Family.

In Baptism we are given our Christian names by our Sponsors.

We are signed by the cross to signify that we are not ashamed to confess Christ and fight under His banner.

Administered by either a:

Priest—which means a Presbyter of the Church and is a shorter way of spelling it;

Deacon—a minister not fully ordained, but serves or helps in the church.

Bishop—the Greek name is Episcopos, from which we get our word Episcopal—a church governed by Bishops.

Any Baptised person can baptise another person in case of emergency or extreme danger, when a minister is not available.

The Inward and Spiritual part of the Service:

Signifies death unto sin and life unto righteousness. Requires of us repentance and faith.

We are reborn into God's Family and into the loving family of other Christian men and women.

The Baptismal Promises. Ratified at Confirmation. We promise to:

Renounce what is evil;
To believe what is true;
To do what is right.

1. To renounce d-evil, vain things (useless) covetousness and impurity. Some people would like a guide to know what is sin. This rule may help: "Sin is anything that hurts God, hurts anyone else, hurts ourselves."
2. To believe in the Apostles' Creed.
3. To obey and be led by voice of God's will speaking within us (conscience) and endeavor to walk in the way of God's Commandments—that is His laws perhaps, in Ten Commandments, Sermon on the Mount, etc.

Why Does Our Church Practice Infant Baptism?

1. It is God's way of acknowledging them as His. Shows who we belong to.
2. Jesus said "Suffer the little children to come unto me."
3. Children and whole families baptised in early church.
4. Ninety-seven percent of Christian Churches believe and practice Infant Baptism.

A more modern interpretation of Baptism looks upon it as a sign given to us by God, whereby we may know that we are His children and He proclaims us as such to the world:

Baptism does not make us God's children, it assures us that by nature and birth we are His creation. The Prince succeeds the King by virtue of his birth, and is the king immediately his father dies. The Coronation Service proclaims him as such before the world. Baptism is our Proclamation Service. Baptism is our way of accepting God's Fatherhood, of acknowledging Him as our Creator and Father. While we may be the off-spring of human parents, it is by God's plan of creation that we are born. It is He that has made us. There is nothing sinful in our birth, it is God's divine plan. By accepting Baptism we acknowledge this divine birth.

CONFIRMATION—WHAT IT IS

What is Confirmation? It is a Sacred Rite or Service, at which we Confirm or ratify the vows which our Sponsors took for us at our Baptism. It thus becomes the first outward stand that we take before the world to follow Christ as our Lord and Saviour, and agree to live according to His ways.

The other title for Confirmation is the Laying on of Hands. The Bishop following the custom of the Apostles lays his hands upon the head of the candidates, praying that each one may increase in God's Holy Spirit. This symbolizes that God's hands are ever over us. The gifts of God's Holy Spirit are:

Wisdom and Understanding, Counsel and Spiritual Strength.

Knowledge and True Godliness and Reverence.

Thus Confirmation is an agreement between ourselves and God, at which we promise to be loyal to Him and He promises to give us the strength of His Spirit at all times, and the congregation is a witness to this contract.

Why Does Our Church Practice Confirmation? Because it was first practiced by the Apostles in the early church. Some think that it was instituted by Christ, during the Forty Days of Instruction after His Resurrection, see Acts 1:3. The Biblical references to Confirmation or the Laying on of Hands are found in Acts 8:17: "Then laid they their hands on them and they received the Holy Ghost." Acts 19:6: "And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them." Hebrews 6:2: "Of the doctrine of Baptisms and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgement."

What Are the Requirements of Confirmation? First, that we must have been already Baptised; second, that we have come to the years of discretion, that is to say, we are able to distinguish and to choose between good and evil, right and wrong. It is required also that we should learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments, other things which a Christian should know and believe, which probably means other parts of the Catechism.

But most of all there should be a desire in our hearts to be and to do good, and a willingness to try and follow the example of Christ and His teaching. Confirmation will help us to do all this.

What Is the Effect of Confirmation Upon Us? Many people ask: "Will I feel something?" "Will I be changed?" Maybe. All natures are not alike—some are moved emotionally, some grow naturally, but all will realize the seriousness of what they do. Like everything else we get out of Confirmation what we put into it. If we seek God, we shall find Him.

Confirmation is part of our Christian nurture. Therefore it should come at that time in our life when we are beginning to set up high ideals for ourselves, usually when we are about twelve or thirteen years of age. Of course, many are confirmed later in life.

Confirmation does not mean "joining church." That we do when we are Baptised. We do, however, become full-fledged members of the church and now have the privilege of receiving the Holy Communion, and are expected to accept our full responsibility as members of the church.

Who Confirms Us? Always a Bishop. Since the Laying on of Hands was first administered by the Apostles, it is natural that their successors, the Bishops should continue this Rite. It is well to remember that Confirmation is so important that the highest officer of the church comes to administer it. There are different kinds of Bishops, but all have the authority to Confirm:

The Presiding Bishop is the elected head of the National Church.

The Diocesan Bishop is the head of the Diocese or district, quite frequently being a state, except where the state has many churches, and then there are several Dioceses in that state.

A Coadjutor-Bishop is an assistant to the Diocesan Bishop, who succeeds him upon retirement or death.

A Suffragan-Bishop is an assistant to the Diocesan Bishop, but has not the right of succession, except by election.

A Missionary Bishop is appointed by the House of Bishops to have charge of a Missionary District.

A Foreword About This Year Book

For fifteen years we have been publishing a Year Book covering pretty much the general plan and information contained in this book. The file copies of this book over that period give us a fine running history of what the Church has been doing. I personally find many occasions to refer to it.

Those who have any active part in the parish life keep this book close at hand for reference. We hope that others will read very carefully the numerous reports and other information. It gives you a mental picture of the state of the parish. We hope that you will preserve the book, not just cast it aside after a glance.

The publication of such a book involves a considerable amount of labor, which those of us who are interested are willing to share. In addition to that the expense of getting out the book is considerable. We as a parish could not stand that expense, but through the kindness of the many advertisers, the book is printed without any expense to the Church. Therefore, we do sincerely trust that you will, whenever possible, patronize those who have so kindly placed advertisements in the Year Book.

Faithfully yours,
J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

Standing Notices

VISITATION OF THE SICK

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

MARRIAGES

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD

Always confer with the Minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, January 1, 1925 —

REPORT OF THE RECTOR TO THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

JANUARY 8, 1940

Elsewhere in this Year Book you will find the statistical Reports of the work done by the Rector, the number of services conducted, the official acts, such as Baptisms, etc. If you were to compare them with past years, you would find that they are all indicative of increased activity. There were, for instance, more persons confirmed during 1939 than during any other year for the past fifteen years. This is but one of the ways in which the church has been increasing its activities.

Church Very Active in Past Year

Of special significance, there will stand out in the memory of many people, the Preaching Mission held last Lent, throughout an entire week. The Rev. Dr. John R. Shyroch was the special Missioner, and the attendance was remarkably good for the seven nights. This undoubtedly had a good spiritual effect upon the whole parish.

A number of Conferences have been held during the year, out of which grew the possibility of having our parish used as a Cooperating Educational Center.

The Cooperating Center and Survey

The National Council of our Church last Spring presented a plan by which a certain number of parishes throughout the country might be used as a sort of "clinic" to make a study of themselves and with the help of outside experts, endeavor to increase the sphere of service and activity. Epiphany asked that it might be the parish selected in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

A very extensive survey was made of the parish and the people in it, to discover what we were really doing, and where we might improve. Conditions in the community were also studied. A fifty page report was made of the findings, and this was evaluated by our own Parish Committee, as well as those in the Diocese and the National Church.

The outcome of this study was a very interesting Parish Conference held on Sunday, January 14, 1940. (The report of the Conference appears elsewhere, and is not really a part of my report to the Annual Parish Meeting.)

New Organizations Started

As part of our "forward step" during the year, there have been started a number of new organizations, primarily for young people in the parish. A Girl Scout Troop under the leadership of Miss Bessie Kenney, one of our Church School Teachers, was formed last Spring, and has about 25 members. A Junior Women's Auxiliary for young women in the parish was also formed last Spring. In the early Fall a Young People's Group was formed by the combination of several of the older classes in the Church School. A group of Young Men is also in the process of formation. In order to make more attractive the meeting places of some of these organizations, the Church School out of its treasury redecorated some of the rooms in the parish house and basement.

One Drawback

One would have supposed because of all this increased interest and activity, that there would have been a corresponding increase in the financial support of the work. On the contrary, it was one of the hardest years we have experienced. We failed to meet our obligations by the sum of $1,251. For the first time in six years we had to borrow money from the bank, and this and other obligations remain unpaid. What was more disheartening was the fact that many of the people of the parish seemed to resent the fact that we should need money, and that we should even suggest the matter to them. Personally I feel that we have been "let down" and that the people who use the church have not "played fair."

A Brighter Note

There should be added this encouragement; that through the extra generosity of a number of individuals, $700 was raised during 1939 to pay on the Church Mortgage. Also received at the end of the year was a generous check of $750 to pay off part of the Rectory mortgage. In neither of these cases could the money be used for any purpose save that indicated.

We look forward to a very active and promising year.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scout Troop No. 306 meets every Friday night at 7:30. We began our meetings last May and the Troop was registered in June, with eighteen members. We did little but organizational work last spring, although the girls did go on the City-wide Boat Ride and a troop hike.

We resumed our meetings in the fall with eight more girls. The girls began to work in three fields of interest—arts and crafts, dramatics, and music, as well as fulfilling the requirements for Second Class badges. As a climax of this effort, 18 Merit Badges, 12 Second Class Badges and one First Class Badge were awarded on Parents' Night, December 8th. In the meantime the Troop as a whole had gone on three day hikes, made up a Thanksgiving basket, had a supper meeting, and learned many games, dances and songs. All these activities were planned and executed by the girls themselves through their elected Court of Honor. We received help and encouragement from our Troop Committee, headed by Mrs. Scott.

We hope that the coming year will bring much fun and fellowship to us all.

BESSIE KENNEY, Captain.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S GUILD 1939

During the year of 1939 the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Epiphany has met at stated monthly meetings on the second Tuesday of the month.

We have at present 34 members and an average attendance of 19. This is a slight decrease from last year and it is with genuine sorrow that we record the loss of some of our old and valued members—Mrs. Gaskill, Mrs. Machold, Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Ewing.

We have enrolled six new members this year.

During the first half of 1939 Mrs. Walter Willard was President of the Guild. Her loyal and efficient leadership are familiar to every member of the Parish and her resignation in June was accepted with the greatest reluctance. However, we are most fortunate in having Mrs. Wilbur Morse as her worthy successor.

The first activity of the Guild in 1939 was serving the supper that preceded the January Parish meeting.

Sales of baked goods were held during Lent and the profits included in the Guild's Easter offering, which amounted to $67.00.

A Spring supper was served in April.

Another cake sale was held in October and a dinner and bazaar in November at which we made $399.83.

The Guild also sponsored two entertainments to raise funds. The first, in April, was a Gilbert and Sullivan recital. In December a reading of Dicken's "Christmas Carol" was given and the profits from this were shared with the British Seamen's Institute.

During Lent, weekly, all day meetings were held which began with a service of Holy Communion. A Mission Study Class, conducted by Miss Julia Hill followed. Her topic was "India". After a luncheon, served by members of the Guild, the afternoon was devoted to the Lenten sewing. During this time twenty-six articles of clothing, seven sweaters and three pairs of mittens were made for the Supply Bureau and one hundred twenty-five articles for the Episcopal Hospital.

Gifts of fruit, food, cards, and valentines were sent to the House of Rest and Christmas gifts contributed to the Elizabeth Price Martin League.

For three years Mrs. Hobson has been collecting "Birthday Pennies" and these are kept in a separate fund, which now totals $82.18.

The Sunshine Fund is supported by the contributions of Guild members and is used for flowers and gifts for the sick of the Parish.

Mrs. Seeley is Treasurer of the United Thank Offering. This is collected twice each year and amounted to $207.58 for 1939.

Out of the Guild funds, $350.00 was contributed to the Church of the Epiphany for the reduction of the mortgage.

Mrs. Heyward contributed $5.00 for our assessment to the Indian Hope Committee and $8.00 as an additional offering.

The regular assessments and contributions were paid from the Guild funds and included the Supply Bureau, Church Farm School, House of Rest, Educational Week for the Blind, and the Colored, Convocation, Foreign, Diocesan Committee.

Some money was also expended for kitchen equipment.

The Guild has been represented regularly at the monthly meetings of the following Committees: Diocesan, Domestic, Indian Hope, Foreign, Colored, Social Service, Educational, and Convocational. This year, for the first time, we are represented at the meeting of the Interdenominational Mothers' Council for Parent Education and Child Study.

Members of the Guild volunteered their services for the Episcopal Day for the Blind, the Episcopal Hospital Fete, and the Convocational Garden Party. They also attended many other services and meetings, including the Mothers' Union Service and the Quiet Days of Prayer.

Within the Parish they have assisted in the Parish Survey, have made calls on new members of the congregation, and at the time of the Preaching Mission. Many of them are also members of the Bible Class conducted by Mr. Twelves.

A summary of the work of the year proves how diverse the activities of the Guild are, touching, as they do, so many phases of church work, in the parish, the diocese, and the mission field.

The realization of this, might make more of the women of the parish care to join us. There is interesting and congenial work for every one and we need their support.

Perhaps the finest contribution that the Guild has been able to make to the life of the Church has been to prove, year after year, how much even a very small group can accomplish through united and untiring effort.

Our loyalty we gladly pledge anew.

Respectfully submitted,

ADELE SCOTT, Secretary.

THE ALTAR GUILD

I am submitting this report of the Altar Guild of the Church of the Epiphany giving an account of our activities during the past year with the earnest hope that many may come to a better understanding of our opportunities for service and to realize more fully the necessary work this organization is trying with God's help to do.

We meet only on the second Tuesday in each month, but we are working hard every week in the year to keep the brasses and silver shining, the linens clean and unwrinkled and the Altar dusted and decorated with fresh fragrant flowers.

Much of the efficiency of the Altar Guild is due to our Directress, Miss Edna Davis. She is assisted by twenty-three other members. During the last year we suffered the loss of three of our members, Mrs. W. S. Wood and Mrs. J. A. Ewing by death and Mrs. W. P. Lear by change of residence. We have also received two new members, Mrs. George Feidt and Mrs. F. M. Wilkins. Only fourteen of the twenty-three are active. We should have a minimum of twenty-four active so that two different members can be appointed for each month in the year. There must be many more women in our Parish who could help us in this work and I hope that they will consider the matter and will signify their intention of joining us in this blessed opportunity of serving God's Altar.

Our Treasurer is still Miss Ruth Wolff and our Secretary Mrs. R. B. Heyward. The former, Miss Ruth Wolff, is also the custodian of the Flower Calendar and has proved herself most efficient and untiring in both positions. She has interested so many people in the Calendar that at present there are only five vacant Sundays. The vacant dates which fall on May 19th and 26th, June 23rd and December 1st and 22nd, are opportunities for some one to remember a loved one or to show gratitude to Almighty God for His many blessings. The Flower Calendar itself, very kindly donated and colored by Mrs. H. Middleton, hangs in the vestibule of the church where it is easily accessible and may be examined by anyone who is interested.

During the past year the Guild bought a surplice with embroidered cross for Mr. Twelves and some new corporals were added to the supply of linens.

At Thanksgiving the offerings of canned goods, fruits and vegetables, etc., were taken by the son of one of our members to the "House of Rest," 5919 Wayne Avenue.

We still belong to the Diocesan Altar Guild and through it our members have attended many "Quiet Evenings" that have proved a real inspiration and help and a deepening of our spiritual life.

Last March the Parish received our yearly appeal. I would like to say again this year that except for the special envelopes for Easter and Christmas flowers and greens the Guild is dependent on this appeal to the congregation. The rules of our Guild forbid the raising of funds by entertainments etc. If you feel that our work is worth while will you please support us by your prayers, by the work of your hands, and by your contributions.

Respectfully submitted,
MATILDA J. HEYWARD, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The Vestment Chapter held its regular meeting on the third Wednesday morning of each month except during the Summer, with about eight to ten members present.

The Vestments have been kept in repair through the kindness of Mrs. Kent and the Choir Boys' funds are handled by Mrs. Wilkinson.

Last May the Chapter took a trip to the Campbell Soup Factory and raised some funds for their work.

The contributions to the Women's Guild from the Chapter's Cake and Candy Table at the Fair was $53.81, exceeding last year's figure by about ten dollars.

In October there were five new members added to our Chapter and we should be glad to have anyone interested in the Adult or Boys' Choir, so come and join us.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Through the interest of Mrs. Walter Willard a group of young women of the parish was organized, and on May 17, 1939, the first meeting of the Junior Women's Auxiliary was held. The Auxiliary consists of 15 members, ten of which are active. We meet on the third Wednesday evening of each month at the Rectory.

Soon after we were organized, we held a Strawberry Festival on the Church lawn, to help pay off the missionary deficit. In November we participated in the Parish Fair, by handling the Grabs. We also sent a Christmas Box to a mission in Tennessee and at each regular meeting the girls sew on garments for the Episcopal Hospital. The Auxiliary is actively interested in the United Thank Offering and everyone participates by contributing in the Blue Box. We also have our own United Thank Offering Secretary.

We would like to extend a hearty welcome to all young women between 18 and 35 to come join with us in our attempts to learn and serve.

Some Interesting Facts About the Episcopal Church

Few people realize what an important factor a Church may be in the life of the community or the nation. Every religious body has made splendid contributions, and we ought to be proud to know what our own Church has done.

Two-thirds of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence were Episcopalians. Most of the Presidents of the United States have been members of the Episcopal Church, one-third to be exact.

The Episcopal Church established the first free Public Library system in the United States.

The first Public School in Philadelphia was started in Old Christ Church.

The first Home for Indigent Women in the country was started by an Episcopal Church.

The founder of the present University of Pennsylvania, Benjamin Franklin, was a worshipper at Old Christ Church, and asked one of the ministers of that Church to become the first president of the City College. The present head of the University is a member of the Episcopal Church.

One of the oldest Benevolent Societies was started by the ministers of the Episcopal Church.

The Pennsylvania Institute for the Deaf was started by Bishop White, as well as the Bible Society in the United States. The first Sunday School was started by the Episcopal Church here in Philadelphia.

While the Episcopal Church is not one of the largest religious bodies in the country, due perhaps to its delay in missionary work in the early days, it has been constantly increasing.

In 1830 only one out of every 415 persons in the United States was an Episcopalian. In 1938 we find that one out of every 90 persons is an Episcopalian.

The Communicant Members of the Episcopal Church in the United States number about one million and a half.

We have 7,500 Churches, 6,000 priests, about 73 Hospitals in the United States, 81 Orphanages, 65 Homes for the Aged, hundreds of Schools for Boys and Girls, 22 Colleges and Seminaries. We have 600 Churches in foreign lands with thousands of missionaries, doctors, nurses and teachers.

A half million children attend the Sunday Schools of our Church, and 60,000 men and women offer themselves as teachers of these pupils each Sunday. Our own Diocese has the largest number of pupils enrolled in Church Schools, 26,000 in all, with 3,000 teachers.

In the City of Philadelphia, the Episcopal Church has more members than any other Protestant group. A survey made several years ago showed that the Episcopal group stood first among the Protestants in the Germantown, Mt. Airy and Chestnut Hill area, so far as numbers was concerned.

The total giving of the people of the Episcopal Church last year was thirty-three and a half million dollars.

It is interesting also to know that leaders in all walks of life have been and are members of the Episcopal Church. The President of the United States is an Episcopalian. Nine of the eleven Chief Justices of the United States have been Episcopalians. The Presidents of our two largest Universities in Philadelphia are members of the Church. A large number of the Judges, local, State and Federal, are Churchmen. The heads of a number of our largest banks locally, are Episcopalians. The Presidents of many of our large business corporations, insurance companies and railroads, are actively interested in the work of the Episcopal Church.

It is not our intention to boast. We are sure that many other religious bodies can point with similar pride to the work which they are doing. But our own members should be familiar with their Church, and above all Christian people, no matter of what denomination, should know what a tremendous influence religion is upon life.

Parish Survey and Conference

The Parish Survey made in connection with the Cooperative Educational Center revealed a number of interesting things about the parish. Of particular interest were the evaluations made by the Parish Committee, the Diocesan Committee and the National Committee. These took the form of Recommendations or Directions in which the Parish might progress during the next five years. The Parish Conference, held on Sunday, January 14, 1940, added a number of other suggestions. We list some of these Recommendations:

1. The greatest need in the parish is to create a consciousness of the importance of religion. Study Classes, Discussion Groups, Outside Leaders in special fields also suggested. Parent Study Groups.
2. Recreational and Social opportunities provided for all age groups, especially for children.
3. Organization of Young People's Groups covering the various ages. Most of these groups are already formed.
4. Development of more Lay Leadership.
5. Improvement and rearrangement of the Church School lesson material.
6. The Formation of a Parish Council, composed of representatives from all organizations and groups in the parish to carry out programs.
7. A closer cooperation between the parents and the Church School, including a Parent-Teacher organization.
8. The formation of a Student Council of the boys and girls of the Church School.
9. A Book Shelf of Religious Books for children, parents and adults and a Reading Club, to recommend books.
10. More participation of the children and young people in the services of the Church and more opportunity for parents to attend the Church services.
11. Opportunities provided for all age groups to do more parish work.

Already a number of the suggestions have been put into operation, and the other suggestions are being studied or are in the process of formation.

The Family List OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

A Foreword About This Year Book

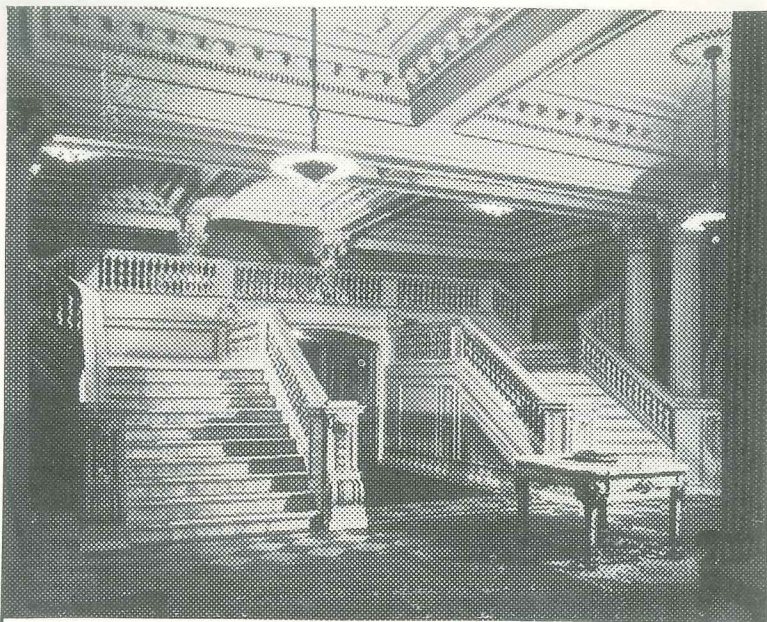

For many years we have been publishing a Year Book covering pretty much the general plan and information contained in this book. The file copies of this book over that period give us a fine running history of what the Church has been doing. I personally find many occasions to refer to it.

Those who have any active part in the parish life keep this book close at hand for reference. We trust that others will read very carefully the numerous reports and other information. It gives you a mental picture of the state of the parish. We hope that you will preserve the book, not just cast it aside after a glance.

The publication of such a book involves a considerable amount of labor, which those of us who are interested are willing to share. In addition to that the expense of getting out the book is considerable. We as a parish could not stand that expense, but through the kindness of the many advertisers, the book is printed without any expense to the Church. Therefore, we do sincerely trust that you will, whenever possible, patronize those who have so kindly placed advertisements in the Year Book.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

Grand Stair Case

THE GRAND STAIR CASE as seen from the Reception Hall, is only one of the many beautiful and dignified features of our interior. Some who have been impressed by our efficiency, equipment and beautiful appointments may have come to the conclusion that we are expensive. But this is not true—ours is an impartial service for all people and it is definitely not high priced.

Standing Notices

VISITATION OF THE SICK

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

MARRIAGES

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD

Always confer with the Minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

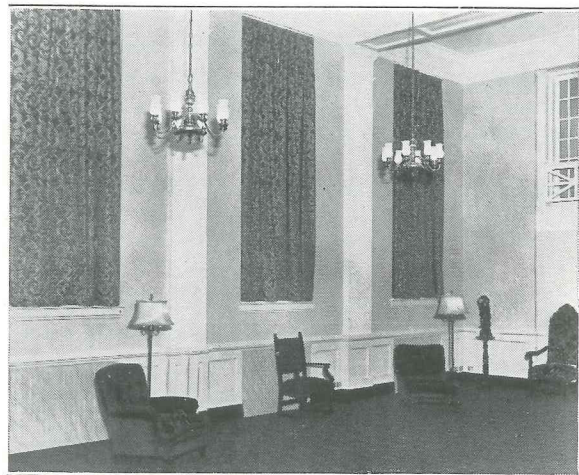

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

Some Simple Rules Regarding the Holy Communion

"THIS DO IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME"

1. It has been an age-long custom for all communicants to receive the Holy Communion on Christmas, Easter and Whitsunday. Most good Churchmen receive at least once a month, some every Sunday.

2. A preparation should be made at home, as well as at the service, before receiving. Of course none of us are ever "good enough"—we come to be made better.

3. If you arrive after the General Confession and Absolution have been said it is customary not to receive. You should never leave before the Benediction is said.

4. Always remove gloves before approaching the Altar.

5. Receive the bread in the uplifted right hand, held open across the left, and raise both to the lips. Raising the hand to receive the element greatly facilitates the administration.

6. Grasp the chalice in both hands and guide to the lips. It is sufficient to moisten the lips with the wine.

7. After receiving each element, try to realize the value of Christ's life and death, and resolve to dedicate yourself to Him in service.

8. When you have returned to your seat continue your prayers with thanksgiving to God for all these benefits. Pray that you may dwell in peace and unity with all men.

9. Members of other churches may, upon invitation, partake of the Holy Communion with us. Our Church is not a "closed communion." It is for all those who are "religiously and devoutly disposed."

10. Remember always that you are a guest at the Lord's Table. Act therefore with reverence, decorum and courtesy. What you would not do as the guest of a friend, do not at the Lord's Supper.

Arrangements for Church Weddings

Since for many people a Wedding is their first experience of the sort, they may not be familiar with Church customs, Rubrics, and other arrangements appertaining to the Wedding. These notes are given to avoid misunderstandings.

1. The minister should be notified of the contemplated marriage sufficiently in advance to avoid other conflicts. The Canon Law on Marriage requires specifically that the minister be notified at least three days in advance. The license should be delivered to the minister several days before the ceremony.

2. No minister of the Protestant Episcopal Church may marry a person who is divorced and while the other party is still living. The only exception is in the case of the innocent party when the divorce has been granted on the grounds of adultery.

3. The Church Canons require that the minister meet with the couple and talk over with them the nature and responsibility of Holy Matrimony.

4. The Church requires of those being married that they take vows that the marriage shall be for life.

5. The ritual and form of the service are prescribed by the Church and it is required that those being married conform to the same.

6. It is desirable to avoid undue ostentation at a Church Wedding, abiding by the rules of good taste.

7. The Church has no fixed charge for the use of the building. It is, however, customary and only right that those whose special services are required, should be fittingly reimbursed.

8. The organist has a set fee of $10, and where a rehearsal is requested an extra fee of $5. It is not desirable to have an outside organist and the Vestry and the Rector have so expressed themselves. Any other arrangement must be made with the consent of the organist himself.

9. The sexton is put to considerable extra work at weddings, for which the Church does not pay him. It is only right therefore that he should be fittingly remembered.

Report of the Rector to the Annual Parish Meeting

JANUARY 6, 1941

You will find listed elsewhere a report of my official acts during the year, which are approximately the same as former years. Our only decrease is in the number of pupils attending the Church School. There has been a constant drop for a number of years, due partly to the decrease in the number of children available in the community. As we found in our survey made last year, our adults are in the age grouping where they are no longer having children. Doubtless there are children in the community and even in our own church family that are not going to Church School. We would like the co-operation of everyone to bring about a return of the children to the Church School.

CHURCH SUPPORT

We have had our usual hard time to get in our finances during the year. We can only repeat that if the people who use the Church would contribute, even a very small amount, our financial problems would be solved. As it is at this date while we write, over $500 is still outstanding in unpaid pledges for the year 1940. Except in a few of the cases, it ought not to be a hardship to make their contributions to the church. We ended the year with over $1000 in bills remaining unpaid. It was necessary to use a gift of $600 contributed to pay off part of the Rectory mortgage, for Current Expenses. The worst part of this is that it prevents the smooth running of the parish and is the cause of a great deal of unpleasantness.

DURING THE YEAR

Of particular interest to everyone has been the experiment of the Co-operating Center. A number of new activities have been started, and it is our particular endeavor now to see that they continue to function. Several Parish Conferences of an educational nature have been held, which have deepened the knowledge and interest of those who attended. The Parish Council, composed of representatives from all groups and organizations, has been of great help in unifying the programs and activities of the Church. This is reflected by a greater interest in all our doings.

LOOKING AHEAD

There are some things which we desire to do. Our great need is to increase our knowledge, understanding and appreciation of the worth of religion and the value of the Church to our world. We feel that more of our people should be studying about their religion, and we desire, if the interest can be created, to form Study Classes. Following the same idea our people should be reading some of the more recent religious books, and we look forward to the starting of a Reading Club. Much of this fits into the plans being made by the Presiding Bishop of our Church to take "Forward Steps" during the next few years. Religion and the Church has an opportunity in these present days and the days to come that should not be overlooked, if our civilization is to improve.

LEADERSHIP IS NEEDED

An analysis of our parish shows that we are woefully lacking in lay leadership. Our communicants are mostly people of some ability and they should be using their talents more in the work of the Church. We send out a call for people who can do secretarial work, individuals who have business abilities, and would be willing to help us straighten out our finances. We need leaders who can inspire and direct some of our activities among young people. We have jobs of all sorts, within the parish, that await only the coming of volunteers.

Let us as Christian people, in a time of international stress and future uncertainty attest our loyalty to Christ's religion and show that it can, when seriously accepted and lived, reform the world. The religion of Christ is the world's only hope, now as it has ever been.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild has met at stated monthly meetings throughout the year. The officers are the same as last year and we have, at present, 33 members and an average attendance of 17.

The last year has been a very busy one for the Guild. The large Parish Conference, held in January, was preceded by a dinner, which the Guild served, and our members assisted in many of the other activities in connection with the entire program.

During Lent, we held weekly, all-day meetings, which began with a service of Holy Communion. This was followed by the Mission Study Class, under the leadership of Mrs. Charlton, who made the topic, "Christ in the Community," a very engrossing one. Every week found a large and enthusiastic group present. The afternoon was devoted to sewing and knitting for the Episcopal Hospital and other charitable organizations. During this time, 129 articles were completed, and ten sweaters and four pairs of mittens knitted. A Cake Sale was held in March, to increase the Guild's Easter Offering, which amounted to $64.09.

In May, the Guild served a Buffet Supper, at which $137.97 was cleared. This was made possible by the many generous donations from its members, and included one of $25.00 from Miss Steele. $130.41 was turned over to the Vestry for Parish expenses.

During the late spring, many of our members expressed a wish to sew for the Red Cross. Since the formation of a Chapter requires a definite organization, it was decided to work as a branch of the Chapter already formed at the First Presbyterian Church and this arrangement has proved so satisfactory, that it has been continued. Our aim has been to make this a community, and not a denominational, project, and many of our most faithful workers are not members of our parish. However, it has been sponsored by the Guild, under the direction of Mrs. Hobson and Mrs. Betts of the Sewing Committee, and has been, for many of our members, a major activity. We are all indebted also to Mrs. Sheetz, who is in charge of the knitting, and those who have so ably assisted them.

Mrs. Seeley is Treasurer of the United Thank Offering. This is collected twice each year and amounted to $197.38 for 1940.

The Sunshine Fund, which provides for the sick of the parish, is supported by voluntary contributions. In October, a very delightful party was given, in the Parish House, to raise additional money.

For several years, Mrs. Hobson has been collecting "Birthday Pennies" and these are kept in a separate account. During 1939 no money was drawn from this fund. In January, 1940, $8.00 was spent for the repair of some furniture, and by November, $126.98 had accumulated. At that time, it was learned that the ceiling in the kitchen of the Parish House was in a dangerous condition, and the estimate for its repair was $145.00. It was decided to use the "Birthday Fund" for part of it, and Miss Wolff generously donated $25.00 to complete the amount. A new electric fixture was also installed at a cost of $6.15.

A new gas stove, the gift of Miss Wolff, has improved both the appearance and service of the kitchen.

The annual Dinner and Bazaar was held in November, and netted $381.35, of which $375.00 was contributed to the church.

Small amounts of money have been expended throughout the year for repairs and supplies.

Mrs. Heyward paid our assessment of $5.00 to the Indian's Hope Committee and gave $16.00 as an additional contribution.

The regular assessments and pledges to the Supply Bureau, Church Farm School, House of Rest, Educational Week for the Blind, and the Colored, Convocational, Foreign, and Diocesan Committees were paid from our regular funds.

Sales of Baked Goods have been held on the first Saturday of the month, since November.

The Guild has been represented at the monthly meetings of the Diocesan, Domestic, Indian's Hope, Foreign, Colored, Social Service, Educational, and Convocational Committees and at the Interdenominational Mother's Council.

Our members participated in the Episcopal Day for the Blind, Episcopal Hospital Fete, and the Convocational Garden Party. They have attended many special services and meetings, including the Mother's Union Service and the Quiet Days of Prayer. Our President has represented us at the meetings of the Parish Council and our members have participated in both the January and December conferences.

Christmas gifts were donated to the Elizabeth Price Martin League and fruit, food, and cards sent to the House of Rest, and one of our members contributed a back rest for use in the infirmary.

During the past year we have discharged all of our regular duties and obligations and added new ones. The total of the amounts paid directly to the Church by the Guild and spent for repairs to the Parish House, is over $700.00. We need a larger and more active membership.

To the many who have so generously supported all of our enterprises, we express our appreciation and gratitude.

Respectfully submitted,

ADELE SCOTT, Secretary.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Our officers are as follows:

Directress MISS EDNA DAVIS
Secretary MRS. R. B. HEYWARD
Treasurer MISS RUTH WOLFF

We have twenty-two members of whom only 16 are active. Two of these go on duty each month and take care of the Altar and Chancel, seeing that the proper linens are provided and laundered and the silver vessels and brasses are polished.

Flowers have been provided for the Altar when they have not been given as memorials. Miss Ruth Wolff is in charge of the Flower Calendar. At present there are five vacant Sundays when memorial flowers may be given. These fall on the following dates: June 22d, August 31st, November 30th, December 7th and December 21st. The calendar, very kindly donated by Mrs. H. Middleton, hangs in the vestibule of the church.

During the year the Guild bought for Mr. Twelves two new stoles, one white and one green, and new flannel was given by Miss Ruth Wolff, who made it into covers for the chapel and church altars.

We have been a member of the Diocesan Altar Guild for five years and feel that it has done a great deal to deepen the spiritual side of our work.

As the rules of our Guild forbid the raising of money by entertainments, etc., each March a special appeal is made to the congregation to help in the work that this organization is doing.

While the Guild has handled efficiently this important work of the Church it feels that its membership is not as large as it should be. The women have served faithfully, but it has been necessary for some to serve more than once during the year. The members would appreciate it if a few more of our women would unite with them in this work.

Respectfully submitted,

M. J. HEYWARD, Secretary.

VESTMENT CHAPTER

The Vestment Chapter held its regular meetings on the third Wednesday morning of each month, except during the Summer, with about twelve to thirteen members present.

The Vestments have been renewed and repaired as necessary through the kindness and efficiency of Mrs. Kent, and the Choir Boys' funds are handled in the same manner by Mrs. Wilkinson.

Last January, through the generosity of one of our members, Mrs. Foster, a Tea was held at her home by the Chapter to raise funds for their work.

During the Summer months each member of the Chapter endeavored to save one foot of dimes—some exceeded the foot—amount $27.70.

The contributions to the Women's Guild from the Chapter's Cake and Candy Table at the Fair was $51.00.

The work of the Vestment Chapter is to take care of the Vestments of the four choirs, which means that some sixty vestments must be kept laundered, repaired and replaced when necessary.

We shall be eager to welcome anyone interested in the Adult or Girls' and Boys' Choir. So come and join us.

MARY D. REBMANN, Secretary.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Auxiliary is slowly but surely increasing its membership and its activity since our beginning last year. Starting last summer and continuing through this year the Auxiliary has been doing Red Cross knitting. In June we held a Strawberry Festival on the Church lawn. In November we participated in the Parish Fair by taking charge of the "white elephant" table. At Christmas we supplied gifts for ten children.

We are planning a reciprocal meeting with the J. W. A. of some other parish in the near future and to take part in the Diocesan Young People's Dance. The proceeds from this dance will go toward the $500.00 service project for the Episcopal Hospital.

It was decided, in the fall, to contribute toward the upkeep of a very promising City Mission student nurse who is training at the Pennsylvania Hospital. The Junior Women have also continued their active interest in the United Thank Offering through their own United Thank Offering Secretary.

We would like to extend a hearty welcome to all young women between 18 and 35 to come join us in our activity and service.

Respectfully submitted,

JANE E. MORRIS, President.

THE YOUNG MEN'S GROUP

The first meeting of the young men was held in the Parish House on Sunday, February 4, 1940. The group was called together by Arthur M. Valz, who represents the young men on the Parish Council.

The group functions as a service organization to perform any duties that it might be called upon to perform. Meetings are held at regular intervals in the Parish House. Fourteen members are enrolled.

At the initial meeting David Seeley was elected Secretary and Arthur M. Valz was elected Chairman.

Services rendered during the year included: aiding the Vestry in taking the offering; ushering at the Easter and Xmas services; joint co-operation with the Junior Women's Auxiliary in giving the Strawberry Festival in June; sponsoring the book table at the Church Fair and Supper in November; supervision of Tuesday play nights; and participation in the every-member-visitation canvass.

Future plans include: a joint affair with the Junior Women's Auxiliary to be called "Chinese Night," to aid the Chinese Mission Fund; and a book project to supply books and magazines to Camp Meade, where the Selective Service recruits from Pennsylvania are being trained.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR M. VALZ, Chairman.

THE RED CROSS

A branch of the Red Cross was organized in the parish last Spring, and we have met for about 18 weeks, with an average attendance of 14 at the meetings. We have completed 312 garments, 50 sweaters, a number of wool stockings and several sacks. We have been asked to double our efforts, and so we are asking for more volunteers.

The meetings are held each Wednesday beginning at 10 o'clock for all day sewing. It is not only a duty, but a privilege to give a little of our time, to alleviate the hardships and suffering we know war brings. We appeal for more workers so that we can accomplish what is expected of us.

THE GIRL SCOUTS

HAVING FUN WITH THE SCOUTS

"Do a good turn daily"—with the Girl Scout slogan in mind, the Scouts of Troop 306 have carried out a varied and interesting program. We have tried to become more useful members of our community, church, and nation.

The troop itself has grown since last year. We are now a full troop of thirty-two members. Recently the older girls have formed a Senior Patrol, made up of thirteen girls who are at least thirteen years of age and in the eighth grade. Under the leadership of Miss Jeanne Goldschmidt they are carrying out a program emphasizing dramatics and music. The girls went caroling on Christmas Eve, and they are looking forward to hearing some really good music soon.

The rest of the troop has been studying for the First Aid under Mrs. Jordan, one of the Scout Mothers. After this interesting work is completed, we plan to make scrap books to send to the chronic invalids at Baby's Hospital. While we are doing this, we plan to collect clothes to donate to the Red Cross.

During the year the girls have done some really worthwhile things. Last spring we presented movies in order to raise money to buy curtains and help pay for the redecorating of the Scout room. Mrs. McGill, a member of the Troop Committee, was kind enough to take charge of the curtain making, and we are very proud of them.

At the end of May, some of the older girls went on an overnight trip. We had a fine time in spite of the fact that it poured every moment we were there. The very fact that no one complained showed that all had the true Scout spirit.

During the summer some of the girls became interested in making afghans for the Red Cross. Mrs. Scott, our Troop Committee Chairman, took charge of collecting the squares, and by the end of the summer the girls had completed two afghans. Friends of the troop also became interested in the project, and with their help the Troop has sent five afghans down to Red Cross headquarters.

The Lions' Club of Germantown asked the Girl Scouts to help collect books for the Free Library. Our girls went out one Saturday morning and collected over one hundred and seventy-five books.

Of course we carried on the ordinary week by week activities during the year. We also gave two well-filled Thanksgiving baskets to a deserving family, attended Church as a Troop on Girl Scout Sunday, sold cookies during the Cookie Sale (we sold over 600 lbs. of cookies), sold Lemon Ade at the Church Fair—all this time having simply loads of fun.

I would like to say a few words of how all this activity is carried on. The girls themselves plan and carry out the program, with the guidance of Miss Goldschmidt and myself, during Court of Honor. The Court of Honor is composed of the elected leaders of the girls and meets every night after troop meeting. Here all questions are threshed out to the satisfaction of all. So, I like to feel that we are really making Democracy work every Friday night over at Church of the Epiphany.

In closing, I would like to extend the thanks of Girl Scout Troop 306 to its many friends who have done so much for us in the past year. We certainly appreciate it very much.

Respectfully submitted,

BESSIE M. KENNEY, Captain.

The Family List
OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

*A Foreword About
This Year Book*

After seeing a number of other Year Books, and after hearing some very complimentary remarks regarding the amazing amount of material contained in ours, I have about concluded that our Year Book is pretty complete and somewhat unique. This is the eighteenth Year Book that I have published, and the file copies of all these books is a complete history of our parish covering these eighteen years. Personally I don't see how a rector can run a parish without having some book of this sort at hand for reference.

It is natural also for all those who are interested and active in the work of the parish that they should also prize this book and keep it handy for reference. I trust that you will not just cast it aside after a hasty glance.

The publication of such a book as this requires considerable labor, in which all those who are interested are willing to share. The expense of printing such a book is considerable. On our small budget it would not be possible. It is through the kindness of the many advertisers that we are able to issue this Year Book. It is only right, therefore, that some of our patronage should go to those who are kind enough to advertise in our book. It will help us to continue this arrangement if you will occasionally remind the advertisers that you were attracted by their advertisement.

Faithfully yours,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

PRAYERS DURING WARTIME

The Rector has been asked to print for family or personal use some of the prayers he has been using in the Church Service. These are taken from a number of approved sources.

IN TIME OF WAR

O Lord God of infinite mercy, we humbly beseech thee to look in compassion upon this nation now involved in war. Reckon not against us our many iniquities; pardon our offenses, and especially our neglect and forgetfulness of thee. Look in mercy on those immediately exposed to peril, conflict, sickness and death; comfort the prisoners, relieve the sufferings of the wounded, show mercy to the dying, and give hope to those who throughout the land are in anxiety or sorrow. Finally, we beseech thee to dispose our hearts and the hearts of those with whom we are in conflict to moderation, to remove all the causes and occasions of war, and of thy great goodness to establish perpetual peace among the nations of the world, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A NIGHT PRAYER FOR GUIDANCE FOR ALL

O God, who never sleepest and art never weary, look down, from thy heavenly throne, and illumine the darkness of this night with thy celestial brightness, and from the sons of light banish the deeds of darkness. Have mercy upon all those who watch this night;

On those who lead, that they may be strengthened with counsel;

On the sick, that they may obtain sleep;

On the faint-hearted, that they may have hope;

On the light-hearted, lest they forget thee;

On the dying, that they may find peace;

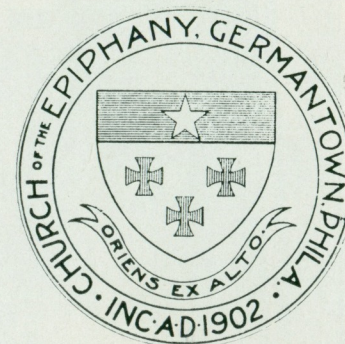

On the sinful, that they may turn again;

And save us, O good Lord, for the sake of thy dear Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR PEACE AT NOON

Give peace for all time, O Lord, and fill my heart and the hearts of all men everywhere with the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Other prayers may be found in the Prayer Book and the various publications of the Forward Movement.

Standing Notices

VISITATION OF THE SICK

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

MARRIAGES

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD

Always confer with the minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

Report of the Rector to the Parish Meeting

JANUARY 6, 1942

Elsewhere you will find a report of my official acts during the year. Among the Baptisms, Confirmations and the Parish Communicants there has been a marked increase. The number of pupils in the Church School remains about the same as the previous year, and is the lowest number for many years. We are glad to say during the last year or so, the number of smaller children has begun to show an increase again.

ANNIVERSARIES

There was recently held a Diocesan celebration of our Bishop's 80th birthday, when he was presented with a check for $100,000 raised throughout the Diocese. This, he in turn, handed over to the Episcopal Hospital for operating expenses. We and all the other parishes rejoice in the long years of service which he has given to the Church.

This reminds us of the active and long service that many individuals have rendered in our own parish, and which ought from time to time be brought to our attention. Sometimes it is very hard to get some of our members to do any kind of work for the Church. In striking contrast we have many persons who have been doing faithful service week after week for thirty or forty years. Mr. Walter B. Sealey will have served as a member of the Vestry for thirty years on February 12th of this year. Mr. Walter Willard has been a Vestryman for thirty-seven years. Miss Anna and Miss Nellie Park celebrated, in November, their twentieth consecutive year of singing in our choir. Space does not permit mentioning many others who have faithfully served in parish organizations.

THE RECTOR A PRIEST FOR 25 YEARS

Following along this line of thought, some of you might like to know that on November 5th I completed twenty-five years as a Priest of the Church. Seventeen of those years have been spent as rector of this parish. During my rectorship, 175 persons have been Baptised, 227 have been presented for Confirmation, 234 have been received by Letter into the parish. When I came here 17 years ago, there were only 129 actual communicants in the parish, now there are 381—and quite a number of confirmed persons who have not brought their Letters of Transfer. While we always seem to have our financial struggles, it is interesting to know that during those 17 years about $200,000 has been contributed to the Church.

IN TIMES OF WAR

The war in which we are now involved is bound to affect us all in one way or another. While I personally feel that the Church as such, should not participate in anything that is war-like, I do, however, feel that it should minister to all those who feel the effects of war. It should help to relieve the suffering, should watch over those called to the service, and should certainly try to keep up the morale of our people. There are seventeen of our men who are serving their country in various ways, some near and some far afield, and we try to remember them and their families each week. I should like to encourage more of the women of the parish to help in the splendid work which is being done for the Red Cross.

In times of war there is always a danger that Church work both at home and in the field may suffer, because of the many other calls. Many people may feel that it is necessary to give up their Church activities in order to devote more time to civil duties. I want to remind you that religion and all that it stands for is needed more now than at any other time.

MAKING OUR EFFORTS COUNT TO THE UTMOST

Not everyone realizes the time and labor that is given by the officers of the parish and the workers in our different guilds and organizations. In times like these we should all co-operate in seeing that their labors are not in vain, so far as we are concerned. For instance, the Accounting Warden spends a great deal of his time, without any recompense, in keeping the books of the parish. He should not have to worry when and from where the money is coming. Faithful and prepared teachers in our Church School have a right to expect that the parents of children will see that their young ones come faithfully. These are very busy days for everyone, and we must not be unfair to all those who are serving for us in the services of the Church. When we have meetings and services, let all those for whom they are arranged be faithful in attending. Let us remember that it costs money to heat up buildings, and to burn electric lights. Therefore, let us make all of our efforts, especially at this crucial time, count to the utmost.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild has met at stated monthly meetings throughout the year. The officers are unchanged and we have, at present, a membership of 30, and an average attendance of 18. Last spring it was our misfortune to lose, through death, one of our devoted members, Miss Mariana Steele.

We feel we can look back on an active and successful year of work, having fulfilled all of our regular obligations and tried to meet new needs, as they have arisen.

The plan for our Lenten Study Class was changed, at Mr. Twelves' request, and, instead of holding it in the morning, evening classes were held, in which all parish organizations participated. These meetings featured splendid speakers and had an average attendance of about 50. They were preceded by a simple dinner which various organizations took turns in preparing, and the Guild was responsible for two of these.

Our regular Lenten sewing was done in combination with the Red Cross sewing, and thirty garments were completed.

It was the desire of the Guild that the name of Mrs. Elton Buckley be inscribed in the "Book of Remembrance," at the Church House. To raise the necessary funds, Mrs. Willard gave a tea at her home, in January, at which $14.50 was contributed, and this amount was sent to the Pennsylvania Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary with the request that it be used for the work of the Colored Committee, in which Mrs. Buckley was particularly interested. We hope to be in a position to send additional contributions from time to time.

In March the Guild gave a luncheon at which $25.89 was cleared and this, as well as the profits from the two Lenten suppers, was included in our Easter offering, which amounted to $65.00.

A Spring Supper was given in May and on this we made $59.04.

Except during the summer a Bake Sale has been, and still is, held the first Saturday of every month and has proved a welcome source of revenue.

At the Annual Dinner and Bazaar the profit was $379.12 and $375.00 of this was sent to the Vestry with the request that $25.00 of it be added to the fund for the reduction of the mortgage.

Mrs. Seeley, our United Thank Offering Treasurer, reports a collection of $228.55. This figure does not include the contribution of the Junior Auxiliary.

In addition to the usual pledges and contributions to the Supply Bureau, Church Farm School, House of Rest, Educational Week for the Blind, and to the Colored, Convocational, Foreign, and Diocesan Committees, and the memorial to Mrs. Buckley, we gave $5.00 to St. John's Settlement House and $5.00 to the Diocesan Altar Guild, in answer to an appeal for funds for portable altars for Army Chaplains.

We have contributed and assisted at the Educational Week for the Blind, the Episcopal Hospital Fete, and the Convocational Garden Party, and our members have attended many services and meetings, such as the World Day of Prayer, Mother's Union Service, Quiet Days of Prayer, Annual Meeting of the Women's Auxiliary, and the monthly meetings of the Diocesan, Domestic, Indian's Hope, Foreign, Colored, Educational, Convocational, and Social Service Committees, and the Interdenominational Mother's Council. Our President represented us at all Parish Meetings.

Gifts of fruit and food are collected at Thanksgiving and sent to the House of Rest, and all during the year our Sunshine Committee sends cakes, cards, and favors to that institution, as well as remembering the sick of our own parish, with flowers and greeting cards.

In the spring we collected clothing and shipped a large box to Southern Missions and at Christmas we sent gifts to be distributed at hospitals by the Elizabeth Price Martin League.

The amount collected annually by Mrs. Hobson for the "Birthday Pennies" fund never ceases to amaze us, and from it we have paid for the installation of a new electric fixture, donated by Mrs. Hobson, in the Parish House kitchen and a new rubber mat, as well as replacing linen, silver, glass, china and several other items badly needed.

Mrs. Hobson and Mrs. Betts, of our Sewing Committee, are in charge of our Red Cross sewing, and Mrs. Sheetz supervises the knitting. While their reports will be given separately, in detail, no record of our year's work would be complete without special mention of the long hours of service given by them, and so many of our other members, as well as by others of the Parish and community.

A summary of our work for the year always serves to remind us of the wide variety of activities the work of the Woman's Guild embraces, work in which we wish we might interest more of the women of our Parish, and in which we believe they would find satisfaction and pleasure.

To all whose generous support has helped us throughout the year we wish to express our grateful appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

ADELE SCOTT, Secretary.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild, which was organized to take care of the Sanctuary, Church and their appointments, meets the second Tuesday in each month from October through May. We have an average attendance of nine. Miss Davis is still the Directress, Miss Wolff the Treasurer and Mrs. Heyward, Secretary. Due to the untiring work of our Directress and the other members of the Guild it has functioned smoothly during the past year, but we are very much handicapped at present by the smallness of our number. We have only twenty members and of that number only thirteen are active. As I have often said before we really need twenty-four active members to adequately take care of the work without putting an undue burden on any one person or group. The work of the Altar Guild is a spiritual opportunity. Surely some more of the women of our church would like to help us provide the proper linens, keep the brasses and silver vessels clean and polished and fresh flowers on the Altar.

Miss Wolff is the efficient custodian of the Flower Calendar. On most of the Sundays in the year the flowers are given as memorials. When there is a vacant Sunday the Altar Guild provides the proper flowers. I am happy to say that on this year's Calendar, which was very kindly donated and painted by Mrs. Middleton, there are only four vacant Sundays, namely, May 31st, June 21st, November 29th and December 20th. If anyone feels that they would like to give memorial flowers on any of these days Miss Wolff would be very glad to hear from them.

On Thanksgiving Day the offering of canned goods, fruit and vegetables, etc., were sent to the House of Rest. The Guild wishes to extend thanks to Mrs. Norton Downs and Mr. Alan Dewees who very kindly attended to this for us.

During the year a new surplice was bought for the Rector and because fine linen is becoming increasingly difficult to procure a supply was bought and put away to be used as needed for new Purificators.

Our Guild is a member of a larger organization, the Diocesan Altar Guild. Several of our members have attended its meetings and Quiet Days and have been greatly inspired.

According to the rules of our Guild we are not allowed to raise money by entertainments, etc., and we are dependent on the yearly dues, the special appeal that is sent out to the congregation every March and the special envelopes for Easter flowers and Christmas greens. If more people understood this I am sure that there would be a greater response to our special appeal. Won't you all think this over and remember the Altar Guild when you are making out your yearly budget.

Respectfully submitted,

MATILDA J. HEYWARD, Secretary.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The work of the Vestment Chapter is to take care of the Vestments of the four Choirs, which means that some sixty Vestsments must be kept laundered, repaired and replaced when necessary.

The meetings of this Chapter are held on the third Wednesday of each month with the exception of the summer months, with about ten to twelve members present.

Because of replacements last year, it has not been necessary to do anything other than the regular repairing and cleaning of the Vestments. We are most grateful to Mrs. Kent for the efficient manner in which she takes care of this particular work. Mrs. Stewart very kindly handles the Choir Boys' Funds each week.

A Valentine Tea was held on February 15th at the home of one of our members, Mrs. C. A. Foster. We appreciate the willingness with which Mrs. Foster offers her home for this purpose, as it enables us to swell our treasury and do bigger and better things in our Vestment Chapter.

During the summer months one foot of dimes was saved by each member.

If you are interested in our Choir, and its work may we welcome you in our midst.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

We are happy to announce that during the year, we have gained several new members. In December we participated in the Parish Fair by selling Christmas Calendars, wrappings and trimmings. For Christmas we made and filled bags for the aged women at the Harrison Home. We have decided to continue our support of a City Mission student nurse. The group is also continuing their active work in the United Thank Offering.

We would be glad to welcome other young women between the ages of 18 and 35 into our group.

THE RED CROSS

The sewing meetings of the Red Cross are held on Mondays from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. The sewing is in charge of Mrs. William H. Hobson and Mrs. Charles L. Betts, and the Secretary is Mrs. George H. Pabst. There have been twenty-six workers during the course of the year, some spending the whole or part of a day each week. The number of hours put in totaled 1634, and the number of garments made was 414. More workers are needed and women of the parish or community are asked to volunteer their services. Individuals are asked to bring portable sewing machines if they have one, and the loan of any pedal machines would be appreciated.

Mrs. J. H. Sheetz, of 323 Glen Echo Road (Che. 2756), is in charge of the knitting, and she reports that 90 knitted garments were made during the year, in which about twenty-five persons participated. Anyone who desires to knit should get in touch with Mrs. Sheetz and the Red Cross will provide the wool.

The work of the Junior Red Cross through the Girl Scouts is reported elsewhere.

SARAH A. HOBSON.

THE GIRL SCOUTS

Miss Bessie Kenney who started the Troop in our parish and continued as its leader for two years, was forced to resign this fall, because her teaching took her out of town. Miss Kenney deserves a vote of appreciation for the fine work she has done in organizing and maintaining a high standard in this parish activity. The respect in which she was held by the girls themselves was evidenced by the many gifts she received at a farewell party given in October.

We have been very fortunate in getting Miss Virginia Lang, a trained Scout Leader, to take charge of the Troop, and she is ably assisted by Miss Ruth Rhea. The Troop is very active, with about 25 members.

During the year 15 Afghans were made and turned in through the Junior Red Cross. Another Afghan was given to the Bundles to Britain, as well as a large quantity of clothing. The Troop has taken the First Aid course and has studied child care among its other activities. The Troop Committee is composed of Mrs. Thomas Scott, Mrs. Louis McGill, Mrs. Edwin Kenney and Mrs. David F. Maxwell.

RELIGION'S MESSAGE TO A WORLD AT WAR

Many people are asking what position of leadership is the Church advocating during these days of crisis. The following summary of war-time creed issued by the Federal Council of Churches finds agreement among most Church leaders.

We call upon our fellow Christians:

- 1—To bow in penitence before the judgments of God, who is the Ruler of all nations and the Father of mankind;
- 2—To devote themselves to preserving and strengthening the ideals of democracy and freedom;
- 3—To withstand any propaganda of hatred or revenge and to refuse it the sanction of religion;
- 4—To manifest Christian goodwill toward those among us whose origin was in nations with which our country is now at war;
- 5—To succor with generosity all who suffer from the ravages of war;
- 6—To minister to the deeper needs of men in the nation's service;
- 7—To pray constantly that our national leaders may be guided and strengthened by the spirit of God, and that after this tragic conflict there shall come a new world of righteousness, justice and peace for all nations;
- 8—To strive for national policies in conformity with the will of God, rather than to seek the divine sanction for a human purpose;
- 9—To work actively and persistently for justice and goodwill among all racial groups both in our country and throughout the world;
- 10—To maintain unbroken the fellowship of prayer with Christians everywhere;
- 11—To be steadfastly loyal to the Holy Catholic Church;
- 12—To pray without ceasing that God's name may be hallowed and His will done on earth as it is in Heaven;
- 13—To maintain confident faith in God as the refuge and strength of His people even in the darkest night, and to trust in the triumph of His will.

The Family List

OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

A Foreword About This Year Book

The purpose of this Year Book is to acquaint the people of the parish with the work that has been done during the past year, through our numerous activities. We hope that you will therefore carefully read all the reports, though at first glance they may not seem to be of especial concern to you personally.

There is a considerable amount of reference material in the Year Book, Committees, Days and Hours of Meetings, and the Family Addresses. For this reason you are asked to carefully preserve your copy for consultation from time to time.

The printing of such a book involves a considerable expense. We are only enabled to publish it through the kindness and generosity of the advertisers. It is only right, therefore, that you patronize them whenever possible and when so doing inform them that you saw their advertisement in the Epiphany Year Book.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

CHURCH OF THE EPIPHANY

Prayers During Wartime

The Rector has been asked to suggest some prayers that may be used in families or privately. The following have been taken from several approved sources.

FOR OUR ENEMIES

Most loving Father, who by Thy Son Jesus Christ hast taught us to love our enemies and to pray for them, we beseech Thee, give to those who are now our enemies the light of Thy Holy Spirit. Grant that they and we, being enlightened in conscience and cleansed from every sin, may know and do Thy will, and so be changed from foes to friends united in Thy service; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR GOOD WILL

Take from us, O Lord, all bitterness and hatred. Keep our hearts in confident trust. Make us reverent in the use of our freedom, and deepen within us the roots of faith and righteousness. Give to us the spirit of good will so that, when the day of conflict ends, the barriers of race may be broken and we may enter into the enjoyment of a nobler service for God and for all mankind. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR THOSE IN THE ARMED FORCES

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in Thee; Bless, we pray Thee, our soldiers, sailors and airmen; our chaplains, doctors, and nurses; and all enlisted in the service of our country, particularly those who have gone forth from this parish. Give Thy holy angels charge over them to protect them from all harm; deliver them in all temptation, and if it be Thy gracious will, bring them safe home; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IN TIME OF NATIONAL ANXIETY

Grant calmness and control of thought to those who are facing uncertainty and anxiety; let their hearts stand fast, believing in the Lord.

Be Thou all things to all men, knowing each one and his petition, each house and its need; for the sake of Jesus Christ. Amen.

REV. J. WESLEY TWELVES
Rector Since 1925

Standing Notices

VISITATION OF THE SICK

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

MARRIAGES

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services, and that the persons to be married shall be instructed concerning the nature and responsibility of Holy Matrimony.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD

Always confer with the minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

A PRAYER AT NOONTIME OR THE ANGELUS HOUR

Give peace for all time, O Lord, and fill my heart and the hearts of all men everywhere with the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Report of the Rector to the Parish Meeting

JANUARY 6, 1943

Printed among the Statistics you will find a report of my official acts during the year just closed, Services, Baptisms, Confirmations, etc.

COMMUNICANT MEMBERSHIP

Our Communion membership now numbers about 380, which is the largest number we have had in years. It is a bona-fide list, although it does not include all the Confirmed Episcopalans in the parish, for the simple reason that they have not been transferred here, or indicated their desire to be counted as members of this parish. There are about fifty Confirmed persons who worship with us regularly who are not members of this parish. The Presiding Bishop and our own Bishop Hart are urging that parishioners keep their Communicant membership up to date. I would be very glad to assist any of you who have not been transferred here to get your Letter, or to put your name on our Parish Register at your request.

RELIGION IN WARTIME

Anyone who takes his religion seriously, finds a conflict that disturbs him, between the teachings of Jesus, and the practice of war in which we are engaged. With some the solution is very easy. They say they are against this and any war, and declare themselves Pacifists. On the other extreme there are those who feel that this war is a Holy Crusade, and that God blesses it. But for most of us who want to be loyal to Jesus, and loyal to the best that our country stands for, it is not so clear cut and easy as that. There is certainly a great need on the part of many to study what Christianity stands for. It is not the crude materialism of the early Old Testament, nor the superstitions of the Pagan religions. Above all we need to keep bitterness and hatred out of our hearts, especially toward our Christian brethren who do not always think or interpret their Christianity as we do. The Christian Church, through its people, can and must influence the kind of a peace that is to come after the war, and it would be helpful now if we were all familiar with such statements and plans that have been formulated by Christian Groups.

USING CHURCH FACILITIES

The parish buildings during the last year have been used for Red Cross work, several First-Aid Classes, Warden's meetings, School meetings. These are activities of the community, and are in addition to our regular parish activities. The Property Committee suggests that we try to confine, for the time being, all our parish meetings to one day of the week. They have designated this day as Friday, when the Parish House will be heated all day and evening.

MEN IN THE SERVICE OF OUR COUNTRY

There are now forty-three men from our parish who are serving their country in various ways. I have endeavored to keep in close touch with them, by writing letters, sending them notices, seeing that they all have Prayer Books and Crosses. I have had many interesting letters in return. I feel gratified to know that most of the men attend Church where they may be, and I am sure that it makes us all happy to see them in Church when they are home on leave.

MAKING THE MOST OF OUR BUSY DAYS

These are busy days for all of us. In the Church we feel the absence of those who are in the service, or whose duties have called them elsewhere. The burden of our Church activities falls upon a smaller number, who like the rest have other outside responsibilities too. It is only right that their efforts should count to the utmost. A faithful and prepared teacher in the Church School expects that parents of children will see that they come regularly, promptly and are prepared to co-operate. Members of Guilds and Organizations should remember that the leaders and other members are giving of their time and deserve their faithful support. I was astounded during the Every Member Canvass to discover how many people asked the Canvassers to call back several times. This was unfair to busy men. Let us make all our efforts count to the utmost during these busy days.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S GUILD

During the year of 1942, the Woman's Guild has met at stated meetings on the second Tuesday of the month. We have, at present, a membership of 32, and an average attendance of 20.

At the beginning of the year, Mrs. Wilbur Morse was our President but change of residence made necessary her resignation. Mrs. Morse served as an officer of the Guild for six years and we are grateful to her for her fine leadership.

By unanimous vote, our Vice President, Mrs. George D. Feidt, was asked to serve as President, and Mrs. Charles Reinhardt as Vice President. Our other officers and committees remain unchanged.

In January we sponsored a "Sing a Song of Shakespeare" concert, at which we made $12.83.

To raise funds for our Easter offering, we served a buffet luncheon in March. One of our members, Mrs. Whitehurst, is a Guide at the Washington Cathedral, and she secured colored slides of the Cathedral and gave a lecture that remains one of the delightful memories of the year. Another luncheon was given in May and again Mrs. Whitehurst most graciously assisted us, giving a book review.

Our Easter offering to the Church was $60.00 and the collections at the Mission Study Class was $10.00.

In October the Germantown Convocation met at Epiphany and the Guild assisted in making the necessary preparations and served the luncheon.

We held our Dinner and Bazaar in November, clearing $431.58.

Our donation to the Church was $400, of which $350 was for the interest on the mortgage and $50 for its reduction. This was an increase of $25 over our contribution last year.

During Lent, weekly all-day meetings were held, which began with a service of Holy Communion. This was followed by the Mission Study Class, conducted by Deaconess Newbold, whose topic was "Christian Roots of Democracy." The afternoons were devoted to the Lenten sewing, and 28 garments were completed for the Supply Bureau and 10 dozen articles for Episcopal Hospital.

We also finished 13 baby wrappers and 14 caps, started by Miss Marianna Steele shortly before her death. These we donated to the "Sheltering Arms."

Our Sewing Committee, headed by Mrs. Hobson and Mrs. Betts, directs our Red Cross sewing, and Mrs. Sheetz has charge of the knitting, and many of our members work, both here in our own sewing room and at Red Cross Headquarters. During the year 235 garments were completed.

At Thanksgiving fruit and food were sent to the House of Rest and the Sunshine Committee has also sent valentines and gifts to that institution, throughout the year, as well as remembering the sick of our parish with cards and flowers.

The United Thank Offering is taken twice annually by Mrs. Seeley and amounted to $214.68. This does not include the offering of the Junior Auxiliary.

Out of the "Birthday Pennies," collected by Mrs. Hobson, we paid for the repair of 37 of the church kneeling cushions and also donated $10.00 to the Episcopal Hospital May Fete.

This year the Guild has become a member of the Women's Interdenominational Union.

The regular assessments and contributions were paid from the Guild funds and included the Supply Bureau, Church Farm School, House of Rest, Educational Week for the Blind, and the Convocational, Foreign, Domestic, Negro Work, Indian's Hope, and Diocesan Committees.

We also contributed to St. John's Settlement House and for a scholarship in the "Church School by Mail."

Our Guild was regularly represented at the monthly meetings of the Diocesan, Domestic, Indian's Hope, Foreign, Negro Work, Social Service, Educational, and Convocational Committees and the Interdenominational Mother's Council. Members also attended many other services and meetings, including the Annual Auxiliary Meeting, World Day of Prayer, Mother's Union Service, Quiet Days of Prayer, Educational Conference, and the Retreats at St. Margaret's House. We also assisted at the Educational Week for the Blind, and the Convocational Garden Party.

It has been our aim, not only to stimulate interest and activity in our own organization, but to bring our Guild into closer association with the Woman's Auxiliary and become more familiar with their work. At one of our Spring meetings, Mrs. Francis Burton gave a most interesting talk on the refugee problem, and the efforts being made to assist these unfortunate people. We are making arrangements for other speakers during the coming year and we cordially invite the women of the parish, whether they are active members of our Guild, or not, to come to these meetings for, we believe, they cannot fail to find interest and inspiration in the many projects of the women of our church.

We realize that we could not have accomplished as much as we have, without the loyal support of many people, and we wish to thank, particularly those who assisted us at the time of the Bazaar. With the help of such good friends, we can look back on the past year with satisfaction, and forward to the coming year with confidence.

Respectfully submitted,

ADELE SCOTT, Secretary.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Epiphany, Germantown, which is a member of the Diocesan Altar Guild, meets on the second Tuesday of each month from October to May, inclusive. The members keep the Sanctuary and all it contains clean, the Fair Linens, etc., freshly laundered and the silver and brasses polished. They prepare for the Communion Services and decorate the Altar for services each Sunday. There are twenty members.

Miss Edna C. Davis continues her good work as Directress and Miss Ruth Wolff continues to serve as Treasurer, and as Custodian of the Flower Calendar. It is with deep regret that I have to report that Mrs. R. B. Heyward had to resign the Secretaryship, because of her numerous activities. Mrs. Norman A. Roach has temporarily accepted the Secretary's duties.

The rules of the Altar Guild forbid the raising of money by entertainment, etc., therefore we are entirely dependent on the yearly dues, the special appeal that is sent out each March, and the envelopes for Easter flowers and Christmas greens.

During the year Miss Wolff gave linen for new towels. One stole, three surplices and the hangings were repaired. It is our duty to purchase the Rector's vestments, the linens and the Altar appointments, as well as to keep them in good repair. I would like, at this time, to earnestly ask that each member of the Church be as generous as he can when he makes his contribution to the special appeal in March.

The offering of canned goods, fruits and vegetables sent to the Church on Thanksgiving Day were taken to The House of Rest, 5919 Wayne Avenue, by Mr. Alan Dewees.

Flowers for the Altar are usually donated by members of the Church, as memorials or thank offerings. Miss Wolff reports that there are four Sundays open on the Flower Calendar for the year 1943. The open dates are January 31, July 18, September 5 and September 19. She will be very happy to arrange a date for anyone wishing to donate flowers. The Calendar, which was painted and donated by Mrs. H. W. Middleton, hangs in the Vestibule of the Church.

It has been a privilege and an honor to work with the Guild. And, I am sure that if all the women of the Parish realized the opportunity and spiritual inspiration it offers, the membership would rapidly increase. Anyone who feels she would like to join us will find a most cordial welcome awaiting her.

CARRIE E. ROACH, Secretary.

THE YOUNG MARRIED GROUP

Since our organization in the Fall, we have undertaken two projects: the Toy Table at the Fair, and the sending of Christmas presents for service men from the parish. The money for the presents was donated by the members of the Church. Since the amount received was more than the gifts cost, the balance is to be used for birthday cards to our men in the service. This endeavor is being taken care of by Mrs. Cyril Reynolds.

We have tentatively planned our future work as follows: whatever handiwork we can do for some institution, such as the Sheltering Arms, a nursery school during the Sunday morning service, so that the parents of young children will have a chance to attend service, and a study of the Civilian organizations doing war work.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The work of the Vestment Chapter is to take care of the garments of our choirs, which means the laundering of the Vestments, repairing of same and any necessary replacements.

The meetings of the Chapter are held on the third Wednesday of each month, with the exception of the summer months—about twelve members present.

The Vestments this year, seemingly in good condition, has kept us from having expenses other than the regular cleaning and laundering.

We wish to express our gratitude to Mrs. Kent, who gives much of her time and personal attention to the examining of the Vestments and their care and maintenance. She is always eager and willing to report anything that may be of benefit in fulfilling our work.

Mrs. Stewart very kindly handled the Choir Boys' Fund each week.

Mrs. C. A. Foster again very kindly offered her home for a Tea, which was held on Valentine's Day. Everyone present had a most pleasant afternoon. Through the generous hospitality of Mrs. Foster and the efforts of all who participated our Chapter treasury increased greatly.

Our members agreed to pay dues for the summer months although regular meetings were not held.

We need, and cheerfully welcome, new members into the Vestment Chapter. Won't you join us?

JUNIOR WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Junior Woman's Auxiliary meets the third Wednesday of each month. This past year we felt it appropriate to continue our meetings during the summer months also.

In keeping with the subject on all of our minds at this time, we have been making an active study of "post-war" peace plans. Aside from our individual home reading we have had some very interesting discussions and joint reading-study groups at our meetings on the various suggested solutions for an all time peace.

In addition to this we have started making bandages for the Episcopal Hospital.

At Christmas time this year we provided gifts for several needy children.

We have felt that our meetings have improved with our work and wish that many other young women would join with us and help our effort along.

THE GIRL SCOUTS

Under the leadership of Virginia L. Frey, Girl Scout Troop No. 306 has continued to meet each Friday evening at 7:30 in the Scout Room.

One of its major projects this year was Junior Red Cross Work, and the girls made stuffed toys, puzzle books, book-markers and decorations for the Christmas trees of our overseas' soldiers.

Badges worked for and earned by many are the following: Hostess, Second Class, Dramatic Appreciation, Design, Pioneer, Transportation and Communication, Photography and Cooking.

A Thanksgiving basket was filled and sent to a needy family. The girls ushered at the Sedgwick for the "March of Dimes" Paralysis Fund. The furniture in the Scout Room was painted by the girls.

Included in this schedule was a trip to the Planetarium at Christmas time to see the Christmas Stars; a hike; a visit to the Passion Play, and a Doggie Roast.

The Troop owes its success in large part to a very active Troop Committee: Mrs. Thomas Scott, who assisted greatly with the Junior Red Cross work; Mrs. Edwin Kenney, Chairman and Guiding Star of our Cookie Sale; and Mrs. Louis McGill, who assisted with the maintenance of the Girl Scout Room. Without the co-operation of these ladies we could not go forward.

The Family List

OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

A Foreword About This Year Book

This is the twentieth consecutive year that we have published a Year Book, which we think is something of a record. The "File Copies" of these books, all carefully preserved, is a running history of the parish for these twenty years. We hardly know how we would get along without such a Book.

We trust you will not only carefully read all the material contained herein, but that you will keep your copy for reference during the year. It contains names and addresses, days and hours of meetings, and other information that you will want to consult from time to time.

It would be quite impossible for us to get out such a fine book if it were not for the kindness of the many advertisers. For that reason, it is hoped that you will patronize them with your business whenever possible, and when so doing, be sure to let them know you saw their advertisement in the Epiphany Year Book.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

Prayers During Wartime

The Rector has been asked to suggest some prayers that may be used in families or privately. The following have been taken from several approved sources.

FOR OUR ENEMIES

Most loving Father, who by Thy Son Jesus Christ hast taught us to love our enemies and to pray for them, we beseech Thee, give to those who are now our enemies the light of Thy Holy Spirit. Grant that they and we, being enlightened in conscience and cleansed from every sin, may know and do Thy will, and so be changed from foes to friends united in Thy service; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR GOOD WILL

Take from us, O Lord, all bitterness and hatred. Keep our hearts in confident trust. Make us reverent in the use of our freedom, and deepen within us the roots of faith and righteousness. Give to us the spirit of good will so that, when the day of conflict ends, the barriers of race may be broken and we may enter into the enjoyment of a nobler service for God and for all mankind. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

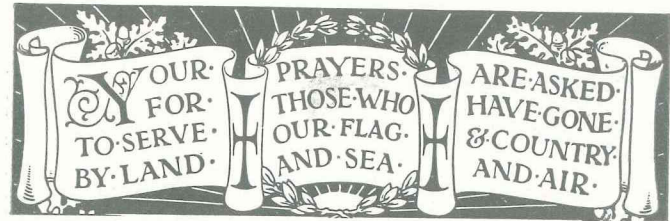

FOR THOSE IN THE ARMED FORCES

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in Thee; Bless, we pray Thee, our soldiers, sailors and airmen; our chaplains, doctors, and nurses; and all enlisted in the service of our country, particularly those who have gone forth from this parish. Give Thy holy angels charge over them to protect them from all harm; deliver them in all temptation, and if it be Thy gracious will, bring them safe home; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IN TIME OF NATIONAL ANXIETY

Grant calmness and control of thought to those who are facing uncertainty and anxiety: let their hearts stand fast, believing in the Lord.

Be Thou all things to all men, knowing each one and his petition, each house and its need; for the sake of Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Murphy Window

This window was given by James A. Murphy in memory of his grandparents. It is known as the Baptismal Window and is placed by the Font. The window is the work of the D'Ascenzo Studios of Philadelphia. It is made of antique glass, stained and shaded after the medieval manner. The quadrafoil in the top of the window contains a lamb, carrying a flag, with the cross of triumph, signifying the sacrificial character of Jesus. This is called the Agnus Dei, the Lamb of God.

The First lancet depicts the Baptism of Christ by John Baptist, and the latin words read "Agnus Dei Ecce" Behold the lamb of God, said by John as Jesus approached. John is dressed in camel's skin and leathern girdle. The dove overhead reminds us of the passage "the heaven was opened and the Holy Ghost descended in bodily shape like a dove upon him." Notice the small fish—early symbol of the Christians.

The second lancet or panel shows Christ blessing the little children, which is based upon the lesson that appears in the Baptismal Service. We see Christ's affectionate regard for little children, taking them up in his arms and laying his hands upon them. Over this panel is an angel, reminding us of the passage where Christ says "Their angels do always behold the face of my Father, which is in heaven." This is sometimes spoken of as the children's guardian angel.

The inscription at the bottom of the window reads:

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
JAMES AND MARGARET MURPHY.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy were connected with the church for many years. Mr. Murphy passed away on July 29, 1929 and Mrs. Murphy died June 5, 1942. They were both fond of children, so that this window is especially appropriate.

The window was dedicated on Sunday morning, October 10, 1943, and at the same time four children were received into the church by Baptism.

Standing Notices

VISITATION OF THE SICK

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

MARRIAGES

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services, and that the persons to be married shall be instructed concerning the nature and responsibility of Holy Matrimony.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD

Always confer with the minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

A PRAYER AT NOONTIME OR THE ANGELUS HOUR

Give peace for all time, O Lord, and fill my heart and the hearts of all men everywhere with the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Report of the Rector to the Parish Meeting --- January 6, 1944

The report of the statistics of the parish and of my official acts you will find printed elsewhere in the Year Book. The attendance at Church Services has maintained its usual level, except during the period of sickness in the months of December and January. In the Church School, however, the attendance has been very poor, no doubt due to sickness, and perhaps to other conditions caused by the activities of parents during these war days.

Understanding Our Religion

As I see it, the chief duties of a minister are to be a Pastor and a Teacher. The first of these is under the control of the rector. He can call and minister to the spiritual needs of his parish according to his time and inclination. If he is not a good Pastor it is his own fault. The second duty, however, depends to some degree upon the willingness of the people to be instructed.

Everywhere in the church there seems to be a need for understanding about the church and the meaning of Christianity, which can only be met by instruction. Here and there endeavors have been made to have study groups, but with meager success, largely because of a lack of response. Our Bishop feels every parish should be studying at this time the basis for a Just and Durable Peace from the Christian viewpoint. At present there are a couple of small groups in the parish interested. I am sure that every minister welcomes the opportunity to impart what knowledge he has about the great meanings of our religion and he would be most happy to join with other seekers after the truth.

When the War Ends

On the basis of many optimistic prophecies, the war will end sometime during the year 1944, and we hope these will come true. About sixty of our parishioners are in the service of their country, one third of whom are in foreign fields. If the war should end during the year, the larger number of these will undoubtedly return home. We hear talk all around us about how these men are going to be absorbed into our civil and economic life.

As a parish we should be thinking now about how we may actively engage these returning men in our parish life. Many of them have had positions of responsibility, and if we are going to hold their interest we ought to be planning now just what active and interesting things we have in mind for them. I might add that I have kept in constant contact with all those away from the parish, and received from many of them interesting letters, indicating that they still look back with considerable friendliness to their parish church.

Future Economic Conditions

Financially our parish is better off this year than for some time, due to some economies we have made and to improved economic conditions. But if history repeats itself, we may expect a period of depression sometime after the ending of the war. It would be wise strategy on the part of the church to plan at this time for the liquidation of indebtedness, so that if bad times come, we will not be burdened by our debts. If and when the war ends, I am sure most of us will be very thankful. Our thanksgiving might show itself in a practical way by giving gifts to the church in money, in Bonds, in bequests. I trust that we will consider this matter in the months ahead.

In closing I would like to record the appreciation of the parish for the beautiful stained-glass window given in memory of James and Margaret Murphey by their grandson. It is my hope that such a gift may be the means of stimulating a similar interest on the part of others in the parish.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S GUILD

During the year of 1943 the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Epiphany met at stated meetings on the second Tuesday of the month. The members number 32 with an average attendance of 20. Mrs. George D. Feidt was President and under her leadership we had a successful year. A special luncheon was held in March and throughout Lent, the proceeds from these being contributed to our Church for Easter Offering. Another luncheon was held in May with a book review by Mrs. Whitehurst on "The Robe," very ably rendered and enjoyed by all. Mrs. Twelves as Educational Secretary secured speakers for our meetings during Lent and also made arrangements for the Study Class Teacher.

A successful dinner and Fair was held on November 18th clearing $445.29 and from this we donated $350 to interest mortgage and $50 for its reduction.

Mrs. Belts and Mrs. Hobson directed the Red Cross sewing which was discontinued this fall and also had charge of the Lenten Sewing. The United Thank Offering is taken twice annually by Mrs. Seeley.

From the Birthday Fund, collected by Mrs. Hobson, the Guild agreed to make a donation for 100 new hymnals.

At Thanksgiving, fruit and food were sent to the House of Rest and the Sunshine Comm. has also sent gifts to that institution throughout the year, as well as remembering the sick of our Parish with cards and flowers.

The regular assessments and contributions were paid to the Supply Bureau, Church Farm School, House of Rest, Educational Week for the Blind, and the Convocation, Foreign, Domestic, Negro Work, Indians Hope and Diocesan Committees and we are regularly represented at the monthly meetings of these committees. We also contributed to St. John's Settlement House and maintain a scholarship to "The Church School by Mail."

The Guild wishes to thank our loyal friends for their support of our last years work and make an earnest appeal for all the women of the Parish to join us for continued success in the coming year of 1944.

The amount of the United Thank Offering for 1943 was $251.30.

Mrs. Ellen Jones, Secretary.

ALTAR GUILD REPORT

Our Altar Guild, a member of the Diocesan Guild, meets the second Tuesday of each month from October to May inclusive.

It is the duty of the members to keep clean all that the Sanctuary contains, the Fair Linens freshly laundered, the silver and bronzes polished. We prepare for the Communion Services and decorate the Altar each Sunday. There are twenty-one members with Miss Edna Davis as directress and Miss Ruth Wolff serves as treasurer.

The flower calendar, so beautifully made and colored by Mrs. Howard W. Middleton, is the first object that meets the eye when entering the vestibule of the Church. This year of 1944, Miss Wolff, the custodian of the Calendar finds that there are seven Sundays to be supplied with flowers. The dates being January the Thirtieth, July the Twenty-third, August the Thirteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-seventh, September the Third and December the Tenth. We hope these dates may be taken by members of the Church, as memorials or thank offerings, and Miss Wolff will be happy to arrange a date for any member who will kindly let her know.

During the past year, the Guild has supplied a surplice for Mr. Twelves and Miss Wolff has given nine purifactors.

We regret the passing of Mrs. H. F. Dingle in October, a past directress of the Guild. Flowers and a note of sympathy were sent to her family.

The offering of food and fruit on Thanksgiving Day were taken by Mr. Alan Dewees to the House of Rest.

The rules of the Altar Guild forbid the raising of money by entertainments, therefore we are entirely dependent upon the yearly dues, the envelopes for Easter and Christmas decorations, and the Special Appeal sent out in March. I would like at this time to ask each member of the Church to be as generous as he can when he makes his contribution to the special appeal in March.

At the invitation of Mrs. George D. Feidt, our May meeting was held with the Auxiliary in her lovely home, where we remained for a delicious luncheon. We want to thank Mrs. Feidt for this delightful social occasion.

During this year 1944, are there not other women in the Parish who would like to have a part in the care of the Altar? The Holy, Most beautiful, indeed the Heart of the Church from which all else emanates. I feel sure, if the women of the Parish realized this, our membership would greatly increase, which is the earnest desire of the Epiphany Altar Guild.

Respectfully submitted by
DOROTHEA THULLEN, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The care of the choirs' vestments includes laundering, repairs and replacements, when necessary. The Vestment Chapter meets the third Wednesday of each month at 10.30 A. M., except during the summer months. If there are any women in the congregation who would like to help in this work please communicate with Mrs. McGill, our president, or any other of our twelve members.

During the year 1943 all cassocks were cleaned and a new one purchased for Mr. Eayre, our organist.

Mrs. Rebmann resigned as secretary and Mrs. Geo. S. Stewart was appointed to take the place.

To Mrs. C. H. Kent goes the Vestment Chapters' gratitude for giving so much care and thought to the maintenance of the vestments. She being our choir mother, earnestly calls attention to every need of the vestments.

At the close of the February meeting which was held in the rectory, Mrs. Twelves served us a delightful Valentine's Day buffet luncheon.

Respectfully submitted,

THERESA STILES STEWART, Secretary.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

It was decided last June to merge the Young Married Group with the Junior Woman's Auxiliary. The first meeting of the enlarged group in September held in September, officers from both groups were elected. It was decided to hold the meetings once a month on the third Wednesday evening.

At the October meeting we outlined our plans for the year. We are making gauze pads at the meetings for the Shingle Memorial Hospital at Molokai, Hawaii. For our program, we are studying the Six Pillars of Peace, and having a discussion at each meeting. We are also making dresses and baby sweaters for the Sheltering Arms at home.

Our group had charge of the Toy Table at the Fair. We also wrapped 45 packages for the boys in the service from the parish consisting of a number of useful articles.

ANNUAL REPORT OF GIRL SCOUT TROOP 306

Girl Scout Troop 306 meets each Friday evening in the Scout Room.

At the last meeting in June the girls gave a Farewell Party for Mrs. Frey, their former leader, and presented her with a going-away gift as a token of their esteem. Mr. Twelves thanked Mrs. Frey for her work with the Troop and wished her Godspeed.

The Troop consists of twenty-two registered members and four probationers. There is room for one new member.

Among the badges earned and awarded during the year were: Second Class, Bookbinding, Interior Decorator, Writer and Drawing and Painting.

At present, the whole Troop is working on the Dancer Badge.

The Troop subscribed to a Red Cross Christmas Gift Kit which was sent to the Naval Hospital.

Included in the year's activities were: A Christmas Party in the Scout Room, and the annual visit to the Fels Planetarium during Christmas week.

Plans for the future include painting and decorating the Scout Room. The Troop intends to raise money for this project by having a candy sale. The candy will be supplied to the Troop at wholesale rates through the Local Scout Council and through the American Stores Company. The painting and decorating will be done by the girls.

The Troop wishes to express its thanks to Mrs. George Russell for her assistance in the maintenance of the Scout Room.

The Family List

OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About this Year Book

For over twenty years we have been publishing consecutively this Annual Year Book, which is becoming quite a record especially in these years of scarcity of paper, etc. It is hoped that our people duly appreciate all that is involved and will not only read the book, but preserve it for reference.

Were it not for the kindness of the advertisers it would not be possible for us to produce such a fine book. I therefore urge you to patronize these business people who have so cordially cooperated with us, and to tell them where you saw their advertisement.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

Prayers During Wartime

The Rector has been asked to suggest some prayers that may be used in families or privately. The following have been taken from several approved sources.

FOR OUR ENEMIES

Most loving Father, who by Thy Son Jesus Christ hast taught us to love our enemies and to pray for them, we beseech Thee, give to those who are now our enemies the light of Thy Holy Spirit. Grant that they and we, being enlightened in conscience and cleansed from every sin, may know and do Thy will, and so be changed from foes to friends united in Thy service; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR GOOD WILL

Take from us, O Lord, all bitterness and hatred. Keep our hearts in confident trust. Make us reverent in the use of our freedom, and deepen within us the roots of faith and righteousness. Give to us the spirit of good will so that, when the day of conflict ends, the barriers of race may be broken and we may enter into the enjoyment of a nobler service for God and for all mankind. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR THOSE IN THE ARMED FORCES

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in Thee; Bless, we pray Thee, our soldiers, sailors and men; our chaplains, doctors, and nurses; and all enlisted in the service of our country, particularly those who have gone forth from this parish. Give Thy holy angels charge over them to protect them from all harm; deliver them in all temptation, and if it be Thy gracious will, bring them safe home; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IN TIME OF NATIONAL ANXIETY

Grant calmness and control of thought to those who are facing uncertainty and anxiety: let their hearts stand fast, believing in the Lord.

Be Thou all things to all men, knowing each one and his petition, each house and its need; for the sake of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Standing Notices

VISITATION OF THE SICK

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

MARRIAGES

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services, and that the persons to be married shall be instructed concerning the nature and responsibility of Holy Matrimony.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD

Always confer with the minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

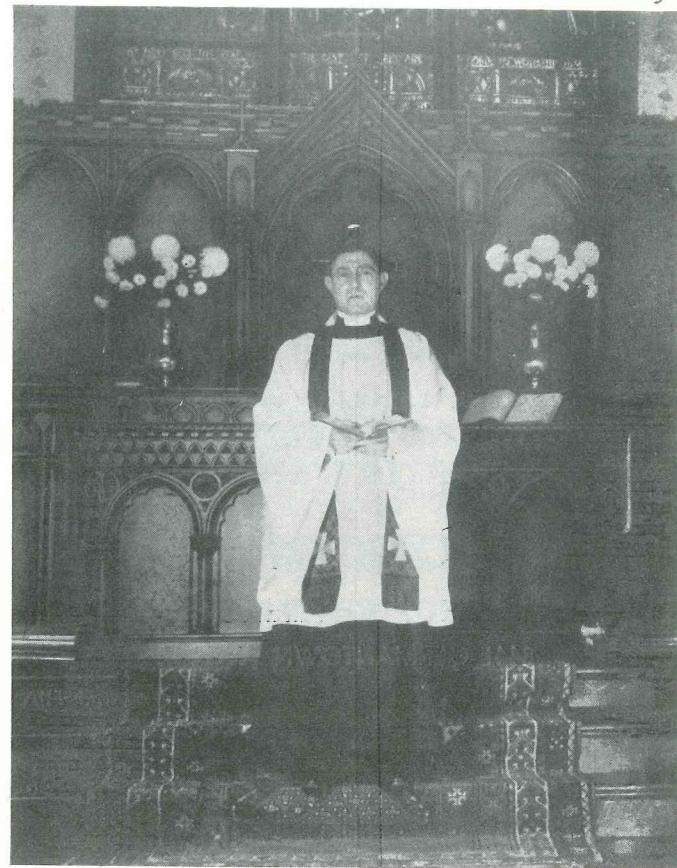

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from this parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

A PRAYER AT NOONTIME OR THE ANGELUS HOUR

Give peace for all time, O Lord, and fill my heart and the hearts of all men everywhere with the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, January 1, 1925 —

Report of the Rector to Parish Meeting

On January 1st, I completed twenty years as rector of this parish, having come here at the beginning of 1925. Of the present 350 communicants only 50 of them were here in 1925. Less than forty families are connected with the church who were here in 1925. All the rest have either died or moved away. In other words in twenty years a parish almost completely changes. During those twenty years, 216 persons have been baptized, 265 have been confirmed, I have married 85 couples, I have buried 200, and there have been added by transfer to the parish 272 communicants. In 1925 there were only 160 Communicants in the parish.

The offerings during the past twenty years have amounted to about a quarter million dollars. Over $20,000 has been paid off on mortgages, though there has never been any campaign to liquidate the mortgage. I was hoping that some effort might be made in connection with this twenty year period to wipe out the Church mortgage of $8200 and the Rectory Mortgage of $3600. We have received $200 in war bonds to apply on the mortgage. Perhaps we can plan to reduce these mortgages as a thankoffering at the close of the war.

During these twenty years, I have never missed attendance at the services, except during vacation. Because I have been blessed with good health, I have been able to fulfil the duties to which I have been called. I am grateful to all those who have cooperated and assisted in the work of the parish. Without these willing helpers we would not have been able to maintain the work at the level we have.

I wish that we might develop a more friendly spirit in the parish, especially towards those who come as strangers into our midst. They may learn afterwards that we are not unfriendly, if they stay long enough. It has been suggested that we do not speak to the people we know in church, but to those we do not know. We have received considerable criticism because we do not incorporate new people into the work of the parish.

It is for this reason that we are making some changes in the charter of our parish to increase the number of Vestrymen and to put into operation a system of rotation of vestrymen, so that more men of the parish may take part in its administration and activity. I wish also that I might stress the idea that we should be more concerned about what we can do for our parish and church. Too many people are always thinking of what the church is or is not doing for them. The Church is all the people, and we are all supposed to minister, and not just be ministered to.

I am sure that our prayers and thoughts are with those in our parish who have lost dear ones in the war. We feel also for those who are passing through days of anxiety and waiting. May God be a strong tower of strength and hope, that we may continue on our way and give thanks for his sustaining providence.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild of the Church of the Epiphany has met during the year of 1944 at stated meetings on the second Tuesday of the month. The members number thirty with an average attendance of eighteen. We regret the death of two of our faithful members, Mrs. Ida Flood and Mrs. Marian Feavor.

Mrs. Feidt was again elected to serve as President, Mrs. Ogle, Treasurer, and Mrs. John B. Jones, Secretary.

During the year our faithful members continued in the work for our Parish and Diocese.

The Lenten Study Classes were conducted by four of our Guild members, Mrs. Twelves, Miss Wolff, Miss Tullen and Mrs. John B. Jones. These members attended the sessions for leaders at the Church House, and later divided the topic "For All of Life" each one taking charge of the Lenten Study Classes.

Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson had charge of the Lenten Sewing and completed our quota.

A luncheon was held in April, receipts were given to our Church Easter Offering.

Mrs. Whitehurst gave a Tea on November 9th for all the Women of the Parish to create new interest in our Guild.

Our Annual Supper and Fair in December was very successful and the receipts were donated to the interest and principal of the Church Mortgage Fund.

From the Birthday Fund was purchased additional hymnals and twelve dozen spoons for kitchen. At Thanksgiving, fruit and food brought to the Church were sent to the House of Rest.

The regular assessments and contributions were paid to the Supply Bureau, Educational Week for the Blind, and the Convocation. We are regularly represented at the monthly meeting of the Foreign, Domestic, Negro Work, Indian Hope and Diocesan Committees, our delegates bring their reports and contribute much by arousing our interest in Mission work both at home and abroad.

We also contributed Christmas gifts to the Philadelphia General Hospital and maintain a scholarship to the Church School by mail.

The United Thank Offering is collected twice yearly by Mrs. Seeley and this year she reports an increase, May 1944 $138.91, November 1944 $141.36. Total $280.27.

We wish to thank all those who helped to make our year a success and offer an appeal for more women of our Church to join us in our meetings.

Respectfully submitted,
S. ELLEN JONES, Secretary.

ALTAR GUILD

To "Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness" is the ideal of Epiphany Altar Guild, and to that end the Guild's devoted members aspire. This means the proper arrangement of altar hangings, the clean linens, the polished brasses, and all the other things that make a beautiful Sanctuary for all the Parish.

We are happy to welcome two new members since our last report to the Parish; Mrs. F. H. Ogle and Mrs. John B. Jones, bringing our number to nineteen members, with Miss Edna Davis as Directress and Miss Ruth Wolff as Treasurer. How gladly will we welcome others for their support and encouragement. Are there not other women in the Parish to come forward for this Holy Christian service.

The beautiful flower calendar in the vestibule was made and colored by Mrs. Howard W. Middleton. Miss Ruth Wolff, as custodian of the calendar, reports seven vacant Sundays to be supplied with flowers during 1945. The dates are as follows: May the Twentieth, July the fifteenth, August twelfth and twenty-sixth, September second and sixteenth, and December the twenty-third. Will anyone wishing to make a memorial or thank offering, please communicate with Miss Wolff, who will arrange a date.

As the rules of the Altar Guild forbid raising money by entertainments, we are entirely dependent upon our yearly dues, the envelopes at Easter and Christmas and the Special Appeal. The Guild asks each member of the Parish, therefore, to be as generous as possible when he makes his contribution to the Special Appeal, sent out in March.

With deep regret we report the death of Mrs. Edward J. Flood, an active and valued member of the guild for many years.

We wish to thank Mr. Alan Dewees for again taking the gifts to the House of Rest, and who this year had the able assistance of Mrs. William Moore and Mr. Paul Twelves.

During the past year, the Guild has provided a new purple Burse and Veil, which has been very much admired.

Several years ago, a fund was started for new hangings by Miss Anna M. Boenning, and at the April meeting, it was voted to renew and continue this fund.

In the Altar Guild prayer, we pray that, by our faithful service, we may bring both honor and glory to God. In the new year before us, will the whole Parish join us in this prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHEA THULLEN, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

It being the duty of the Vestment Chapter to care for the choir vestments, the thirteen members meet on the third Wednesdays of the month to arrange for the laundering of cottas and collars and to see that the cassocks and hats are in order.

At an all day meeting in February, four vestments were relined and mended. Valentine gifts were donated in order that we could pay for the processional American flag. In January this flag was purchased and presented to the church and it was dedicated by Mr. Twelves on Family Sunday in February.

At Easter and Christmas donations of $5 each were made for the altar decorations and $5 also given for the Easter offering.

In December the Vestment Chapter took charge of the Food Table at the Annual Fair.

Again we wish to thank our member Mrs. C. H. Kent for her thoughtful, kind, and untiring work as Choir Mother.

Respectfully submitted,
THERESA STILES STEWART, Secretary.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Our meeting opened September 21st with the election of officers. We then outlined our program for the year.

It was then decided to have a series of talks to be given by Mr. Twelves on religion starting with discussions on the Bible.

Two of our meetings were devoted to the wrapping of packages for our service men.

It was also decided to make bandages for the St. Agnes Hospital in Raleigh, N. C., to which we sent a donation.

At our December meeting we collected gifts for the patients of Byberry Hospital and Philadelphia General Hospital.

We had charge of the toy table at the bazaar and took in $60.

In the past year we have made 28 garments for the Sheltering Arms.

ANNUAL REPORT OF GIRL SCOUT TROOP 306

The Troop had a total registration of 28 girls during the year.

Among the badges awarded were: five first class, six second class and a number of individual badges in Home-making, Arts and Crafts, Outdoor Sports, etc.

The Troop subscribed to the following organizations: Red Cross, United Charities, and the Juliette Tow Fund of Girl Scouts. Included in the year's activities were: making stuffed toys and bedroom slippers for Red Cross, making scrapbooks for Veterans Hospitals, and filling approximately 8000 envelopes for United Charities.

The Troop held a candy sale and raised a fund to pay for painting the Scout Room. This work has been delayed due to lack of adult supervision.

The Troop wishes to express its thanks to Mrs. George Heap for her assistance with the Christmas Party and to Bertha Wheat for directing activities during the Leader's illness.

MRS. JAMES MILLAR BOYD, Leader.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH

You have placed your advertisement before a group of people who are naturally conscientious, who live right, buy right and pay right. That group composing the best American citizens; the church-attending, church-going Christian people of America.

The Family List OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

From the Prayer Book

I. Duty of Member.

"My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his church and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom." (P. 291.)

II. Holy Communion.

"It is your duty to receive the Communion in remembrance of the sacrifice of Christ's death, as He, himself, hath commanded. (P. 89.)

"So that ye may come holy and clean to such a heavenly Feast, the way and means thereto is: First, to examine your lives. . . . to bewail your own sinfulness, and to confess yourselves to Almighty God, with full purpose of amendment of life." (P. 87.)

"If there be any of you who cannot quiet his conscience let him come to me or some other Minister, and open his grief." (P. 88.)

III. Parents and Sponsors.

"The Minister of every parish shall often admonish the people, that they defer not the Baptism of their children." (P. 273.)

"And all Fathers, Mothers, Guardians, and Sponsors shall bring those for whose religious nurture they are responsible, to the church at the time appointed, to receive instruction by the Minister.

"So soon as children are come to a competent age, and can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and are sufficiently instructed in the matter contained in these Offices, they shall be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him." (P. 295.)

IV. In Sickness.

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." (P. 308.)

V. Making of Wills.

"The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in health, to make wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods and, when of ability, to leave bequests for religious and charitable uses." (P. 320.)

A Churchman

The directory defines the word as "one who belongs to an established Church; in the United States as a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church." It is in that distinctive sense that we generally use it. However, there is a sense in which the word applies, not within that definition, but important and interesting.

A Churchman is the person who has profound and definite conception of the Church, which influences his thought and action.

The historicity of the Church is not just a fact from a book, it is a real reason for respecting the Church's traditions and for keeping her calendar.

The divine origin of the Church is not just a dogma, but a reason for the continual use of her sacramental system.

If the Holy Spirit abides in His Church, that is a reason for sacrifice and service.

If the Church is Holy, Catholic and Apostolic; then it requires more than a perfunctory allegiance.

A Churchman is one whose conduct within the organization (or the building) is marked by what he believes about the Church.

His manners are different, as well they might be. They are marked by a deference, respect for the Altar or the Building which houses it; that is the place of a sacrifice instituted by Christ. If the Church was an eighteenth century organization what matter, so that he remember to observe the manners of human relationship?

Loyalty, co-operation and service which one would render to a Society for social progress is one thing, but different in quality from that which an institution, divine in origin and continuous in existence from Apostolic times, would demand.

A Churchman is more than a member of the Church, he is one who believes in the Church, and that belief evidences itself in his manners.

A High Churchman is one who holds the highest conception of the Church and behaves accordingly. The definition has nothing to do with ritual or form. Many who make much show of ritual evidence in other ways a poor conception of the church. I watched a lady enter the Church, genuflect devoutly and then proceed to a laughing conversation. I watched several persons, with outward form of reverence, leave the Church immediately after receiving the Holy Communion and without waiting for the Blessing.

A Churchman has a very high conception of the Church, and that colors his actions. He is to the manner born as it were; and the real thing cannot be simulated.

Prayer Hymn

For the Protection of Our Armed Forces

Eternal Father! strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep:

O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea!

O God of love and joy and peace
Whose power can e'en make wars to cease,
Protect, we pray, our hero band
Of brave men fighting on the land,
We pray O Lord in duty bound
For those in peril on the ground!

Lord, guard and guide the men who fly
Thru boundless spaces of the sky,
Be with them on their lonely flight
In morning's ray or darkening night,
O hear us when we lift our prayer,
For those in peril in the air!

O Trinity of love and power!
Our brethren shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect them wheresoe'er they go;
Thus evermore shall rise to thee
Glad hymns from land and air and sea
Amen.

The first and last verses are from Hymn 415 written by William Whiting; the second by Eleanor L. Gibson of St. Peter's Church, Germantown, and the third was written by The Rev. G. Irvine Hiller, Rector of Trinity Church, Miami, Florida.

Foreword About this Year Book

For over twenty years we have been publishing consecutively this Annual Year Book, which is becoming quite a record especially in these years of scarcity of paper, etc. It is hoped that our people duly appreciate all that is involved and will not only read the book, but preserve it for reference.

Were it not for the kindness of the advertisers it would not be possible for us to produce such a fine book. I therefore urge you to patronize these business people who have so cordially cooperated with us, and to tell them where you saw their advertisement.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

Standing Notices

VISITATION OF THE SICK

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

MARRIAGES

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services, and that the persons to be married shall be instructed concerning the nature and responsibility of Holy Matrimony.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD

Always confer with the minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from the parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

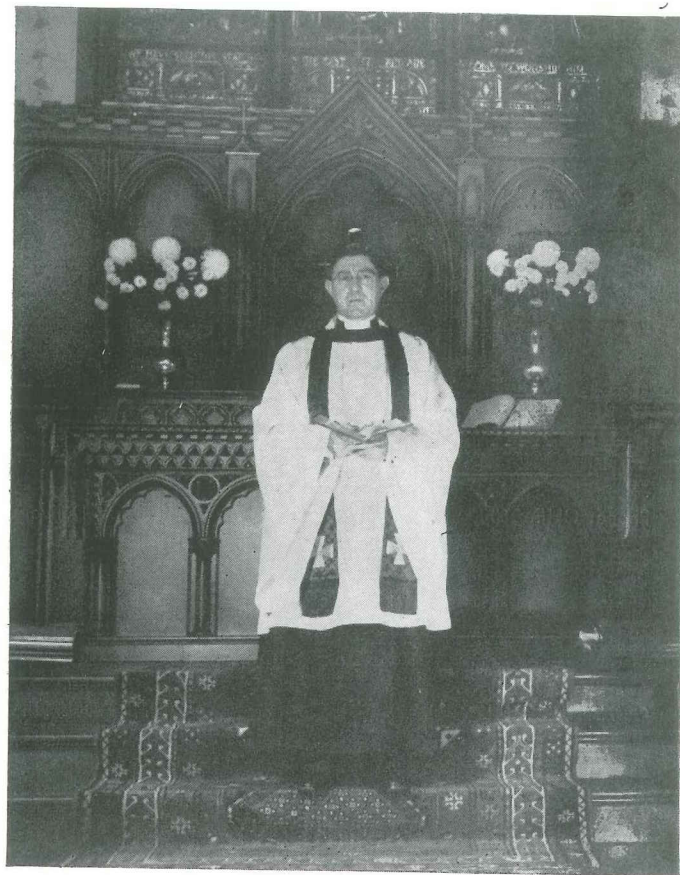

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for Religious and charitable uses."

Report of the Rector to Parish Meeting

Elsewhere in the Year Book you will find a report of my official duties. For the first time in many years, we ended the year with a substantial balance on hand. This was not due to an increase in regular offerings, but rather to a decrease in some of our expenses. This may not hold true in another year. It is encouraging to note also that we have paid off $1000 during the year on the church mortgage and $350 on the rectory mortgage.

On the spiritual side, I am happy to report that the attendance at services has slightly improved, compared to larger churches, we seem to have a greater percentage of our membership attending. It is not by any means a matter to boast about. I am deeply concerned as is every minister over the decrease in Sunday School pupils. Some of this is due no doubt to the drop in the number of births in recent years, but we all know that there are many children here and elsewhere who are not receiving any religious instruction. Our people should feel a responsibility for directing such young people to the church.

During the war years and previously in the days of the depression, the physical property of the church has not been kept up. The property has not been painted for over ten years, and there are many other parts of the buildings that need repairs. We are appointing what we choose to call a Fabric Committee to present to our congregation a list of improvements that should be made when the money is available, as well as the materials and workmen. I am sure that you will want to keep the property of the church in the best possible condition.

The people of the parish will be happy to know that more than half of the service men and women have now returned. We welcome them back among us and hope that they will feel some responsibility in the Church's work. The parish get-togethers to welcome these men and women have been very successful, and we look forward to more of them as the men come back.

Every church feels the need of more lay help in its activities. Every member of the church should be interested in doing some job, whether it is teaching in Sunday School, or working in some organization of the parish. A very fine job has been done by the recently formed Men's Fellowship Group, who have been acting as ushers at the morning services, as well as trying to stimulate interest generally. We notice a more friendly spirit among our people since the formation of this group.

The Reconstruction and Advance Fund for the rebuilding of churches destroyed during the war in China and the Philippines, and for other advance work has been progressing in our parish. Our offering toward the five million dollar fund being raised by the Episcopal Church is now about $1600. If you have not already contributed please send your offering in at once. Every Episcopalian should have some part in this endeavor. The offering will be presented at General Convention when it meets here in Philadelphia next fall.

In order to widen the scope of interest in the welfare of the parish, during the past year we have changed the charter of the parish so that the number of Vestrymen is increased from nine men to fifteen, if we decide we want that many. Already several new members have been added to this official body of the parish.

In a world that is torn by tensions and discords and lives in fear of future war potentials, the Church is more vitally needed than ever before. Some of the scientists who helped to make the atomic bomb are saying: "only religion can save us now." Let us therefore be more loyal to our religious obligation and ideals. Let our religion be more vocal that men may know what God expects of us.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild of the Church of the Epiphany met during the year of 1945 on the second Tuesday of the month. We have thirty members with an average attendance of 18. We lost Mrs. Willard by death this year.

The members worked for the Parish and the Diocese. Mrs. Twelves, Educational Secretary, secured speakers for our Lenten Meetings.

A luncheon followed by a book review by Mrs. Whitehurst was given in January.

Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson were in charge of the Lenten Sewing.

A cake sale was held on March 20th., an Oyster Supper in April, a luncheon in October and the dinner and Fair in November. In May Miss Thullen very graciously gave a musicale and tea, at which a silver offering was given.

The receipts from the Dinner and Fair were given to the Accounting Warden to be applied toward the Mortgage and interest.

In April a dinner was given at St. Stephen's Service Club for service men and women.

The Supply Bureau, Church Farm School, Educational Week for the blind and the Convocation received contributions. We were represented each month at the meeting of the Domestic, Foreign, Negro, Diocesan and Indian's Hope Committees. We also pay for a Church School by Mail scholarship.

Mrs. Hobson collected $61.00 for the Birthday Fund and in December there was a balance of $116.89. A committee collected $124.00 for the House of Rest.

The patients of the Philadelphia General Hospital received Christmas Gifts donated by the members.

Mrs. Seeley collects the Women's United Thank Offering in May and November. In May she received $124.88 and in November $122.71. The Diocesan offering was $16,940.04, largest ever received.

We wish to thank all who helped us make our year a successful one and appeal for more women to join us.

Respectfully submitted

Florence W. Wilkins, Secretary.

THE ALTAR GUILD

As Epiphany Altar Guild makes its annual report to the Parish, and as the Parish has a most important part in its work, may we emphasize this year just what the Altar Guild is, just what it does do, to aid in this sacred service of our Lord.

The Altar Guild, with Miss Edna C. Davis as Directress, has the supervision of the Chancel and Sanctuary, seeing that all articles of furniture are properly placed, and everything clean; the brasses polished and the colored hangings changed according to the Seasons.

The Guild arranges the flowers, Miss Ruth Wolff having charge of the Flower Calendar, so artistically designed by Mrs. H. W. Middleton.

The Guild provides all linens and hangings, keeping them in order and replacing when worn. All must be properly laundered and in readiness for the service of the Church.

The Guild provides and cares for the vestments of the Rector.

All these duties the Guild reports to the Parish as having been faithfully done, at the same time not becoming so familiar with their duties that they forget the reverent and holy part of their work.

It does not seem fitting to raise money by sales and entertainments, so at designated times during the year the Parish has the privilege of helping. Is it asking too much that every member help in this sacred work, giving as generously as possible?

Anyone wishing to make a memorial or thank offering of flowers, please communicate with Miss Wolff, who finds the following Sundays are unprovided for — March 3rd, June 9th, August 11th, August 25th, and October 20th.

We again have our good friend Mr. Alan Dewees to thank for taking the Thanksgiving gifts to The House of Rest. He was ably assisted by Mr. David Seeley.

As the Altar Guild looks forward to the new year, we hope that every member will appreciate more fully the importance of this quiet, though most necessary, work of the Church and we would like very much to have more help for this sacred duty which is a privilege to perform.

Respectfully submitted,

Dorothea Thullen, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The meetings of the Vestment Chapter are held the third Wednesday of the month. The object of the Vestment Chapter is to keep all choir vestments clean, in good repair and to make replacements when necessary.

This Vestment Chapter consists of thirteen members including Mrs. L. McGill the president. Mrs. R. D. Downs, our former treasurer, found it necessary to resign in December. We regret that her work caused this change. Mrs. David Maxwell was unanimously elected to be our new treasurer. Mrs. Shelton, our new member, keeps our membership at 13.

Twenty-five cents a month membership dues not being sufficient to meet our expenses, we raised a small sum by selling "Bluit", a soap product. Small socks are being made with accompanying explanatory verse, and are being distributed to friends to augment our funds (one cent for January, two for February etc.) At the Annual Parish Fair in November the Vestment Chapter again took charge of the Food Table and made $50. Donations were made to the Altar Guild to help decorate the church for Christmas. Last fall new collars were purchased for the women's cassocks. In May Mrs. Rebmann entertained the chapter at lunch in her home following the meeting. Mrs. C. H. Kent still carries on as efficient and untiring choir mother for which the Vestment Chapter takes this opportunity to express its gratitude.

Respectfully submitted,

THERESA STILES STEWART, Secretary.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The year 1945 has been one of growth for the Junior Woman's Auxiliary. We have added six new members to our group, and our total active membership is 21.

At our monthly meetings we folded 500 bandages for the St. Agnes Hospital, Raleigh, N. C.

Sixteen dresses and four sacques were made and donated to the Sheltering Arms.

Twenty-two soldiers and sailors of the parish were sent 2 books apiece for Christmas.

In conjunction with the Woman's Guild, we gave a Demonstration Luncheon which was well attended by our members.

Our Contribution to the United Thank Offering was $16.00 in the Spring and $21.00 in the Fall.

At the Annual Fair our table of toys made $45.00.

On the conclusion of our business meetings, we were given most interesting talks on the Bible by the Rector up until June. We now conclude with a discussion group, our topic being "Russia — and our Relation to her."

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 306

The troupe has been reorganized and is in charge of Miss Bertha Wheat and Miss Natalie Dixon. They meet every Friday evening in the basement of the church. There are about twenty members at present, mostly girls of an early age group.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP GROUP

This group was formed only this past fall, and they have very little to report as an organization. They have however been very active every Sunday, as any person who attends Church can testify. They are more than an Usher's Association. Their purpose is to make people feel at home who come to Church, especially strangers. They have been visiting members of the congregation who are new or who have not been particularly active in the Church. There are about fifteen or twenty men who are active. You may expect to hear more from this new organization in the parish.

The Family List OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

From the Prayer Book

I. Duty of Member.

"My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his church and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom." (P. 291.)

II. Holy Communion.

"It is your duty to receive the Communion in remembrance of the sacrifice of Christ's death, as He, himself, hath commanded. (P. 89.)

"So that ye may come holy and clean to such a heavenly Feast, the way and means thereto is: First, to examine your lives. . . . to bewail your own sinfulness, and to confess yourselves to Almighty God, with full purpose of amendment of life." (P. 87.)

"If there be any of you who cannot quiet his conscience let him come to me or some other Minister, and open his grief." (P. 88.)

III. Parents and Sponsors.

"The Minister of every parish shall often admonish the people, that they defer not the Baptism of their children." (P. 273.)

"And all Fathers, Mothers, Guardians, and Sponsors shall bring those for whose religious nurture they are responsible, to the church at the time appointed, to receive instruction by the Minister.

"So soon as children are come to a competent age, and can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and are sufficiently instructed in the matter contained in these Offices, they shall be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him." (P. 295.)

IV. In Sickness.

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." (P. 308.)

V. Making of Wills.

"The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in health, to make wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods and, when of ability, to leave bequests for religious and charitable uses." (P. 320.)

Tithing

Ten Good Reasons For Practicing It.

1. It is scriptural—approved of God in the Old Testament and supported by the Saviour's words in the New Testament.
2. It is spiritual, for personal faith is called into play.
3. It is businesslike, for there is definiteness, progressiveness and system in it.
4. It causes the giver to take the initiative in Christian giving rather than holding back one's response until the money appeal is made.
5. It safeguards the spirituality of the church by eliminating drives for money.
6. It establishes the individual as a financial steward, accountable to God.
7. It makes giving a principle and no longer a spasmodic expression.
8. It makes us twofold before God—our hand held out to give as well as to receive.
9. It prevents the church from falling into the hands of the few—those who put up the money.
10. It leads, with a magnetic leadership, beyond the mark of money-giving into the realm of worship and Christian service, for it has been found that most tithers are among the largest proportion of regular worshippers and earnest workers. —Selected.

Foreword About this Year Book

Once again we are privileged to publish this Annual Year Book through the generosity of the advertisers. I trust that you will patronize them whenever possible, and that you will inform them that you saw their advertisement in the Year Book.

This is the Twenty-third Edition of the Year Book. The file copies form a complete history of the parish over these many years. We hope that you will carefully read the many reports which represent the activity of our parish life. During the course of the year you will have occasion to refer to this book, and it is suggested that you preserve it for reference.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

Standing Notices

VISITATION OF THE SICK

The Rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the Parish." The Rector is always glad to minister to the sick. The minister has no way of finding out just when people are sick. It is not too much to ask people to advise him, just as they do the doctor.

MARRIAGES

The new canon on Holy Matrimony requires that the minister must be notified at least three days before the services, and that the persons to be married shall be instructed concerning the nature and responsibility of Holy Matrimony.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD

Always confer with the minister before fixing the date or hour of funerals. Failure to do this may result in a confusion of appointments, making it hard to arrange the time.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church coming from another parish are required to bring from their former parish a Letter of Transfer. By the same token, when they remove from the parish and are definitely settled in another parish, they should ask the rector for a Letter of Transfer. This is the only way that proper records of the church can be kept, and communicants retain an active membership in the church.

WILLS AND REQUESTS

Another Rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Requests for Religious and charitable uses."

Report of the Rector to Parish Meeting

The report of my official acts and duties during the year are printed elsewhere in this book in the form of statistics.

The financial condition of the parish is very good as you will note from the Accounting Warden's report. We paid all of our current obligations with a substantial balance over, as well as reducing both the mortgages on the church and the rectory. Towards the end of the year we were considerably behind because of the arrearages of quite a number of persons in their envelope pledges. Some of these were paid and because many of our people who had already contributed made a substantial Christmas Offering we were able to meet our expenses. There is still remaining unpaid at this writing in unpaid pledges the sum of $1000, which we hope will be paid soon.

During the year we raised about $1750 for the Reconstruction and Advance work of the National Church. We made repairs to the parish property and a considerable amount of painting for which we raised the sum of $1900. There is still some painting to be done to the outside of the church and parish house as well as the interior of the parish house. This will cost about $800 and we hope that some way may be found during the year to do this.

We have received four brass alms basons in memory of Irving W. Wilder, given by his daughter and friends and a brass Baptismal Ewer presented by Mr. Ewing as a thanksgiving. The Altar Guild very kindly relacquered the altar and processional crosses. A new carpet was laid on the side aisles of the church and the money for this was contributed by the Woman's Guild through the Birthday Fund, and by the Church School and Evening Auxiliary. We have been promised a Rood Screen by one of the members of the congregation and expect to begin work on this soon so that it may be completed by Easter. The parish was happy to receive a gift of 25 shares in the Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Co., the present market value of which is now $950. This gift in memory of George D. Feidt for many years an interested member of the parish, was presented by his widow, Mrs. Josephine Thorpe Feidt.

Two new organizations were started during the year. A group of young people of the parish have organized and are meeting on Sunday evenings. A branch of the Girl's Friendly Society was started for some of the younger girls.

The choir has shown a considerable renewal of interest through the coming of our new organist and choir-master. Mr. William C. Dickey a young man recently returned from service overseas is a very accomplished musician. He comes very highly recommended and has already enlivened the tone of the services of the church. An opportunity for the people of the parish to meet Mr. Dickey is planned through a recital to be given in February and a social hour afterwards.

The attendance at the services of the church has been very good. During Lent we kept a record each Sunday and found that a third to a half of our communicants came every week, reaching a high mark of about 80 per cent during Holy Week and Easter.

The only low mark in our parish at the present time is in the Church School. We seem to have a lessening number of pupils, and we are trying to discover what means can be found to increase the enrollment. People of the parish can advise us of any children in their particular neighborhoods who do not go to any Church School.

A change is gradually taking place in our community so far as the racial conditions are concerned. This means that we must try to reach every Episcopalian family that lives within the bounds of our parish and unite them with our church. We ask your help in this respect.

We have many reasons to be happy for the closing of a successful year and look forward to better results in the year ahead.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

On the second Tuesday of the month, during the year of 1946 the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Epiphany met. We have thirty-six members with an average attendance of fourteen.

The members work for the Parish and Diocese. Mrs. Twelves, Educational Secretary, secured speakers for our Lenten Meetings. Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Hobson were in charge of the Lenten Sewing.

Representatives are present at the Monthly Meetings of the Domestic Diocesan, Foreign, Negro and Indian's Hope Committees.

Mrs. Walter Willard's name was placed in the Memory Book in the Church House.

We helped defray the mailing costs of clothing and food sent to New Windsor, Md., for the United Aid of the Church.

Mrs. Walter B. Seeley collected $116.77 in May and $133.90 in November for the United Thank Offering. The Diocesan Offering was $106,729.96; the Triennial $1,631,576.20.

Money from the Birthday Fund helped pay for the new carpet in the Church. Mrs. William H. Hobson, the originator of the Birthday Fund in 1937, and who so graciously collected for it during those years, resigned because of illness in the family. Mrs. Thomas Scott succeeded her.

A game party at the home of Mrs. Day enabled us to pay for a dinner for Service Men and Women at St. Stephen's Service Club.

A Luncheon on January 24th, a Bake Sale on April 16th and a Luncheon followed by an illustrated talk on the Washington Cathedral by Mrs. Whitehurst were given. An Oyster Supper was also given.

The proceeds from our Church Fair and Dinner were given to the Accounting Warden to be applied toward the mortgage and interest.

The Corresponding Secretary, Miss Ruth M. Wolff, sends out the notices of meetings and suppers.

We wish to thank all who helped make our year a successful one and appeal for more women to join us.

Respectfully submitted,

Florence M. Wilkins, Secretary.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Epiphany Altar Guild ever mindful of the importance of its quiet though most necessary work of the Church, wishes to make its report to the Parish of the year 1946 just ended.

A new surplice for the Rctor has been furnished, also a new yoke has been set in one. A stole has been beautifully rebound by Mrs. Ogle and a new linen cover for the Communion service has been given by Miss Ruth Wolff.

As a contribution towards the redecorating of the Church the Guild had the Altar and Processional Crosses relacquered.

The Easter and Christmas decorations have been done by the Guild as usual.

The Guild has carried out the proper arrangements of all hangings according to the Church's season, the clean linens upon the Altar, the polished brasses, and all the other things that make the Altar acceptable to Our Lord.

The Guild arranges the flowers. Miss Wolff having charge of the calendar so artistically designed by Mrs. H. M. Middleton. Miss Wolff finds the following Sundays unprovided with flowers during 1947: March 2, June 8, August 10, 24, 31, October 19, November 9. Anyone wishing to make a Thanksgiving or Memorial please communicate with Miss Wolff who will arrange the date.

As it is not fitting to raise money by sales and entertainment the Parish family has the privilege of helping the Guild when special appeals are made at designated times. We ask all to be as generous as possible at these times.

Our Directress, Miss Edna C. Davis, was unanimously elected by the Guild to represent them on the Committee for repairing and redecorating the Church.

We are grateful to Mr. J. Mack Nevergole for taking the Thanksgiving gifts to the House of Rest.

We are happy to report two new members, Mrs. Agnes S. Kelly and Mrs. Thomas Scott.

The Guild is looking forward to the new year, will welcome any new members and hopes for the interest and support of all the Parish.

Respectfully submitted,
DOROTHEA THULLEN, Secretary.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The Vestment Chapter has charge of the choir vestments, to keep them clean and in good repair. Because of the high cost of labor, our expenses are much greater and several methods of raising money have been employed such as selling household articles, perfumed petals and putting pennies in socks for the months of the year.

At the November Fair we were in charge of the Food Table and raised $67.78. During the year the Vestment Chapter gave five dollars toward decorating the church at Easter and again at Christmas. We have twelve members. We will be glad to welcome anyone who is interested in our work.

Respectfully submitted,

EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

During the year 1946 the Evening Woman's Auxiliary has met on the third Wednesday of the month. We have 22 members.

The name of the organization was changed this year from Junior Woman's Auxiliary to Evening Woman's Auxiliary. The officers for the 1946-47 season are: Mrs. Charles R. Milier, President; Mrs. Harry G. Kuch, Vice-President, and Mrs. Milton Horton, Treasurer; Mrs. J. Mack Nevergole, Secretary.

Under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Cubberley 84 cartons of clothing, food and medical supplies were packed and sent to the United Church Service Center, New Windsor, Maryland, for shipment overseas. These articles were donated by the members of the congregation.

Members of this group have been making dresses and knitted garments for the Sheltering Arms. From May until the present time 10 pieces of clothing have been turned in. In the spring a visitation was made to this institution by the members of our group.

At the Annual Fair the Evening Woman's Auxiliary took charge of the toy table and made $53.37.

Our Spring Ingathering for the United Thank Offering was $23.83 and the Fall Ingathering was $30.88.

A contribution of $20 was made to the Church Repair Fund this Fall.

During the year our group was represented by one or more members at the following meetings: Inter Community Mothers Council, Diocesan Auxiliary Meetings, Convocation of Germantown, and the meetings of the Woman's Guild of our own Parish.

The topics for our study program this year were varied including: "Russia and Our Relation to Her", "World Order" and "Alaska".

Upon two occasions we were entertained very graciously at the homes of Mrs. Day Edgar and Mrs. Charles R. Miller.

We know that there are women in our Parish who would find our meetings helpful and interesting and we hope that through them we may increase our size and effectiveness.

Respectfully submitted,
RUTH T. NEVERGOLE, Secretary.

THE MEN'S FELLOWSHIP GROUP

The purpose of this group is to create a spirit of fellowship in the parish. It is composed of a group of about fifteen men who meet monthly and plan ways by which they can make the people of the parish feel at home and get better acquainted. Several members are present at each service of the church and give a welcome to people entering the church, as well as take up the offering.

During the course of the year they have planned several social events or get-togethers. One of these was a welcome home night for returned service men, and on several other occasions the men of the parish were entertained. They have assisted in setting up tables for the Fair and helped to decorate the Church for Christmas. It is hoped that many more men of the parish will join with this active group of men who want to make our parish a happy friendly place.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 306

The troop is in charge of Miss Bertha Wheat as Scout Leader assisted by Miss Elizabeth McCleary. They meet on Friday evening in the basement of the church. There are 19 members ranging in age from 10 to 12 years. During the year the girls have worked on their badges, and contributed $30 towards the painting of the Scout Room, and have purchased material for the windows of the room. The Scout Committee is composed of Mrs. Wheat, Mrs. Pierie and Mrs. Citron.

THE GIRL'S FRIENDLY SOCIETY

A Candidates Branch of the Girl's Friendly Society has been formed in our parish with Mrs. Jane Valz acting as branch leader, assisted by Mrs. Ruth Nevergole. The group meets on Friday afternoon and girls between the ages of eight and fourteen are invited to come. At present there are about fifteen members, and thus far they have been doing hand-craft work.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

A group of young people are meeting on Sunday evenings at 7:30 for devotions, study and recreation. At present they are meeting every other Sunday evening. Paul Twelves is President, Marguerite Russell, Vice-President, Beverly Miller, Secretary, and Scott Stewart is Treasurer. Miss Cubberley is the adult counsellor. Other young people of the parish and community are invited to join.

THE NEW MARRIAGE CANON

On January 1, the new marriage laws of the Episcopal Church went into effect. The minister solemnizing the marriage is required to ascertain if there are any impediments that would make the marriage unlawful in the eyes of the church.

Three days notice is required of any contemplated marriage, though for grave reasons this may be waived.

Provision is made for the judging of a previously dissolved marriage by the Bishop of the Diocese of members of the church in good standing. This is a liberalizing of the former law of the church on the subject of divorce. Considerable freedom of judgement is given the Bishop out of which will eventually grow up a body of legal opinion, looking forward to some new ruling some years ahead.

The status of divorced persons in the church may now be cleared up by presentation of the facts to the Bishop.

Members of the Church are required to seek out the counsel of the minister before taking any legal action to dissolve their marriages.

A form of declaration is required to be subscribed to by those contemplating marriage, indicating that marriage is a life-long union of husband and wife. That it is for mutual fellowship and understanding, and for the procreation of children.

Courses of instruction for marriage are also suggested, and the minister is required to instruct the parties contemplating marriage as to the nature of Holy Matrimony.

The Family List OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

God Hears Prayers

If radio's slim fingers can pluck a melody
 From night—and toss it over a continent or sea;
 If the petalled white notes of a violin
 Are blown across the mountains or the city's din;
 If songs, like crimson roses, are pulled from thin blue air—

Why should mortals wonder if God hears prayer?

—Ethel Romig Fuller.

More things are wrought by prayer
 Than this world dreams of. Wherefore let thy voice
 Rise like a fountain for me night and day.
 For what are men better than sheep or goats,
 That nourish a blind life within the brain,
 If, knowing God, they lift not hands of prayer,
 Both for themselves and those who call them friend.
 For so the whole round earth is every way
 Bound by gold chains about the feet of God.

—Tennyson.

If light were all sunshine, how soon we'd be blinded,
 If life were all joyous, we'd pine for the rain,
 If food were all sweetness, how quickly we'd sicken,
 Life's blessings are shadows and sorrows and pain.
 I walked in the valley where shadows are darkest,
 I struggled, complaining, the deep thicket through,
 With bitter protesting I toiled up the hillside—
 The valley I hated provided the view.

—Ralph Godfrey Saxe.

Foreword About this Year Book

Once again we are privileged to publish this Annual Year Book through the generosity of the advertisers. I trust that you will patronize them whenever possible, and that you will inform them that you saw their advertisement in the Year Book.

This is the Twenty-fourth Edition of the Year Book. The file copies form a complete history of the parish over these many years. We hope that you will carefully read the many reports which represent the activity of our parish life. During the course of the year you will have occasion to refer to this book, and it is suggested that you preserve it for reference.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

ditional teachers, and especially do we need several people to work with nursery age children. Our use of visual education has added interest to our study periods, since we purchased a machine to show slides and film strips.

During the fall a group of our parish workers took part in a friendly visitation throughout the parish. This resulted in a great increase in attendance during the Advent Season, and provided us with a list of new persons living in our community, a number of whom have already become actively interested. This is something that should be continuously carried on, and is part of the Church's plan of Evangelism.

At this present moment we have entered upon an unique plan for our parish. Trained visitors from the outside are making an Every Member Canvass, to awaken the spiritual resources of our parish and to increase our financial returns. We look forward to an aroused parish through this visitation.

I wish to commend the fine work that has been done during the year by our Choir, under the very able leadership of our new organist and choirmaster, Mr. William Dickey. If you have attended services, I am sure you will agree with me.

This year 1948, will mark the Fiftieth Anniversary of the beginning of our parish. The first service was held on October 9, 1898 in the house used as a chapel at 441 Carpenter Lane. Some fitting celebration in recognition of this outstanding milestone in our parish life should be planned for the second Sunday in October of this year.

The increased giving of our people made it possible to pay the largest amount on our missionary apportionment in fifteen years, namely $1,707.84. By a last minute response of our people, we were enabled to close our books with all bills paid, and a balance of $96.55.

During the year many new people have shown an interest in the Church, which is reflected in the increased attendance, and the fine Confirmation Class we are presenting to the Bishop. After many years the Church School is also showing a renewal of interest, so far as numbers is concerned. This may be due to the increase in our child population, but we are inclined to believe that our new plan of having Church School at the same hour as the 11 o'clock service is the real reason for it. Many parents find this a very convenient time and arrangement and are taking advantage of it. We are however pressed for additional teachers, and especially do we need several people to work with nursery age children. Our use of visual education has added interest to our study periods, since we purchased a machine to show slides and film strips.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild met during 1947 on the second Tuesday of each month. Three new members joined this year, Mrs. Agnes Shaw Kelly, Mrs. Linwood W. Hirsch, and Mrs. Katherine Dickey. There are thirty-four members with an average attendance of sixteen.

We work for the parish and the Diocese. Delegates were present at the monthly meetings of the Domestic, Diocesan Overseas, Negro, and Indian Hope Committees, as well as at the Convocation of Germantown. We donated to the United Thankoffering the sum of $242.54 in the two ingatherings. The Sunshine Fund was able to provide flowers, etc. for the sick. The Birthday Fund in charge of Mrs. Scott has been used to replace supplies and furnishing in the church and parish house.

The proceeds of the Game Party at Mrs. Whitehursts in January were given to the Guild. Instead of the regular Lenten Speakers, this year we had a Missionary Day, with luncheon sponsored by the Educational Committee. This was followed by missionary addresses. An Indian Skit was given and a book review by Mrs. Whitehurst followed.

The Guild assisted at the buffet supper following Mr. Dickey's organ recital in February. In March we gave an Oyster Supper, at which cakes and aprons were sold.

A Kitchen Shower for the parish house was held at the home of Mrs. Whitehurst, and money was also given, so that we were able to buy additional kitchen equipment. Members attended a luncheon given at the Evening Bulletin. Gifts were sent to the House of Rest.

A check for $565 was given to the church, for the reduction of the mortgage and the payment of mortgage interest. This was from the proceeds of the Annual Parish Fair and Supper, in which the other parish organizations participated. The women worked during the summer in preparation for the Fair.

The resignation of our president, Mrs. Jones was accepted with regret, and Mrs. Whitehurst, the vice president succeeded her.

We need new members. Our thanks to all who helped to make the past year a successful one.

Respectfully submitted,

FLORENCE M. WILKINS, Secretary.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Epiphany Parish may ask just what is the Altar Guild, just what does it do? There is the arrangement of the Altar hangings, the clean linen upon the Altar, the polished brasses, arrangement of flowers and all the other things that make it possible to "Worship the Lord in the beauty of Holiness."

During the year one of our members, Miss Elizabeth Stork, gave the Rood Screen, adding so much dignity and beauty to the Sanctuary. A beautiful linen cover for the Communion Service has been given by Miss Ruth Wolff, while all the members have served in their respective ways.

Because of the sacredness of this work, we do not raise funds by sales and other methods, so we ask the Parish to help as they can. Once a year, therefore, a general appeal is made, hoping all will take part in this beautiful work of the Church.

Miss Wolff has charge of the flower calendar, so artistically designed by Mrs. H. W. Middleton. The Sundays unprovided with flowers during 1948 are August the first, Twenty-second, and Twenty-ninth, October the Seventeenth and Twenty-fourth. Any one wishing to make a thank offering or a Memorial, should communicate with Miss Wolff, who will arrange a date.

We are grateful to the Messrs. Whitehurst and their assistants for taking the Thanksgiving gifts to the House of Rest.

We welcome, as new members to the Guild, Miss Anna Park, Miss Stork, Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. F. DuMoulin, and any others who wish to take part in this sacred service.

Epiphany Altar Guild, as it looks forward, will appreciate the further interest and support of all the Parish.

Respectfully submitted,
DOROTHEA THULLEN, Secretary.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The Vestment Chapter takes entire charge of the cassocks, cottas, collars and mortar boards for the choir. If dry cleaning, laundering, mending or replacements are required, each is the responsibility of the Vestment Chapter. This work necessitates the raising of funds because the cost of the up-keep of the vestments has greatly increased.

The meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month at 10.30 in the parish house. No meetings are held in the summer months.

At the November fair the Vestment Chapter was in charge of the food table and cleaned $85.00 which was given to the church to reduce the mortgage.

Once again it is a pleasure to extend to Mrs. C. H. Kent, our co-worker and member, our hearty thanks for her devoted attention as choir mother.

New members will be gladly welcomed. Anyone who is interested in the work of the Vestment Chapter should communicate with Mrs. McGill, our president, or any one of our eleven members.

Respectfully submitted,

THERESA STILES STEWART, Secretary.

EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

During the year the Evening Woman's Auxiliary has met on the third Wednesday of each month. There are 29 members.

The officers for the year 1947 were Mrs. Charles R. Miller, president, Mrs. G. Kuch, vice president, Mrs. J. Mack Nevergole, secretary. Mrs. Milton Horton resigned as treasurer this fall and was succeeded by Mrs. Alfred Platt for the remainder of the year.

During the year eight garments have been made by the group and turned over to the Sheltering Arms. Thirty garments were donated to the Needlework Guild and designated for the Sheltering Arms. About thirty duffle bags of clothing were contributed by the members of the parish and sent to the United Church Service Center, New Windsor, Maryland, for overseas relief. These were packed by Miss Cubberley. Members of the group also sent filled handbags, and towels.

One or more members of the Evening Woman's Auxiliary have attended meetings of the following organizations during the year: Inter Community Mother's Council, Convocation of Germantown, and meetings of the Woman's Guild of our own parish.

The yearly donation to the United Thank Offering was $41.63. Mrs. Day Edgar is custodian of the United Thank Offering Funds for the group.

At the Annual Fair the Evening Woman's Auxiliary took charge of the toy table at which $72 was realized.

Two joint meetings with the Woman's Guild were attended by our members. They were a donation night for New Windsor at the homes of Mrs. Seeley and Mrs. Edgar, and a shower for the Church kitchen at the home of Mrs. Whitehurst.

The Evening Auxiliary sponsored a Strawberry Festival with the International Dancers as entertainers. $87.15 was realized, $53.15 of which went towards the painting of the Parish House and $34.00 to the Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

This Fall the group aided in the preparation of a supper for the rectors and vestry of the Convocation of Germantown.

Talks were given by three members of our group at monthly meetings on Race, Work in India, and the Short Story. Our outside speakers were Mr. Louis Washburn, who spoke on the Columbus Conference, Rev. Robert Morris of the Episcopal Hospital, and Sister Ethelwyne from the Saint Margaret's House in Germantown.

During the year the members of the group were entertained at the homes of Mrs. Harry G. Kuch and Mrs. Charles R. Miller.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH T. NEVERGOLE, Secretary.

THE MEN'S FELLOWSHIP GROUP

The active membership of the Men's Fellowship Group during the year 1947 consisted of a group of approximately twelve. During the year this group assisted with the regular services of the church by providing ushers and also assisting with the counting of the offering at the end of the service.

During the year the group co-operated in arranging three parish meetings which were enjoyed by all who attended. First, the reception for our choir master, William Dickey, in February. Second, a men's meeting arranged in May at which the Curtis Publishing Company presented a very interesting program and also at which we received a message from Mr. Scattergood representing the Germantown and Chestnut Hill Committee against conscription. Third, a meeting held in the fall to which all members of the parish were invited to hear a talk on evangelism by the Reverend John Bomberger, and also to see an interesting film in connection with world evangelism.

Another activity in which the group gave its support was the representation of the Epiphany Church with a group of four other Germantown churches which sponsored the Rittenhouse YMCA Colored Day Camp. The five churches cooperating agreed to raise a fund of $400.00 of which we raised $70.00.

The Men's Fellowship Group also cooperated with the Woman's Guild at the time of the church fair by having a gadget table from which $22.00 was raised and turned over to the Woman's Guild. The organization has a balance of $8.61 in the treasury which has been collected from dues.

CYRIL F. REYNOLDS, President.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

There is a membership of about twenty young people who meet every other Sunday evening from 7:30 to 9:30. There is a devotional, a topic for discussion of general interest, refreshments and recreation.

Mr. Matthew Wai, a Chinese Baptist theological student, addressed the group on the World Youth Conference in Oslo, Norway. The Fellowship from St. Luke's Church attended this meeting. The Fellowship assisted with the Christmas Pageant, and took charge of the Cloak Room at the Parish Fair. Among the social activities, a day was spent at Spray Beach, N. J., a sledding party was held and the group went around caroling at Christmas. The fellowship has also visited other fellowships in this area. Young people between the ages of 16 and 25 are invited to join the Fellowship. The amount in the Treasury is $3.50. The senior adviser is Miss Elizabeth Cubberley.

CHARLES J. WALTON, President.

GIRL'S FRIENDLY SOCIETY

A Junior Group of the Girl's Friendly Society meets each Friday afternoon in the Parish House. There are seven members. During the year the group has participated in a number of worthwhile activities. They made baskets and cookies which were taken to the House of Rest. At the Strawberry Festival they presented a puppet play. This Christmas they made and filled Christmas stockings for the shut-ins in our own parish. They have also done other handwork. Each meeting is concluded with a period for devotions. Membership in the Girl's Friendly Society is open to girls between eight and fourteen from our own parish and from the community. The group is under the leadership of Mrs. J. Mack Nevergole, assisted by Mrs. Paul Paradise.

The financial report is as follows:

The Family List OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About this Year Book

Once again we are privileged to publish this Annual Year Book through the generosity of the advertisers. I trust that you will patronize them whenever possible, and that you will inform them that you saw their advertisement in the Year Book.

This is the Twenty-fifth Edition of the Year Book. The file copies form a complete history of the parish over these many years. We hope that you will carefully read the many reports which represent the activity of our parish life. During the course of the year you will have occasion to refer to this book, and it is suggested that you preserve it for reference.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

Report of the Rector to the Parish Meeting

The report of my official acts and duties, which I made to the Parish Meeting, are to be found elsewhere in this Year Book under the form of statistics.

The outstanding event of the year was the celebration in connection with the Fiftieth Anniversary which took place during the week of October 3rd to 10th. It was a very noteworthy occasion and was fittingly carried off. Most of you who read this report are well acquainted with what transpired. For the sake of the record, we enumerate the week's events. On the first Sunday of the observance, we dedicated ten hanging lanterns in the nave of the church in memory of a number of former parishioners. We held a parish reception during the week to which were invited our neighbors, former members and the local clergy. The women held a very successful luncheon and fashion show. This latter depicted the styles in women's dresses over the past fifty years. An Anniversary Banquet was held on Friday evening with the Bishop of the Diocese and clergy who have had some connection with the parish in days gone by, as speakers. A celebration was held for the children on Saturday, and the observance closed with a great Anniversary Service of Thanksgiving on Sunday, October 10.

This significant event should have had a great spiritual influence upon the parish, and though it is not strikingly evident at this time, we feel sure that some lasting good to the parish will come of it.

The finances of the parish have considerably improved during the past year, due no doubt to the very thorough canvass held by outside visitors, which increased our contributions by about $1300 to the parish and enabled us to give a much larger share to missionary purposes. The offering would have been much larger had all those who pledged lived up to the promises they made. As it was, we were not able to close the year with all bills paid, and we are still hoping that those who owe, will meet their obligations.

I am still endeavoring to get the communicant list of the parish up to date. Many people who attend the church services have never been formally transferred here as members. They should write to their former parishes for Letters of Transfer. I am gradually removing the names of those who are no longer active communicants of the parish. Some have moved and some do not come. In cases where I do not know of the present address of individuals I am transferring their names to the Diocesan Register which has been set up for that purpose. I make another plea for everyone who comes to the church to get their membership up to date by becoming a communicant of this parish.

Recently I made an appeal for more active participation of our members in the work of the parish. A great deal of detailed work, such as typing, addressing envelopes, mimeographing, and much manual work falls upon the shoulders of the rector. This is really not his job, and could just as efficiently be done by different members of the parish. From time to time during the course of the year I am going to call on different members of the parish to do some of this labor, and I hope that you will accede to my requests.

At the Parish Meeting the question of a new heating system was brought up and it was agreed that we will have to make some needed repairs during this present year. Also the plumbing needs to be modernized. The Property Committee is asked to look into this matter and carry out these necessary renovations.

The organist and choirmaster called our attention to the state of the organ and expressed the hope that an organ fund be created, looking forward to the installation of a new organ when it is feasible.

The Parish Meeting went on record disapproving the Canons of the Church regarding the remarriage of divorced persons, and petitioned the Bishop of the Diocese to use his influence to bring about a change in the law, and also the one dealing with the disciplining of divorced persons. It was felt that our church should be more Christian and considerate with those who have had unfortunate experiences in marriage.

Looking back over the past year and ahead to this present one, I have the sense, that for a small parish we are extraordinarily active.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild of the Church of the Epiphany met on the second Tuesday of each month during 1948. This year we welcomed four new members, Miss Minerva Bennett, Mrs. W. B. McKarahe, Mrs. F. Wright and Mrs. M. Ranneberger. We have forty members with an average attendance of twenty. The Evening Woman's Auxiliary sent members to each meeting.

Delegates were present at the monthly meetings of the Convocation, Diocesan, Domestic, Negro, Indian Hope Committees, and Christian Social Relations. We send regular donations to these groups. To the United Thank Offering Ingathering we gave $116.35 in May and $106.43 in October. The Sunshine Fund provided cards and flowers for the sick. Money from the Birthday Fund was used to purchase chairs and lumber for tables for the Parish House.

On March 3rd we gave a Luncheon and on March 17th an Oyster Supper.

The subject for Lenten Study was "World Evangelism". Mr. Twelves conducted classes during Lent. His subject was "Our Prayer Book". The Lenten Sewing was in charge of Mrs. Betts.

We sent a donation to Episcopal Day for the Blind and volunteers to Gimbels to serve on that day. Money was sent to further the work of World Evangelism.

Six cartons of clothing were collected and taken to the Domestic Committee in the Church House in May.

Cakes were donated to the Episcopal Hospital May Fete and to the Convocation Garden Day on June 8th.

Mrs. Whitehurst entertained the members at a Luncheon in her home in June. We met to discuss the celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Parish in October and to work for the Fair in December.

Our Guild and the Evening Woman's Auxiliary were in charge of the 50th Anniversary Reception.

On July 28th we met at the home of Mrs. Day to work for the Fair. She served a delicious Luncheon.

A very successful Fashion Show and Luncheon was given during Anniversary week. Mrs. Whitehurst was in charge and acted as narrator.

Cookies were made for the Reception by the Woman's Guild.

In November we drove out to the Farm School. Dean Shreiner showed us the school, and we were served coffee, tea and milk.

At Christmas gifts were sent to the House of Rest.

O check in the amount of $125 was sent to Church Treasurer from the Money made at the Fair in addition to $175, made on the dinner.

We need new workers and again invite all women to join us.

Respectfully submitted,

FLORENCE M. WILKINS, Secretary.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Epiphany in its consecrated work takes complete charge of all the vessels for the Communion Services, the Altar linens, the hangings on the pulpit and lectern, the brasses and the arrangement of the flowers.

The Guild meets once a month, except during the summer. At each meeting there was an average attendance of ten members out of a membership of twenty-two.

Miss Thullen who had been our capable secretary for five years found it necessary to give up that position and Mrs. DuMoulin was appointed in her place. We are sincerely grateful to Miss Thullen for her years of faithful and devoted service.

Early in the year the Guild had the fine gold embroidery on the old white hangings transferred to new material in time for the Easter services. Mrs. F. H. Ogle appliqued gold crosses on the new white Bible marker. She also gave a lace handkerchief to make two new stole protectors for the Rector. A surplice given by Dr. Montgomery was made over for the Rector.

The Altar Guild takes care of the decorating of the Church at Christmas and at Easter, and makes arrangement for the memorial flowers for the Altar each Sunday. The Sundays in 1949 for which flowers are not provided are January 30th, May 29th, August 28th, October 16th, 23rd and 30th.

Anyone desiring to give a memorial may make arrangements with Miss Wolff, who has charge of the beautiful flower calendar which was designed by Mrs. H. W. Middleton. The cost of flowers for one Sunday is from $4.00 to $5.00.

Donations of fruit, vegetables and canned goods were brought to the Church to decorate the chancel on Thanksgiving Day. We are grateful to Mrs. R. B. Heyward and her son Ben, for taking these gifts to the House of Rest.

Because of the nature of its work, the Guild does not raise money by sales or entertainment, but depends upon the generous response of the Parish to a special appeal which is made during the year.

We shall be glad to welcome new members who would be interested in this sacred work of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

CORA STILES DUMOULIN, Secretary.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The Vestment Chapter is composed of 14 women of the parish who meet together on the third Wednesday of the month at 10:30 to care for the vestments of the choir. During the past year a new cotta was purchased for our organist and 15 new collars were purchased. All the cassocks were dry cleaned just before the 50th Anniversary Celebration. To pay for these items as well as the cost of the regular laundry work, funds were raised by means of the sale of Bluett soap flakes, Daisy dish cloths and saving pennies in little socks. And in February a buffet lunch was given by the secretary. A voluntary offering was taken which helped the treasury.

Last spring Mrs. C. H. Kent, who was choir mother for years, offered her resignation which was accepted with regret. Mrs. Katharine Dickey was elected to succeed Mrs. Kent. Two new members were welcomed in 1948, Mrs. Fred Wright and Mrs. Marshall Truitt. In the fall Mrs. L. McGill, our president for several years, was forced to resign because of her husband's critical illness. Mrs. C. A. Foster was elected to fill this vacancy.

Mrs. Katharine Dickey and Mrs. Geo. S. Stewart were appointed to serve on the 50th Anniversary Committee to represent the Vestment Chapter.

At the Annual Fair, held in December, the Vestment Chapter was again in charge of the food table at which $69.00 were raised. $50.00 of this was voted to be given to the mortgage fund of the church.

Anyone who is interested in the work of the Vestment Chapter will be welcomed to its membership.

Respectfully submitted,

THERESA STILES STEWART, Secretary.

THE EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

During the year the Evening Woman's Auxiliary has met on the third Wednesday of each month. There are thirty-three members.

Mrs. Kuch resigned as Secretary in April, and was succeeded by Mrs. Leif Norbom for the remainder of the year.

On April 11th the Evening Woman's Auxiliary sponsored a buffet supper which followed a musical program given by Mr. William Dickey and the choir. About one hundred and fifty guests attended. The Auxiliary was very proud of the splendid renovation job done on the stage curtains which was completed for this occasion from our Treasury.

Representatives of the group have attended meetings of the following organizations during the year: Convocation of Germantown, Pennsylvania Branch Woman's Auxiliary and meetings of the Woman's Guild of our own Parish.

Mrs. Day Edgar, custodian of the United Thank Offering, reports that the yearly donation from the group amounted to $37.58.

During the year a large number of dish towels were hemmed by our members for use at the Episcopal Hospital. Instead of sewing for the Needlework Guild, a donation of ten dollars was made to this organization for the purchase of new garments.

On May 19th, the Woman's Guild were guests of the Evening Woman's Auxiliary to hear an exceptionally interesting book review of, "The Bishop's Mantle", given by Mrs. Henry Hood.

The Strawberry Festival in June was sponsored by the group. Guests were entertained by a play, "Cinderella", given by the Girl's Friendly Society, followed by square dancing. The proceeds from this occasion amounted to $76.07.

Members of the Auxiliary assisted the Woman's Guild at the Reception and Fashion Show which were held during the Fiftieth Anniversary Celebration. $18.50 was given from the Treasury to help defray the floral expense for this occasion.

In conjunction with the Young People's Fellowship, the group sponsored a barn dance in November of this year, which proved to be highly successful.

A contribution of $30.00 was made to the Pennsylvania Branch Woman's Auxiliary; $5.00 to each of the following branches: Indian's Hope, Overseas, Christian Social Relations, Department of Christian Education, Domestic Committee and Supply Committee.

Six large metal pitchers were purchased by the Auxiliary for use in the church kitchen.

At the Annual Fair, the Auxiliary took charge of the toy table. The total proceeds were $83.74; of which $80.00 was contributed to the mortgage fund.

During the year the group was entertained at the homes of Mrs. Cyril Reynolds and Mrs. Joseph Baxter.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY LOUISE NORBOM, Secretary.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP GROUP

The Men's Fellowship Group, although it has not held regular meetings throughout the year, has continued to assist with regular Church services by providing ushers and assisting with the counting of the offering at the end of the services.

Since the average attendance at the regular meetings was only five or six during most of 1947, it was decided to look for an activity that might get more of the men together regularly. This resulted in a weekly get-together for bowling at the YMCA on Tuesday evenings. The average attendance for his activity during the four months of the year was nine out of a possible fourteen. This activity was again resumed in November.

The group, in cooperation with the Evening Woman's Auxiliary, arranged for the presentation of a musical which was held in the Parish House in May. Much credit is given to our choir master, Mr. Dickey, for the success of this event. The group also cooperated in the work necessary in connection with arranging the Fiftieth Anniversary celebration and several of our members served on committees.

The organization has a balance in the treasury of CYRIL F. REYNOLDS, President.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

The Young People's Fellowship, which has 25 members this year, appears to be having a successful season. The Y. P. F. meets every other Sunday evening from 7:30 to 10:00, the meeting starting with devotions followed by a discussion on some topic of interest, a recreation period, and refreshments. So far, the Y. P. F. has, with the aid of the Evening Woman's Auxiliary, sponsored a barn dance, the proceeds of which will be used to buy recreational equipment, and has put on a Candlelight Service and pageant. Ten cents in dues per meeting so exactly covers our operating expenses that at the present time we have no money in our treasury.

JACK BROCK, President.

The Family List OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Year Book

Through the generosity of the advertisers, we are able to publish this Annual Year Book. I hope that you will read the advertisements and whenever possible you will patronize these merchants. It will help to retain their interest if when making a purchase, you mention the fact that you saw their advertisement in the Epiphany Year Book.

This is the twenty-sixth edition of this Year Book. It is a great help to the workers in the parish in many ways. We suggest you keep your copy for reference during the year. By reading the many reports you get a clear picture of the many activities of the parish.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

Report of the Rector to the Parish Meeting

On the following pages you will find a report of my official acts and duties, listed among the statistics.

THE RECTOR'S TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

December 31, 1949, marked the conclusion of twenty-five years of service of your rector. I came to the parish on January 1, 1925. In a sermon and on a couple of other occasions I have given a summary of the official accomplishments of these twenty-five years. For the sake of the record, I list them again.

I have baptized 273 persons, presented 331 for Confirmation, married 113 couples, and buried 266 persons. During the twenty-five years 319 persons have been received into the parish by transfer, which added to the number of confirmations, means that 650 persons were added to the Church membership. Of course many people have moved and died. The actual accountable membership is about 200 more than it was twenty-five years ago. Only a very few families are still in the parish who were here when I came.

The indebtedness has been reduced from $29,000 to less than $7,500. Additions and many improvements to the parish property have taken place during these years. Our people have always responded generously to all appeals to keep the property in good condition.

The activities of the parish have greatly increased. The number of persons engaged in parish work has been greatly augmented. I believe the religious "I-Q" is above the average in our parish, for we have consistently tried to instruct our people. We have grown in the consciousness of a sense of tolerance, fairness and good will. And I hope that each of us is nearer to that ideal which God holds before us. I am indeed grateful for the fine spirit of cooperation manifested by so many who have been the willing workers over these many years.

THE PAST YEAR

We closed this past year with every bill paid, although it was a struggle at the end. We paid the largest amount on our missionary quota in the history of the parish, namely $2,000.

During the last year we have carried on an activity among the young people of the parish and community. Teen-agers, and younger children have gathered together for social purposes, and we have a large group of young people who meet on Sunday mornings for Bible instruction, under Mr. Donald Hood, a student from the Philadelphia Divinity School.

LOOKING AHEAD

There is need for more personal evangelism by the members of our congregation. We ought to bring more people into our Church. We are about to start our new educational program, fostered by the National Council of our Church. This involves first of all the interest and cooperation of all the parents of our children and young people. More and more it will become the duty of parents to instruct their children in the Christian way of life. So parents must first learn what their religion stands for.

Finally as a parish we are being asked to help in the expanding missionary work of our great Church. The General Convention has planned an enlarged work both at home and overseas, and we will be expected to do our part in this endeavor.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

JOHN D. REYNOLDS, III, Treasurer.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

In presenting a resume of the work of the Woman's Guild for the year 1949, it seems feasible to classify our activities under three headings—Study, Sociability and Service.

We joined the other groups of the Church in the Study of Christian Marriage and the Study of Our Prayer Book. We made a tour, lead by Mr. Twelves, to the Library at Logan Square to see the interesting old Prayer Books exhibited there; and, during Lent we pursued our own study of Mary Ellen Chase's book "The Bible and the Common Reader".

Our Social Program began in February with a visit to the "Lit's Have Fun" radio show. On April 26th Miss Thullen and Miss Plumber entertained us at a delightful tea party with music by Miss Bennett and musical readings by Miss Gehl for added enjoyment.

May 3rd was a big day not only for our own members, but for many invited guests, when 73 ladies left Wayne Junction at 7:45 A. M. to be conducted by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad on an all day trip to Washington. Busses were provided for sight-seeing, making stops at the National Gallery of Art and the United States Capitol. The special object of the trip was a pilgrimage to the Washington Cathedral where Mrs. Whitehurst, our President, personally guided the group on this most impressive and memorable visit.

Our last social affair was the recent Christmas Party at Mrs. Whitehurst's home where the year ended on a high note of fellowship.

Under the third and last heading come those projects which made possible a program of Service to our own Parish and to the Church at large. The Woman's Guild took part in the whole Diocesan Effort by sending delegates to the various Missionary Committees which meet at the Church House—namely—Diocesan—Convocation—Overseas—Negro—Indian's Hope—Domestic—Christian Social Relations. We were also represented at Episcopal Day for the Blind—World Day of Prayer—and the Inter-denominational Committees. We sent articles to be sold at the Fair for the Episcopal Hospital and, thanks to the generous support of many members of our Church, we had a very successful cake table on Garden Day at the Leamy Home. Our part in the United Thank Offering came to $273.50 for the year. We shipped clothing and baby blankets to the Indians in Arizona who must endure such severe winters there, and collected and sent clothing for men to the Christian Settlement House on 12th Street in Philadelphia. Our Christmas giving was two-fold: Note paper to the House of Rest and packages of toilet articles to the Philadelphia General Hospital.

On February 8th, 1949, we arranged a Luncheon and Book Review, and on November 10th, in co-operation with the other Parish groups staged the Annual Fair and Turkey Dinner. We have been able during the year to contribute $600.00 to the Church and are very grateful that our efforts have been so blessed.

There is still much to be done to improve our surroundings here as well as to ease the way for the unfortunate in our own city—our own country—and our own world. During the past year we lost four fine workers—two by death, and two by transfer—and we not only invite but strongly urge more Parishioners to become active in the Woman's Guild and to meet with us on the fourth Thursday of each month.

Respectfully submitted,

JESSIE D. McKARAH, Secretary.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Epiphany cares for everything pertaining to the Altar, as well as the hangings on the lectern and the pulpit. The Guild also decorates the Church at Christmas and at Easter.

Our monthly meetings have been well attended and all necessary work has been done throughout the past year. Mrs. F. H. Ogle made a fine fair linen for the Altar and Mrs. H. W. Middleton made a stole protector for the Rector. Miss Wolff gave a new pall for the Communion service.

We owe a debt of gratitude to Mrs. Charles A. Foster for taking care of all Mr. Twelves' vestments during the year.

Mrs. Middleton made and decorated the beautiful flower memorial calendar which hangs in the vestibule of the Church. The following Sundays in 1950 are not provided with flowers for the Altar, January 29, August 20, October 8 and 22. If anyone would like to give flowers for one of these Sundays, please notify Miss Wolff who has charge of the memorial flowers.

We are grateful to Mr. Arthur M. Valz for taking donations of groceries to the House of Rest after the Thanksgiving Day Service.

The Guild does not raise money by sales or entertainment of any kind; it depends upon the generosity of the Parish when a special appeal is made.

It is with sincere regret that we report that two of our loyal members, Mrs. Howard W. Middleton and Mrs. John B. Jones, have moved away from Philadelphia after many years of faithful work in our Guild. On the other hand we are very fortunate in welcoming two new members, Mrs. Frederick L. Wallace and Mrs. Charles R. Miller. We shall be glad to have more members who would be interested in this devotional work of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

CORA STILES DuMOULIN, Secretary.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The work of this organization is to take entire charge of the choir vestments. Two new cassocks and twenty new cottas were purchased during the year. Donations were made to the Altar Guild at Christmas and Easter toward the decorations in the Church. Flowers were sent to the sick and bereaved. Last Valentine's Day a party was given at the home of our president, Mrs. Charles Foster, to raise funds and we sold Daisy Dish Clothes and Bluit Soap Flakes to help meet our expenses since our membership dues are only twenty-five cents per month.

At the annual parish fair we again took charge of the food table. Most of the money we made was given to the church mortgage fund.

We have fourteen members. Mrs. K. W. Dickey, the Choir Mother, gives valued service in attending to the laundering of the cottas. Any women of the parish who are interested in our work are invited to make themselves known to us.

Respectfully submitted,

EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Evening Woman's Auxiliary has met on the third Wednesday of each month. A permanent Membership Committee, of which Mrs. Nevergole is Chairman, has been active throughout the year. The Committee has made many calls on prospective members, and social gatherings were held at the home of Mrs. Cyril Reynolds, Mrs. Harry Koch and Mrs. Charles Miller, for the purpose of getting acquainted. The diligent work of this committee has resulted in increased membership.

At the beginning of the year, "Mental Health" was selected for our study program. Many of the members wrote letters to patients at Byberry, some have had responses.

An active interest was taken in the State Legislative Program by the sending of cards and letters to our Representatives asking for increased appropriations to improve conditions in the State Mental Hospitals. Representatives from the Auxiliary called on Senator Lord and Representative Smith for the same purpose. We hope that our efforts helped. Miss Virginia Wilkins reported on the passage of increased appropriations which will provide more doctors and nurses to give better care. Mr. Devine, an ordained minister from the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Mentally Deficient at Byberry, spoke to our group outlining a constructive program for maintaining mental health through religion. At Christmas time a large number of gifts were contributed by the Auxiliary to patients at Philadelphia General Hospital.

During Lent we followed a program on Missions. Deaconess Stewart, an active worker in China for thirty-five years, gave a most enlightening talk on China. She made China very real to us through the showing of authentic Chinese articles she had collected over the years, many photographs, letters, and the story of her personal experience.

In April at a joint meeting with the Guild, held in the home of Mrs. Day Edgar; Mrs. Hill of the National Council spoke on the United Thank Offering, giving the members a new viewpoint on this wonderful work. The Auxiliary's donation to the United Thank Offering for this year amounted to $51.46, which was a slight increase over previous years.

A donation of war clothing was sent to the Supai Indians who were suffering due to an unusually cold winter. Our members contributed a large number of cakes to the June Fete of the Germantown Convocation held at the Leamy Home. Representatives from our group co-operated with the Guild in assisting at the luncheon given in connection with Episcopal Day for the Blind.

Delegates from the Auxiliary attended meetings at Church House throughout the year. A number of our members visited the Church Farm School. A large number of towels and surgical caps were sewed for Missions throughout the year.

Donations of $5.00 each were made to the following Missions: Episcopal Hospital, City Missions, Church Farm School, Convocation of Germantown, Indians' Hope, Overseas, Christian Social Relations, Department of Christian Education, Domestic and Supply Committee. An offering was also taken for the Chapel at Church House.

During the year we worked for the general improvement of our own Church as well. We attempted to make new friends and to improve the property. In April the Auxiliary served supper following the Cantata; a delightful occasion, which we felt won us many new friends.

Throughout the Spring four small card parties were held at the home of Mrs. Richard Cazin, and one large party at the home of Mrs. Alexander Ogden. These were successful both financially and socially. The money raised was used to purchase a record player, amplification system and athletic supplies.

In May the Strawberry Festival and dance proved most enjoyable not only to the members of our Parish but to the community as well. The proceeds from this occasion went to afore-mentioned Missions and the plumbing and heating fund.

Members of the Auxiliary assisted the Guild with decorations and the serving of dinner at the Annual Christmas Bazaar, in addition to managing a toy table. The money raised was donated to the mortgage fund and Parish maintenance.

Our group revived the custom of a real old-fashioned Christmas Party complete with Santa Claus and dancing in the Parish House. This was a gala occasion enjoyed by all.

During the year a recreational program was instituted for the children, teen agers and young people of our Parish and the community. We have sponsored and chaperoned an average of two dances a month since last February, excluding the summer months. A varied program has been set-up including barn dances with professional callers, ball room dancing with orchestra or record player; and a recreation room has been furnished in the basement.

The young girls' group meets every other Friday afternoon. Both groups are showing a steady increase in attendance. We hope that interest will continue to grow and win new friends for our Church. There is a need for a boys' group which would be highly worthwhile if some young man would volunteer to lead them.

The proceeds from the dances are used to pay Mr. Hood of the Philadelphia Divinity School, who comes each Sunday to lead our young people in a bible discussion program. It is the feeling of our members that this program is important, and it is the hope of each of us that it will lead to increased interest and spiritual growth on the part of the younger members of our Parish.

Plans are completed for the redecoration and furnishing of the north-east room of the Parish House as a comfortable meeting room; the actual work to be finished by Spring. The Auxiliary as a whole has worked extremely hard to make this intensive program a success, and each member was called upon to give very generously of her time and energy.

Respectfully submitted,
MARY LOUISE NORBOM, Secretary.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

The Y. P. F., for its membership of about 25, has lead, and is leading a fairly active life. Our meetings are every other Sunday night from 7:30 to 10:00 P. M., and consist of devotions, business meeting, group discussion, refreshments and recreation.

Aside from our regular meetings we have participated in special programs and social activities, some of which were:

Youth Service at 11 A. M., Sunday, October 16th

Barn Dance—November 18th

Christmas Pageant—December 18th

Christmas Dance—December 28th.

We also send delegates to special Youth Conferences such as U.M.C.Y. at Episcopal Academy, and we have, from time to time, visited other churches.

Many of our members attend the Bible discussion group on Sunday mornings under Mr. Hood's leadership.

The balance in our treasury is practically nothing, since our dues just cover refreshments and post card notices. However we raised $6.75 for our Youth Offering, and $12.80 at the Parish Fair, which will be used to decorate the northeast room in the parish house. We have also pledged $30.00 for World Relief, which we must raise by March 12; our particular cause Okinawa.

The Family List OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Year Book

Through the generosity of the advertisers, we are able to publish this Annual Year Book. I hope that you will read the advertisements and whenever possible you will patronize these merchants. It will help to retain their interest if when making a purchase, you mention the fact that you saw their advertisement in the Epiphany Year Book.

This is the twenty-seventh edition of this Year Book. It is a great help to the workers in the parish in many ways. We suggest you keep your copy for reference during the year. By reading the many reports you get a clear picture of the many activities of the parish.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

Report of the Rector to the Parish Meeting

On the following pages you will find a report of my official acts and duties, listed among the statistics.

OUTSTANDING EVENTS IN 1950

I recall your minds to a number of events which occurred during the year and which now become a part of our history.

In January, a reception was given to the Rector and his wife, marking twenty-five years of service to the parish.

In April, the Rector's Warden for thirty-six years, Mr. Walter Willard, died. Mr. Willard had been a Vestryman for forty-five years, and we had just prepared a very lovely testimonial to be presented to him in the hospital, when he died. His death was a very great loss to the parish, which he served so faithfully during all these years.

Mr. J. Arthur Ewing was appointed as Rector's Warden. Mr. Ewing has been a Vestryman for twenty-five years in October of this year, and for many years the Accounting Warden. Mr. William C. Leyshon replaces him as Accounting Warden.

In the program of property improvement, we should include the installation of the new heating system in the church building. Last year you will recall that we installed a new boiler and oil burner for the parish house. Both these furnaces were very old, and it is a great comfort for us to have modern and efficient equipment.

THE NEW ORGAN

We had hoped that the new organ would have been installed for Christmas. Perhaps we had expected too much. But we want to place in the record the fact that we have received a bequest amounting to $5,000. It comes from the estate of Chauncey H. Brush, who died a number of years ago. His son Clarence H. Brush was a member of our parish until his decease last March. During his lifetime he was a beneficiary of the trust. At his death some of Estate was to be divided among several charities. Our Mr. Brush sometime before his death suggested that the Church of the Epiphany be one of the named charities. We have received the bequest and the Vestry decided that the best use that could be made of the money would be to build a new organ. The contract was given to Edgar H. Mangam, a local organ builder and is now in the process of being installed. As soon as the installation is completed the organ will be dedicated in memory of Mr. Brush.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE PARISH

The reports given elsewhere will indicate that we have closed the year with all bills paid. We have increased our givings to the Missionary Work of the Diocese and National Church. We are grateful for the response of our people, although it was a very hard struggle at the end. It would be so much easier and more pleasant if all our people would keep their envelopes up to date. So many get behind that they find difficulty in making the payment at the end, often causing unpleasantness. The Every Member Canvass indicates that we will be able to increase our missionary givings as asked by the National Church at least thirty percent.

WORLD CONDITIONS

The present world situation brings home to all of us the consciousness of failure somewhere in our living. Certainly all of us need deeper religious convictions, a fuller understanding of our religion and a more visible expression of our ideals in daily living. The General Church is endeavoring to reach her people through teaching and education. Certainly this is needed, but their must be a sense of the need and a willingness to learn and to give some time to study.

The Church's constant obligation is to bring all people into her fold. It is not enough that we only come to Church ourselves, or be interested ourselves, but we must win others over to the ideals which we believe. Only thus can we make our world a better place.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

JOHN D. REYNOLDS, III, Treasurer.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild followed its usual program during the past year. Our topic for study during Lent was "Japan", the principal leader—Mrs. Fred Rodgers. We met, as always during Lent, on each Thursday morning for Communion and study, but this year arranged for luncheon to be served at noon. In this way money was raised for our Easter offering, and we all enjoyed the added note of fellowship. We helped in the Parish Bible Study Group by serving refreshments for two of those meetings. On February 15th, the ladies of the Jewish Center entertained us, and others, for luncheon—an affair we enjoyed tremendously.

In addition to the Annual Bazaar, we had two money making events—an Oyster Supper in March and an Ice Cream Party in October.

Through the generous support of our Parishioners, the cake table for which we were responsible at the Convocation Garden Party in June realized $45.00 toward that effort.

All through the year we sent delegates to the various Missionary Committees which meet at the Church House, and through their reports learned about the work of the Episcopal Church in Domestic and Foreign Fields. We are obliged to contribute to the work of these Committees and our Treasurer's Report will show in detail the extent of our commitments. Mrs. Seely represents us on the United Thank Offering Committee—and we contributed $223.27 during the year. Over and above this, we have participated financially in Educational Week for the Blind, World Day of Prayer, work at St. John's Settlement House and the Church Farm School. We sent clothing to St. John Baptist's in Charlottesville, Va. Christmas gifts to the lazeis at the House of Rest, Christmas packages to patients at the Philadelphia General Hospital, and a donation to the Harrison Home at Episcopal Hospital.

We are especially happy to have been able to contribute to our own Church $50.00 at Easter, $50.00 for the new heater and $350.00 for the mortgage interest. This last amount was raised at the Turkey Dinner and Fair in November. We feel most grateful to the Evening Auxiliary for taking over the dining room on that occasion. They did a well organized and splendid "job" and we were able to concentrate on the work of preparing the meal.

Three very welcome new members—Mrs. Clifton S. Sultz, Miss Amanda Streeper and Mrs. Grace Watson Graham—joined the Guild in 1950, bringing our membership to 36. With an average attendance of 17, those who are active must "double up" considerably to accomplish our aims. Surely there are others in the Parish who could spare a little time for this work, and we would be so happy to have them join us at 10:15 A. M. on the fourth Thursday of each month.

Respectfully submitted,

JESSIE D. McKARAH, Secretary.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Epiphany ends another busy year earning for and keeping in perfect order everything pertaining to the Altar, the lectern and the pulpit. Each month two members of the Guild have charge of preparing for the Service of Holy Communion.

During the year the stand which holds the Service Book on the Altar has been replated. A nylon surplice was purchased for our Rector. Miss Ruth M. Wolff gave a fine new pall for the Communion Service.

We gave flowers at Easter and at Christmas and helped decorate the Church for these festivals, as well as for Palm Sunday. Each year Mrs. R. B. Heyward brings pumpkins, ears and sheaves of corn to trim the Church, and articles of food donated by the congregation to be given to the House of Rest are arranged at the entrance to the Chancel for the Thanksgiving Day Service.

The Guild supplies the wine for the Services of Holy Communion. Until his death, Mr. Walter Willard gave the Communion wine to the Church. Wafers are being used instead of bread at the early Communion Service.

Mrs. F. H. Ogle has been most helpful throughout the year. She has made new green felt pads for the lectern, the pulpit and the stand for the Service Book on the Altar and she put new felt in the groove which holds the offering plate on the exedence table. She has also mended some of Mr. Twelves' surplices.

Mrs. Charles A. Foster has faithfully taken care of Mr. Twelves' vestments during the year.

The Guild is very grateful to the following members of the Parish. Mr. John H. Sheetz covered three kneeling benches which the choir uses in the chancel. Mr. Frederick L. Wallace had the lacquer removed from the two brass vases for the Chapel Altar and had them polished, and he had the stand for the Service Book on the Altar lacquered. Mr. Alan Dewees and Mrs. D. Edgar delivered the fruit and groceries to the House of Rest after the Thanksgiving Day Service.

Miss Wolff decorated the beautiful Flower Calendar which hangs in the vestibule of the Church. The following four Sundays in 1951 are not provided with flowers—April 8th, June 24th, July 22nd and December 23rd. Anyone desiring to give memorial flowers for one of these days may notify Miss Wolff.

To carry on this very necessary work of the Church, the Guild depends upon the generous response of the Parish when a special appeal is sent out.

It is a pleasure to have Mrs. George T. Lambert as a new member of our Guild. We are sorry to lose Mrs. George D. Feidt. She has moved too far away from the Church to take part in the work of the Guild. We shall be glad to welcome new members who would care to join in this sacred work of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,
CORA STILES DuMOULIN, Secretary.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

This is a small organization, which does a very big and necessary work for the Church. There are ten enrolled members, and during the past year the average attendance was seven.

The members have the responsibility of looking after the needs of the Choir. Cottas are laundered regularly, and cassocks and hats cleaned, repaired and replaced when necessary.

During the year new hats were purchased for the women members. In November we sponsored the Food and Cake Table at the Parish Fair. Of the proceeds of $61.00, we turned over $50.00 to the Church.

In December we contributed towards the Christmas decoration in the Church.

Income is derived from dues of members and the occasional sale of household articles. A very substantial sum was realized in September from the return of socks, which we had sent out in June asking the members of the parish to save for us a penny a day.

Mrs. Charles Foster is our loyal and faithful President and we are fortunate to have for our Treasurer Mrs. F. H. Ogle. Mrs. Dickey is Choir Mother with Mrs. Kent assisting.

RACHEL TWELVES, Secretary.

EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The first event of the year, in which our members participated, was the reception for Mr. and Mrs. Twelves on January 24th honoring their twenty-fifth anniversary in the parish.

On February 15th our members attended a luncheon at the Jewish Center in connection with Fellowship Week.

In February we sponsored a "Luncheon Is Served" program which proved quite successful both socially and financially. Our profits from this project amounted to $79.50.

Our members, aided by the Young People's Fellowship, redecorated our joint meeting room. New curtains and lamps were purchased and chairs, pictures and a radio donated.

Japan was chosen as the topic for our Lenten study. At our March meeting we had a most interesting discussion of life in Japan by Miss Saito, who had spent several years in Japan.

At Easter we supplied the patients at Philadelphia General Hospital with Easter eggs in response to an appeal from Chaplain Ward.

On April 14th we held a Bridge and Fashion Show at Strawbridge & Clothier on which we realized $61.45.

Two of our members attended the 76th Annual Diocesan Meeting and dinner on May 22nd.

At our annual Strawberry Festival our group gave a play, which was pronounced quite a success. The proceeds from the Festival amounted to $101.00.

We donated $50.00 in amounts of $5.00 each to the following Missions: Diocesan, Overseas, Indian Hope, Domestic and Supply Committee, Episcopal Hospital, City Missions, Farm School, Convocation of Germantown, Department of Christian Education, Department of Christian Social Relations.

The parish picnic in June at Sellersville was supported enthusiastically by our members.

Our group pledged $75.00 to the heater fund at our September meeting.

During the year we donated $42.31 to the United Thank Offering.

At the annual Turkey Dinner and Fair our members assisted the Guild with serving. We also managed the toy table on which we realized $110.41. Of this amount $80.00 was applied to reducing the church mortgage.

At our November meeting Mr. Conroy, representing the Community Chest, spoke to us on the aims and accomplishments of the combined organizations. We also had an interesting talk by Mrs. Harrison, a representative from the Department of Christian Social Relations, on "The United Nations and World Government."

At our annual Christmas party we donated gifts for patients at Philadelphia General Hospital. We also donated the sum of $50.00 to Christian Social Relations for gifts to Byberry.

Four dances were sponsored by our group during the year for teen-agers. The proceeds from these were used to pay a student from the Divinity School who leads our teen-age group in Bible discussion.

We welcome any women who wish to join our group, which meets in the Parish House on the third Wednesday evening of each month.

Respectfully submitted,

JUDITH B. SAVAGE, Recording Secretary.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

Our group meets every other Sunday evening in the Parish House from 7:30 to 10:00 P. M. Our program consists of devotions, discussion of a chosen topic, refreshments followed by recreation. Our membership consists of eighteen.

Our special activities during the year have been as follows:

Group visitation from Fellowship House.

We conducted the eleven o'clock service on Youth Sunday.

We gave the Christmas Pageant.

Our dues just cover postage and refreshments. We contributed $61.00 to the missionary work of the church through the year. Our balance at present is 31 cents.

JOYCE SAVAGE, Secretary.

The Family List OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Year Book

Through the generosity of the advertisers, we are able to publish this Annual Year Book. I hope that you will read the advertisements and whenever possible you will patronize these merchants. It will help to retain their interest if when making a purchase, you mention the fact that you saw their advertisement in the Epiphany Year Book.

This is the twenty-eighth edition of this Year Book. It is a great help to the workers in the parish in many ways. We suggest you keep your copy for reference during the year. By reading the many reports you get a clear picture of the many activities of the parish.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

Report of the Rector to the Parish Meeting

On the following pages you will find a report of my official acts and duties, listed among the statistics.

EVENTS OF INTEREST IN 1951

For the sake of the record, we recall your minds to several outstanding events that occurred during the year just closed.

The rebuilt and modernized organ was dedicated in February in memory of Clarence H. Brush, and we have all been extremely pleased with it.

We commemorated in November the twenty-five years of service as Vestrymen of Mr. J. Arthur Ewing and Mr.
C. Hilton Kent, and the thirty-two years as Vestryman of Mr. R. Marshall Truitt. Engrossed resolutions and a testimonial dinner was given them.

Extensive repairs were made to the roofs of our parish buildings. The property is now in first class condition, with a modern heating system.

PARISH FINANCES

We were able to close the year with all bills paid. A considerable reduction was made upon the mortgages, now leaving only $6,200 as the total indebtedness against the parish. I remember when we were in debt $30,000.

Our contributions to the Missionary work of the Diocese and National Church were increased one third, overpaying our quota quite considerably. The sum $2,835, is the largest amount this parish has ever given. The prospects for this coming year are even better.

NUMERICAL AND SPIRITUAL CONDITIONS

Our new type of Parish Meeting, revealed among other things that we have a substantial corps of active workers, considering the size of our parish. The Church attendance indicates a good proportion of the membership is interested. But we need to grow numerically, and this is especially true of our Church School.

In our community there are many families that do not go to Church, or send their children for religious instruction anywhere. We have got to feel a responsibility for reaching them. You could talk to your neighbors and friends. Some of our members are always moving away, but at the same time other people are moving in. Be friendly, let them know about your Church, and welcome people when they do come to our services. Ask yourself: "What can I do to bring people to our Church?"

The Bryan Green Mission will probably not add any numbers to our membership. It has however deepened the spiritual convictions of people. The evidence of a real Christian spirit upon our part, will help to draw others to our fellowship.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

Regular meetings of the Guild were held throughout the year. In August we met at the home of Mrs. Whitehurst, and in September we had an extra meeting at the home of Mrs. Sultzer. The evening Auxiliary sends representatives to our meetings, so that we can be more mutually helpful.

The Guild has sent delegates to all Diocesan Committees, and has fulfilled all financial promises. Money has been given toward our own Church needs. Personal work and financial assistance has been given to the Convocation Garden Party, the Cooperative Shop, and the Week for the Blind. Packages of clothing were collected and sent to Korea. Christmas gifts were sent to the Philadelphia General Hospital and the House of Rest for the Aged.

To raise funds for our work, Miss Bennett gave a delightful musicale at the home of Mrs. Whitehurst. The Guild with the cooperation of the Evening Auxiliary gave a successful Luncheon and Fashion Show, and also worked together for the Annual Fair and Turkey Dinner.

The Guild has initiated a project called the "Kitchen Equipment Fund" through which we hope in time to be able to completely remodel the present inadequate conditions.

During Lent the Study Group met weekly. The subject was the Near East, ably led by Mrs. Whitehurst, and assisted by Miss Streeper. We are glad to welcome Mrs. McCauley and Mrs. Kronold as new members.

We would be happy to have more of the women of the parish join our meetings and become active members. The year has been rich in friendly cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,

AGNES SHAW KELLY, Secretary.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild takes entire care of everything pertaining to the Altar. It helps to decorate the Church, and provides flowers and greens for Palm Sunday, Easter and Christmas.

During the year the Guild gave a white stole to our Rector. New red kneeling cushions at the altar rail were given by Miss Davis, Miss Wolff and the Altar Guild. We are grateful to Mr. Alan Dewees for delivering donations of fruit and groceries to the House of Rest after the Thanksgiving Day Services.

To carry on this necessary work, the Guild depends on the generous response of the parish when special appeals are made.

Miss Wolff has charge of and decorates the Flower Calendar, which hangs in the vestibule of the Church. The following Sundays in 1952 are not provided with flowers—March 23, June 8, 15 and 29, and November 9. If anyone would like to give flowers, please notify Miss Wolff.

We are always glad to welcome new members to help in this sacred work of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

CORA STILES DU MOULIN, Secretary.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

This small organization of ten members has had regular monthly meetings during the year. We attended to the usual laundering of the cottas, and purchased four new cassocks; three for women members of the choir, and one for a man. In addition we purchased four collars.

We sold dish cloths to add to our treasury, and in November we sponsored the Food Table at the Parish Fair, remitting $60.00 to the Church. We also contributed toward the Christmas greens.

EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

In reviewing our past year's study during the Lenten program the theme was the "Rural Church". We had an enlightening lecture and pictures on the Volunteer Work in the Kentucky Mountains; a talk and slides on the National Town-Country School Institute, at Roanridge, Parkville, Missouri, and a book review on "What Woman is Here" written by Marh Bakewell.

Upon opening our active season, we partook in the Dedication Supper for our new organ. Easter Eggs were distributed to patients at the Philadelphia General Hospital, in response to an appeal from Chaplain Ward. We donated cakes and cookies in June to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Germantown. Twice this year, we made our offering to the United Thank Offering. Our yearly contributions were made to the Pennsylvania Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, Church Farm School, Episcopal City Mission, Episcopal Hospital, Fort Valley College Center, Fort Valley, Georgia and the Convocation of Germantown. During the year we held special gatherings to raise money for our general Equipment Fund, from which we contributed a new vacuum to the Church. Our collection of clothing for Korea met with excellent response. We were happy in being able to increase our donation to the Mortgage Fund, from our annual November Fair proceeds. We kept our active financial interest in the Bible Class group. Our Christmas gifts were collected and distributed at the Philadelphia General Hospital. Our women made many items of children's clothing for the Episcopal Hospital.

Throughout the entire year we had social gatherings, which always meet with great response. It is always our endeavor to increase our membership, so may we at this time present a most hearty welcome to all who wish to join us, in the Parish House, each third Wednesday evening of the month.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY B. REYNOLDS, Recording Secretary.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

The Y. P. F. with a membership of twenty has had a very busy and interesting year. Our meetings are held every other Sunday night from 7:30 to 10:00, and consist of devotions, business, group discussion, refreshments and recreation.

Aside from our regular meetings we have participated in special programs and social activities, some of which were:

- Supper Party for the newly confirmed
- Spring Dance
- Visit to the Divinity School
- Picnic at Washington's Crossing
- Several Speakers on Sunday Evening
- Youth Sunday Service
- Scavenger Hunt Party
- Bryan Green Mission
- Christmas Pageant.

We gave $46.00 during Lent for our Mite Box Offering, and we raised $19.00 in October for the Youth Offering for work in Liberia. Many of our members attend Sunday morning services and remain for a Bible Class conducted by Terry Holmes, a student at the Divinity School.

THE CHOIR

During the year the members of the Choir, under the able direction of Dr. Robert A. Gerson, served with remarkable loyalty and faithfulness. Frequent commendations from the Rector and many others throughout the parish prove that a good job is being done in this important aid to worship.

At this time there are sixteen members in our Choir. Six of these are helpers from outside the parish. The Choir would welcome the help of more volunteer singers from our own congregation at their rehearsals on Friday evening and at the Sunday services. We plan to sing the Passion Music by Haydn during Lent, and could use additional voices for that occasion.

A full year's support from our rebuilt and enlarged Kimball organ, done by organ builder Mangam, points up again the greatly appreciated generosity of the Brush family.

Trekking to Valley Forge on a Spring afternoon to provide the music for Vermont State Sunday probably ranks first in outside activities.

The understanding and successful leadership of our Choirmaster and the frequent assistance of Mrs. Gerson is appreciated by all.

OF THE VESTRY.

The Family List OF THE CONGREGATION

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. We have added this year the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility if incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Year Book

Through the generosity of the advertisers, we are able to publish this Annual Year Book. I hope that you will read the advertisements and whenever possible you will patronize these merchants. It will help to retain their interests if when making a purchase, you mention the fact that you saw their advertisement in the Epiphany Year Book.

This is the twenty-ninth edition of this Year Book. It is a great help to the workers in the parish in many ways. We suggest you keep your copy for reference during the year. By reading the many reports you get a clear picture of the many activities of the parish.

STANDING NOTICES

Lay persons have certain definite obligations and duties described in the Canons of the Church and the rubrics of the Prayer Book.

VISITATION OF THE SICK

A rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states; "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the Parish." The rector is always happy to minister to the sick, but often he does not learn of illness until a person returns to Church and then asks "didn't you know I was sick".

MARRIAGES

A Canon of the Church requires that at least three days notice must be given to the Minister before any contemplated marriage. The present regulations forbid the marriage of any persons who have been divorced for any reason. The only exceptions are in cases where impediments existed before the first marriage.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Church coming from another parish are required to bring a Letter of Transfer from their former parish before they can be enrolled as com-municant members. The same holds true when they leave this parish. This is to show that they are actually confirmed members of the Church, and also to keep the records of the whole Church up to date.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

DUTIES OF CHURCH MEMBERS

The Offices of Instruction state that "My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church; and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom."

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1952

J. Wesley Twelves

You will find a report of my official acts and duties, listed on other pages of this Year Book under statistics and parish register.

Events of Interest

For the purpose of recording events of the year, I would like to recall some interesting things that have happened.

After some twenty-six years as Vestryman, Mr. J. Arthur Ewing resigned, because of his removal from the community. His place on the Vestry was taken by Mr. C. Blakely Savage, and

Mr. J. Marshall Truitt was appointed to fill his place as Rector's Warden. Mr. Arthur M. Valz also resigned as Vestryman, because of removal, and in his place Mr. Joseph M. Baxter was elected at the parish meeting.

No major repairs or improvements were made during this past year. There were however, several gifts presented to the Church as memorials. An American flag was given in memory of Mr. Charles L. Betts and a Church Flag was given in memory of Mr. Frederick H. Cubberley, both old time members of our congregation. A new lectern Bible was also presented in memory of Felix H. Ogle, also a member of the parish for a number of years. New green hangings for the lectern and pulpit, and also a veil and burse for the communion service were given by Mrs. Whitehurst in memory of her mother, Mrs. Clara Heer Wettlaufer, who also attended our services over a period of years.

Improvements were made to the Kitchen facilities by the purchase of a new restaurant type range. An electric refrigerator was given by Mrs. George Rebmann and a new pantry was erected for the storage of dishes etc.

Men of the parish lent some assistance in the building of this new room.

PARISH FINANCES

There was nothing unusual about our contributions, except that we had more difficulty than usual in collecting back pledges this year, about $800.00 remaining unpaid. The result was that we had to dip into other funds in order to pay our bills. As these pledges are paid, we are replacing the money.

Church Attendance and Growth

Except for the summer months, we seem to keep up a good average of attendance at services. We are cognizant of some radical changes taking place in our community, while at the same time we realize that there are many possible prospects for new membership. We must all feel a responsibility for bringing into our fellowship those without a Church home and those who are recent new-comers in our midst. As Rector, I am not always aware of new people moving into the different areas, but you could keep me posted. Better still, invite your neighbors to come with you to Church and most especially, be friendly to new people when you see them in Church.

BEQUESTS and BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

We have had prepared a pamphlet which suggests for your consideration, the inclusion of your Church in your will. Also since many persons often like to give some remembrance in memory of a loved one who has passed away, we are suggesting the use of a Book of Remembrance, where the record of such a gift could be kept and the funds used for various purposes, as desired. I strongly urged your consideration of these two ideas, as a way of strengthening our parish, and giving us a concern for one another.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild held regular meetings throughout the year. The president carried out her duties with outstanding ability and enthusiasm. Those appointed to serve on the various committees, such as Convocation, Diocesan, Domestic, Christian Social Relations, Indian Hope and Negro gave faithful attendance and brought back interesting reports. Some of our members gave of their time or service at the Co-op Shop and during Blind Week. Clothing has been collected and sent to Korea. During Lent the weekly Study Classes were led by Mrs. Whitehurst and Miss Streep. The contribution box money was given toward the purchase of a jeep for San Paulo Mission in Brazil. After luncheon there were sewing sessions.

The much needed Kitchen Equipment Project is progressing well. The Evening Auxiliary shared some of the financial expense. A new Kitchen range was purchased and several other pieces of equipment. An electric refrigerator was donated by a member of the parish. A new pantry was also built.

The Guild has sent Christmas gifts to the House of Rest and packages to the Elizabeth Price Martin League and Chaplain Ward at the Phila. General Hospital. The raising of money for these various projects came through social gatherings and luncheons. The Turkey Dinner and Fair was the most successful financially for many years. All these things required a great deal of work on the part of the members. Every woman in the parish is eligible to belong by coming to meetings. Won't you come this next year?

Respectfully submitted

BESSIE OGLE, Treasurer

The United Thankoffering from our parish amounted to $353.30 and was contributed by about 65 women.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Members of the Altar Guild are responsible for taking complete care of the Altar. They prepare for the Holy Communion services, and decorate the Church for Christmas, Palm Sunday and Easter.

This year the Guild gave a purple stole to our Rector. Mrs. DuMoulin gave material out of which Mrs. Ogle made ten purificators, and Miss Davis made the cross on them. A new green Burse and Veil, and green hangings were given to the Church by Mrs. Whitehurst in memory of her mother, Mrs. Clara Heer Wettlaufer. An Oxford Bible for the lectern was given by Mrs. Felix Henry Ogle in memory of her husband.

We are again very grateful to Mr. Alan Dewees for delivering donations of fruit and groceries to the House of Rest on Thanksgiving Day. Miss Wolff has charge of, and decorates the Flower Calendar, which hangs in the vestibule of the Church. Anyone desiring to give flowers may notify Miss Wolff.

In order to carry on its work the Guild depends upon the generosity of the Parish when a special appeal is made. The Guild is happy to report that three new members have been added to its roll, and would welcome anyone who would like to share in this devotional work of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

CORA STILES DU MOULIN, Secretary

VESTMENT CHAPTER

The work of this organization centers entirely in the parish, and more especially in the Choir. The usual laundering of cottas has been taken care of. In March we bought four new Cassocks and six new collars for women.

In November we sponsored the Food Table at the Fair and turned over to the Church $70.00. We contributed towards the Christmas greens for decoration of the Church at Christmas.

To meet our expenses we sold various household articles, and in June sent out socks for the collection of pennies during the Summer. Average attendance at meetings was eight.

EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

This year we participated in the study group on the "Faith of the Church". The topic we chose for Lentén study was "Our Church in Brazil". We had a most educational talk on the historical, racial and Christian aspects of our South American parishioners.

We always contribute to the Diocesan Committees which includes the Indian Hope, Diocesan, Overseas, Dometic, Christian Education, Social Relations and Supply Department. Easter Eggs were sent to the Phila. General Hospital, in response to the appeal of Chaplain Ward. Also Christmas gifts of eatables were sent to the Hospital and presents to be distributed through the Elizabeth Price Martin League. Each year we maintain an interest in the Episcopal Day for the Blind, the House of Rest, the Episcopal Hospital and other activities. We made our annual United Thank Offering, and contributed to the Episcopal Hospital, the City Mission, the Farm School, the Convocation of Germantown and the Ft. Valley College Center in Georgia.

We sponsored a nursery for two to three year olds, and maintained our financial interest in the Bible Class. We always enjoy pleasant participation in our parish dinners.

During the year we had several social gatherings, at which time, as at all times we heartily welcome new members to join us, in the Parish House, each third Wednesday of the month.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY FEENEY, Recording Secretary

EPIPHANY BRANCH OF THE CHRISTIAN ASSEMBLY

For Political Information and Action

About twenty persons in our parish are interested in learning about their Christian civic responsibility. We are part of a larger group of all the Churches in Germantown. This is not a partisan group, but is aiming to improve all political parties. A number of meetings were held during the year, at which we discussed coming elections and heard political speakers. Our members were also informed about legislature bills, and urged to write to their representatives. We cooperate with the Diocesan Department of Christian Social Relations. We had the privilege of hearing a recording made by Canon Bryan Green, the English evangelist, on "The Christian in Politics." The group was interested getting people to register and vote.

THERESA STILES STEWART, Secretary.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

Most of our meetings have been held in connection with the Sunday morning Study Group, which is now being led by Mr. Allen Attenborough. We participated in the Christmas Pageant, and helped to decorate the parish house for the Hallowe'en Party. We also made a generous contribution to the Lenten Mite Box Offering of the Church School.

ALEX OGDEN, President

THE CHOIR

Under the continued and pleasant leadership of Mr. Gerson, who has entered upon his fourth year at Epiphany, the Choir carried on its important work with dignity and efficiency, looked for in such a group. To Mr. Gerson, each and every chorister says thanks. Despite changes in personnel, there have been capable replacements.

The Choir's major single undertaking was the rendition on Passion Sunday of the Cantata "The Seven Words of Christ" by Joseph Maydn. The evening was finished off by a Buffet Supper furnished by the Evening Woman's Auxiliary.

Last, but not least, acknowledgment is made of the invaluable work performed by the Vestment Chapter.

The Choir and Guilds Committee, Alan Dewees

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

From the Prayer Book

I. Duty of Member.

"My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his church and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom." (P. 291.)

II. Holy Communion.

"It is your duty to receive the Communion in remembrance of the sacrifice of Christ's death, as He, himself hath commanded. (P. 89.)

"So that ye may come holy and clean to such a heavenly Feast, the way and means thereto is: First, to examine your lives. . . . to bewail your own sinfulness, and to confess yourselves to Almighty God, with full purpose of amendment of life." (P. 87.)

"If there be any of you who cannot quiet his conscience let him come to me or some other Minister, and open his grief." (P. 88.)

III. Parents and Sponsors.

"The Minister of every parish shall often admonish the people, that they defer not the Baptism of their children." (P. 273.)

"And all Fathers, Mothers, Guardians, and Sponsors shall bring those for whose religious nurture they are responsible, to the church at the time appointed, to receive instruction by the Minister.

"So soon as children are come to a competent age, and can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and are sufficiently instructed in the matter contained in these Offices, they shall be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him." (P. 295.)

IV. In Sickness.

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish." (P. 308.)

V. Making of Wills.

"The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in health, to make wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods and, when of ability, to leave bequests for religious and charitable uses." (P. 320.)

Foreword About This Year Book

Through the generosity of the advertisers, we are able to publish this Annual Year Book. I hope that you will read the advertisements and whenever possible you will patronize these merchants. It will help to retain their interests if when making a purchase, you mention the fact that you saw their advertisement in the Epiphany Year Book.

This is the Thirtieth edition of this Year Book. It is a great help to the workers in the parish in many ways. We suggest you keep your copy for reference during the year. By reading the many reports you get a clear picture of the many activities of the parish.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

STANDING NOTICES

Lay persons have certain definite obligations and duties described in the Canons of the Church and the rubrics of the Prayer Book.

VISITATION OF THE SICK

A rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the Parish." The rector is always happy to minister to the sick, but often he does not learn of illness until a person returns to Church and then asks "didn't you know I was sick".

MARRIAGES

A Canon of the Church requires that at least three days notice must be given to the Minister before any contemplated marriage. The present regulations forbid the marriage of any persons who have been divorced for any reason. The only exceptions are in cases where impediments existed before the first marriage.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Church coming from another parish are required to bring a Letter of Transfer from their former parish before they can be enrolled as communicant members. The same holds true when they leave this parish. This is to show that they are actually confirmed members of the Church, and also to keep the records of the whole Church up to date.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

DUTIES OF CHURCH MEMBERS

The Offices of Instruction state that "My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church; and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom."

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1953

J. Wesley Twelves

The official acts of the Rector are reported elsewhere in this Year Book under statistics and Parish Register.

A GOOD YEAR

In many ways we have had a very successful year. In spite of many removals, we have had good attendance at the services, and a number of new people have attached themselves to the parish. We have met all our financial obligations and have increased our giving to the missionary work of the Church, paying $600 more than last year.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

A beautiful leather bound Book of Remembrance was given to the parish by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Wallace in memory of Mrs. Wallace's parents and Mr. Wallace's Father. The purpose of the book is to have a place to record memorial gifts. In the early fall we conducted a campaign for gifts in order to get the book established. The sum of $2,330.00 was given by 50 persons. The person in whose memory the gift was given is remembered in our prayers on the Sunday nearest their birthday or death. The money is being invested in a kind of endowment fund, and the interest used for Church purposes, or allowed to accumulate. We hope that many more gifts will be given as the years go on, and that bequests in wills may increase the fund.

OUR CHANGING NEIGHBORHOOD

Many of you know that changes have been taking place in the area immediately surrounding the Church.

For some years there has been an increasing number of Jewish families in the community. Recently a number of negro families have been buying homes near the Church. Gentile and white families have been moving out. For awhile there seemed to be a lot of panic selling. At present it seems to have abated. Religiously we should have no prejudice toward members of another race or religion, especially when they are fine cultured persons. For many years we have had fine relationship with our neighboring Jewish Center, and we believe that we can live together socially with these new neighbors. The trend in America is not toward segregation. In many communities, people of different race, color and religion are living peaceably together. We believe that we are enough socially advanced and religiously inclined to do that here. We believe that we have an opportunity as religious people to show that it can be done, and that we will not run away. Your Vestry has taken such a stand. We welcome our new neighbors into our community, and also into our Church.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

The Rector is most happy to have Mr. Joseph M. Baxter as Superintendent of the Church School. Because the session of the Church School and the Church services come at the same hour, it is not possible for the Rector to have much contact with the School. Mr. Baxter is doing a splendid job. His greatest wish now is for a large number of pupils and for regular attendance.

COMMUNICANT MEMBERS

In making out my yearly report on the number of Communicants, I found that about 70 members are being counted who have moved away in recent years, but have not been transferred to their new parish. According to Church Law we cannot take them off the list until they request it, although they are for us so much "dead wood." On the other hand, I found that there are 60 persons who come to our Church, who are confirmed and make their communions, but have never been transferred here from their former parish. I have written to some of these people without result. Of course I could forbid them to come to Communion, which I would never think of doing. But what I can't understand is why people who come regularly and even contributed to a Church, don't want to be members of it. Maybe we can get together this year.

WHAT DOES A MINISTER DO?

Such a question was asked the Rector by some of the pupils in Church School as part of their lesson study. Of course everyone knows what the minister does on Sunday, but how does he occupy his time during the rest of the week? Of course he makes visits upon the parishioners, especially the sick and shut-in, he buries the dead, and performs weddings. He conducts Confirmation Classes. He makes addresses on occasion to outside groups. He belongs to Committees in the Diocese, and in the community, and attends meetings. He does a considerable amount of writing, sometimes religious articles, many letters, and all the Church mail is composed and sent out by him. A great deal of the actual printing is done in a small parish by the minister, when there is no secretary. And there are many projects upon which he is continually working, some of them requiring a considerable running around, some necessitating skill with hammer and saw, and some just keeping the works well oiled, figuratively and actually.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

Regular sessions of the Church School were held Sunday mornings at 11 o'clock, except during the summer vacation period. While the present enrollment of 45 pupils makes it difficult to maintain active classes in all age groups, the teaching staff is doing an excellent job in providing for the Christian education of the children of the parish. The loss by transfer of Miss Elizabeth Cubberley, who was most active for a number of years in the direction of the Church School, was keenly felt but is being overcome by the ready cooperation of the entire Church School staff.

From the treasurer's report it will be noted that for the size of our School a substantial Lenten Offering was given, as well as a contribution to the Advent Offering. A Christmas pageant was presented by the Church School on the Sunday before Christmas, under the direction of Mrs. Fred Taylor. Manger gifts were presented, and later distributed to children at one of our downtown missions.

On behalf of the Church School Staff,

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH M. BAXTER, Superintendent

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild held regular monthly meetings throughout the year, except for June, July and August. Several informal meetings were held during the summer at the home of Mrs. Whitehurst to work for the Fair in November.

All committees of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary at the Church House were attended by delegates from the Woman's Guild, who by their fine reports have kept the members informed on the work of Convocation, Diocesan, Domestic, Indian's Hope, Negro and Christian Social Relations.

The Guild, joining with the Altar Guild, presented a cassock to Albert Attenborough on his ordination.

In February, a kitchen shower card party was held at the home of Mrs. Howard Day, and in April a musicale was given by Miss Minerva Bennett at the home of Mrs.

Whitehurst, and a fashion show and luncheon was presented in the Parish House, both for the benefit of Guild activities. New tablecloths, china and silverware were added to the kitchen equipment.

The Guild has contributed to the Founders Committee of the Cooperative Shop, and sent helpers to the Episcopal Day for the Blind. The Lenten study classes were conducted by Miss Streeper and Mrs. Whitehurst with luncheon following each class on the Thursdays in Lent. Gifts were sent to the House of Rest, and the Elizabeth Price Martin League at the Philadelphia General Hospital.

Past Service pins were presented to Mrs. Ogle, Mrs. Seeley and Mrs. Whitehurst for the Woman's Guild, and to Miss Davis and Miss Wolff for the Altar Guild.

In November the Annual Fair and Turkey Supper was given with the cooperation of the Evening Woman's Auxiliary. There is a fine spirit of cooperation and friendship in the Woman's Guild and we wish all the women of the Parish would join us in the work of Epiphany for God and His kingdom on earth.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Members of the Altar Guild take care of everything pertaining to the Altar, and prepare for each service of the Holy Communion, besides decorating the Church at Christmas, Palm Sunday and Easter.

The Guild is having a green stole made for the Rector. We also joined with the Woman's Guild in giving a cassock to Mr. Allen Attenborough for his ordination last May. We have ordered a cassock to give to Paul Twelves who will be ordained next spring.

Miss Davis made a green cover for the Altar, brown felt mats for the wooden alms basins and she gave white satin to cover the cushions which is used at weddings in the Church.

Mrs. Heyward gave ears and stalks of corn to decorate the Church at Thanksgiving and the Guild arranged donations of fruit and groceries at the entrance to the chancel. Our thanks go to Mr. Alan Dewees, for taking the donations to the House of Rest after the Thanksgiving Service.

Miss Wolff has charge of the Flower Calendar, which hangs in the vestibule of the Church. Anyone desiring to give flowers for the Altar as a memorial may consult her as to available dates.

We are sorry to report the loss of two devoted members, Miss Mary Hall and Mrs. W. H. Hobson. The Guild gave $10 to the Book of Remembrance in memory of Mrs. Hobson.

To carry on this sacred work of the Church, the Altar Guild depends upon the generosity of the members of the parish, when the annual appeal is made. We shall welcome anyone who would like to join the Guild and help in this very satisfying work.

Respectfully submitted,

CORA STILES DU MOULIN, Secretary

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The Vestment Chapter has continued to carry on in the usual routine of caring for the Choir vestments. The regular laundering of the cottas has been done each month. We held seven meetings during the year, January to May inclusive, with an average attendance of seven.

Early in the year we cooperated with the parish in the Christian Living Conference, and later discussed our part in the Redemptive Fellowship. In March we purchased a Nylon Surplice for Mr. Attenborough. We contributed towards the Christmas greens. As usual we participated in the parish fair, and remitted the sum of $70.00 to the Church. We sold dish cloths to help meet our expenses.

Mrs. Kent who very graciously continues to serve as Choir Mother, informs us that the cottas are getting thin. We will soon have to consider replacements.

THE CHOIR

Under the direction of Mr. Gerson, who has entered upon his fifth year, the Choir continues to contribute its important share to the worship at Epiphany. The work of the Vestment Chapter, particularly that of Mrs. Kent, Choirmother is much appreciated.

Valuable adjuncts to the Choir are the services of Crossbearer Frederick E. Stewart, Jr., and Flagbearers Bruce S. Marks and Richard B. Meshey.

Miss Isabel W. Webb is performing most helpfully in the care of the Choir Library, and Mrs. Francis Murphy, Jr., and Mrs. Chester A. Rhea continue to make remarkable records of loyalty and efficiency in the Soprano and Alto Solo positions.

THE CHOIR AND GUILDS COMMITTEE, Alan Dewees

EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Regular meetings were held on the third Wednesday of every month. During Lent our study was on "Christianity", as a follow-up of the Christian Living Conferences. Miss Cubberley, our Educational Secretary, led us in a review of our personal reactions from the Conference.

After the Bishop's visit to our Parish for Confirmation, our group served coffee and buns to the congregation at an informal gathering in the Parish House, as a means of meeting and welcoming the new members.

In February we held a Past Presidents night, at which time we saluted our past presidents from 1944-1952, and presented each with a lovely pin, which was especially designed for them, as a memento of their services.

In March our group served supper to the parish after the Cantata. We always contribute to the Diocesan Committees which include the Indian Hope, Diocesan, Overseas, Domestic, Christian Social Relations and the Supply Department. We contributed Easter eggs which were distributed to patients at the Philadelphia General Hospital. Other contributions were to the Episcopal Hospital, the City Mission, the Farm School, the Germantown Convocation and the Ft. Valley College Center in Georgia. Christmas gifts were sent to the Philadelphia General Hospital, and we responded to the annual United Thank Offering.

We donated half of the cost of repairing the refrigerator. We were happy to make our regular contribution to the Mortgage Fund, from the proceeds of our toy table at the Fair.

In the past year we have had several social gatherings, which have always met with good response. It is always our endeavor to increase our membership, so may we at this time extend a most hearty welcome to all who wish to join us.

EPIPHANY BRANCH OF CHRISTIAN ASSEMBLY

There is a group of about twenty persons in the parish who are interested in learning about their civic responsibility. We are a part of a larger group of Germantown Churches, who call themselves the Christian Assembly for Political Information and Action. Mrs. Fred Taylor is chairman of our parish group. During the year, members of our group have attended meetings in the different Germantown Churches. They have discussed candidates for political office of both parties before any coming election. We also cooperate with the Diocesan Department of Christian Social Relations. At meetings we have been informed of pending bills in legislature and urged to write to our representatives.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Year Book

Through the generosity of the advertisers, we are able to publish this Annual Year Book. I hope that you will read the advertisements and whenever possible you will patronize these merchants. It will help to retain their interests if when making a purchase, you mention the fact that you saw their advertisement in the Epiphany Year Book.

This is the 31st edition of this Year Book. It is a great help to the workers in the parish in many ways. We suggest you keep your copy for reference during the year. By reading the many reports you get a clear picture of the many activities of the parish.

STANDING NOTICES

Lay persons have certain definite obligations and duties described in the Canons of the Church and the rubrics of the Prayer Book.

VISITATION OF THE SICK

A rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states; "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the Parish." The rector is always happy to minister to the sick, but often he does not learn of illness until a person returns to Church and then asks "didn't you know I was sick."

MARRIAGES

A Canon of the Church requires that at least three days notice must be given to the Minister before any contemplated marriage. The present regulations forbid the marriage of any persons who have been divorced for any reason. The only exceptions are on cases where impediments existed before the first marriage.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Church coming from another parish are required to bring a Letter of Transfer from their former parish before they can be enrolled as communicant members. The same holds true when they leave this parish. This is to show that they are actually confirmed members of the Church, and also to keep the records of the whole Church up to date.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "to advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

DUTIES OF CHURCH MEMBERS

The Officers of Instruction state that "My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church; and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom."

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1954

J. Wesley Twelves

Thirty Years As Rector

On the first Sunday in January I began my thirty-first year as Rector of the Church of the Epiphany. To be thirty years in one parish is a long time. But it has been an interesting and varied experience. As I announced to the congregation, a long Rectorship can have advantages and disadvantages, both to the Rector and to the congregation. Strange as it may seem, I am not ministering to the same congregation that I found here thirty years ago, and to most of the congregation, I am relatively new. In the congregation on the first Sunday in January there were only four persons who were there when I came thirty years ago. In the parish there remain only 19 families that were on the list in 1925. Most of the present congregation has come during my Rectorship.

CHANGING COMMUNITY

There has always been a large turn-over in our membership. People are on the move. This is true of every congregation in recent years. But our community has undergone many changes during the last thirty years, and many of these changes have affected our work. At present, racial changes are taking place. We are taking these in our stride, we are not letting them frighten us. We believe there is work to be done, and we shall do it to the best of our ability. The Church has been placed here to serve the community and we shall try to do it.

KEEPING UP THE GOOD WORK

We are glad to report that the parish continues to keep up its work on a high level. Church attendance remains good. The finances for the year just ended show an increase over previous years. We have reduced our mortgages. The Rectory mortgage now is only $450, and the Church mortgage is down to $2,900. The Book of Remembrance, started a little over a year ago, has collected a fund of $3,900, which we have invested as a kind of Endowment Fund. So you see we are perfectly solvent.

GIFTS DURING THE YEAR

We have received a number of gifts during the year, and we put them in this record. Prayer Books were given in memory of Mrs. Jane Cubberley, by Elizabeth and Francis Cubberley. A Litany Book was given by Mrs. Whitehurst in memory of her father, William Oliver Wettlaufer. Red frontals for the pulpit and lectern, and red communion veil and burse were given by Mr. and Mrs. Whitehurst in memory of Mr. Whitehurst's mother, Julia Taylor Whitehurst. New numbers for the hymn boards were presented by Mrs. Charles L. Betts. A gift of $1,000 was given by Mrs. Heyward to the Book of Remembrance, in memory of her father and mother, Frank R. and Anna L. Sartori. A new cabinet was made by several vestrymen to take care of altar linens and placed in the sacristy. We raised the sum of $2,233 for the Builders of Christ program of the National Church, to erect buildings for our seminaries and mission stations.

ORDINATION

An outstanding event of the year was the ordination of my son Paul to the Diaconate. We were most happy to have the service in our own Church. Paul has subsequently been advanced to the Priesthood, and is now in charge of All Saint's Church in Chelmsford, Mass.

A HAPPY PARISH

So you see we have had an active and worthwhile year in our parish. There is a good sized, energetic and friendly group of men and women, who are eager to do things in the year ahead. In this connection, I want to pass on to you a comment of Bishop Armstrong at the time of his recent visitation. He said "Wesley, You have a lovely friendly group of people here. You can feel the friendly spirit as soon as you enter." For all these things we give thanks to God.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

Although the Church School has been handicapped by a rather low enrollment, having a membership of only 45 pupils and 13 officers and teachers, we feel that during the year we have made up in spirit what we may have lacked in numbers.

In addition to sending a fine assortment of Christmas presents to the children of St. Barnabas Parish in Kensington, our pupils contributed to the Missionary Offering a total of $325.00 during the Lenten and Advent Seasons.

As a milestone we can look back on a very successful Christmas Pageant, for which we are indebted to Mrs. Fred Taylor for her very able direction and to Mrs. Crowell under whose leadership a fine childrens choir was produced.

Our most urgent need is of course for more children to increase our membership and thus to insure the continuity of the Parish. Any member who can help by having his child bring a friend to the Sunday School will be doing his Church a real service. In the meantime, your support of the Church School and of the children's activities is greatly appreciated.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild held regular meetings throughout the year (except for June, July and August) on the fourth Thursday of the month at 10:15 A. M.

All Committee meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese were attended by delegates from the Guild. Their reports on Convocation, Diocesan, Domestic, Indians Hope, Negro and Christian Social Relations have helped the members to visualize the work of the Church at home and abroad, and the Guild has contributed to their support and to special projects.

The Woman's Guild, joining with the Altar Guild presented a cassock and cincture to Paul Twelves on his ordination, and assisted with the luncheon following the service.

In collaboration with the Evening Woman's Auxiliary a parish supper and hobby show was given in April, and a turkey dinner and Bazaar in November.

The Guild has contributed to the Founders Committee of the Cooperative Shop and sent helpers to the Episcopal Day for the Blind. The Lenten Study Classes were conducted by Miss Streeper and Mrs. Whitehurst, when our Spanish-Speaking Americans were studied and meditations given on Bishop Emerich's "Renewal of the Faith."

Christmas gifts were sent to the guests at the House of Rest and the Elizabeth Price Martin League at the Philadelphia General Hospital.

The Woman's Guild gives a cordial welcome to all women of Epiphany to join them in the work for God's Kingdom on earth.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild prepares for all the services of the Holy Communion and decorates the Church at Christmas, Palm Sunday and Easter.

The Guild gave a new green stole to our rector, and has ordered a white surplice of dacron for him. Mrs. Ogle has made sixteen purificators. A Litany Book was given to the Church by Mrs. Whitehurst in memory of her father, William Oliver Wettlaufer. A cabinet which will hold everything pertaining to the Altar was made by members of the Vestry.

Mrs. Heyward gave pumpkins and ears and stalks of corn to decorate the chancel for Thanksgiving. We wish to thank Mr. Alan Dewees, Mr. Walter Miller and Bruce Marks for taking donations of fruit and groceries to the House of Rest after the Thanksgiving Services.

Miss Wolff has charge of the Flower Calendar which hangs in the vestibule of the Church. Anyone desiring to give flowers for the Altar please notify Miss Wolff.

Due to the nature of its work, the Guild does not hold sales or give entertainments, but depends upon the generosity of the Parish, when the special appeal is sent out.

The Guild would like to welcome new members to help in this devotional work of the Church.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The Vestment Chapter, now with fourteen members held regular meetings throughout the year. The choir cottas were laundered regularly.

We bought four new cassocks for choir members and a surplice as an ordination gift for Paul Twelves. Contributions were sent to the Altar Guild for Easter flowers and Christmas green for the Church.

In June we sent out socks for the collection of pennies during the summer, and we realized almost $125.00. The Chapter participated in the annual Parish Fair, realizing $85.15 at the Food and Cake Table. Of this, we gave $75.00 to the Church.

Miss Isabel Webb is the new Choir Mother, Miss Nellie Park assistant.

THE CHOIR

As Mr. Gerson begins his sixth year as Director the loyalty and efficiency of the members bespeaks his continued valued leadership. In addition to thoroughly enjoying the many hours devoted to rehearsal and Service the members have had many pleasant social get-togethers.

Mrs. Mary P. Kent, for years giving outstanding service as Choirmother has had her duties lightened by Miss Isabel W. Webb, who has very kindly taken over this responsibility. Miss Elizabeth S. Williams has volunteered to do the work of the Librarian.

Miss Anna K. Beatty's service of about five years has proved of great help in the Soprano section, and her long trip between home and the Church establishes a record for travel.

This report would not be complete without recording appreciation for the ever fine work performed by the Vestment Chapter.

THE CHOIR AND GUILDS COMMITTEE, Alan Dewees

EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

This year our regular meetings, held in the Parish House the third Wednesday Evening of each month were very well attended.

There were several special events and suppers we joined the Guild in giving for the entire parish and friends, which were most successful in a social and educational way.

All other festivities, such as the Strawberry Festival and our Spring Bridge, are given so that the members of the congregation, including the children of the Sunday School, become better acquainted, and from the tickets purchased we are able to carry on our regular yearly contributions to our missions, domestic and foreign.

We were greatly honored during our Lenten meetings to have Mrs. U. Grant Beath of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary give us an enlightening talk on the work of the National Auxiliary. Also, the Rev. Donald L. Farrow, assistant at St. Thomas' Church Whitemarsh spoke to us on the life of the people of Alaska, especially in the Yukon, where our missionaries do such wonderful work.

Our Annual United Thank Offering returns this year were excellent. It is always our privilege to give annually our proceeds from the November Fair to the Mortgage Fund Interest.

We strive each year to increase our membership and are happy to report we welcomed several new members, with a great increase in store for 1955. With a larger Evening Auxiliary, all our endeavors can be met with greater response.

EPIPHANY BRANCH OF CHRISTIAN ASSEMBLY

A group of about twenty people in our parish are interested in learning about their Christian civic responsibility. We are a part of a larger group in a number of Germantown Churches, all of whom are interested in the same subject. Mrs. Fred Taylor is the chairman of our parish group.

During the year, members of our group have attended meetings in various Germantown Churches. The subject of the proposed changes in the Charter was discussed at one of the meetings and at the meeting held in October we were fortunate in having on the platform, the candidates of both parties, each of whom expressed his views in a brief talk.

We also cooperate with the Diocesan Department of Christian Social Relations. At our parish meetings we are informed of certain pending bills in the Legislature and urged to write to our Representatives about them.

NELLIE T. PARK, Acting Secretary

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S GROUP

Beginning this fall an endeavor has been made to get together some of the Young People of the parish for meetings every Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Fred Taylor has been sponsoring the group. They have games and skating in the basement of the parish house. They have participated in several activities, the boys taking care of the check room at the fair, and the girls helping in the serving of the dinner. The young people all participated in the Christmas pageant, and have brought articles of clothing for overseas relief. A supper is being given to the Confirmation Class and a dance is planned for the 15th of January. Other young people of the parish and of the community are invited to join with this group on Sunday evenings.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of this parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Year Book

Through the generosity of the advertisers, we are able to publish this Annual Year Book. I hope that you will read the advertisement and whenever possible you will patronize these merchants. It will help to retain their interests if when making a purchase, you mention the fact that you saw their advertisement in the Epiphany Year Book.

This is the 32nd edition of this Year Book. It is a great help to the workers in the parish in many ways. We suggest you keep your copy for reference during the year. By reading the many reports you get a clear picture of the many activities of the parish.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector

STANDING NOTICES

Lay persons have certain definite obligations and duties described in the Canons of the Church and the rubrics of the Prayer Book.

VISITATION OF THE SICK

A rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the Parish." The rector is always happy to minister to the sick, but often he does not learn of illness until a person returns to Church and then asks "didn't you know I was sick."

MARRIAGES

A Canon of the Church requires that at least three days' notice must be given to the Minister before any contemplated marriage. The present regulations forbid the marriage of any persons who have been divorced for any reason. The only exceptions are on cases where impediments existed before the first marriage.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Church coming from another parish are required to bring a Letter of Transfer from their former parish before they can be enrolled as communicant members. The same holds true when they leave this parish. This is to show that they are actually confirmed members of the Church, and also to keep the records of the whole Church up to date.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "To advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

DUTIES OF CHURCH MEMBERS

The Officers of Instruction state that "My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church; and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom."

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1955

J. Wesley Twelves

Elsewhere in this year book you will find a report of my official acts during the year just closed. There are several items which I wish to refer to here that they may go down as part of the record of the year. At the Parish Meeting we laid emphasis on the things which we would like to do during the coming year. We asked each group what new thing they hoped to accomplish. So we are not only looking back, but we are planning for the future.

RECTORY MORTGAGE PAID

It was with a sense of gratitude that we announced that at the end of the year the mortgage on the Rectory was wiped out. Built in 1936, there was a mortgage of $8,000, which in the intervening years has been slowly reduced, until the last payment of $450.00 was made in December.

THE BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

We wish the parish to realize how well this memorial fund has been growing. Started only a little over two years ago, it has now grown to $4,131.77. Small amounts have been added to it during the year, and the accrued interest has amounted this year to $170.00. We remember the names of those in whose memory the amounts are given on the Sunday nearest their birthday or death. The beautiful red Book of Remembrance is on a desk in the rear of the Church so that everyone may see whose memory is being recalled each Sunday. Any gift, no matter how small will be thankfully received and recorded.

FINANCES AT THE END OF YEAR

With the aid of the Christmas Offering and a considerable amount of dunning, both privately and publicly, for the payment of back envelopes and pledges, we finally closed the year with all bills paid and a small balance. I feel that this need for constant reminder for people to pay their pledges is a very detrimental influence on the Church. We would all be so much happier if people would pay their pledges when they come due, and the Church would be shown in a better light.

THE CHANGING NEIGHBORHOOD

As everyone knows who sees the "For Sale" signs scattered around our immediate community, changes are rapidly taking place. While there have been a number of removals by people from our parish, there have also been a number of new families added to our list. We have plans to reach out into "the highways and byways" to bring in those who may have no other Church connection. Some of this may take the form of advertisement, but you can be a great help in bringing your neighbors and friends to the Church. The Parish meeting, one of the most spirited we have had in years, showed no sign of resignation or discouragement. The emphasis on all sides was to go forward.

WOMEN PROPOSE WIPING OUT CHURCH MORTGAGE

One of the signs of increased interest was the proposal by the women that they may be given the opportunity to raise the balance of the Church mortgage, $2,300.00, by the end of this year, and that the Church then be consecrated next Epiphany. This suggestion has met with such approval, that several individuals have come forward offering substantial gifts. Every prospect indicates the goal will be realized.

BIBLE CLASSES PROPOSED

It was a great pleasure to me to have a request to start Bible Classes again. I have suggested it several times, but without much enthusiastic response. But about thirty people at the parish meeting held up their hands, indicating that they wanted to come to a Bible Class.

All this is indicative of a forward movement in the life of our parish, and I pass the idea along to you, to get on board too.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild held regular meetings throughout the year, except in June, July and August, on the fourth Thursday of the month, with an average attendance of seventeen.

During the year delegates to all the Committees of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese attended monthly meetings, and brought back to the members the activities of the Church over a wide field. The Guild contributed to their support and to all their special projects.

A Parish Supper on Epiphany, a Hobby Show and Supper, and a Parish Fair and Dinner were given jointly with the Evening Woman's Auxiliary.

In April, Miss Minerva Bennett gave a Musicale at the home of Mrs. Whitehurst for the benefit of the Guild.

The Lenten Study Classes were conducted by Miss Streeper on India, and Mrs. Whitehurst led the meditations on the Lenten Collects. The Lenten Luncheons after the Study Classes were well attended, and the money went toward the Easter Offering of the Church.

The Guild again contributed to the Founder's Committee of the Cooperative Shop, and sent Christmas packages to the guests at the House of Rest and the Elizabeth Price Martin League at the Philadelphia General Hospital. A Cake Sale was given for the benefit of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Germantown Convocation.

The Guild invites all women of the parish to join with them in the work for Epiphany Church.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild prepares for all services of the Holy Communion and arranges the decorations for the Church at Christmas, Palm Sunday and Easter.

A white surplice of dacron was given to the Rector, and the rug in front of the Altar was cleaned. The Guild gave the old white burse and veil, the green burse and veil, the old red and green hangings and the old Litany Book to the Diocesan Altar Guild, which passes them on to some needy mission.

At Thanksgiving, Mrs. Heyward gave ears of corn and pumpkins, and Mr. Sartori gave stalks of corn to decorate the entrance to the Chancel. We are grateful to Messrs. Dewees, Edgar and Nevergole for taking the donations of fruit and groceries to the House of Rest after the Thanksgiving services.

Miss Wolff has charge of the Flower Calendar in the vestibule of the Church. Anyone who would like to give flowers for the Altar, please notify Miss Wolff.

To carry on this important work of the Church, the Guild depends on the generosity of the parish, when special appeals go out. It is with regret that we report the loss of one of our faithful members, Mrs. Frederick Wallace, who has moved away from the parish. We shall welcome new members to help in this sacred work of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

This year, 1955, the Vestment Chapter has a birthday. Organized in 1935, twenty years ago, to handle the increased laundry that an addition of 18 boys to the choir entailed, it has been active ever since.

Now the work of the organization centers around the adult choir.

We have endeavored over the years to keep the choir vestments clean and in good repair, having the cottas laundered regularly and making replacements when necessary. This year we bought new cottas for the entire choir.

Contributions were sent to the Altar Guild at Easter and Christmas for flowers and Christmas greens for the Church. In November we sponsored the Food and Cake Table at the Parish Fair. The amount raised was $80.65. We sent $75.00 to the Church for the Mortgage Fund.

We are very happy to report that Mrs. Foster, who was our first president in 1935, is still acting in that capacity.

THE CHOIR

The year just closed was marked by presentation to the Choir of new cottas by the Vestment Chapter—just one of the many kindnesses performed by this group of our good friends.

Miss Isabel W. Webb completing her first full year as Choirmother and Miss Elizabeth S. Williams her first year as Librarian are rendering valuable services.

A welcome and needed addition to the soprano section is Miss Betty Walker.

As Mr. Gerson enters his seventh year as Choirmaster and Organist we extend our appreciation and good wishes for his continued success.

CHOIR AND GUILDS COMMITTEE, Alan Dewees

THE EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Regular meetings held on the third Wednesday of each month were fairly well attended this year. We presented a pin to Mrs. Edward H. Wadleigh last fall in appreciation for her continued and efficient services as Treasurer.

The Auxiliary was responsible for bringing Mrs. Alfred M. Chapman to our parish as a speaker on the Convention of the World Council of Churches held in Evanston. Mrs. Chapman was a delegate, and gave us interesting report.

Mrs. Alfred W. Platt introduced us to the subject of "India" at our March meeting to begin our Lenten study. As head of the Educational Committee, Mrs. Platt obtained Mr. Dani, a student at the University of Pennsylvania for our April meeting. Mr. Dani, who was from India, gave us a very interesting lecture on his country and answered questions.

As a result of our annual activities, such as the Spring Bridge and the Strawberry Festival, we were able to make our regular contributions to the Diocesan Committees and to charities. Other contributions included gifts for the patients at the Philadelphia General Hospital at Easter and Christmas. There was a good response to the annual United Thankoffering.

We were pleased to be able to contribute toward the repair work done on the Church buildings this fall. Proceeds from our Toy Table at the Parish Fair were turned over to the Church to be used at the discretion of the Vestry.

The group has continued to collaborate with the Guild in the parish affairs such as the Hobby Show, Turkey Dinner and Fair, and in serving dinners for other occasions.

The Auxiliary is an active, interested group and we are always happy to welcome new members. In an effort to build up our membership, we shall be glad to receive names of interested persons.

HAPPY NEW YEAR ALPHABET

H is hardworking—Hurrah for our girls!

A is Auxiliary—a string of real pearls!

P is Parish—please all of you heed—

P is the prosperous year that we need.

Y is for you that will help us succeed.

N is for New Year so full of good things.

E is Epiphany of which each heart sings.

W is for Women—each one of you tries.

Y is for Youth—for which our group cries.

E is for Excellence—far beyond call.

A Admiration I feel for you all!

R for Reluctance with which I depart—

Happy New Year to all from the depths of my heart!!!

By CECIL L. HUMBERT, Retiring President

Evening Woman's Auxiliary

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S GROUP

A small group of young people have been meeting regularly every Sunday evening at 7 o'clock for devotions and recreation.

As a project during the fall they have painted the old scout room under the Church and furnished it as a meeting place. Also they have recently installed a shuffleboard and are erecting a full size pool table in the basement of the parish house. They have plans for refinishing the walls of the parish house basement for that section which they are using. The young people participated in the Christmas Pageant and have sponsored several dances. More of the young people of the parish and community are invited to enjoy the fellowship of this group.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of the parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Year Book

Through the generosity of the advertisers, we are able to publish this Annual Year Book. I hope that you will read the advertisements and whenever possible you will patronize these merchants. It will help to retain their interests if when making a purchase, you mention the fact that you saw their advertisement in the Epiphany Year Book.

This is the 33rd edition of this Year Book. It is a great help to the workers in the parish in many ways. We suggest you keep your copy for reference during the year. By reading the many reports you get a clear picture of the many activities of the parish.

STANDING NOTICES

Lay persons have certain definite obligations and duties described in the Canons of the Church and the rubrics of the Prayer Book.

VISITATION OF THE SICK

A rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish." The rector is always happy to minister to the sick, but often he does not learn of illness until a person returns to Church and then asks "didn't you know I was sick."

MARRIAGES

A Canon of the Church requires that at least three days' notice must be given to the Minister before any contemplated marriage. The present regulations forbid the marriage of any persons who have been divorced for any reason. The only exceptions are on cases where impediments existed before the first marriage.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Church coming from another parish are required to bring a Letter of Transfer from their former parish before they can be enrolled as some form of indebtedness. This was due to the building of the Church, the Parish House and the Rectory, as well as the purchase of the land on which our property stands. Now all indebtedness has been wiped out, and we have a valuable property worth about $350,000.00. The final payment was made last October, through the efforts of the various organizations and the generous contributions of our people. Throughout this long period of time, many people have contributed toward the Mortgage Fund. There have been some very substantial gifts, as well as smaller contributions given monthly through the Red Envelope. For many years, the organizations have earned duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church; and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom."

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1956

You will find listed elsewhere in this book a list of my official acts for the year. At the parish meeting, I emphasized some of the important events and accomplishments during 1956, and endeavored to inspire the gathering to plan for the future. In a sense we have passed an outstanding milestone, and begin a new era in the life of the parish. A burden has been lifted, and we are now free to do many things we have always hoped to do.

MORTGAGES PAID — CHURCH CONSECRATED

For over fifty years the Church has labored under some form of indebtedness. This was due to the building of the Church, the Parish House and the Rectory, as well as the purchase of the land on which our property stands. Now all indebtedness has been wiped out, and we have a valuable property worth about $350,000.00. The final payment was made last October, through the efforts of the various organizations and the generous contributions of our people. Throughout this long period of time, many people have contributed toward the Mortgage Fund. There have been some very substantial gifts, as well as smaller contributions given monthly through the Red Envelope. For many years, the organizations have earned money for the reduction of the mortgage. So we are all very grateful for the final culmination of these efforts. On Sunday, January 6, 1957, Bishop Hart formally consecrated the Church in the presence of a large congregation, including several former members.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS DURING YEAR

Because of the generous response to our appeal for the reduction of the mortgage we received more than the amount necessary. With the surplus, we were able to finish the plastering of the walls in the basement of the parish house, and to erect a storage cabinet.

THE BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

From the additional receipts of the mortgage fund we also made a transfer of $500.00 to the Book of Remembrance Endowment Fund. We now have $5,125.83 in this fund, which was started a little over three years ago. The accrued interest of over $200.00 a year is added to the fund. We remember the names of those in whose memory amounts are given, on the Sunday nearest their birthday of death. Any gift, no matter how small, is gratefully received and recorded.

THE BUTCHER BEQUEST

A legacy of $1,490.85 was received from the estate of Herbert M. Butcher, a former member of our parish, and a singer in our choir. The bequest is restricted to either an addition to the organ or the installation of a stained glass window, at the discretion of the Vestry. No decision has yet been made.

BIBLE CLASSES

During the past year two Bible Classes have been meeting every two weeks on the first and third Monday evenings and Tuesday mornings. A good sized group has been coming out. We think that our studies have been interesting, and are worthy of a fuller participating by other members of the parish.

DIOCESAN CAMPAIGN FOR CAPITAL FUNDS

This Spring a campaign will be conducted to raise $1,255,000.00 for improvements to the Philadelphia Divinity School and the establishment of new mission Churches in the Diocese. This is a large sum, and all the members of our parish, as well as other parishes will be asked to give substantial amounts over a three year period for this endeavor.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE

Much interest has been expressed in the activities of our Young People under the direction of Mr. Frederick E. Stewart, Jr. The old Scout Room has been painted and furnished by them as a meeting place, and the basement of the parish house has been improved for their use, where they have already installed a pool table, a shuffle board and a tennis table. We commend the work which they have accomplished and assure them of our desire to help.

WE LOOK FORWARD

While the changing neighborhood has made some inroads on our membership, we have a strong congregation, and a good corp of workers. We are resolved to accomplish more things in the days ahead. To do this we need the interest and cooperation of everyone. We must all take some active part in the work of the Church. It is not a time to sit back, or to be discouraged, but rather for each of us to ask "what is there that I can do."

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild held regular meetings throughout the year, except in June, July and August, on the fourth Thursday of each month, with an average attendance of seventeen.

All the activities of the Guild this year were centered on raising money to help pay off the mortgage on the Church. These included a dessert game party and a Fashions of Yesterday and Musical Revue in which the Evening Auxiliary and the Choir joined.

During the year the Guild was represented by its delegates at all Committee meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese. The Guild contributed to their support and to all their special projects.

The 1956 Lenten Study classes were again conducted by Mrs. Whitehurst on the Advent Collects and by Miss Streep on the American Indian. The luncheons after the study classes each week were well attended, and the money raised went to the Easter Offering of the Church.

A Cake Sale to raise money for the woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Germantown was given in conjunction with the Strawberry Festival in June.

Christmas packages were sent to the guests of the House of Rest and to the Elizabeth Price Martin League at the Philadelphia General Hospital. The Guild also contributed through the year to the Founders Committee of the Cooperative Shop.

The Woman's Guild cordially invites all women of the parish to join with them in the work for Epiphany Church.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild takes care of everything pertaining to the Altar. It helps decorate the Church and provides flowers and greens for Christmas, Palm Sunday and Easter.

Mrs. Heyward gave pumpkins, ears and stalks of corn to decorate the Church at Thanksgiving and the Guild arranged donations of fruit and groceries at the entrance to the Chancel. We wish to thank Messrs. Dewees, Edgar and Nevergole for delivering these donations to the House of Rest after the Thanksgiving Service.

Miss Wolff has charge of the Flower Calendar, which hangs in the vestibule of the Church. If anyone wishes to give flowers for the Altar please notify her.

We are sorry to report the loss of a faithful member, Mrs. Arthur G. Soenning who died in December. Another member, Mrs. Harry G. Kuch has moved away. We have a membership of twenty. Twelve of these being active members. We shall welcome anyone who would like to share in this devotional service to the Church.

To carry on its work, the Guild depends on the generosity of the Parish, when the annual appeal is sent out.

Respectfully submitted,

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

This year, along with other organizations of the Church, the Vestment Chapter cooperated, contributing toward the raising of the Church Mortgage.

The regular work of the Chapter was carried on as usual, consisting of the laundering and care of the Choir Vestments. In October we entertained the Choir with a Buffet Supper and in November we sponsored the Food and Cake table at the Parish Fair.

We made contributions to the Altar Guild at Easter and Christmas, to help with the Church decorations and contributed $50 to the Christmas offering.

THE CHOIR

Mr. Will Beck, who was appointed Organist and Choirmaster about the middle of the year brings to Epiphany a capable musician who merits the interest and support of all.

The date Friday, October 5th, was a memorable one, when the Vestment Chapter added to its many laurels a Buffet Supper for the Choir members, with the Rector and Mrs. Twelves.

For one of the outstanding performances of the year, we nominate Mr. Frederick E. Stewart, Jr., in his role as Crossbearer and tenor chorister, among a multitude of services around Epiphany.

And last but by no means least we take note of the loyal and efficient work performed by all members of the Choir in this important branch of our worship.

this purpose, were a luncheon and card party, a fashion show and a benefit at the Aldan Park players. The group also sponsored the Strawberry Festival and participated in the Annual Parish Fair by having the Toy Table and preparing the Dinner.

As part of the program of the year, the group had a brief study on the American Indian conducted by Mrs. Platt, a talk on the Bible, and a slide presentation of a European trip by Mr. and Mrs. Platt.

The Auxiliary worked jointly with other groups by serving refreshments for the Young Peoples' Interfaith Visitation and a meeting for the parish at which the Rev. Arnold Purdie spoke on the work of the City Mission.

Contributions were made to the Diocesan Committees and gifts were given to the Philadelphia General Hospital through the Elizabeth Price Martin League at Christmas.

This year members of our group have been interested in the recreational program at Riverview Home for the indigent where there was need for a pianist. Miss Minerva Bennett of our parish has played once a week for group singing with members of our group and Miss Streeper driving her to the Institution. This service is greatly appreciated by the people at Riverview.

Due to many removals our membership has decreased greatly and we would be happy to have new members.

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

The Youth Fellowship met regularly every Sunday evening throughout the year. Attendance has been good.

During the year we continued our project of fixing up the old scout room as a meeting place. We have painted it and the small lavatory adjacent to it, sanded and re-finished the stage floor in the larger room and linoleum-ized the one in the lavatory.

We have added several items to our growing list of possessions among which are an addressograph and sound system.

Our group has participated in the Strawberry Festival, Parish Fair and Dinner, the Christmas Pageant and were co-sponsors of the Gilbert and Sullivan's "Gondoliers". In order to raise the funds to pay for our work we held several dances which not only provided us with the needed money but served to bring the boys and girls of the fellowship and community closer together.

We invite more of the young people of the parish and community to come and enjoy the fellowship of our group.

"THANK YOU"

We of the Epiphany Youth Fellowship wish to express our deep appreciation and thanks for the wonderful co-operation and assistance you have rendered us. We are truly grateful for your recognition of our efforts. In the past few months many of our dreams have come true; foremost was the finishing the basement walls. We are thankful that in your efforts in eliminating the church debt you have not forgotten us. The use of the excess funds for the basement was a wonderful gesture. We hope in the near future that we will be able to show you that we are worthy of such consideration.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of the parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

This Year Book Made Possible

For many years this Year Book was made possible through the efforts of Mr. Arman L. Davis, who collected the advertisements and gave us the Year Book free. Last year Mr. Davis died. The Church decided that it would try to publish the book itself. We have contacted those who have had advertisements in the book in past years and most of them have consented to continue.

This is the 34th edition of the Year Book. We feel that it is very important to our parish, in fact we do not know how we would get along without it.

We want to make it clear that its publication is only possible because of the generosity of the advertisers. If we are to continue the Year Book, we must show the advertisers that it pays to have an Ad in our book. Please make an effort to patronize the people who advertise, and be sure to tell them you saw their Ad in our Year Book.

STANDING NOTICES

Lay persons have certain definite obligations and duties described in the Canons of the Church and the rubrics of the Prayer Book.

VISITATION OF THE SICK

A rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish." The Rector is always happy to minister to the sick, but often he does not learn of illness until a person returns to Church and then asks "didn't you know I was sick."

MARRIAGES

A Canon of the Church requires that at least three days' notice must be given to the Minister before any contemplated marriage. The present regulations forbid the marriage of any persons who have been divorced for any reason. The only exceptions are on cases where impediments existed before the first marriage.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Church coming from another parish are required to bring a Letter of Transfer from their former parish before they can be enrolled as communicant members. The same holds true when they leave this parish. This is to show that they are actually confirmed members of the Church, and also to keep the records of the whole Church up to date.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "To advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

DUTIES OF CHURCH MEMBERS

The Officers of Instruction states that "My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church; and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom."

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1957

J. Wesley Twelves

Elsewhere in this Year Book you will find a list of my official acts during 1957. At the Parish Meeting on January 6, I summarized some of the accomplishments during 1957, and endeavored to give a picture of things to come.

HOLDING OUR OWN

In the parish, as in the community, we are going through a transitional period. We are in what has been called a "changing neighborhood." We are taking the change in our stride.

We have made improvements to our property. Two new stained glass windows have been installed, the finances have kept up remarkably well, the attendance has been exceptionally good, some new additions to our membership have taken place.

THE PERSONNEL

We have a new organist and choirmaster, Mr. Thomas W. Garside, whom we feel fortunate to have discovered. The Choir is larger and doing good work. We have a new sexton, Mr. Daniel Post, who is doing a very good job. The personnel of our workers is of high calibre, as evidenced in the fifteen active members of the Vestry, and in the other organization leaders.

THE FORWARD LOOK

Now we look forward. We are resolved to go forward during this coming year. An effort is to be made to enlist everyone in the parish in some activity or organization. We need more workers. We want to reach out into the community and have people know they are welcome at our services and in our activities. One easy way to do that is for each of you to tell your friends about the Church and why you like it, and then bring them along with you.

One of our members happened to mention to a friend that we had put in a beautiful new stained glass window, and that friend agreed to give another window. It was as easy as that. Several improvements in the property and equipment of the parish are contemplated during the year.

AN UNUSUAL CHANGE

We feel, that as a parish, we did something unusual and forward looking, when at the Parish meeting we passed a resolution to change our Charter so that eventually it will be possible to elect women on the Vestry, and to send them as Delegates to the Diocesan Convention.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

There was a slight increase in the enrollment of pupils in our Church School this past year. We have fifty pupils and 11 officers and teachers. The Christmas Pageant this year was given under the direction of Mrs. George S. Trickey, and as usual was a very fine presentation.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild held regular meetings throughout the year, except in June, July and August, on the fourth Thursday of each month, with an average attendance of 15 members.

On January 6, the Guild, in cooperation with the Evening Auxiliary, served refreshments at the reception for Bishop Hart after the Consecration service.

During the year the Guild was represented by its delegates at all Committee meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese. The Guild contributed to their support and to their special projects.

The 1957 Lenten Study Classes began with a study of the Trinity Collects. Each week this was followed by a special speaker: Rev. Dr. N. B. Groton, "Church of South India"; Mrs. P. Blair Lee, "Missionary Work of Our Church"; Rev. J. M. Wheathley, "Work of the Church of the Advocate", the Rector, "History of the Diocese." The luncheons after the Study Classes each week were well attended and the money raised went to the Easter Offering of the Church.

In April at a dessert Book Review, Mrs. Whitehurst reviewed "The Philadelphian". A Cake Sale to raise money for the Woman's Auxiliary of Germantown Convocation was held in connection with the June Strawberry Festival.

Christmas packages were sent to the guests of the House of Rest, and donations for Christmas parcels to the Elizabeth Price Martin League for Philadelphia General Hospital. The Guild also contributed to the Founders' Committee of the Cooperative Shop.

The Woman's Guild cordially invites all women of the parish to join with them in the work for Epiphany Church.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild has had another busy year, preparing for all the services, decorating the Church at Christmas, Palm Sunday and Easter, and taking care of everything pertaining to the Altar.

Mrs. Heyward gave pumpkin, ears and stalks of corn to decorate the Church at Thanksgiving. Donations of groceries, fruits and vegetables were arranged at the entrance to the chancel. After the services the donations were delivered to the House of Rest through the kindness of Messrs. Dewees, Edgar and Nevergole.

Miss Davis made a new flannel cover for the Altar. The Guild decided to purchase a new cassock for Mr. Twelves.

Miss Wolff has charge of the Flower Calendar, which hangs in the vestibule of the Church. Anyone desiring to give flowers for the Altar please notify her.

To continue this important work, the Guild depends upon the generosity of the parish, when the annual appeal is sent out.

The Guild lost one member, Mrs. Charles R. Miller, who is living in New York. It is a pleasure to welcome two new members, Mrs. John Costello and Mrs. Samuel A. Dysart. We would be happy to have a few more members to carry on this devotional and rewarding work of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

CORA S. DU MOULIN, Secretary

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

This last year the work of the Vestment Chapter was carried on as usual. The cottas were laundered regularly and in addition we had the cassocks cleaned.

In November we sponsored the Cake and Food Table at the Parish Fair. We contributed funds to the Altar Guild at Easter and Christmas for Church decorations. We sent $50 to the Young People's Fellowship for draperies and slip covers for the Fellowship room, and we gave $50 to the Church toward the new window in the rear of the Church.

We wish more women would interest themselves in this practical, but necessary work for the Choir and the Church.

THE CHOIR

Mr. Thomas W. Garside was welcomed as our new Organist and Choirmaster in September 1957.

We are also happy to have added to the soprano section, Mrs. Dorothy Raemsch; while the altos now include Mrs. Irene Garside and Mrs. Barbara Sevy, the latter having very kindly agreed to be Choir Librarian. During Christmas Mr. Horace C. Walker proved a valuable addition to the bass row.

Our continued appreciation to the Vestment Chapter for all they do for us, especially the fine cleaning job on the cassocks.

Mr. Garside calls our attention to the wonderful collection of music found in the 1940 Hymnal, and asks that we give it fuller study and use that we may pass on this heritage of music to the next generation.

He especially asks your help in obtaining more members for the Choir, and emphasizes our need for more tenors and sopranos.

CHOIR AND GUILDS COMMITTEE, Alan Dewees

THE EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The meetings of the Evening Woman's Auxiliary were held on the third Wednesday of each month at the homes of its various members. The average attendance was eight.

Our project for the year consisted of a series of activities designed to raise money to help pay for a new stained glass window in the rear of the Church. These events included a theatre benefit at the Alden Park Players in April, the Annual Strawberry Festival in June, and the Toy Table at the Parish Fair in November.

Our educational program for the year was directed by Mrs. Fred Taylor. In March we had the privilege of having Father Hines of St. Luke's Church talk to us on the meaning and value of prayer. At the April meeting, Mr. Twelves was most interesting on the subject of "The History of the Diocese of Pennsylvania." In November, Mrs. Taylor led us in a discussion of "Using Our Talents."

Contributions were made to all Diocesan Committees and a box of gifts was sent to the Philadelphia General Hospital at Christmas. The recreational work at Riverview was continued until last June. Work on knitted afghans for use in hospitals was supervised by Mrs. Ogden.

It was with sincere regret that the group accepted the resignation of its president, Miss Elizabeth Williams, this past September. Mrs. Nevergole, vice-president, has ably carried on the duties of president since that time.

Our program was one of worship, work and education. At this time we would like to invite all women members of the parish to join us in the gratifying work for the growth of our Church.

Respectfully submitted,

JANE L. PLATT, Recording Secretary

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

During the past year our group once again met each Sunday evening. Attendance has varied from as few as seven to as many as eighteen.

We participated in the Strawberry Festival, the Parish Fair and Dinner, and the Christmas Pageant. The Fellowship also made and sent to the Home for the Indigent several remembrances on various holidays throughout the year.

This coming year we plan to fix and cover the floor in the Old Scout Room where we are now meeting.

We wish to again thank all of you who have been so generous to us. Your support of our group has been wonderful. If our group can in any way be of service please call on us.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of the parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of addresses.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Book

For thirty-five years we have been publishing this Year Book. We feel that it performs a great service to us. Besides providing a record of the activities for the year, and a report to the parish, it is referred to constantly by the workers in the parish. We therefore hope that you will preserve the Year Book after you have carefully read through the various reports.

The publication of the Year Book is made possible by the generosity of the advertisers. At present we are collecting these advertisements ourselves. Some of our members have gathered advertisements, and our sexton, Mr. Post has obtained the rest.

If we are to continue the Year Book, we must show the advertisers that it pays to have an Ad in our Book. Will you therefore make an effort to patronize the people who advertise and be sure to tell them that you saw their Ad in our Year Book.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector.

STANDING NOTICES

Lay persons have certain definite obligations and duties described in the Canons of the Church and the rubrics of the Prayer Book.

VISITATION OF THE SICK

A rubric in the Prayer Book, page 308, states: "When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish". The Rector is always happy to minister to the sick, but often he does not learn of illness until a person returns to Church and then asks "didn't you know I was sick."

MARRIAGES

A Canon of the Church requires that at least three days' notice must be given to the Minister before any contemplated marriage. The present regulations forbid the marriage of any persons who have been divorced for any reason. The only exceptions are on cases where impediments existed before the first marriage.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

Communicants of the Church coming from another parish are required to bring a Letter of Transfer from their former parish before they can be enrolled as communicant members. The same holds true when they leave this parish. This is to show that they are actually confirmed members of the Church, and also to keep the records of the whole Church up to date.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Another rubric in the Prayer Book requires the minister, "To advise the people whilst they are in health to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

DUTIES OF CHURCH MEMBERS

The Officers of Instruction states that "My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church; and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom."

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1958

J. Wesley Twelves

Elsewhere in this book you will find a list of my official acts during 1958. At the parish meeting I summarized some of the accomplishments during the year and expressed some ideas of what we intend to do.

CHANGE IS THE KEYWORD

Those of us who are older find it difficult to make adjustments to change. We want everything to remain as it was. A clergyman friend of mine who had not been in the parish for sometime, asked if we had made any changes.

Yes, we have made some changes. For one thing we changed our Charter, so that women are now eligible to serve on the Vestry.

We have made some changes and improvements in the physical property. A powder room was installed in the upstairs room of the parish house. Some changes were made in basement, a floor was put down in the young people's room, and a considerable amount of painting was done. The Church doors were painted, and a number of necessary repairs were made to the plumbing and roof. So the property is in good condition.

A GOOD YEAR FINANCIALLY

As you will note from the Accounting Warden's report, we have had a good year financially, with all bills paid, and a sizeable amount in the treasury.

NEED CHANGE BE DISCOURAGING?

A period of change or transition can be discouraging or stimulating. Certainly it is a time when we must work intensively, using all the vitality we possess. Every organization needs the full support of each member, and all must be workers. It is no time to be a member in absentia.

If we are to have an enthusiastic worshipping congregation, every member should be present every Sunday. Some people come only at Easter and Christmas. Some come once in a while in between. Some come every other Sunday. And of course there are the regulars who never miss a service. Without these latter persons, we might almost have to close up the Church.

This year we are going to try to get every member out to Church every Sunday. Will you help us make this possible?

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

Regular monthly meetings were held throughout the year with an average attendance of 17 members. The Guild was represented by delegates at all Committee meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese and the Guild contributed to their support and to their special projects.

In January the Guild co-operated with the Evening Auxiliary in serving refreshments after Confirmation and for the supper preceding the parish meeting in January.

Following a request of the Church Periodical Club, two books were purchased for the use of the Canterbury Club. Guild members participated in the World Day of Prayer.

The Lenten Study sessions began with a discussion of the background of some of our hymns given by the Rector. This was followed by reports on the books recommended for study of Japan given by Guild members. The usual luncheons followed.

In April the Guild was represented at a Social Relations Regional Dinner Conference held at St. Peter's Church. The regular monthly meeting was held at Gloria Dei Church with opportunity to see the Church and the grounds and hear of its history from the Rev. Dr. Roak. Luncheon was served by the Woman's Auxiliary.

In May many of our members were present for the Ingathering of the United Thankoffering at Valley Forge Military Academy. The Guild Cake Sale for the benefit of Convocation Funds was held in connection with the Strawberry Festival in June.

The Fall Dinner and Fair were successfully conducted. Christmas gifts were sent to guests at the House of Rest and money donated to the Elizabeth Martin League for use for Christmas gift parcels at the Philadelphia General Hospital. The Woman's Guild cordially invites all women of the parish to join with them in their work for Epiphany.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild had an average attendance of seven members at the regular monthly meetings. We decorated the Church for Christmas, Palm Sunday and Easter, and took care of all services through the year.

Mrs. Heyward gave pumpkins, Mrs. Nevergole ears of corn and Mr. Sartori gave corn stalks to decorate the Church at Thanksgiving. Donations of groceries, fruit and vegetables were placed at the Chancel entrance. After the services, Mr. Alan Dewees assisted by Messers. Edgar, Miller and Nevergole and their children very kindly delivered the donations to the House of Rest.

During the year the Offering Plates were relacquered and the ciborium and silver flagon were polished and dents removed. An old wardrobe has been enlarged and varnished and installed in the vestry room for the Rector's vestments.

Miss Wolff has charge of the Flower Calendar for the year. If anyone would like to give flowers for the Altar, please contact her. For its support the Guild depends on the generous response of the parish when the annual appeal is sent out.

We are glad to welcome two new members, Mrs. John Desmond and Mrs. Karl H. Kneller. We would like more members to participate in this devotional work. Anyone desiring to help may talk with Miss Davis, our Directress.

Respectfully submitted,
CORA S. DU MOULIN, Secretary

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The Vestment Chapter held regular meetings throughout the year on the third Wednesday of the month. We have 13 members.

The work of this organization always of a practical nature in the interest of the Choir was carried on as usual. Cottas and collars were laundered regularly and we bought one new man's cassock.

In November we sponsored the Cake and Food Table at the Parish Fair. From the proceeds we contributed $50 to the Church.

We always contribute to the Altar Guild for decorations at Christmas and Easter. At present we are selling dish cloths to add funds to our treasury.

THE CHOIR

Mr. Garside, has entered his second year as Organist and Choirmaster. He offered new horizons to those who procured his recommended Hymnal Companion. The organized choir has functioned continuously since 1905. The work of the Vestment Chapter, and especially that of Miss Isabel Webb, the Choirmother, is much appreciated.

The year 1958 marked the leaving of several of the solo voices and several from the chorus, who are missed by reason of long and valued service. Replacements were Mrs. J. Madison Heppe as Soprano Soloist, and Miss Elinor Galbraith as Alto Soloist. Miss Mabel E. Edwards, Soprano was also welcomed into the choir, as was Mr. Thomas Cole, Bass. Peter Humbert was the capable Cross-bearer and Stephen Gable's entrance as Flag-bearer added further to the dignity of the procession.

In the passing of Mr. William C. Leyshon on February 10, those who worship from the choir stalls lost a valued musical friend. Mrs. Frederick E. Stewart, Jr., was elected Treasurer of the Choir, and Mr. Frederick E. Stewart as Librarian. The Cantata, The Passion of Christ was presented on March 23, and the Choir sang at Valley Forge Chapel on September 21. We appreciated the help of Mr. Horace C. Walker from time to time. A social event was the afternoon and evening spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heppe.

CHOIR AND GUILDS COMMITTEE

THE EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Regular meetings were held on the third Wednesday of each month and were attended by an average of 12 members. The auxiliary had the pleasure of listening to Mrs. Frank Parnum speak on the advantages of prayer. Mrs. George Trickey reviewed two books, one on "Time is a Vanishing Asset" and the other on "Christian Living". Mrs. Blankertz reviewed a book on the History of the City Mission. Mrs. Day Edgar gave a talk on American Indians. All talks were well received.

For sociability and possible new members, several teas and coffee klatches were given in the first half of the year. Mrs. Platt, Mrs. Crowell, Mrs. Conant, Mrs. Ogden and Miss Wilkins were the hostesses. As a result of our annual activities, such as the play benefit at the Alden Park Playhouse, the Strawberry Festival and the Toy Table at the annual Fair, we were able to make contributions to the Diocesan Committees and charities.

A contribution was also made to the Church for repairs. Our group also sponsored the sending of two delegates to the Young People's Conference at the Conference Center. We feel this is a worthwhile project for the future.

Ten large cartons of clothing were sent to Church World Service and two boxes to the Indian Affairs Committee.

The Evening Auxiliary is an active sociable group and we are always happy to welcome new members.

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

We have enjoyed a very good year. Our Membership has increased, and attendance has been very good. As usual our Group participated in the Strawberry Festival, the Parish Fair and Dinner, and the Christmas Pageant. Our plans to fix and cover the floor in the old Scout Room were completed with the help of several of the men of the Church.

A Canteen and Dance for our boys and girls and those of the surrounding community was started in the fall and has proved quite popular. The Canteen is held every other Saturday night. It has provided the Fellowship with funds to carry on their activities as well as giving the teenagers a wholesome place to meet and enjoy themselves. Our thanks go to all of those persons who have acted as chaperones for our affairs.

We again thank all who have been so generous and helpful to us. If our group can be of service to you, please call upon us.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of the parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of addresses.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Book

We have been publishing this Year Book continuously for over thirty-five years. It is a great adjunct to the life of our parish, and is referred to constantly by our workers. There is much information in this book. Read it, but do not cast it aside afterward, for you may have occasion to refer to it during the year.

The publication of the Year Book is made possible by the generosity of the advertisers. We have been collecting the advertisements ourselves during the last few years. As you may realize, we have to prove that it will be profitable to prospective advertisers.

Therefore whenever possible patronize the people who have ads in this book, and be sure to tell them that you saw their ad in the Epiphany Year Book. This will enable us to go back to them another year, and thus continue our book.

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1959

J. Wesley Twelves

You will find elsewhere in this Year Book a record of my official acts for the year 1959. At the parish meeting, I summarized some of the accomplishments during the year, and made suggestions for the year ahead.

Bequests in 1959

We have closed a very successful year financially. There is a sizable balance in all accounts. During 1959, we were most fortunate in receiving two bequests. Miss Louise Stern, a member of the parish, who died in April, made the parish the beneficiary of her pension fund, amounting to $47,324.66. Dr. Edward V. Valz, who died in May 1958, left a bequest to the parish of $250.00. Both bequests were put in our Capital Fund, started by the Book of Remembrance, and invested in the Church Foundation, which bears interest at about 4½ percent. The Book of Remembrance was started in 1953, with $25.00 and now amounts to $54,837.06.

Stained Glass Windows

During the year two stained glass windows were placed in the nave of the Church. Mr. George A. Rumsey, an interested neighbor gave a window in memory of his two brothers and their wives, all of whom had association with the parish in days gone by. A window was also given by one of our vestrymen, Mr. James A. Murphey, in memory of his father, George Eugene Murphey. During 1960, we expect to install two more windows, another given by Mr. Rumsey, and a window in memory of Miss Stern. The funds for this latter window will be taken from the interest accrued on her bequest.

Transfers

During the year just passed, I have been asked for a large number of transfers, from people who have moved from the parish. Some of these were on our active parish list, and some had been removed to the Diocesan Register, because, their whereabouts had become unknown. I am glad that people are keeping up their active membership in the parishes where they are attending. On the other hand we have a sizable number of Episcopalians attending our services who have never brought their transfers here. The Canons of the Church require that communicants coming from another parish shall obtain a Letter of Transfer. May I request such persons to become active communicants by getting their transfers to Epiphany.

Exercising Your Responsibility

At the parish meeting, I asked for a more active participation in the affairs of the parish by all members of the congregation. Too often the responsibility for many things is left in the hands of the rector, so that when a rector resigns or retires there is no one responsible to carry on. I wish all of you would think about this, and endeavor to accept more of the duties which the work of the Church requires.

Let us all during this coming year realize our obligations to bring others to the Church.

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Rector

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

Regular monthly meetings were held throughout the year, except in June, July and August. The average attendance was 15 members. Delegates from the Guild attended committee meetings of the divisions of the Episcopal Church Women and of the Germantown Convocation, and reported on the proceedings. Members also attended the tea given by the Bishop's Committee for the Divinity School.

In January, the Guild cooperated with the Evening Woman's Auxiliary in the supper preceding the Parish Meeting and after the Cantata on March 15.

The Lenten Study Series followed the plan of the preceding year. Dr. Twelves continued the discussion of the background and interesting facts about some of our hymns. The rest of the session was spent studying about the missionary activity in our 49th State, Alaska. The study sessions were followed by the usual luncheons. The collections taken at the study session went to the Diocesan 'special' for the year—St. George's mission in Kensington.

A contribution was sent to aid in the remodeling of the Auxiliary room at the Church House in memory of Mrs. Packard. Two books were purchased as gifts to missionaries via the Church Periodical Club.

Members were present for the spring ingathering of the U. T. O. at Valley Forge Military Academy in May, and in June the Guild held the regular cake sale at the Strawberry Festival. The funds received were for the Germantown Convocation.

In the fall the annual Dinner and Fair were held and in December gifts were sent to the guests at the House of Rest and donations were given to the Elizabeth Price Martin League for P. G. Hospital for Christmas gifts to patients.

Plans are underway for refurbishing the hangings at the windows in the parish house. The Woman's Guild invites all women of the parish to join with them in the work for Epiphany Church.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild took care of all the services during the year and helped decorate the Church for Christmas, Palm Sunday and Easter.

At Thanksgiving, Mrs. Heyward donated ears of corn and pumpkins, and Mr. Sartori gave stalks of corn to decorate the Church. Donations of fruit and groceries were placed at the entrance to the chancel. After the services, the donations were delivered to the House of Rest through the kindness of Messrs. Dewees, Edgar and Nevergole, assisted by the children.

The Guild purchased red cushions for the Baptismal Font. New Buttons were added to the cushions at the altar rail. The holder and pad for the alms basin have been repaired. Pacific cloth bags for all the silver vessels have been bought.

Miss Wolff has charge of the Flower Calendar, which hangs in the vestibule of the Church. Anyone desiring to give flowers for the Altar please consult with her.

To carry on this necessary work, the Guild depends on the generous response of the Parish when the annual appeal is sent out. We shall be glad to welcome new members to help in this quiet, but rewarding work of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

CORA S. DU MOULIN, Secretary

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The work of the Vestment Chapter is a most important and valuable service to the worship of the Church. The members are interested in the appearance and upkeep of the choir vestments.

Throughout the past year cottas and collars were laundered regularly. One new man's Cassock was purchased and nineteen collars for women members were bought. In addition we supported several other activities in the parish. In March the Vestment Chapter contributed to the expense of the Cantata supper. In November we sponsored the food and cake table at the parish fair, contributing $50.00 to the Church for general expenses. Contributions were also made to the Altar Guild for Christmas and Easter flowers.

Miss Isabel Webb is the Choir Mother, and the Vestment Chapter cooperates closely with her in trying to meet the needs of the choir. We invite all women who may be interested in the welfare of the choir to join with us in this necessary and important work. Meetings are on the third Wednesday of each month at 10:30 A. M. in the Parish House.

THE CHOIR

During the year, Mr. Thomas W. Garside resigned as organist and choirmaster, after having been with us for about two years. He was succeeded by Mrs. Loretta Fenstermacher, who took charge this past fall. She is an accomplished musician, and has done a great deal for the choir in the short time she has been with us.

A group of young persons who graduated from the Church School was added to the choir and to the crucifers. This gave us a full choir and they have been singing remarkably well. We have a new soprano soloist, Mrs. Marjorie Schmidt, a new baritone, Robert Boggs, and a new alto, Miss Jean Marshall. The many complimentary remarks from the congregation shows that they appreciate the fine singing. Mrs. Fenstermacher is pleased with the fine cooperation.

A new plan has been inaugurated for teen-agers who wish to sing occasionally, but cannot attend Friday rehearsals regularly. They will sing at four specific services, after rehearsing on several Sundays before each occasion.

The job of robing this larger choir has been carried on successfully by Miss Isabel W. Webb, the choir mother. The Vestment Chapter has renewed some of the vestments and keeps the cottas looking fresh and clean.

CHOIR and GUILDS COMMITTEE

THE EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Evening Woman's Auxiliary has held regular meetings on the third Wednesday of each month with an average attendance of fourteen.

This year committee chairmen attended Church House meetings with the President, Mrs. Taylor and brought back reports of the meetings.

It was decided to purchase a grand piano for the Church. A committee headed by Mrs. Henry Crowell worked hard and steadily and found a very suitable piano. We gave a card party and Strawberry Festival to raise funds to pay for the piano. Part of the Fair proceeds went to the piano fund, and part to the Church. The auxiliary group with the cooperation of the other guilds prepared the supper for the parish meeting and the cantata.

Mrs. George Trickey, educational chairman gave reports on the books "One Family in Christ" and "God and Christian Unity". Our Welfare Committee, Mrs. John Twelves, Mrs. William Sampson and Mrs. George Reinoehl have packed and delivered 32 boxes of clothing for Church World Service. They also delivered 56 pairs of used glasses to the Church Mission.

We have increased our membership this year and have room for many more to join our group.

Respectfully submitted

ELEANOR OGDEN, Secretary

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

In 1959, the Youth Fellowship continued its very successful bi-weekly Saturday night dances. During the summer, six of our Members spent a week at the Episcopal Conference Center in Radnor and fifteen of the Members spent a very enjoyable weekend at Ocean City. We have continued to meet on Sunday nights holding either a brief worship service and recreational activities, visiting other Fellowships in the area, or putting on our own programs.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of the parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of addresses.

Will you not therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Book

This is the 37th edition of this Year Book. It is a great adjunct to the life of the parish, and is referred to constantly by our workers. Read it carefully, but do not cast it aside afterward, for you will have many occasions to refer to it during the year.

The publication of the Year Book is made possible by the generosity of the advertisers. We have been collecting the advertisements ourselves during the past few years. We have to prove that it is profitable to prospective advertisers.

Therefore whenever possible patronize the people whose advertisement appears in the Book and be sure to tell them that you saw their ad in the Epiphany Year Book. This will help us in getting their ad the following year, and make it possible to continue its publication.

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1960

J. Wesley Twelves

You will find a record of my official acts elsewhere in this Year Book. This is a short summary of a rather rambling report of the accomplishments during the year which I made at the Parish Meeting.

We have closed a very successful year financially, with a sizeable balance in the bank. The spirit and tone of the parish activities has been kept on a high level, if not always numerically great.

Long Periods of Service

I have just completed thirty-six years as Rector of the parish. This has reminded me of the long periods of years that others have served in official capacity and otherwise in the parish. Mr. Truitt has been a member of the Vestry for 42 years, Mr. Kent for 35 years. Mr. Dewees has been singing in the choir for 50 years. Miss Davis has been head of the Altar Guild for 30 years, and Miss Wolff, its treasurer for the same period. Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Ogle have served in official capacities in the Guilds for over 25 years. We still have several individuals who were in the parish when it started 62 years ago, and many that have been active for over 25 years. This is a good record, in spite of many changes in our community.

Stained Glass Windows

During 1960 two more stained glass windows were installed in the nave of the Church. Mr. George A. Rumsey, shortly before his death, gave another window in memory of his father and mother. From the interest income of the legacy of Miss Louise Stern, we installed a window in her memory. The number of windows we have placed in the Church recently have added greatly to its beauty.

Transfers

May I again urge those Episcopalians who worship with us regularly to obtain their Letters of Transfer. During the year we lost by transfer and death 19 communicants, reducing our report to the Bishop. This could easily be offset by a considerable addition if those who come regularly would become communicant members by getting their transfers.

May I urge a more faithful and regular attendance of all our members at Church services, and a greater participation in and responsibility for the work of the Church.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

Regular meetings were held, except in June, July and August with an average attendance of seventeen members. Delegates attended Committee meeting at the Church House and reported on the proceedings. Some members attended the Tea given by the Bishop's Committee for the Divinity School. Members were present at the Spring Ingathering of the United Thankoffering at Valley Forge Military Academy, and in June, the regular Cake Sale was held at the Strawberry Festival. Funds were used for the Germantown Convocation.

In January the Guild cooperated with the Evening Auxiliary in preparing supper before the Parish Meeting, and after the Cantata on Passion Sunday.

During Lent, Dr. Twelves presented some of the doctrines of the Church, Mrs. Whitehurst reviewed some chapters from the book, Modern Pilgrims to Canterbury. The Mission Study period was devoted to a study of African conditions and Missions. The proceeds from the luncheons held after the study session were given to the Church Easter Offering, and the Mission Study Offering to St. John's Settlement.

The usual cooperative effort went into the Annual Dinner and Fair in November. Gifts were sent to guests at the House of Rest and to Elizabeth Price Martin League for Philadelphia General Hospital.

Material for refurbishing the curtains in the Parish House was purchased and curtains made by Miss Muriel How. Plans for continuing same in the kitchen are under way.

The Woman's Guild invites all women of the parish to join in the work of the Guild.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild had its usual busy year, taking care of all the services and decorating the Church for Palm Sunday, Easter and Christmas.

At Thanksgiving, Mrs. Desmond and Mrs. Nevergole provided pumpkins and ears of corn, and Mr. Sartori gave corn stalks to decorate the chancel. Donations of canned food, fruit and vegetables were also used for decoration. After the services the donations were taken to the House of Rest by Mr. Alan Dewees and Mr. Leon Hayward. We greatly appreciate their help.

A nylon surplice was purchased for our Rector. A donation given by Mrs. Du Moulin in memory of her mother, Mrs. George C. Stiles was used for this purpose.

It is a pleasure to welcome Mrs. Marion L. Devoe as a new member of the Altar Guild. Anyone desiring to help in this sacred work of the Church may talk with Miss Davis, our Directress.

Miss Wolff arranges the Flower Calendar which hangs in the vestibule of the Church. Those who would like to give flowers for the Altar, please notify her.

To continue its work, the Guild depends on the generosity of members of the parish when the annual appeal is sent out.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The work carried on by this dedicated group of women consists mainly in caring for the choir vestments. They have made it possible to have the cottas laundered regularly throughout the year.

In addition they gave $25.00 toward the purchase of the new piano. They sponsored the Food Table at the Parish Fair and of the proceeds of $85.00 gave $50.00 to the Church. They also sent contributions to the Altar Guild at Easter and Christmas for the Church decorations.

We were all saddened by the death of one of our most devoted members, Mrs. Truitt, who seldom missed a meeting.

Meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month at 10:30 A.M. We need the interest of more women who have children or teen-agers in the choir.

BESSIE OGLE, Treasurer

THE CHOIR

During the year Mrs. Loretta Fenstermacher resigned as organist and choir director, because of her removal to New Orleans. She had done a fine job in the short while she had been with us. We were fortunate to find a quick replacement in the person of Mr. John Craig Roak, Jr., who has carried on in a fine spirit.

A sacred Cantata was given during Lent, followed by a supper prepared by the women's groups. A good attendance and an enjoyable time afterwards made it a very worthwhile occasion. The choir has been very faithful in attendance and has done an excellent job of leading the singing. We are always glad to add new members to the choir, and invite any persons with good voices to come out to rehearsals on Friday evenings.

Miss Webb, the Choir Mother has looked after the robing of the choir, and the Vestment Chapter has readily responded to any needs for new vestments, as well as keeping the cottas looking fresh and clean.

CHOIR and GUILDS COMMITTEE

THE EVENING GROUP—EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

The Evening Group has held regular meetings on the Third Wednesday of each month. Attendance has ranged from eight to seventeen. The group will meet this year on the third Thursday of each month.

Members, including Mrs. Crowell, Mrs. Nevergole, Mrs. Platt and Mrs. Taylor have attended meetings at the Church House and elsewhere in the Diocese. They brought back interesting reports of Christian Social action, quiet days and other activities.

The group is extremely proud that the grand piano, purchased for the Church last year, has been completely paid for. Under the direction of Mrs. Crowell, profits from the Strawberry Festival and from a highly successful Musicale were used to complete the purchase. The Young People and the Vestment Chapter made contributions of $25.00 each.

The Evening Group also took part in the Annual Parish Fair, making and selling toys and decorations. In cooperation with the other Guilds, they prepared the supper. The supply committee of Mrs. John Twelves, Mrs. Roecker and Mrs. Murphey was active and original. The group also helped with the supper after the Cantata.

An interesting and successful theatre party given with the cooperation of the Erdenheim Players was a feature of the year. Mrs. Reinoehl, Mrs. Sampson and Mrs. John Twelves delivered approximately thirty bundles of clothing for Church World Service. Gifts from the Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Platt were sent by Mrs. Blankertz to the Philadelphia General Hospital. Donations to charitable and educational branches of the Church work were extended as can be seen by the budget. The group was particularly pleased to be able to assist the Youth Fellowship in sending members to the Conference Center in Radnor. Mrs. Platt, educational chairman gave information on the political, social and religious background of modern Africa.

Because of the help of all, this has been a gratifyingly successful year. In spite of some extremely bad weather, meetings have been enthusiastically attended. A hearty welcome is extended to all potential new members.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of the parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of addresses.

Will you not therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Book

This is the 38th edition of this Year Book. It is a great adjunct to the life of the parish, and is referred to constantly by our workers. Read it carefully, but do not cast it aside afterward, for you will have many occasions to refer to it during the year.

The publication of the Year Book is made possible by the generosity of the advertisers. We have been collecting the advertisements ourselves during the past few years. We have to prove that it is profitable to prospective advertisers.

Therefore, whenever possible, patronize the people whose advertisement appears in the Book and be sure to tell them that you saw their ad in the Epiphany Year Book. This will help us in getting their ad the following year, and make it possible to continue its publication.

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1961

J. Wesley Twelves

At the Parish Meeting I made a report of my official acts, and they are listed elsewhere in this Year Book under Statistics.

State of the Parish

As you will note from the various reports, the parish is in good condition financially. I want especially to call your attention to several items which might otherwise be overlooked. We overpaid our missionary quota by $300.00, as well as giving substantial contributions to various appeals.

Our capital Funds account, sometimes called the Book of Remembrance, now amounts to $54,751.89, and brings in about $2,250.00 annually. Up to the present time we have not used any of this money for parish expenses. During the past year, we gave $1,500.00 to Bishop Hart to use in aiding divinity students. The Vestry makes a decision each year as to how the proceeds of this fund should be used.

Physical Property

During the year some renovations and improvements to the property were made. A new electric range was installed in the rectory, the parish house interior was painted and some cement work was done on the walks at a total cost of about $2,000.00. These items were paid for out of current funds and a special collection. During 1962 we would like to do some renovation work in the Church, which has not been painted for over 15 years.

proper order. After 37 years, many things accumulate, and some need to be weeded out. Among these is the communicant membership of the parish. We have been carrying many people on our list who have moved away during the last few years. Some of these are young persons whose families are still in the parish, and we have been reluctant to let them go. But we have now removed about 100 persons from the parish list and transferred them to the Diocesan Register. This has reduced our Communicant List to 220. In the same vein, we could add to our list about 25 persons who have recently come to the parish, but have not actually been transferred here. Shortly I will write a letter asking these persons who make their communions here to become Communicant members by transfer.

A New Rector Committee

Several months ago a Vestry Committee was organized to consider the future of the parish in contemplation of the coming of a new rector. This committee has made a study of the status of the parish in numbers, finances, and what the future may be in this changing community. It is the conviction of this committee and all those that they have consulted, that this parish has an obligation to minister to this community. To do the work which needs to be done, the loyalty, the understanding and the cooperation of all our present members is essential. With this attitude in mind the committee is now engaged in sounding out the field of possibilities.

In this coming transitional period may I bespeak for the parish your deepest sense of loyalty.. I am very appreciative of the large group of willing workers, who have done so much to keep the tone of the parish on a high level.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Guild suffered a great loss in the death of its devoted and efficient President, Mrs. Roland Whitehurst, during the summer. A gift in her memory was given to the Book of Remembrance.

Regular monthly meetings were held except in June, July and August. Delegates attended Committee meetings at the Church House, and reported on the proceedings. Some members attended the Tea given by the Bishop's Committee for the Divinity School. Members were present at the Presentations of the United Thank Offering at the Spring Annual meeting at Valley Forge Military Academy and at the Fall Ingathering in Holy Trinity.

During Lent, Dr. Twelves continued the study of some of the Doctrines of the Church, and the Mission Study period was spent considering conditions and needs in Mexico. The usual luncheons followed the study period. The proceeds of the luncheons went to the Easter Offering and an offering was taken for Diocesan Specials.

Our usual cooperation went into the preparation for the annual Dinner and Fair in November. Christmas gifts were sent to the guests at the House of Rest, and a contribution to the Elizabeth Price Martin League for the Philadelphia General Hospital gifts.

Some additional equipment for the kitchen was purchased. The Woman's Guild invites all women of the parish to join in the work of the Guild.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild took care of all the services during the year, and helped decorate the Church for Palm Sunday, Easter and Christmas.

At Thanksgiving, Mrs. Heyward and Mrs. Desmond provided pumpkins, Mrs. Nevergole gave ears of corn and Mr. Sartori gave corn stalks to decorate the Church. Donations of canned goods and fruit were placed at the entrance to the Chancel. After the service the donations were taken to the House of Rest through the kindness of Mr. Dewees, Mr. Nevergole and two of the Walter Miller children.

Miss Wolff has charge of the Flower Calendar in the vestibule of the Church. Anyone desiring to give flowers for the Altar may consult her. There was an average attendance of seven members at the nine monthly meetings.

The Guild reports with regret the loss of a very faithful member, Mrs. Walter B. Seeley. A donation in her memory was given to the Book of Remembrance.

It is a pleasure to welcome three new members, Mrs. John S. Conant, Mrs. Armin F. Shuman, and Mrs. M. S. Stevens. We shall be glad to have others join us in this devotional work of the Church.

To carry on this important service, the Guild depends on the generous response of the parishioners when the annual appeal is sent out.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The work of the Vestment Chapter, that of caring for the Choir Vestments, was carried on as usual throughout the year. The laundering of cottas and collars was done regularly. We bought one new cassock and three new cottas.

In November we sponsored the Food and Cake Table and of the proceeds of $84.41, we gave $50.00 to the Church. We also contributed to the Altar Guild for Christmas Greens and Easter flowers.

Meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month. Our revenue is obtained from member dues and the sale of articles. We extend a cordial invitation to all Epiphany women to become members.

THE CHOIR

The Choir has had a very fine year. Despite a great deal of bad weather, it has been most faithful and enthusiastic. Special thanks go to the members of the quartet who contributed so much to the summer services.

Though no Cantata was given last year, several particularly memorable anthems were sung. Among them were "Hear My Prayer," Mendelssohn; "Sing Unto the Lord," Titcomb, and "Rejoice in the Lord Always" by Purcell. The Choir would especially welcome new members. We meet on Friday evenings at 8 o'clock.

Miss Webb, the Choir Mother, and the Vestment Chapter have been devoted in their care of the choir vestments. Many thanks to them.

JOHN ROAK, Choirmaster and Organist

EVENING GROUP—EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

The regular meetings of the Evening Group were held on the third Thursday of each month with an average attendance of eleven members.

In March, Mrs. Jane Platt gave a very enlightening talk on Mexico in general and of the Church in Mexico. Dr. Twelves, in April, spoke on Church History and the English Reformation. The Group had the pleasure of a visit in September from Sister Jane Elizabeth, who gave a report of her work at St. Monica's Home in Roxbury. Various members brought back to the group reports on the World Day of Prayer, Diocesan Worship Committee, United Thank Offering at Valley Forge Chapel and the Quiet Meeting at Trinity Memorial Church.

For possible new members and sociability, Mrs. Pauline Crowell had a Tea in March. Several activities were held to raise money for contributions to the Diocesan Committee and other charities. These were a card party in May and the Toy Table at the Annual Parish Fair. Six cartons of clothing were delivered to the Church World Service in June.

Projects for the coming year are underway for new curtains for the stage, and handwork purchased from the Church House. We extend a hearty invitation for new members to join our active group.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of the parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of addresses.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Book

This is the 39th edition of this Year Book. It is a great adjunct to the life of the parish, and is referred to constantly by our workers. Read it carefully, but do not cast it aside afterward, for you will have many occasions to refer to it during the year.

The publication of the Year Book is made possible by the generosity of the advertisers. We have been collecting the advertisements ourselves during the past few years. We have to prove that it is profitable to prospective advertisers.

Therefore, whenever possible, patronize the people whose advertisement appears in the Book and be sure to tell them that you saw their ad in the Epiphany Year Book. This will help us in getting their ad the following year, and make it possible to continue its publication.

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1962

Milton S. Leber

At the Parish Meeting the official report of official acts was reported. These are listed elsewhere in this Yearbook under Statistics.

A New Rector

My first words must be an expression of deep gratitude for the fine welcome given to the new rectory family upon our coming to Epiphany Church. Thanks are due to Dr. Twelves and the members of the Vestry and others who made such thorough preparations for the coming of a new Rector. By now we have really begun to get to know one another and The Lebers have had a chance to get acquainted with the community.

State of the Parish

You will observe from reports in this Yearbook that there are many commendable aspects to our parish life. We are in an adequate condition financially, although there is no question that we have many ways in which additional funds could be put to good use, as they become available.

Our capital funds, Book of Remembrance now amounts to about $59,338.00 and brings in a substantial income annually. Every member of the parish is called upon to consider memorial contributions to this fund, particularly through a Christian Last Will and Testament.

Without question, our greatest asset as a parish is the fact that we are blessed with a faithful membership and with very capable leadership within our Vestry and each of our parish organizations.

Physical Property

This year several improvements were made in the Rectory. All interior walls on the first and second floors were painted and the kitchen was renovated with a new sink, cabinets and work surfaces.

All needed efforts were made to maintain the Church property itself and a snow blower was purchased to aid in snow removal.

The Future

Your Rector's plans for the future were rather fully outlined in a brochure entitled "Project 1963." The booklet was distributed at the annual meeting and copies are still available. Many of the ideas presented are already under way. One of the members of the parish has given funds to provide a stereophonic tape recorder, which has been a great help to the Rector and Choir and which has enabled us to begin keeping a living recorded history of important events of parish life.

All of our anticipations will not come to pass overnight, but these many ideas stand before us as a challenge for the future.

One exciting innovation this year will be a Union Series of Lenten Services, which are planned in co-operation with five other Episcopal Churches in Germantown. The services will be held each Wednesday evening and will conclude on Palm Sunday afternoon, with visits to each of the six parishes and sermons by each Rector to be a feature of the series. The theme will be, "Christ in Our Crowded Ways," based on the hymn, "Where Cross the Crowded Ways."

The days ahead will be great days for this parish. As we work, pray, worship and fellowship together, we shall share the real abundance of life as Christ has promised. Here's my hand, can we join together in lifting high the banner of Epiphany Church to the glory of her Lord and Saviour?

Your Servant in Christ,

MILTON S. LEBER, Rector

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

Regular meetings of the Woman's Guild were held each month except February, June, July and August. Delegates attended and reported on meetings at Church House, also at the Presentation of the United Thank Offering at Valley Forge.

During Lent, after study periods, luncheon was served. A Dinner and Fair was held in November.

Gifts were sent to the House of Rest, Farm School and other deserving gifts were made.

We welcome all women of the parish to our meetings. There is much work to be done.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Members of the Altar Guild helped decorate the Church for Palm Sunday, Easter and Christmas, and took care of preparations for all the services throughout the year.

At Thanksgiving Mrs. Heyward gave pumpkins and Mrs. Nevergole donated stalks and ears of corn to decorate the chancel. Donations of canned goods, fruit and vegetables were placed on the steps of the chancel. After the services the donations were taken to the House of Rest through the kindness of Mr. Alan Dewees and Mr. John C. Roak, Jr.

Miss Edna C. Davis, who has been the capable and devoted Directress of the Altar Guild for many years, has retired in that capacity, but will remain as an active member of the Guild. We are very fortunate in having Mrs. Alfred W. Platt take her place. Mrs. Platt gave a Tea in honor of Miss Davis in the fall.

It is with sincere regret that we report the loss by death, removed, or other reasons, of the following members: Mrs. Charles Atherton, Mrs. John S. Conant, Mrs. Benjamin H. Heyward, Mrs. Agnes Shaw Kelly, Mrs. Karl H. Kneller, Miss Elizabeth C. Stork, Miss Dorothea Thullen, Mrs. J. Wesley Twelves, and Miss Ruth M. Wolff.

We are glad to announce that Mrs. William P. Guckes has accepted the Treasurership of the Guild. She is also in charge of the Flower Calendar hanging in the Vestibule of the Church. If anyone would like to give flowers for the Altar, please consult her.

It is a pleasure to welcome the following new members to the Altar Guild: Mrs. Edward G. Costello, Mrs. William P. Guckes, Mrs. Milton S. Leber, Mrs. William C. Leyshon, and Mrs. Allen L. Rile.

To carry on this sacred work of the Church, the Altar Guild depends on the generous support of all the parishioners when the annual appeal is sent out.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The work of the Vestment Chapter, that of caring for the Choir Vestments, was carried on as usual throughout the year. The laundering of collars and cottas was done regularly, new ones were purchased when needed.

In November we sponsored the Food and Cake Table at the Annual Fair and of the proceeds of $74.17 we gave $50.00 to the Church. We also donated money to the Altar Guild for Easter Flowers and Christmas Greens.

Meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month at 10:30 A.M. in the Parish Hall. Our revenue is obtained from members' dues and the sale of small articles. We need new members badly, and extend a cordial invitation to all Epiphany women to join us.

THE CHOIR

Epiphany worshippers are fortunate in having a Church building attractive not only to the eye, but also to the ear through such seemingly good natural acoustics. Perhaps the Church acoustics are best observed through early arrival at the Sunday eleven o'clock service. Here Mr. Roak increasingly demonstrates his fine musicianship through the preludes on our organ. Mr. Roak has entered upon his third year as our organist.

The appearance of the choir members is a constant tribute to the efforts of Miss Isabel Webb, our Choir-mother, and those of the Vestment Chapter, and last but not least the laundering of the cottas by Mrs. Rose Talerico, whose has been performing this service for about 15 years.

Changes in personnel remind us of our welcoming Mrs. Edith Gaines as Alto soloist and Mr. Donald Black into the Tenor section. The return of Mrs. Theresa Stewart, former Soprano soloist, is a valuable lift to the melody-carrying section. In the Crucifer-Flagbearer staff we are glad to have Mr. Bill Sampson.

Among many extra roles taken by the choristers we have noted for some time Mr. Fred Stewart's helpful assistance on Communion Sundays.

It is a pleasure to record the favorable comments on the music which Bishop Hart made at the recent Service of Institution, the growing evidences of interest musically on the part of the congregation, and Mr. Leber's constant interest and inspiration.

EVENING GROUP — EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

The regular meetings of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Evening Group were held on the third Thursday of each month with a good attendance of active members. We have enjoyed a very successful year.

We were able to make many donations of money and materials for worthy causes. Knitted sweaters and sewn diapers were given to hospitals in the Diocese. Ten boxes of clothing were sent to Church World Service for shipment overseas. Christmas donations of money were presented to the Elizabeth Price Martin League at Philadelphia General Hospital, The Church Farm School, and the Mount Edgemont School in Sitka, Alaska. We contributed $55.00 toward Church affairs and a sum toward the purse given to Dr. Twelves. We provided new curtains for the stage in the Parish Hall.

Our services have been many. We helped to give a supper after the Cantata. A benefit was held on May 11th to raise money for the curtain fund. We took charge of the Strawberry Festival refreshments and the entertainment, "The Life of Dr. and Mrs. Twelves." We gave two receptions: one after the new Rector's first service, and one after his Institution as Rector and the Service of Confirmation. We had charge of the Toy Table at the Annual Parish Fair and took care of food purchasing for the dinner and serving the dinner. Three members of our group attended the United Thank Offering Presentation Service.

In addition, we had several outstanding programs. The Rev. Dr. Percy R. Stockman, D.D., Director and Chaplain Emeritus of the Seamen's Church Institute, gave an excellent talk on the unusual work at the Institute. A skit, "To Whom Do We Minister?", was presented by a group of our members. Mrs. George S. Trickey spoke on conditions in Latin America as a Lenten Study.

We are looking forward to a new year supported by old members and new members alike. We hope to be able to purchase a new mimeographing machine as our project for the year.

ELOISE H. BLANKERTZ, Recording Secy.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of the parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of addresses.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Book

This is the 40th edition of this Year Book. It is a great adjunct to the life of the parish, and is referred to constantly by our workers. Read it carefully, but do not cast it aside afterward, for you will have many occasions to refer to it during the year.

The publication of the Year Book is made possible by the generosity of the advertisers. We have been collecting the advertisements ourselves during the past few years. We have to prove that it is profitable to prospective advertisers.

Therefore, whenever possible, patronize the people to tell them that you saw their ad in the Epiphany Year whose advertisement appears in the Book and be sure Book. This will help us in getting their ad the following year, and make it possible to continue its publication.

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1963

Milton S. Leber

At the Parish Meeting the report of official acts was made. These are listed elsewhere in this Yearbook under Statistics.

The Parish continues to function through the strength of our parish organizations guided by very capable leadership.

State of Parish

The Vestry has continued to look after the physical state of our buildings. The exterior walls are in the process of being re-pointed. Various other repairs have been made during the year as they have been found necessary. All in all our physical plant is being kept in very adequate condition.

Financially, the parish continues to manage, although not without careful management. Every attempt is made to make wise use of our income. As you will observe elsewhere in this booklet, the funds that are a part of our Book of Remembrance account continues to grow. Members of the parish are asked to remember the important assistance these funds render to our Parish, now as they will in the future. You are asked to bear in mind consideration of memorial contributions to the Book of Remembrance, particularly through a Last Will and Testament.

The Past Year

At the last year's Annual Meeting the Rector made several proposals for parish action. These were incorporated in a booklet entitled, "Project: 1963". In all 14 ideas were suggested. It was not expected that all of these would be put into action in a single year, since many were long range plans. But, interestingly enough, 7 of the 14 ideas are already under way.

Notable in these achievements have been: Increased co-operation with the other Episcopal Churches in Germantown through the Union Lenten Services and an Advent Teaching Mission. The outdoor flag pole was re-conditioned and through the generosity of The Crenshaws, we have new American and Episcopal Church flags to fly on Sundays and holidays. We have secured a new Church Guest Book, given by Mr. Roland Whitehurst and a new altar service book, given by Mrs. Marion Devoe. During the summer months the members of the vestry assisted by some of the men in the parish saw to the clean-up of the parish grounds, removing excess shrubbery and trash that had accumulated. Our ministry to youth in the community has been re-activated with the start of a Friday night coffee house, "The Hungry 'Y'", which provides folk singing, refreshments and fellowship for young people.

The Women's Guild Musicales; the 65th Anniversary Service in October; the Annual Fair and Buffet Dinner, the Lenten Cantata; the Pageant and Manger Service; and the Strawberry Festival mark a few of the high in the year.

The Future

Plans for the future have been made. At the Annual Meeting plans were described which may lead to the eventual renovation of the basement to give improved facilities for our Church School.

A parish study to be undertaken during and after Lent will aid us in seeing other potential improvements. We have joined with the six other parishes in Germantown to begin trying to see areas in which we can co-operate with one another. We anticipate a great event on Ascension Day, May 7th, when the new Bishop Coadjutor, The Right Reverend Robert L. DeWitt will address a combined meeting of the seven Germantown Churches in Christ Church and St. Michael's.

The days ahead are bright. Many have been praying for miraculous things to take place at Epiphany. We have seen the beginning of many of these miracles. Others are before us.

Your Servant in Christ,

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild, under the able leadership of Miss Amanda Streeper, held meetings each month of the past year, except June, July and August.

Delegates attended and reported on meetings at the Church House. Delegates also attended the presentation of the United Thank Offering.

During Lent we attended lectures by the Rev. Milton S. Leber in the Parish House.

Christmas gifts were sent to the ladies in the House of Rest and contributions were made during the year to lepers on Okinawa, to the House of Rest, Church Farm School, the Elizabeth Price Martin League and to the Church at Easter and Christmas.

A dinner and fair was held in November, at which a combination of buffet and covered dish dinner was served.

We invite all the women of the parish to join with us and help with the work of the church and its activities.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild has had another busy and rewarding year, preparing for all the services and decorating the Church for Palm Sunday, Easter and Christmas.

At Thanksgiving, pumpkins donated by Mrs. Desmond and ears and stalks of corn given by Mrs. Nevergole, decorated the chancel. Donations of groceries and canned goods were placed on the chancel steps. After the services, the donations were taken to the House of Rest. We are grateful to Miss Debbie Edgar, Mr. Edgar, Mr. Florey and his children, for loading the articles into the car and to Mr. Dewees and Mr. Hayward for delivering the donations.

Mrs. Marion S. DeVoe gave a beautiful Altar Service Book in memory of her husband, William F. DeVoe. The Guild purchased a light-weight cassock and cincture for Mr. Leber, to use during the summer.

Mrs. Guckes has charge of the Flower Calendar, which hangs in the vestibule of the church. Anyone desiring to give flowers for the altar please see Mrs. Guckes.

It is with regret that we report the resignation of two members: Mrs. Marion S. DeVoe, due to reasons of health, and Mrs. M. L. Stevens, who is no longer in this area.

Two new members were welcomed during this year, Mrs. Edmund A. Crenshaw, Jr. and Miss Carol Twelves. We shall be glad to have others who would like to share in this devotional work of the Church.

We hope for a generous response from members of the Parish when the annual appeal of the Altar Guild is sent out.

THE CHOIR

The top news for the calendar year 1963 took place on Sunday morning, March 10th, when the ladies changed from mortarboard hats to the new Canterbury hats—and this but one of the many fine services rendered by the Vestment Chapter. After about ten years of faithful service as Choirmother, Miss Isabel Webb asked to be relieved. We appreciate Mrs. Henry Crowell taking over here.

If cantatas are any criterion of choir accomplishment, then we must point with pride to the performance of Eric Thiman's "The Last Supper" on Passion Sunday afternoon, March 31st.

The Church School Pageant on Sunday afternoon, December 22nd, under the able direction of Mrs. Peter Florey and Mrs. John Hassett scored high with its new format, the entire adult choir performing from solo and speaking parts to chorus; not to omit the lift given the Wise Men by their youthful attending Pages.

Newcomers to the ranks were Misses Carol Twelves and Patricia Jackson in the alto row, the latter as soloist, with Miss Freda Gowling as Soprano soloist, and the frequent appearances of Miss Patricia Crowell are appreciated.

The charming Rile sisters, Betsy and Dorothy, appeared on the last Sunday of the old year in two violin supporting parts when the choir offered as the anthem, Bender's arrangement of "Be Ye Joyful Earth and Sky."

Mr. John Roak's efforts as he enters his fourth year as organist and choirmaster are marked by continued noteworthy teamwork existing between he and the Rector.

ALAN DEWEES, for the Choir

EVENING GROUP — EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

The regular meetings of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Evening Group, held on the third Thursday of each month were well attended.

Donations of money and materials were made to various worthy causes. Sweaters were knitted and diapers sewn for Indian children. Mrs. Sampson took boxes of used clothing to St. Paul's. Christmas donations were presented to the Elizabeth Price Martin League at Philadelphia General Hospital. A parcel post package was sent to the One Hundredth Anniversary of Epiphany Church, Durham, Conn., for their parish fair. The guild contributed to the fund to send four young people to the Radnor Conference. We contributed fifty dollars toward Church repairs. New plastic cloths were provided for the dining tables.

Some new services were added to the usual this year. In March the Religious Council of Germantown held a meeting in the Parish House and a luncheon was served. We helped with a supper after the Cantata. The first couples meeting was planned and held in May. The group took charge of the Strawberry Festival refreshments and entertainment. Again we helped in serving refreshments after the 65th Anniversary of the Parish and Mr. Leber's 1st anniversary as Rector. The evening group took part in the Annual Parish Fair making and selling toys and decorations. In co-operation with the other Guilds, they prepared the supper.

Mrs. Platt was able to enlist two fine speakers during the year; Miss Helen Berry and Lenore McCullough, who discussed for our educational program, the outstanding book, "The Rim of East Asia."

Mr. and Mrs. Platt also showed us their excellent pictures of the Holy Land.

A warm welcome is extended to any who would like to join us in future activities.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of the parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of addresses.

Will you not, therefore, inform the rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Book

This is the 41st edition of this Year Book. It is a great adjunct to the life of the parish, and is referred to constantly by our workers. Read it carefully, but do not cast it aside afterward, for you will have many occasions to refer to it during the year.

The publication of the Year Book is made possible by the generosity of the advertisers. We have been collecting the advertisements ourselves during the past few years. We have to prove that it is profitable to prospective advertisers.

Therefore, whenever possible, patronize the people whose advertisement appears in the Book and be sure to tell them that you saw their ad in the Epiphany Year Book. This will help us in getting their ad the following year, and make it possible to continue its publication.

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1964

The report of official acts and a statistical summary concerning the year is appended to this report indicating some aspects of the life of our parish during the year. Bare statistics can never tell the complete story of the vitality of our parish and its outstanding organizations.

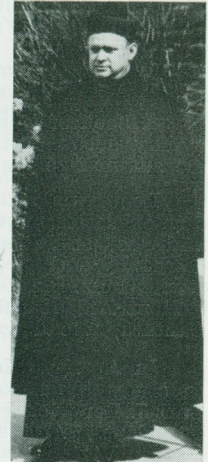

State of the Parish

The Vestry was strengthened this year by new members elected under the rotation system adopted last year. Mr. Scott Stewart III was appointed to fill the unexpired term of R. Marshall Truitt. Messrs. William W. Dickhart III, Allen L. Rile, John G. Twelves, and Dr. William C. Sampson were elected at the annual meeting as new members of the Vestry.

The Vestry has seen to the fabric of our buildings. A new vestibule was added in the parish hall to give comfort in cold weather. Two windows were sealed in the basement to strengthen the wall behind our altar. Pointing of all exterior walls was completed. The lighting in the nave was improved and brought up to safety standards. The "Scout Room" was painted by the young people of the Coffee House. Through the generosity of members of the parish new hymnals were secured for the choir and new purple hangings were brought for the pulpit and lectern together with a new communion burse and veil.

The fine state of our property is attested to by the fact that 10 times during the year community and Diocesan groups requested and received permission to use our facilities for large group meetings.

The Vestry is also responsible for managing the financial affairs of the parish. A most successful canvass was held in November under the direction of Alan Dewees and G. Scott Stewart. Careful management and responsible stewardship enable us to meet obligations as they arise. We rejoice that friends of the parish continue to help our Book of Remembrance endowment to grow. Memorial contributions are a great blessing to the work of the parish and function as a truly "Living Memorial."

Rev.
Milton S. Leber

The Past Year

A book of this size could almost be filled with a day-by-day account of the thrills of the past year. But let me summarize just a few of the highlights.

Lent was an inspiring time. The Rector's Sunday sermon series on the theme, "Meet the Master," and the mid-week studies on St. Luke's Gospel were both well received. We shared for the second year in the Germantown Union Lenten Series, contributing handsomely to Patient Aid at All Saints's Hospital. The choir's Lenten Cantata, "Road to Calvary" was very well done.

In April we began our part in the Diocesan Survey to study the resources and future of our parish. Mr. Carl J. Leftwich joined the Church School staff as Superintendent. We shared in the 24 hour a day Civil Rights' Prayer Vigil in our community. We mourned the death of Bishop Armstrong but joined in greeting our new Diocesan Bishop DeWitt at the Ascension Day service.

In June we had our first Parish Picnic on the church lawn. It was a great success. Later in the month we shared in staffing and sponsoring a Community Vacation Church School with Summit Church.

In the fall we welcomed Mr. David H. Rinald as organist to replace Mr. Roak, who had gone to Pakistan as a Fulbright scholar. Mr. Andrew Foster joined our choir as Bass soloist. Mrs. William Sampson and Miss Louise Wilson joined the Church School staff. Through the sponsorship of the Evening Auxiliary we welcomed our Seminarian, Mr. Charles H. Taylor and his wife, Judy. Mr. Taylor helps in services, in the Church School, and with the Coffee House Ministry. Judy has also helped in the Church School. The Church School has started its own worship services and has seen a new rebirth of spirit during the year.

The Annual Fair and Dinner was a success as was the Church School Pageant at Christmas and the Choir's Christmas presentation of "In Dulci Jubilo." The year was full of excitement.

The Future

The future is very bright. We shall have our Seminar with us again next year. The Church School is growing each week. Suggestions growing out of the Diocesan Survey will be available to us in the fall so that new plans can be made to guide our growth. We have been making experimental contacts toward coordinating the Church Schools of Epiphany and St. Peter's. We have a new Church Office, the parish library has been improved. Exciting things happen so often as we meet the challenges that arise that it is almost impossible to say what surprises await us in the future. One thing we can say, "Exciting things are always happening at Epiphany Church."

Your Servant in Christ,

MILTON S. LEBER, Rector

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

During the year the Women's Guild held monthly meetings each month, except June, July, and August.

The Guild keeps in touch with what other Church Women are doing. Faithful delegates bring interesting reports from the Overseas Division, Home Division, and Christian Social Relations.

Delegates attended services of the United Thank Offering and Germantown Convocation.

Gifts were sent for Christmas to the ladies at the House of Rest on Wayne Avenue.

Contributions were sent to the Elizabeth Price Martin League and $25.00 was given to the Book of Remembrance in memory of Mrs. Betts. Also contributions were sent to Alaskan Relief, the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churchwomen, and a Bible was furnished for the House of Rest. A contribution was made toward the purchase of a cassock and surplice for our Seminarian. At Easter and Christmas checks were given to the Church of the Epiphany.

A dinner and fair was held in November.

The work is interesting and essential to the life of the parish. We invite every woman of the parish to join us and help with these activities.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Two members of The Altar Guild are on duty each month except during the summer. The Guild helps to decorate the Church for Palm Sunday, Easter, and Christmas.

At Thanksgiving the chancel was decorated with pumpkins, ears and stalks of corn. Donations of groceries and canned goods were placed on the chancel steps. After the services, the donations were delivered to the House of Rest through the unfailing kindness of Mr. Alan Dewees, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Dysart.

Handsome purple hangings for the chancel, and a burse and veil were given by Mr. Roland Whitehurst in memory of his wife, Althea. The paraments were dedicated at the morning service on November 29th.

The Guild purchased a new cassock and surplice for Mr. Charles H. Taylor, our Seminarian, who is assisting in the Sunday School and parish.

Mrs. Guckes is in charge of the Flower Kalendar, which hangs in the vestibule of the Church. Anyone wishing to give flowers for the altar, please consult with Mrs. Guckes.

Two new members, Mrs. Joseph Hall and Mrs. John

D. Reynolds III were welcomed to the Altar Guild this year. We would welcome others of the Parish who would like to join in this devotional service to the Church.

To carry on this sacred work, the Altar Guild depends upon the generosity of the parishioners when the annual appeal is sent.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The work of the Vestment Chapter, that of caring for the Choir vestments, was carried on as usual throughout the year. The laundering of the collars and cottas was done regularly, new ones being purchased when needed. In May, we entertained the Choir at a Buffet Supper. "A good time was had by all."

In November, we sponsored the Food and Cake Table at the Annual Fair and of the proceeds of $75.69, we gave $50.00 to the Church for the repair fund. We also donated money to the Altar Guild for Easter flowers and Christmas greens.

Meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month at 10:30 a.m. in the Parish Hall. Our revenue is obtained from members' dues and the sale of small articles. We always welcome new members, and extend a cordial invitation to all Epiphany women to join us.

THE CHOIR

Events in 1964 seemed to start off with Passion Sunday, March 15th, at 5 P.M., when the Sacred Cantata "The Road to Calvary" by Bach-Cozens was performed, followed by the fine fellowship dinner sponsored by the women of the parish.

Miss Betsy Rile again contributed to our music, when she performed the violin obligato in Bach's "Jesu Joy" at the 11 A.M. service on April 12th. The service began with a Bach Prelude, also performed by Betsy.

Friday evening, May 15th, the Choir found themselves as guests of the Vestment Chapter at a delicious buffet supper. The thanks of all members of the Choir are extended for the variety of ways in which the Chapter shows its loyalty and its devotion. Mrs. Crowell also does well, having just completed her first year as Choir-mother.

Sunday evening, June 14th, at 8 P.M., saw another musicale at the Church. The Rile sisters appearing as violinists, Mr. Roak at the console, and the four choir soloists added up to another fine musical event.

Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Du Moulin entertained the choir royally at their home on West Mermaid Lane on the evening of Friday, June 26th.

Mid-October saw our beloved John Roak leave for East Pakistan, to study for a year, under a Fulbright Scholarship. In John's place we have been fortunate to secure Mr. David H. Rinald as Organist-Choir Director. And David has brought his wife, Llewellyn to join the alto section. Alice Ashley has also been a welcome addition to the Choir. In the fall we also added Andrew L. Foster, who is doing an impressive job as bass soloist.

Buxtehude's Pre-Reformation "Now Sing We, Now Rejoice" at the Christmas Eve service, with Richard Fine, a senior at Friends' Select School, playing the recorder passages, was one of our all-time top experiences. As always, the Rector, Mr. Leber, is our Sponsor No. 1.

ALAN DEWEES, for the Choir

EVENING GROUP — EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

The Evening Group of the Women of the Church of the Epiphany held regular meetings on the third Thursday of each month during the past year. Several new members gave encouraging support. A group handwork project of knitted lap robes for hospital use was undertaken with Mrs. John Twelves in charge.

Many members were able to help support the Co-Operative Prayer Vigil at St. Luke's Church during the Civil Rights legislative debates.

Our financial contributions again aided several projects. We provided part scholarships for children attending the Vacation Bible School and for our young people during the Summer Youth Conferences at the Diocesan Conference Center. Several of our members were teachers in the Vacation Bible School.

Along with other Church organizations we were pleased to help provide for the services and training of a Seminarian in our Church School and Parish. A supper following the Choir Cantata, the Parish Picnic, and Fair were traditional events for which we helped prepare.

We look forward to a new year with more opportunities for service and welcome all who would share it with us.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of the parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of addresses.

Will you not, therefore, inform the Rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Foreword About This Book

This is the 42nd edition of this Year Book. It is a great adjunct to the life of the parish, and is referred to constantly by our workers. Read it carefully, but do not cast it aside afterward, for you will have many occasions to refer to it during the year.

The publication of the Year Book is made possible by the generosity of the advertisers. We have been collecting the advertisements ourselves during the past few years. We have to prove that it is profitable to prospective advertisers.

Therefore, whenever possible, patronize the people whose advertisement appears in the Book and be sure to tell them that you saw their ad in the Epiphany Year Book. This will help us in getting their ad the following year, and make it possible to continue its publication.

RECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1965

The report of official acts and a statistical summary for the year is appended elsewhere in this yearbook.

State of the Parish

Our Vestry has continued to function faithfully. Changes have occurred in membership of the Vestry due to the rotation system of our by-laws. Retiring this time after years of loyal service were: Messrs. C. Hilton Kent, Alfred W. Platt, and Frederick Stewart. Elected at the annual meeting to fill these vacancies were Mrs. Jane Platt, C. Day Edgar, and Roland Whitehurst. Appointed to fill other vacancies were Messrs. Carl Leftwich and George Trickey.

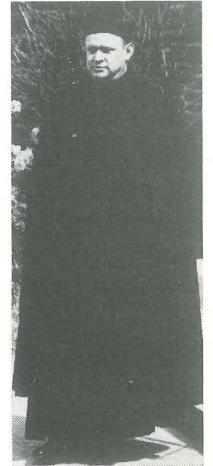

Our physical property has been more than adequately looked after. During the summer new carpeting was placed in the center aisle of the nave. The rood screen was strengthened. A new hot water heater was placed in the rectory to replace the old set-up which broke down. In the fall, memorial candlesticks were presented to grace our altar. Our new sexton, Mr. Dillard Reid, has kept the buildings and grounds always in presentable shape.

The Vestry has also continued to look after the financial affairs of the parish. The Canvass in November under the direction of Messrs. G. Scott Stewart and Allen L. Rile was well conducted. The Endowment through our Book of Remembrance continues to grow, with the income from it a great blessing to the parish.

The Past Year

Some day our Yearbook ought to be made up of just one complete, week by week, diary of the life of the parish. The past year had many memorable highlights.

The weekday Lenten "Prayer Workshop" was a great blessing to those who shared in it. Many helpful discussions were held. The Easter Offering (over $1,000) was a fitting climax to a meaningful Lenten Season. Our Union Services with other churches in Germantown was on the theme Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence. The Deans of our Convocations were speakers.

In May the Church School sponsored a Rogation Sunday Service. The entire congregation moved outdoors for the planting of our dogwood tree, which we had received in an exchange with St. Peter's Church.

In June the Picnic Supper sponsored by the women of the parish began our summer. The Vacation Church School during the month of July was held in co-operation with Summit Church. Over 150 children attended and the sessions were a great blessing to the youth of the community. Our Coffee House ministry also continued through the year.

In September a delegation from the parish helped Dr. and Mrs. Twelves celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary. In November our new Acolytes' Guild became active and we had Acolytes for all scheduled services. The boys were very faithful in their responsibilities. The Church School continued to grow in numbers and spirit. The Annual Pageant and Nativity Service in December was as beautiful and inspiring as ever. The Church School Christmas Party was a vacation treat for children in the Church School. In December our Book of Remembrance Endowment Fund received a gift from the estate of Mrs. Ella F. Lucas Betts of over $1,000.00.

The Future

The days before us remain challenging. The results of the Diocesan Survey have shown us things that we ought to be doing. To serve the community better we must look to improving our facilities. Previously suggested improvements to the basement of the Parish Hall seems to be the best place to begin. This would enable us to offer a much more varied program and would vastly improve the efficiency of our Church School. One thing is certain, we cannot simply sit back glorying in the achievements of the past, when the future is filled with such challenging opportunities.

Your servant in Christ,

MILTON S. LEBER, Rector

THE WOMEN'S GUILD

Meetings were held monthly except during June, July, and August.

We kept in touch with the activities of other Church Women and attended various meetings at the Church House, reporting on Diocesan Activities. Also we attended the service for the presentation of the United Thank Offering and of the Germantown Convocation as well as Bishop Dewitt's News Conference for the laity.

Gifts were sent to the ladies at the House of Rest, to St. John's Settlement House, Church Farm School, and to the Elizabeth Price Martin League.

At Christmas and Easter checks were given to the Church.

In December we joined the Evening Group for the Cake Sale and luncheon.

We invite all women of the parish to join us in this useful work.

AMANDA STREEPER, President

THE ALTAR GUILD

The members of the Altar Guild are on duty through the year to see that proper preparations are made within the chancel for services to be held. The Guild helps with special decorations for Palm Sunday, Easter, and Christmas.

At Thanksgiving the chancel was decorated with gifts of foodstuffs, pumpkins, and ears and stalks of corn. After the service these foodstuffs were donated to the residents at the House of Rest.

The Directress of the Guild assisted in procuring the memorial Candlesticks in the Fall. The Directress can be consulted about the possibility of other such memorials. The Directress also took charge of the Flower Kalendar due to the illness of Mrs. Guckes. The Kalendar hangs in the vestibule of the Church. Anyone wishing to give flowers for the altar is asked to please consult with either Mrs. Guckes or Mrs. Platt.

New members are always cordially welcomed to do the important work of the Altar Guild. You are invited to attend the regular scheduled meetings.

To carry on this sacred work, the Altar Guild depends upon the generosity of parishioners when the annual appeal is sent.

THE VESTMENT CHAPTER

The work of the Vestment Chapter, that of caring for the choir vestments, was carried on as usual throughout the year. The laundering of the collars and cottas was done regularly, new ones being purchased when needed..

We sent out the sacks in May to members of the congregation and had a good response. We donated money to the Altar Guild for Easter Flowers and for Christmas greens.

Meetings were held on the 3rd Wednesday of every month from October to May inclusive at 10:30 a.m. in the Parish House. Our income is obtained from members' dues and the sale of small articles, mainly dish clothes. We always welcome new members, who are very much needed to assist in our work. We extend a cordial invitation to all Epiphany Women to join with us.

CLARA M. SMITH, Secretary

THE CHOIR

As we write we are reminded of the constant encouragement of Mr. Leber, our Rector, in the music field. And this brings us to the return to the organ in early Fall of John Roak, from a year's Fulbright study in Pakistan. In the interim we had many interesting musical moments with Dave Rinald and his wife, Llewellyn. Their cook-out at their renovated Regent Street home on Sunday afternoon, June 27th was socially tops.

Newcomers to the choir were Becky McKinley as soprano soloist and Jim Kennedy in the baritone role.

To keep not only the new members, but also the oldsters well groomed, the Vestment Chapter and Choir-mother Pauline Crowell included among their many good deeds an all-out cleaning of the cassocks.

Sunday morning, May 23rd, saw the Choir processing out doors for the blessing and planting of the Church School Dogwood tree, planted in a joint venture with neighboring St. Peter's Church.

A band of Acolytes, under the guidance of Seminarian Charles Taylor, began their chancel tasks with the choir on Sunday October 10th.

Fried chicken a la Carol and Dorothy Twelves touched the heart and other areas at the Choir Supper on Friday evening, December 17th.

And last but not least, many choir personnel had parts in the always thrilling Church School Christmas Pageant on Sunday, December 19th, at Five.

ALAN DEWEES, for the Choir

EVENING GROUP — EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

The Evening Group of the Women of the Church held regular meetings on the 3rd Thursday evening of each month during the past year. Several new members have added their efforts to our work.

As with past years, our financial contributions aided several projects. This year particularly the co-operative Vacation Bible School, Diocesan Missions, Church World Service, and the United Thank Offering.

Highlights of the year were the Parish Picnic Supper in June and the Cake — Cookie Sale and Luncheon in December. We also assisted at the Every Member Canvass in November by serving Luncheon to the Canvassers.

We look forward to a new year with new officers, hoping that other women of the parish will join us in our efforts to make the life of the parish more meaningful. New members are always welcome to join us in our regular monthly meetings. Watch the Church Calendar for notices and join us.

The Family List of the Congregation

This list given below includes, so far as we have been able to ascertain, all those families who are interested in the Church of the Epiphany. Included are the names of individuals in families who are 18 years of age and over. It is not a communicant list, for there are many names on the list of persons who may not have been confirmed, or who are not technically members of the parish, because they have not been transferred here.

We also recognize that this list is not perfectly correct. We are quite sure that there are some names that are not included. We may have listed names of persons who are no longer connected with Epiphany, or who may be disinterested. There is also the possibility of incorrect spelling and change of address.

Will you not, therefore, inform the Rector by word or letter of any omission or change, so that our list may be as nearly correct as possible.

Compiled by The Rev. Dr. J. Wesley Twelves, D.D.
Rector Emeritus of Epiphany Church and Historian of The Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The name Mount Airy was given to the area by Chief Justice William Allen around 1750. His home was on Germantown Avenue near Allens Lane. The name Mt. Airy appears on an early map of 1759. Some of the sections of Mt. Airy were known as Pelham, Mount Pleasant and Cresheim. The area about the Church was known as Pelham until recent years.

LAND MARKS - PAST AND PRESENT

There were many historic places in the area. A few of them still remain. The Church of the Brethren, often referred to as the Dunkard Church, located on Germantown Avenue at Sharpnack dates back to 1723. The present building however is of recent construction. St. Michael's Lutheran Church on Germantown Avenue at Phil-Ellena Street was started in 1728 and again the present building is of recent origin. The little school house next to the Church, however, dates back to 1740, and was at one time the only school in Germantown.

The Chew Mansion, known as "Cliveden," was built around 1761. It is on Germantown Avenue at Cliveden Street. On the opposite side of Germantown Avenue is "Upsala" built in 1798. Both of these historic buildings are still standing.

The Billmeyer House, built in 1727, on the northeast corner of Germantown Avenue and Upsal Street was occupied by Michael Billmeyer in 1789. Billmeyer was a printer. He succeeded Christopher Sower (Dauer) the famous printer of old Germantown. Across the street on Germantown Avenue are several old houses, one of which is the Sparrowjack House, in which Jack Bardley lived. He is reputed to have brought the sparrows to this country in the early days, to kill the caterpillars which infested the land.

Up Germantown Avenue were several old houses, which have passed away. On the site of the present playground at Sedgwick Street was the Steamboat House, so called because of the large veranda which surrounded the house. At Mt. Pleasant Avenue was the Mount Pleasant Inn. Further up the Avenue were the Golden Swan Inn and the White Swan. The Lutheran Home was started in 1858. The Lovett Library was erected in 1887. Mrs. Charlotte Bostwick provided the Library in memory of her brother Thomas R. Lovett. Mrs. Bostwick in later years lived in the Steamboat House and her sister Mrs. Breese lived in the house just opposite the library. Both of these houses were standing until recent years, when they were torn down and the playground opened. The large Mt. Airy College started very and was approximately where the present Lutheran Seminary now is.

To the west, along Wissahickon Avenue the name of John Welsh is frequently found. His father-in-law was Dr. Edward Lowber. They owned considerable land along Wissahickon Avenue, east and west, beginning around Carpenter Lane. Welsh's daughter married Dr. George Strawbridge. Another daughter married Thomas P.C. Stokes. Much of the land to the west of the Church was owned by this family. Another member of the family was Mrs. James Somers Smith. A son, J. Somers Smith, who lived on the family property on Wissahickon Avenue at Westview Street, was in his later years a member of Epiphany Church. Mr. Edward Lowber Stokes was a member of the Vestry of Epiphany and was one of the signers of the Incorporation Papers of the Parish in 1902.

Mary F. Stuart, who was probably the wife of Edwin S. Stuart, mayor of Philadelphia 1891-1895 and owner of Leary's Book Store, owned considerable property around Carpenter Lane and McCallum Street extending up to Ellet Street. We believe the Stuart's summer home was the old stone house which adjoins 441 Carpenter Lane, the house in which Epiphany Church was started in 1898.

Around 1844 George W. Carpenter purchased a large area running from Germantown Avenue back to Wissahickon Avenue, and from Carpenter Lane to Phil-Ellena. A large, stately mansion was erected, which stood far back from Germantown Avenue. It was called Philellena and was named in honor of his beloved wife, Ellen. The "Phil" is a contraction of the Greek word for "love." The estate was broken up around the turn of the century and much of the land was acquired by Edward T. Stotesbury, who was the President of Drexel and Co. The land on which the Church stands was a gift from the Pelham Estate in 1901. Later additional land was purchased from the Drexel Estate (1910) on which to build the Parish House and Rectory.

At the time the Church was built in 1901, much of the area was open land. Lincoln Drive was on the map, but no houses were built. The Drive ended at Carpenter Lane. Most of the Drive above Carpenter Lane east and west was farms or woods. There were a few large stone houses on Carpenter Lane across from the Church and up to the west. Development had earlier taken place on the streets that ran from Germantown Avenue ... Pelham Road, Hortter Street, etc.

By 1911 a row of houses had been built on Sedgwick Street and Greene Street near what is called Carpenter's Woods. By this time developers were at work, and the open land was beginning to be built up. We notice on the old maps the names of McClatchy and Kellough, and they were beginning to build houses along Lincoln Drive and surrounding streets. On the east side we notice the name of Tourison.

In the early 1920's houses had been built below Carpenter Lane and a few houses above Carpenter Lane. Mt. Airy Avenue, Wellesley Road, and Durham Street have just been built up. In the late 1920's Weatham Street, Cresheim Road, Gorgas Lane, and Durand Street have houses on them now.

Around 1930 many Jewish families moved into the community. For a time the Pelham Club was used as a temporary place of worship. Eventually the Jewish Center was built. In the 1950's the community was beginning to become integrated. Epiphany Church joined with the Unitarian Church and the Germantown Jewish Center in forming what was called The Religious and Community Council of Pelham. The Council played a great part in preserving an orderly process of integration and in making West Mount Airy a model community. The Council was awarded a certificate of honor by the Council of Churches for this fine effort. Later the Religious Council was replaced by the West Mount Airy neighbors.
